Record Number Enrolls At Hinds

LOVELY LOU ANN CARTER of Raymond, a fancy, prancing Hinds Hi-Stepper, reigned as Queen of the East All-Stars in the Annual All-American prep game Friday night, August 30, in Memphis.

Faculty Committee, Local Clergymen Plan Hinds' Religious Emphasis Week

A committee of faculty members is currently working hand-in-hand with local clergymen in an effort to make the September 30-October 3 presentation of Religious Emphasis Week the best in the history of Hinds Junior College.

Guest speaker for the series of services will be the Reverend David McKeithen, who is currently in his fifth year as pastor of Meridian's Poplar Springs Methodist Church. Prior to his Lauderdale affiliation, he served five years as pastor of the Methodist church at Richton.

Tentative plans call for the evening services to be held Monday, September 30, through Thursday, October 3, in the auditorium at yet-to-be-determined time. Morning services will highlight the school days Tuesday through Thursday at 10:20.

A major role in the program will be played by the student-manned Committee of Fifty, whose individual members will be chosen at a later date. This committee will be responsible for the musical program, opening worship, discussions, and publicity.

Talent for the group will be drawn, in addition to a number of at-large members, from the following seven campus organizations: the YWCA; the Baptist Student Union; the Wesley Foundation; the Westminister Fellowship; the Newman Club; the Canterbury Club; and the Deciples of Christian Fellowship.

Students Receive Summer Diplomas At Hinds Junior

The graduating class of the 1958 summer school, smaller than usual, consisted of four college graduates and four high school graduates.

Those receiving college diplomas were: Carolyn Ferguson, Jackson; Heros Nicholas, Iran; Donald Alexander, Jackson; Mr. James Smith, Raymond. Those completing high school work were: Buck Ware, Raymond; Glover Warner, Vicksburg; Lamar Gates, Learned; and Betsy Wood, Hernando.

Thursday evening preceding graduation, Friday, the graduates were complimented with a reception in the Administration Building. Receiving guests with the graduates were Miss Mildren Herrin, registrar; Mr. G. M. McLendon, President; Dean and Mrs. M. F. Herring; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Denton and from the Board of Trustees, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Greaves and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Compere.

Registrants Arrive From Honduras, Peru, Puerto Rico, Other Points

Through most of the past week long lines of record numbers of registrants have filed through the college offices enrolling chiefly from Hinds County, but also from California, Florida, New York, Ohio, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Alabama, Louisiana, Tennessee, and Peru, Honduras, and Puerto Rico.

The exact number in each class and the total enrollment was not available Tuesday, although a record number has already registered.

Orientation tests occupied much of the time of freshmen early in the week. Sophomores who pre-registered in the summer reported for classes on Wednesday. Thursday the regular schedule of classes was observed by all students.

The session which opened on September 2 is the 40th for Hinds Junior College.

The college now offers classes in high school, college, and vocational-technical trades. In addition it offers college night classes, an accelerated business training program, and a program of engineering technical studies which combine mathematics and sciences along with a skilled trade.

For the convenience of its students, Hinds operates buses to and from population centers of the area it serves. There is no charge on this service, which allows students to live at home and attend college.

Hinds is accredited by the State Department of Education and the Southern Association of Colleges and of the American Association of Junior Colleges. Credits earned at Hinds may be transferred to other institutions throughout the nation.

Freshman Group To Vote Friday On Cheerleaders

Freshman cheerleaders will be elected by popular ballot Friday.

The polls, which will be in the Administration building, will open at 8:30 a.m. and close at 2:30 p.m. Only the members of the freshman class are eligible to vote.

Girls who are trying out are: Thelma Jean Huff, Puckett; Barbara Nell Pope, Forest; Janyce Wisneiski, Vicksburg; Nancy Pharr, Vicksburg; Mary Nell McGowen, Nesbitt; Sue Pope, McComb; Donna Musil, Vicksburg; and Peggy Sanford, Riley. Two cheerleaders and one alternate will be elected from this group.

PRESIDENT G. M. MCLENDON, who is starting his third decade as president of Hinds Junior College, welcomes you to Hinds. Hinds is opening its doors for the fortieth annual session this fall.

New Instructors Join Hinds Staff

To the faculty list for 1957-58 have been added several new members. Among these are Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Sprayberry of Madison, named to teach in the science and business administration departments.

Mr. Sprayberry holds a Master's degree in education, and also a Master's in natural sciences. Mrs. Sprayberry has a graduate degree in business administration. They spent the year, last year, in the graduate school of the University of Mississippi, prior to which they had taught at the Madison-Ridge-Land school. They are members of the Baptist church.

In the music department, Miss Marjorie McCord is beginning her teaching at Hinds Junior College. A resident of Vicksburg, Miss McCord won her B.M. degree from Murray State College, Murray, Kentucky, and her Master of Music degree from Louisiana State University, where she majored in piano, and minored in string bass.

Mr. J. L. Patterson of Sumrall takes a place on the social science teaching staff, and he will assist

Welcome To Hinds Junior College

This year Hinds Junior College rolls out its welcome mat to one of the largest enrollments in its history. We welcome you to our campus and sincerely hope that your stay with us will be a very profitable one.

To those of you who are with us for the first time, we issue a cordial welcome.

To the ones who are returning as second-semester freshmen or sophomores, we are glad to have you back.

To many of you, college life is a new experience. In order to get the most from it, one must apply himself and strive to achieve those qualities which will be of greatest use in his later life.

Again we say welcome to Hinds Junior College.

Campus Organizations Need You

A convention speaker once stated that you have not accomplished anything until you have done more than is required of you. This statement is true, not only of school work but also of extra curricular activities.

You are not helping yourself or your school when you do not do as well as you could in classroom subjects. You, also, are injuring some activity if you could help it, but stay out of it by saying, "I have too much to do."

The next time you start to criticize the performance or work of some campus organization, stop and think if you could have made it better.

Extra-curricular activities need you as much as you need them.

'Have Good Time, Learn To Learn'

"Have a good time, and learn to learn from learned men," says Charles Van Doren, winner of $129,000 on TV's "Twenty One."

In an address to the freshmen of 1957-58 as published in the September Intercollegian, Van Doren defines liberal arts as liberating arts, freeing the learner from ignorance, prejudice, and superstition. And he defines intelligence as the "power to achieve literacy, and to deal with abstract knowledge and symbols."

Greetings From President McLendon

Greetings! We are opening Hinds Junior College for the 1957-58 session. This year there is a 15% increase in our enrollment.

We welcome all of the students and faculty to our school, and we urge that each and everyone of you will participate wholeheartedly in wholesome activities throughout the year. The success of this session will definitely depend upon the combined efforts of the students and faculty.

Vesper Services For All Students

To Be Held Every Wednesday Night

The following invitation appears on bulletin boards of the campus.

YOU are invited to Vespers, an interdenominational meeting held each Wednesday evening at 6:15 in the college auditorium. The purpose of this period of worship in song, in word, and in prayer is to make God more real in your individual life and on our campus.

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all ye lands!

We are proud of the marked improvements in our buildings, and particularly of the new science building. This year also we have a new course in reading to offer the students.

I think this year will be a good one, so let's all work to make it the best that Hinds has ever known.

Sincerely,
G. M. McLendon
President

Serve the Lord with gladness!
Come into his presence with singing!

Psalms 100:1-2

At the first Vesper meeting last week a large number of students were present. Regina Godley presided at the service. Bobby Sheffield read the worship Psalm. A solo by Myrna Loy Stuart, and piano meditation music by Dorothy Ray Brock completed the program.

BANK OF KNOWLEDGE

Hinds Junior College Library Needs Students To Open Security Account

What kind of security are you looking for at Hinds Junior College?

It doesn't take a lot of money to get one kind of security and that's —knowledge.

And the Hinds Junior College library is the ideal place to get it.

All of us have easy access to the services of a bank that is guaranteed not to fail us when we need a checking account and a substantial reserve capital.

This guarantee in itself should be enough to make all students eager to invest in the Bank. The dividends which will accrue from an account there are protections for life against boredom and mental and moral bankruptcy.

Our investments in knowledge will be expendable in natural wants, and in joy and happiness.

If all of us at Hinds are not present depositors in the Bank, we should open an account without delay. There are no service charges at all.

Do you ask what and where is this bank? It is our Library. It deals not in currency as such, but it deals instead in Knowledge—a bankable commodity that never depreciates in value. And the interesting thing about our knowledge account is that it compounds the interest rate of our minds and attitudes without pinching our purses of shrinking up our souls in the process.

Are you interested? If you are, start going to our Library today. Open an account. You will feel at home, for you will see many of our fellow students busily at work there, poring over great account books.

They are studying the balance sheets of the great minds of all the ages. They see the marvelous sums of knowledge recorded there — sums they hope to make their own. They are in effect making out their deposits slips for their own accounts against the day when they will need the "know-how", peace of mind, happiness, and strength to endure adversity.

Your Library can tell you all about such things. Begin the practice of thrift now. Open an account in the Library—our Bank of Knowledge.

Footballers Show Fighting Spirit

On the brink of defeat and with the chips down, the 1957 edition of the Hinds Junior College Eagles put on a dynamic final half offensive show in the rain to come-from-behind and win last Saturday night.

Though handicapped by only 21 gridders in uniform, the fighting Eagles put on an outstanding display of determination and a real crave to win in the important 35-32 victory.

The entire squad, Coaches Joe Renfroe, Frank Young and Durwood Graham are to be commended for their many efforts.

Greathouse Heads Lendon Players

Dee Greathouse, Fayette sophomore, was elected president of the Lendon Players at the organization's first meeting last Friday morning.

Other officers elected were Virginia Ronkin, Jackson, vice president; Carolun Barton, Macon, secretary-treasurer; and Charles Wall, Utica, publicity director.

Mr. Fred L. Brooks, head of the speech department, was well pleased with the large group in attendance.

All four of the newly elected officers were active in the Lendon Players last year and Barton and Wall are speech majors.

The group will meet on the first third and fifth Thursdays of each six weeks.

This issue of the Hindsonian was put out by the following students: Florence Hearn, Vicksburg; Regina Godley, Vicksburg; Sharrott McClurg, Vicksburg; Bobby Sheffield, Raymond; William C. Taylor, III, Terry; Maxine Jones, Jackson; Curtis Nix, Jackson; Linda Launius, Miami, Florida; Wayne Trotter, Byram; Kay Williamson, Clinton; Mary Jo Adecock, Vicksburg; Buddy Calhoun, Forest Hill; Royce Baker, Brandon; Bill Hensley, Benoit; Rebecca Murphy, Brandon; Richie Hill, Jackson; Sara Webb, Clinton; Terry Blackman, Vicksburg; and Billy Swilley, Brandon.

HINDS JUNIOR SAYS:

You've got to make a touchdown before you have a kick coming."

Churches Welcome College Students With 4 Parties

Thursday night, September 5, the four Raymond churches gave parties welcoming old and new students.

The Baptist church entertained by entering students into the "School of Hard Knocks." Refreshments of ice cream and cake followed the "initiation."

The Methodist group, in four divisions — Noah's Ark, David's Sling Shot, Delilah's Scissors, and Adam's Apple — played competitive games on the church lawn. Cake and punch served in the recreation room completed the evening's activities.

Presbyterians met in the church parlors and engaged in a series of games directed by Mrs. C. C. Jones. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served the students by the women of the church.

The Catholic students and Mr. Warren Fortenberry of the faculty were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ligon Shearer for the evening.

After a period of dancing and refreshments the group engaged in a discussion of forming a Newman club on the campus.

Transportation to and from the Shearer home was furnished by Don Shearer and Mr. Fortenberry.

Potential Writers Hold First Meet With Large Group

Potential writers for the Hindsonian, Hinds' weekly publication, held their first meeting Friday morning at activity period with a large group of freshmen and returning staff members present.

The meeting was held in the publicity office, and it was presided over by Irl Dean Rhodes, former editor of the Hindsonian.

Those reporting to the meeting were William C. Taylor, III, Terry; Maxine Jones, Jackson; Curtis Nix, Jackson; Linda Launius, Miami, Florida; Wayne Trotter, Byram; Kay Williamson, Clinton; Mary Jo Adecock, Vicksburg; Buddy Calhoun, Forest Hill; Royce Baker, Brandon; Bill Hensley, Benoit; Bob Sheffield, Raymond; Florence Gay Hearn, Redwood; Regina Godley, Vicksburg; Sharrott McClurg, Vicksburg; Rebecca Murphy, Brandon; Michie Hill, Jackson; Sara Webb, Clinton; and Terry Blackman Vicksburg.

Miss Gertrude Davis, faculty adviser, of the Hindsonian, welcomed the students to participate in the newspaper work.

Wesley Group Assists With Local Registration

The Wesley Foundation members served the line of registering freshmen ice-cold lemonade and cookies throughout registration.

They observed the first weekly meeting of the year with a weiner roast at Raymond Lake, honoring new members.

MISS GERTRUDE DAVIS, dean of women at Hinds Junior College, has returned to her post at Hinds after a six weeks tour of European countries. During the six weeks Miss Davis visited eight European countries, spending much of her time in England in the Shakespeare and Lake sections. Her experiences there, she feels, will be of particular value to her.

Band, Hi-Steppers To Perform For Mississippi Show

There's gonna be a "whole lotta steppin' going on" September 17 and 18 at the Mississippi State Horse Show in Jackson.

This year the horse show features as a special attraction the footwork of the Hinds Hi-Steppers, instructed by Mrs. Alon Bee. The Eagle Band, directed by Mr. Al Rowan will blend its musical accomplishments with the dancing finesse of the Hi-Steppers.

With horses prancing, the band playing, and the Hi-Steppers dancing, the Mississippi State Horse Show at the Fairgrounds promises to be entertainment for everyone.

EXCHANGE STUDENT FROM BELGIUM HINDS CAMPUS

An exchange student from Belgium in the States for the first time is Thierry (He prefers being called Terry) D'Hoop, who is visiting the Hinds campus this week.

Mr. D'Hoop, graduate in mechanical engineering at the Ecole Technique Supérieure de Seraing, Belgium, is sponsored by the International Research Foundation for nine weeks as a good will ambassador to American students.

In Mississippi he is a guest of the Jackson Civitan Club; on the campus he is a guest in the home of Mr. James Smith, Civitan.

Though only 20 years old, Mr. D'Hoop speaks several languages with ease. He plans to take a degree next year in electronics.

Hinds Issues Booklets On Courses, Activities

Three recent publications issued from the campus have set forth information and pictures of courses and activities at Hinds Junior College.

One entitled, "Music at Hinds Junior College" was prepared by Miss Peggy Pennell, instructor of organ, in cooperation with the registrar's office, and the publicity department. A six-page booklet in blue, white, and black, this publication carries pictures of the college, choir, band, concert bus group, and students at piano, organ, record library, voice studio, and class instruction in the Music Hall; and it gives detailed information of the music department.

A picture bulletin from the engineering technical division of the college sets forth 20 pictures chiefly of training opportunities in the engineering technical school on the campus, and it answers 10 vital questions concerning training in the industrial education field.

Prof. Walter Gibbes, vocational co-ordinator, assisted by Mr. Harold Turnage, prepared this publication.

Closely related to campus life is the most recent publication, "Information and Policies for Dormitory Men" arranged by Mr. C. C. Magers, dean of men, and Mr. W. C. Oakes, recreational director.

This booklet of six pages gives information on room and property security, study hours, library opportunities, room and dormitory order, academic regulations, citizenship and social conduct, and a number of other topics designed to make dormitory and campus life comfortable, convenient, and character-building.

HJC Women Plan Year's Activities

Regina Godley, president of the campus YWCA, began the new work of the organization with a meeting of the college girls yesterday at 3 p.m., in the college auditorium.

Following the worship program, announcements were made concerning the weekly meetings, and the over-all program for the year.

Officers of the YWCA are Florence Gaye Hearn, treasurer; Virginia Ronkin, secretary, and Regina Godley, president.

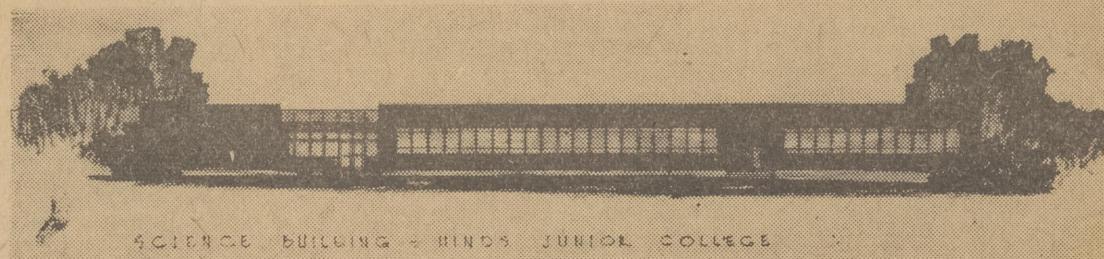

Miss Gertrude Davis, dean of women, is faculty sponsor of the YWCA.

At the meeting yesterday the time of meeting was set at 3:30 Tuesdays.

BULLETIN

All students interested in International Relations Club are invited to report to Room 9, Academic Building, Wednesday night, September 18, at 7:15.

This organization builds programs around current topics concerning world affairs.

SCIENCE BUILDING - HINDS JUNIOR COLLEGE

ALMOST COMPLETED—This is the architect's picture of the new Hinds Junior College science building. The new one story building, modern in every respect, is slated for completion within the next month. Actual structure of the building is already completed, although all of the equipment has not been installed. The new science building marks the beginning of a major two-stage building program at Hinds Junior College.

HINDS' BONE-CRUSHING FORWARD WALL — Ace Hinds Junior College linemen are posed and ready for the Itawamba Indians Saturday night. The four standout gridders played an important part in Hinds' 35-32 victory over the Pearl River Wildcats Saturday night. The four returning lettermen are, left to right, Guard Jimmy Stubbs; Tackle Elmer Stringer, Guard Bennie Hawkins; and End Homer Boyd.

Hinds Invades Itawamba Saturday

NEW EAGLE TUTOR

Former Star Captain Joins Hinds Coaching Staff As Line Assistant

Durwood Graham, former LSU star linesman, was named assistant line coach at Hinds Junior College last week according to Joe A. Renfroe, head football coach and athletic director.

Graham, Vicksburg native, was captain of the Hinds team when the Eagles shocked the nation with the National Junior Rose Bowl victory in Pasadena, Calif. That same year the Eagles were undefeated in 10 games.

Concerning the addition to the staff, Renfroe said, "We are proud to have Durwood as third coach on our staff. We think he is doing a ncellent job and if he continues he is going to make an outstanding coach."

Frank Young, head line coach, also welcomes Graham to the staff.

Athletic Members Hold First Meet

The Women's Athletic Association held its first meeting with the freshmen girls last Monday morning in the Music Auditorium.

The officers' council welcomes the 70 members that have already joined and expects more members in a few days. Those who would like to join should contact Iris McKay, Ann Boyd, or Regina Godley.

This organization marks its second year on Hinds Junior College campus. Its purpose is to set up a policy for organized intra-college girls' athletics on the campus. The association will operate on the points system, students must take part in the athletic activities on the campus.

Officers of the association council are Iris McKay, president; Regina Godley, vice-president; Ann Boyd, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Gookin is ex-officio member. Three freshmen and three sophomores will be elected to the council in October.

DURWOOD GRAHAM

Graham teamed with Renfroe and Young when the Eagles invaded the Pearl River Wildcats Saturday night for his coaching debut.

Born in Vicksburg, Graham was a standout on the Vicksburg Greenie team for five years. He lettered five years at fullback for the Greenies.

The former Eagle sensation was named to the All-Big Eight, All-State, and All-Southern All-Star teams his senior year in high school. Besides football, Graham was a monogram winner in basketball for three years at Vicksburg.

Following his high school football career, Graham entered Hinds Junior College and battled the gridiron wars for the Eagles for three years.

In order to utilize Graham's power and strength, he was shifted to line duties upon entering the Eagle camp. He was on the second team All-Star line-up for two years at guard position.

And his final year at Hinds he was converted to center slot and was one of the key players Hinds' undefeated and untied blue-ribbon season and the Junior Rose Bowl title.

Eagles Trim Pearl River In Thrilling Fashion On Water Soaked Gridiron

The fighting Eagles of Hinds Junior College will invade Fulton Saturday night to settle a squabble with the Itawamba Indians.

It will be the second game of the season for the Eagles.

Hinds Eagles came from behind to score three important touchdowns in the last half to defeat the Pearl River Wildcats 35-32 Saturday night.

After taking the opening kickoff, five minutes later Levi Barber, on fourth down one situation, Hinds bolted across the coveted white line to put the Eagles ahead. Barber also booted the point.

Moments later the 'Cats roared back in the game with a six-pointer by Fullback Sammy Broyles. Bennie Hawkins, Eagles' hard charging guard, blocked the extra point.

Minutes later the 'Cats' Broyles scored again to take the lead 13-7.

In the second period, after marching to the Wildcat 12, a Hal Battle to Homer Boyd pass tied the score. Barber again converted to put Hinds ahead 14-13.

The Wildcats made the score 19-14 with their third TD as the initial half ended.

The 'Cats immediately took the second half kickoff and didn't let go until they had stretched their lead to 26-14 with Broyles in the saddle.

Hinds' never-say-die Eagles came to life just as a sprinkle of rain and a bolt of lightning sent fans scurrying. After the Eagles had made the score 26-21 via the C. J. Alexander route, the bottom fell out.

For the next 20 minutes of play the Eagles, led by the hard-running of Alexander, Barber, and Raymond Abruzzese; the signal-calling of Melvin Champagne and Battle; and a stalwart forward wall, spelled nothing less than destruction to the fighting nest of Wildkittens.

Barber scored his second tally, and Champagne converted to send Hinds ahead 28-26. A strong Eagle defense forced the 'Cats to punt.

Alexander set up the Eagles' final touchdown on a 40-yard scamper. This time Abruzzese did the honors on a sweep from the 11. Champagne kicked his third extra point to put Hinds ahead 35-26.

With four minutes left Frank Holiday pushed across the final Wildcat tally. The Eagles then proceeded to run out the clock.

Alexander, Abruzzese and Barber were "hosses" with the pigskin, while Glynn Russell, Elmer Stringer, Hawkins and Boyd led the Eagle line.

Hinds High Eagles Work For Initial Gridiron Contest

The 1957 version of the Hinds High Baby Eagles started practice Monday, September 2, with 15 boys reporting for practice.

With only seven men returning from last year's squad, Coach Boteler is stressing fundamentals.

The men who are expected to carry the load are: Bill Ferguson, Billy Forney, Bill Grogan, Jimmy Jackson, Dickie Osborn, Don Sheffield and Dalton Thames. The new men are: Charles Phillips, Danny Aldridge, Bill Birdsong, David Mason, Dan Hodge, Charles Banes, Robert Moody and Jerry Bridges.

BULLETIN

Mrs. Ann Gookin calls attention of all girls to the beginning of the tennis tournament next week.

All who can play tennis are eligible to enter the tournament.

Few Members Of Phi Theta Kappa Return To Hinds

Miss Mildred Herrin, faculty sponsor of the Gamma Lambda Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, reports a few returning members of this campus group.

Phi Theta Kappa is the national honor society for junior colleges. Its purpose is to promote scholarship, to develop character, and to cultivate fellowship among students of America.

Gamma Lambda Chapter had eleven representatives at the national convention in Oklahoma last spring. The Hinds Junior College Chapter was awarded the travel trophy — given on a pointage basis which included distance traveled, and percentage of chapter and officers attending the national convention.

The meeting of the organization is held Mondays at the 2A period. Returning members who will conduct services for the fall initiation in the near future are Selma Earnest, Slate Springs; Ben Morgan, Braxton; and Carol Benton, Jackson.

MODERN LOOK

Main Dormitory Gets New Heating System During Summer Vacation

The 73 girls and seven faculty women who reside in Main Dormitory may well boast of the prettiest dormitory on the campus as soon as the floor finishers complete their job next week—certainly it may be the most comfortable.

Since the summer term closed, a completely new and modern heating system has been installed, a circulating hot water system; a paint job throughout the building completed, with rooms in pastel

BRANDON GIRL HEADS HINDS JUNIOR CHOIR

Jimmie Sheppard, Brandon, was elected president of the Hinds Junior College choir last Friday.

Other officers are the following: Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Bruce, vice-president; Virginia Ronkin, Jackson, secretary-treasurer; Jo Anne Rhodes, Brandon, reporter; and Sharrott McClurg, Vicksburg, librarian.

In charge of the robes for the group are the following: Edgar Bates, Jean Searcy, Myrna Loy Stuart, Joe Pace, Jimmy Holder, and Bob Wallace.

This group, under the direction of Prof. J. L. Reeves, will face a full program of activities in the year ahead, beginning their performances for the season with appearances on programs during the campus Religious Emphasis Week, September 30-October 3.

NOONDAY WORSHIP

All students are invited to come to noonday worship services each day at 1:30 P.M. in the Music Building Auditorium. These services are interdenominational and last for only 15 minutes.

Rev. David H. McKeithen, pastor of Poplar Springs Methodist Church, Meridian, will be the speaker at the Campus Religious Emphasis services, September 30-October 3. He has had wide experience as a leader in youth assemblies and camps, in Mississippi, Alabama, and on a number of college campuses.

College Registrar Tells Hinds' Total Enrollment

Approaching the 1000 mark, the 1957-58 enrollment numbers are still climbing, according to Miss Mildred Herrin, college registrar.

Yesterday's records showed a total of 975.

A check of the registration cards showed the following distribution of college enrollees as recorded by Mississippi counties, states, and countries: Adams County, 6; Amite, 1; Attala, 1; Bolivar, 2; Calhoun, 5; Claiborne, 7; Coahoma, 1; Copiah, 2; Covington, 4; DeSoto, 1; Forrest, 1; Harrison, 1; Hinds, 394; Humphreys, 3; Jackson, 1; and Jasper, 1.

Jefferson, 6; Jefferson Davis, 1; Lawrence, 4; Leake, 3; Lee, 1; Leflore, 1; Lincoln, 2; Madison, 15; Marion, 1; Marshall, 1; Monroe, 1; Montgomery, 1; Neshoba, 3; Noxubee, 1; Pike, 5; Rankin, 64; Scott,

Breakfast Opens Committee Work

Student participation in Hind's upcoming Religious Emphasis Week became a reality last Thursday with the announcement of appointees to the second annual edition of the Committee of Fifty.

In addition to its aid in directing and planning the September 30-October 3 event, the committee will be directly responsible for the musical program, opening worship, entertainment of guest speaker, David McKeithen, discussions, and publicity.

A 6:30 breakfast Tuesday morning served as the committee's first meeting with the following groups in attendance:

Methodist — Catherine Owen, Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Roxie Easley, Jean Searcy, Millard Raymond, Rebecca Murphy, Florence Hearn, Betty Jean Smith, and Marilyn Phillips.

Baptist — Bobby Sheffield, Selma Earnest, Sharrott McClurg, Elizabeth Herring, Jo Ann Carpenter, Jean Gill, Myrtle Moore, Jimmie Sheppard, Billy Dawson, K. L. Smith, Alma Leee Grantham, and Lanelle McDonald.

Presbyterian — Charles Cain, Lillie Meadows, Arthur Andrew, Roy Mattoch, Shirley Dubois, Josephine Roby, Bill Mitchell, and Bill Penett.

Catholic — Sherry Carson, Grace Loper, Andrew Sztraky, Melinda Ambrose, Thomas N. Herrod, and L. T. Sigma.

15; Sharkey, 3; Simpson, 13; Smith, 2; Tallahatchie, 3; Warren, 65; Washington, 2; Webster, 1; Yazoo, 20.

Special students are listed from Hinds, 8; from Rankin, 1.

College students recorded by states are as follows: from Alabama, 3; Arkansas, 1; Florida, 5; Georgia, 4; Illinois, 1; Louisiana, 8; Mississippi, 563; Missouri, 1; New York, 3; Ohio, 1; Pennsylvania, 1; Tennessee, 3; Texas, 2.

From other countries are 1, Honduras; 1, Peru; and 2, Puerto Rico.

In the high school division, 1, Venezuela; 1, Florida; and 4, Louisiana. From Mississippi counties high school seniors are registered as follows: from Hinds, 55; Humphreys, 1; Jones, 1; Leake, 1; Oktibbeha, 1; and from Warren, 1.

Westside Ladies To Stage Special Open House Party

Westside Dormitory, in a special get-acquainted gesture, will hold "Open House" Thursday evening of this week from 6:15-7:15 for all freshmen and faculty members.

Supervising general arrangements will be Miss Lurline Stewart, head of the Department of Mathematics.

Miss Stewart will be assisted by residents of Westside, some of whom will be in charge of the music program, the guest register, and the refreshments.

Jackson Mayor Tells Good Points

Mayor Allen Thompson of Jackson speaking to members of the Mississippi Junior Chamber of Commerce some time ago used the topic, "If I Were Young."

In developing his address Mayor Thompson listed seven desirable characteristics for young men. These, he said he would surely want to cultivate if he were twenty years younger. They are: a spirit of adventure, an ambition for perfection, the willingness to work long and hard, the ability to think for oneself, to make people happy, to be courageous, and to be of service to all people.

We publish these characteristics in the hope that they might challenge serious-minded freshmen on our campus as they begin their college careers.

Student Body Salutes Instructors

The students of Hinds Junior College have the opportunity of being taught by one of the finest faculties in the South.

Seldom does any student realize what a teacher's job consists of, but during practically every waking hour, a teacher is almost constantly working on something to help his students.

Recently, faculty members were responsible for having attractive copper signs designating campus buildings erected on all the dormitories.

This is only one of the many deeds which teachers perform for a student's benefit, saving many steps and adding to the prestige of the campus.

Teachers, for all your services, the student body of Hinds salutes you!

Queue Up, Take Your Place In Line

Respect those lines, the cafeteria lines! Queue up and take your place, not somebody else's.

It is important not only to avoid breaking line, but to avoid even the appearance of breaking. So wait your turn before passing ahead of others even though you may want to deliver a message or just have a little visit with someone standing in line. Remember, the eyes of hungry students are upon you!

And never, never save a place in line for your roomie or your best friend.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Alert and active students on the Hinds campus have had, in the past two weeks, ample activities. There are many things that make up a well-rounded, wholesome college. The first and most important of these is a well-rounded, wholesome student.

The proper academic and social education are two main requirements of any college and here at Hinds both of these needs are fulfilled.

We should be proud to be able to point with pride to the many facilities offered at Hinds for the enjoyment and education of the students.

THE HINDSONIAN

By FLORENCE HEARN

"If red hair is worth gold, she's rich."

In the Hindsonian's place of

honor this week is a small, red haired, blue-green-eyed girl from slate Springs, Miss.

Being 5'5" tall, and weighing only 126 pounds, does not hinder Selma's love for sports. Tennis, basketball, volleyball, and softball are her favorite activities.

'One Of The Best Groups I Ever Had'

By MAXINE JONES

The Hinds Junior College Hi-Steppers started off the 1957-58 season by performing at the Mississippi High School All-Star football game on August 2.

Mrs. Alon Bee, director of the group, says, "It's one of the best groups I have ever had."

The girls representing the famous Hi-Steppers are Sarah Selman, Jackson; Virginia Owen, Edwards; Beverly Brown, Jackson; Sara Webb, Clinton; Marie Allen, Mendenhall; Nancy Carter, Raymond; Robbie Brannon, Edwards; Hazel Bayens, Yazoo City; Joan Byrne, Clinton; Norma Jean Carter, Raymond; Betty Joe Clements, Raymond; Doris Toles, Jackson; and Barbara Ann Allen, Jackson.

Lou Ann Carter, Raymond; Zula Harris, Vicksburg; Fayrene Andrews, Raymond; Jo Anne Adcock, Forest Hill; Billye Jo Pettis, Jackson; Sara Margaret Smith, Raymond; Sue Pittman, Belzoni; Kathryn May, Magee; Betty Denton, Raymond; Alice Herron, Edwards; Betty Thornton, Edwards; Flora May, Pearl; and Pat McIntyre, Jackson. Alternates are Margaret Hill,

BULLETIN

Sponsored by the Wesley Foundation, the film, "Understanding God and Man," will be presented at 6:15 p.m., September 23, in the Music Auditorium.

Everyone is invited to see the showing of this film.

When asked her favorite food, Selma replied, "Shrimp and french fries."

Selma's pastime is spent watching sports activities, listening to popular and classical music, and keeping scrapbooks.

After leaving Hinds, she plans to enter Mississippi College. Although her future plans are indefinite, she will probably teach mathematics.

In the two years Selma has spent at Hinds, she has been in many organizations. She was social chairman of BSU last year and also a member of Women's Athletic Association, and Phi Theta Kappa. This year she is secretary of PTK and a member of the WAA.

When asked her remarks about Hinds she replied, "I think it is great. As for a junior college I don't think it can be beat. I am thoroughly enjoying my stay here."

Her remark about boys was, "I like them."

Since Selma is a student worker in the registrar's office, most other students have met her and will soon know her well.

We salute you, Selma Ernest, as Sophomore of the Week. With God's help we are sure you will become a success in all your undertakings.

Jackson; and Shirley Catledge, Port Gibson.

Lou Ann Carter, lovely Hinds Hi-Stepper, was chosen Queen of the East Stars at Memphis on August 30.

The prancing Hi-Steppers will be one of the great features at the Mississippi Horse Show, September 18-19.

"We have more requests to perform now than we can possibly fill," says Mrs. Bee.

Hinds Junior Says:

"Fifteen eligible lady instructors and staff members on the campus had better get busy in order to insure a name change to Brooks, Fortenberry, Canon, Patterson and Sanford."

Northern Student Declares Arkansas Governor Faubus Shrewd Politician

By BUCK O'CONNOR

During the past few days, the attention of a nation has been fixed on Governor Orval E. Faubus and the integration problem in Little Rock, Arkansas.

In the interest of public service, a survey was conducted among various students of Hinds Junior College to determine the over-all picture of the situation as seen from the eyes of this school.

The following are statements given in answer to the question, "What do you think of Gov. Faubus and his action in maintaining segregation?"

An instructor — "I very definitely approve of it. Now that one man has taken a stand, others will follow course."

A political science student — "Gov. Faubus is merely exercising one of the states' most powerful rights by using National Guard troops to prevent integration."

A veteran — "Now the rest of the country will know the 'real South' means business."

A male dormitory student — "The old boy got himself into it, now let's see him get himself out."

A female dormitory student — "I'm not in full agreement with the governor's methods."

A day student — "It looks like there is going to be trouble."

A Northerner — "Another shrewd Southern politician."

A foreigner — "Problems of this type face many countries. If a man believes in something, it is only right that he fight for it."

A sophomore — "I believe something very definite has been gained."

A freshman — "Don't ask me buddy, I'm looking for my classroom."

WEEKLY PUBLICATION

Students Like First Paper Edition

By BOBBY SHEFFIELD

As the first edition of the Hindsonian rolled off the press the big question in the minds of the staff was, "Was the Hindsonian covering the campus activities?"

To ease their minds and to see how well it was being accepted, a poll was taken of a number of students. The question asked was, "How do you like the Hindsonian?"

Here are some of the answers: Barbara Speights, "I like it fine." Jo Anne Adcock, "I think it is a pretty good paper."

Myrna Loy Stuart, "It needs more about the different departments and more student pictures."

Marine Officer To Visit Campus

Representatives from the Marine Corps Officer Procurement Office in New Orleans, La., will visit the Hinds Junior College campus tomorrow and Friday of this week.

During this visit they will be available to furnish interested students information about the different programs leading to a commission in the United States Marine Corps Reserve. Four programs are currently available: Platoon Leaders Class for male freshmen, sophomores, and juniors.

Dance Instructor Reveals Tickets

Mrs. Alon Bee, who is sponsoring the campus ticket sales for the Jackson Community Concert Association, announces that tickets will be available here from September 30 to October 5.

The student tickets will sell for $5.50. First on the program for the coming year is "The Ballet." All students and faculty members interested in concert tickets should get in touch with Mrs. Bee.

Hinds Methodist Students Attend Summer Meeting

Three Hinds Junior College students attended the Southeastern Regional Leadership Training Conference at Lake Junalaska this past summer.

Roxie Easley, Catherine Owen and Jimmie Ruth Hawkins along with 41 other Mississippi Methodist students attended the conference in North Carolina for the week of June 5.

The week's program was divided into morning meditation, Bible studies, workshops, worship, Christian fellowship and recreation.

Each student was grouped according to his office in the Wesley Foundation.

Jimmie Ruth Hawkins attended the recreational workshop, Roxie Easley, the program planning meetings, and Catherine Owen, workshop for new presidents.

Limit Your Telephone Calls In College Dormitories; Dean Majors Asks Students

"Please limit your conversations," was the plea of Mr. C. C. Majors, dean of men, this week as Hinds students jammed telephone circuits between boys' and girls' dormitories.

"Remember that with so many using the telephone, it may be difficult for everyone to find time if you over-use it," Mr. Majors pointed out. He suggested that students also answer the phone when they are near it.

Campus Poll Reveals Freshman Impressions

High school days are gone forever and suddenly college looms as a big step for many students.

Passing through the portals of Hinds Junior College are all types of students from the green freshman to the lordly high school hero.

It's meeting new people and an entirely new life for most of the over 400 frosh members.

A survey of many freshman revealed their first impressions of Hinds.

Billy Ivy—"I think Hinds is the best, and it is very reasonable."

Joel Sturdivant—"The teachers and students are friendly and willing to help you at any time."

George Schilling—"I like the friendly campus."

Paul Alderman—"The people are very kind and helpful."

Billy Swilley—"The grounds around the campus are kept very impressive."

Frank Easterwood—"It's a good place to have fun and work."

Geraldine Clower—"I was scared to death at first."

Eugene Kynard—"I thought I had made a mistake going to college."

Jimmie Chapman—"Hinds is a hard row to hoe."

Kay Williamson—"Two big tears slid down my cheeks when mother drove away from Main."

Stephen Bounds—"A home away from home; where learning is our main objective."

Vicksburg Student Heads Home Ec

The Lamplighters' Club held its first meeting Monday morning in the Home Economics Department to elect officers for the 1957-58 session.

Officers are as follows: Sharrott McClurg, Vicksburg, president; Sherry Carson, Belzoni, vice-president; Thelma Huff, Pelahatchie, 2nd vice-president; Lillie Lynch, Jackson, secretary; Velma Hand, Raymond, treasurer; Barbara Clifford, Morton, publicity chairman; Sylvia Smith, Jackson, recreation and arrangements chairman; and Betty Milling, Morton, assistant chairman.

Meetings are to be held twice a month, including one supper meeting.

Freshman Class Elects Peggy Sanderford, Mary Nell McGowen Leaders

Freshman students elected two cheerleaders and two alternates by secret ballot last Friday.

Elected as cheerleaders were Peggy Sanderford, Riley; Mary Nell McGowen, Nesbitt; as alternates Donna Musil, Vicksburg; and Jayne Wesneswski, Vicksburg. They were elected to these positions over Nancy Pharr, Vicksburg; and Sue Pope, McComb. The sophomore cheerleaders are Ann Boyd, head cheerleader; Peggy Fugate, and Margarita Morris.

Francis Herring—"One of dis-may, with all the tests being thrown at us."

Robert E. Hobbs—"My first impression was that it was a place where one doesn't waste any time."

Raymond Abbruzzese—"I liked Hinds from the start. You just can't beat these friendly students."

Joanne Carpenter—"I have just been thrilled with the religious emphasis that I have found on this campus."

Don Greenlee—"I wanted to leave as soon as possible."

Tommy Tackett—"After the first two days of taking tests, I was 'All Shook Up'."

Donald Oakes—"I was very much impressed with the friendly people here."

Bill Hensley—"Like Mississippi State, except on a smaller scale, and with a much larger share of beautiful girls—which never hurts the scenery of a college campus!"

Wayne Boyd—"A mass of scared freshmen and some mean sophomores."

Russell Gray—"Wow, look at the girls!"

Billy Joe Henry—"The faculty and students of Hinds Junior College are the friendliest people I have met in all my travels through the U. S. and the Orient."

Charles Cook—"My first impression of College was registration. It reminded me of my time in service—hurry up and wait."

Robert S. Magee—"The concern of counsellors and the friendly spirit of faculty and students."

Marvin Crocker—"My first impression of Hinds was that the school was hard. I got this impression when Mr. Gibbes spoke to us the first day."

Beverly Brown—"That first day was the happiest day of my life. Even with all the hard studies and activities, I am still very much impressed."

Melvin Buckley—"When I first saw Hinds I felt that I would like to be a part of it."

Buddy Roby—"One of amazement of people hurrying in all directions; guess they were just as lost as I was!"

College Reception Honors New Staff

One of the events of the Faculty Workshop held on the campus within the week preceding the opening of school was the reception honoring new teachers.

The college Faculty Club, with Mrs. J. R. Harris, president, directing, entertained in the living room and dining area of the Home Economics Building.

The receiving line, headed by President McLendon, included the new teachers, and the officers of the Faculty Club.

Vice-President of the organization is Mrs. T. T. Beemon, and secretary is Miss Christine Berry.

Assisting at punch bowl and doorways were other faculty members.

Lady Tennis Meet Opens Next Week

The Women's Athletic Association announces its first tennis tournament which began Monday.

Three returning members of the 1957 tennis team will be star singles players, Mary Katherine Gates, who will be favored in this tournament, Regina Godley, and Peggy Fugate. Possible dark horses are Nancy Pharr and Phyllis Dungan.

Florence Hearn vs. Anna Summers; Sharrott McClurg vs. Louise Earnhart; Virginia Ronkin vs. Jean Gill; Roxie Easley vs. Nancy Pharr; and Phyllis Dungan vs Selma Earnest. Girls are to have played their first match by Thursday.

There will be a tournament for the beginners next week.

Hinds High Eagles Meet Wolfe Pack Tomorrow Night

Coach Louis Boteler's Hinds High Eagles will meet their first acid-test of the season Thursday night when the Puckett Wolves invade for competition.

The Wolves topped the Raymond Rangers 14-0 last week, while the Eagles exploded to roll up a 41-0 score over the Terry Yellowjackets.

It was the campaign opener for the Eagles and it marked the second straight loss for the Terry aggregation.

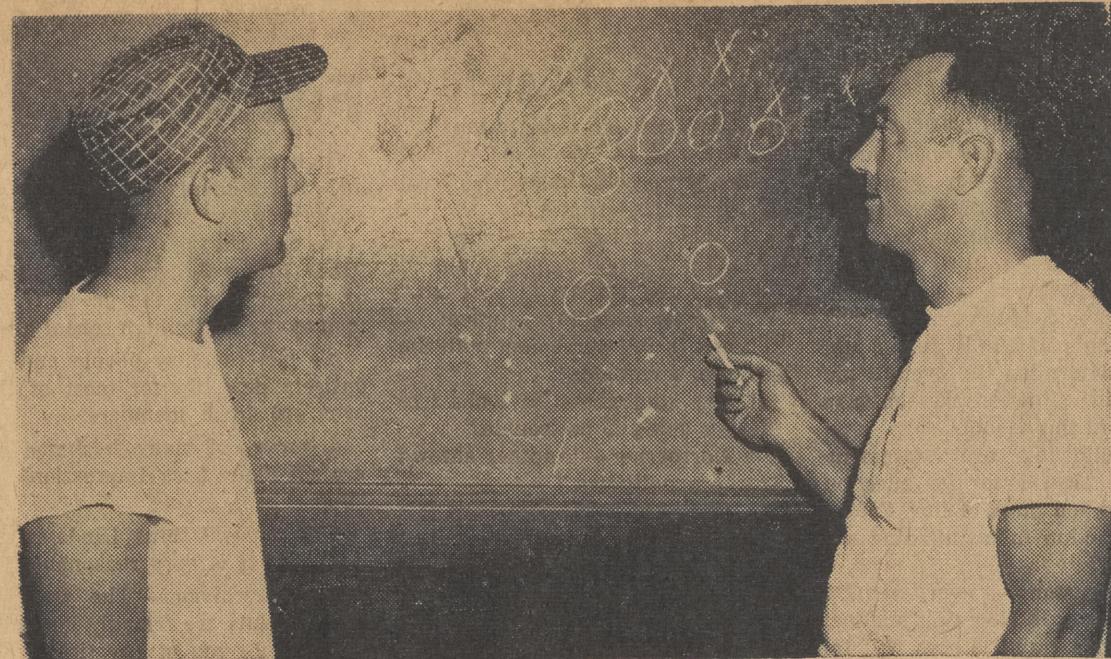

Hinds High chalked up 15 points in the first period, 13 in the second and 13 in the third stanza.

Halfback Dalton Thamess scored the first six-pointer before Charlie Banes accounted for a safety.

Hinds' crew led 15-0 after a Dickie Osborne to Bill Birdsong pass was good for a score. Fullback Bill Ferguson accounted for the extra point.

Osborn and Thamess picked a tally each before the half and Ferguson managed to make one point after-touchdown.

Ferguson and Thamess racked up tallies in the third period and Donnie Sheffield, tackle playing fullback marked up the final Hinds score in the same period.

the Eagles' drills. The Hinds gridders have been hampered by rain this week, although the squad will be ready for Saturday night's grid special.

Eagles Host Perk Bulldogs Saturday For Initial Home Encounter Of Season

Hinds Junior College's unbeaten Eagles will host the Perkinston Bulldogs for their first home game of the season Saturday night.

A capacity crowd is expected to see the two highly-rated teams lock horns.

The Eagles ran roughshod over the Itawamba Indians 33-0 at Fulton last week-end for their second victory.

Upon receiving the opening kickoff, the Indians punted after three plays, but an Eagle fumble gave Itawamba possession again. A tough Eagle forward wall held strongly under Indian bombardment and Hinds took over.

After the Eagles had moved to midfield, Melvin Champagne tossed to Levi Barber who scampered down the sidelines and into the end zone with end Wendell Campbell throwing a beautiful key block at the 40 yard line.

The try for point failed as a bad pass from center forced Barber to run.

A Champagne to Barber pass set up the second Eagle tally with Thornton "Tex" Medley sneaking through Indian defenses from the one. This drive covered 77 yards with Champagne booting the point after.

Jimmy Stubbs, guard and linebacker, stole an Indian aerial and galloped 52 yards before being stopped on the three as the half ended with Hinds holding the reins 13-0.

The Eagles poured on the coal in the third period. Another Champagne pass, covering 18 yards, hit end Homer Boyd for the third Hinds TD.

Champagne again converted for a 20-0 lead.

C. J. Alexander circled right end for 15 yards and another Hinds touchdown. The try for point failed.

The battered Indians then took to the air, but Champagne quickly put the blanket on the fire with an interception which set up the final Eagle marker.

From 11 yards out Champagne hit Abruzzese in the end zone for a 32-0 lead. A third attempt for the extra point was good by Barber.

Champagne was a continuous threat with his passes and keeper plays, while Barber kept fans on their toes with a thrilling display of broken field running.

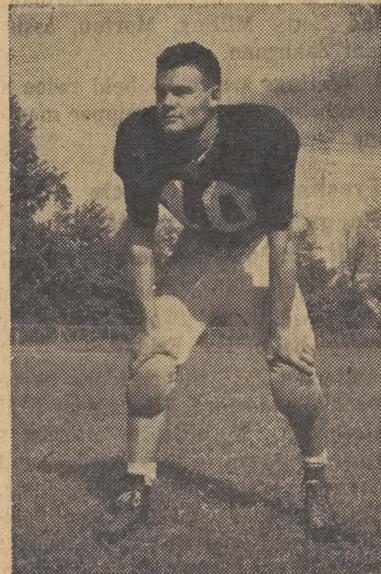

Reserve strength played most of the final half.

THANKS

Coach Louis F. Boteler would like to express his thanks to the students, faculty members and other staff members for assisting with the recent ski show on the campus.

FOUR EAGLE ACES—Four of Hinds Junior College's top gridders are all set for the invasion of the Perkinston Bulldogs Saturday night. The performers, left to right, are Center Glynn Russell, Jackson; Quarterback Hal Battle, Byram; Quarterback Melvin Champagne, Houma, La.; and Levi Barber, Jacksonville, Fla. All four are returning lettermen from last year's squad.

Voice Instructor To Appear In Role Of Alice In 'Lucia'

Mrs. J. L. Reeves, Hinds instructor of voice, will sing the second female role in the Jackson presentation of the opera, Lucia di Lammermoor, to be given on Monday and Tuesday evenings, November 25, 26.

Mrs. Reeves' role is that of Alice, the companion of Lucia, the latter to be sung by Irene Jordan of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Prof. J. L. Reeves, head of the music department, with nine of his students will sing in the opera chorus. The students having part are Myrna Loy Stuart, Mary Carolyn Hart Billie Jean Bridges, Patsy Wade, Molly Cobb, Mary Tolar, Bob Bloodworth, Jimmy Holder, and Jimmie Hawkins.

The leading male role will be sung by Walter Fredricks.

Mr. Harold Avery of Belhaven will direct the orchestra and chorus.

Tickets for the opera may be secured from Mrs. A. L. Denton, head of the college art department who is the ticket captain for Raymond.

Tickets will be available after October 8.

Year Book Staff Holds First Meet

Mr. T. T. Beemon, head of the Biology department and the year book sponsor, held the first meeting of the annual staff last Wednesday night.

Mr. Beemon stated that the students who would like a year-book should tell him tomorrow when they have their pictures made, in order that he might estimate the number of copies to order. There will be a $2.00 deposit on the year-book.

Those that attended the meeting were: Betty Smith, Ella Agnes Grantham, Alma Lee Grantham, Carolyn Evans, Jimmy Holder, Jimmie Sheppard, Joyce Bethune, Virginia Ronken, Rebecca Murphy, Linda Roberts, Shirley Gardner, Billye Jo Pettis, Maxine Jones, Regina Godley, Sara Webb, Lannell McDonald, Mary Tolar, Delores Ray, Dick Leggett, Hank Anglade, Margarita Morris, Al Bynum, Linda Launius, Charles Causey, Ross Alman, Charles Cain, and Gerald Miles.

Walter Bivens, and for its faculty sponsor, Mrs. A. L. Denton, head of the art department.

Discussions, to which all students are urged to come, will be held just before the evening services. Chairman of the discussion committee is Melinda Ambrose, who states that tentative topics for the discussions are Christian Courtship, Marriage, Divorce, What God Expects of Us, and Popularity vs. Christianity. A question box placed in the Administration Building is for convenience of students who would like to ask questions on topics listed.

Other members of this committee are Regina Godley, Jean Searcy, and Leonard Signa. Prof. J. R. Harris, head of the history department, is faculty sponsor of the discussion committee.

Jimmie Hawkins, chairman of the entertainment committee, announces supper meetings and the following sponsors of each: Tuesday, B.S.U.; Wednesday, Westminster Fellowship, and Wesley Foundation; Thursday, the Newman Club, and the Cabinet of the Y.W.C.A.

Personal conferences with the Religious Emphasis leader, the Rev. David McKeithen, may be arranged through any member of the entertainment committee. These are Catherine Owen, Grace Loper, Mollie Cobb, Joanne Carpenter, Sidney Comfort, and Elizabeth Brasfield.

Paper Answers Recurring Questions

Occasionally we hear these questions on our campus: "Why should I take — (Eng. Lit.; a foreign language, social sciences, history, et cetera). How will these help me?"

We are happy to give as an answer to the ever recurring "Why Humanities" question as that given by the editor of the campus newspaper of Illinois Wesleyan University.

"The average student thinks that the civilization into which he was born and which he makes use of is as spontaneous and self-reproducing as nature. He is not interested in the basic cultural values of his age and is not prepared to place himself at their service. He has an inborn impression that life is easy, plentiful and without serious limitations. He is armed at birth with marvelous mechanical devices, healing medicines, watchful governments and comfortable privileges.

'On the other hand, he is ignorant of how difficult it is to invent these instruments and to secure these privileges. The average student is characterized by an extreme ingratitude toward all that has made possible the ease of his existence. He is unintelligent enough to imagine that his role is limited to demanding the benefits of civilization as if they were natural rights.

'The tremendous importance of the Humanities course, then, lies in its power to make the student realize that civilization is not 'just here'; it is not self-sustaining. The Humanities course impresses upon the student the fact that if he wants to make use of the advantages of civilization, he had better be prepared to concern himself with the upholding of that civilization.'

Keep Your Automobile Under Control

The entire metropolitan population of Jackson, Mississippi, is the number that will be killed by this time next year!

No, nobody's crazy, we're just trying to give you some idea of the number of persons who will be killed next year in needless auto accidents.

Startling, isn't it, that so many people will die because of carelessness with automobiles.

Everyone seems to think that the accident always happens to the other fellow — some people are suddenly awakened from this dilemma with a crash — but, it could happen to you!

"Careless driving is kid stuff," says the National Safety Council; it also says that the person who shows off in a car is mentally immature.

We pass along this reminder to drive safely with the hope that the 250,000 people destined to die in highway atrocities in the next year will not include you.

General Motors Offers Scholarships

General Motors, one of the nation's largest automobile producers, is rendering aid to students in the form of educational scholarships.

Attending college this fall are said to be 700 young men and women under General Motors programs. These four-year scholarships are awarded to those among 20,000 applicants from all 48 states, Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia. The awards range from $200 to $2,000 scholarships.

This program is an excellent form of public relations for General Motors.

Hindsonian Bestows Recognition On College's Lendon Players Secretary

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

Her words were simple words enough

And yet she used them so,
That what in other mouths was rough

In hers seemed musical and low.

—James Russell Lowell

CAROLYN BARTON

This talented lass of five feet four, eyes of blue, was born on October 11, 1938, in Louisville, Mississippi.

While attending Louisville High School Carolyn Ann Barton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey K. Barton, was secretary of the F.H.A. and served on the Constitutional Committee of the F.B.L.A. She was also a member of the chorus and Y-Teens.

Dramatics, however, was her main interest. She received a speech award and three medals in an oratorical contest during her senior year.

In the fall of 1956, Carolyn decided to enter Hinds Junior College with speech as her major. A member of the Lendon Players,

BULLETIN

Students and faculty members are reminded that tomorrow, Thursday, September 26, is the date set for pictures to be made for the 1956-57 Eagle, college yearbook.

Y.W.C.A., and a worker on the Hindsonian staff, our versatile classmate also was a student worker in the cafeteria.

To further her dramatic interests, Carolyn enacted major roles in the two productions of the Lendon Players last year. In "Magnificent Obsession" she played the part of Nancy Ashford, a friend of the Hudsons; in "The Happiest Years" she played Martha, the wife of a struggling college student who had been a veteran (Dee Greathouse). Carolyn also appeared on WLBT's American Legion program as a featured guest.

Our vivacious sophomore is a member of the Lendon Players, and Westminster Fellowship, this year. She is again on the Hindsonian staff.

A student worker for the English staff, Carolyn plans to continue her education either at M.S.C.W. or Mississippi Southern.

Her other future plans consist of teaching speech therapy and maybe getting married.

Once again we salute you, Carolyn Ann Barton, as our Sophomore of the Week.

HINDS JUNIOR SAYS:

"Though studying is not much fun, it's a darn lot better than being dumb."

Survey Shows Only Few People Work

A recent survey published by ACP may stimulate you to do more work, or else to throw in the sponge. Just read this!

Population of country, 160 million, but 63 million are over 60 years of age, leaving 98 million to do all the work; people under 21 number 54 million which leaves 44 million to do all the work.

But there are 21 million employed by the government, leaving only 23 million to do the work; of these, ten million are in the armed services, leaving 13 million to do the work. From these deduct 12,800,000 in state and city offices, leaving only 200 thousand to do the work. Of these 126 thousand are in hospitals and asylums, etc., and that leaves 74 thousand to do the work.

But of this number 62 thousand are bums or others who will not work, so that leaves 12 thousand to do the work. Now we learn to our dismay that there are 11,998 people in jail, and that leaves only two of us to do all the work—you and me!

And I'm getting plenty tired doing it all by myself!

Instructor Denton Reveals Progress Of Art Students

Freshman art students are revealing talent, reports Mrs. A. L. Denton, art department head.

In this department there are three beginning students and a number of more advanced students. Among the latter, Bobby Tickell is doing a number of sea scenes, and industrial pictures.

An eye-catching piece he has completed is that of a street scene in Vicksburg, his native town. This scene shows the street and view of the Mississippi River as seen from the front porch of Bobby's home, and it is a study of evening shadows and lighting effects. This now hangs in the entrance hall of the Administration building.

Mike Ferris is painting some impressionistic water color pieces. He is also working on a portrait of his late father. Bob Seawright with abstract landscapes, Naomi Herrin with landscapes in oils, and Thornton Medley with still life, are other students who are continuing their progress in the art department.

College Dramatics Club Stages Party At Second Meeting

Thirty students were present when the Lendon players met last Thursday night at 7:30.

The executive committee presented a new constitution to be voted on.

The program, presented by seven members, was a one act play called, "Everybody's Doing It." The cast also served refreshments.

The executive committee consists of president, Dee Greathouse; vice president, Virginia Ronkin; secretary and treasurer, Carolyn Barton; and publicity director, Charles Wall.

The group will meet first, third, and fifth Thursdays of each six weeks.

Seniors Elect New Officers For Year

Billy Grogan, Raymond, who served his class as president last year, was again elected to the presidency this year to head the Hinds High seniors.

Billy is an outstanding class leader in many respects. Other officers elected to assist him in directing the senior class activities are the following: Mary Bess Beard, Bolton, vice-president; Dorothy Brock, Learned, secretary; Nancy Chapman, Raymond, treasurer; Jimmy Jackson, Raymond, and Ethel Rumbavage, Terry, reporters; and Virginia Owen and Bill Birdsong of Edwards, social chairmen.

Coach Louis Boteler, as in past years, will serve as one of the class sponsors. The other sponsor for the senior class will be chosen at a later date.

alternate; Margarita Morris, Peggy Sanderford, and Mary Nell McGowan. Not shown are cheerleader Donna Musil, and Janyce Wisneishi, alternate.

PENNY FAIR SPONSORS PLAN COMING FESTIVAL AT MONDAY NITE MEET

A Monday night supper meeting of the Y Cabinet this week set forth immediate plans for weekly meetings and the business of the annual Y project, the Penny Fair.

Directing the discussion was Regina Godley, Y president.

Chairman appointed for Penny Fair committees are the following: Publicity, Florence Hearn; decoration, Virginia Ronkin; floor show, Jimmie Hawkins; Booths, Roxie Easley; over-all chairman and clean-up captain, Regina Godley.

Prior to his affiliation here, he served in different capacities in the school systems of Heidelberg, in Jasper County; Pascagoula, in Jackson County; and Purvis, in Lamar County.

Mr. Patterson, who is a member of the Baptist Church, received his B.S. and M.A. degrees from Mississippi Southern. He has also done some supplementary work there.

During the Pacific Campaign, he was a member of the Aircraft Artillery, and perhaps this helped develop his passion for his favorite pastime—traveling.

And, best yet, he seems to be enjoying his tenure at Hinds. When asked for his opinion of Hinds school, he said: "I like it. I think it's a great school. Got a good school spirit, a fine bunch of youngsters, and a friendly staff."

Well, thanks, Mr. Patterson. The feeling is mutual.

Business Leaders To Stage Meeting

A meeting of the Future Business Leaders of America enrolled at Hinds Junior College is called for Friday, September 27, at 10:20 in the Academic Building, Room 2.

All business students are urged to attend this meeting, particularly freshman business majors.

New members are to be initiated, and two new officers, the vice-president, and the corresponding secretary are to be elected.

Officers now in charge of the club are Alma Lee Grantham, president; Elizabeth Herring, secretary; and Anna Summers, treasurer. These urge all eligible for membership to be present and on time at the Friday meeting.

BAND MASTER BLOWS MUSIC ABOUT GROUP

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Blowing his horn, Mr. Al Rowan, Hinds' Band director, believes that this year's band will be one of the best in Hinds' history.

Forty-three members strong already, the Eagle Band could use a few more "swinging" musicians.

Mr. Rowan and Mrs. Alon Bee, tutor of the Hi-Steppers, have received an invitation to perform at Mardi Gras in February, one of the many outstanding trips made by these groups each year, a fact which should tempt some prospective musicians.

Making up the band this year are: Rebecca Murphy, Delores Stevenson, Buddy Calhoun, Earl Adams, Rayce Baker, Wallace Ballard, Ranny Beard, Wayne Boyd, Ed Coleman, Jeanette Davis.

Others are: Frank Easterwood, Jake Freshour, Russell Gray, Mary Guion, Jerry Hardin, Buck Harris, Joe Henry, Floyd Hodo, Katy Houston, Jim Hudson, Dickie Liggett, Billy Magers, Charles Mercier, Charles McCormack, Jimmy Morris, and Ed Morton.

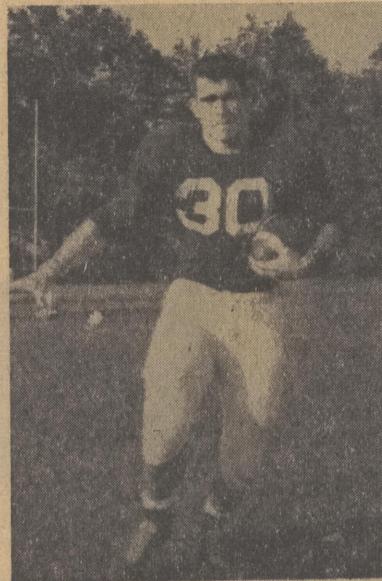

The remaining members are: Joe Pace, Bill Perrett, Johnny Richardson, Josephine Roby, Pete Sherlock, George Stockstill, Billy Swilley, Nancy Turnage, Nancy Chapman, Charles Warren, Petey Weems, Don Willis, Morris Willis, George Bennett, Ethel Rumbavage, Walter Bivins, and Irvita Kelley.

Hinds High School Elects Eight Lady Cheerleaders

The High School elected the following cheerleaders for the coming football year.

Hinds To Invade Scooba Saturday

Hinds High Gridders To Host MSD; Puckett Rips Boteler's Team 27-0

The Hinds High Eagles will play their first home game of the season Friday night when conference opponent, Mississippi School for the Deaf, invades for competition.

Still smarting from their 27-0 crushing by Puckett last week, Coach Louis "Skin" Boteler's aggregation is ready to break back into the win column this week.

Hinds High opened the season by walloping the Terry Yellowjackets 41-0, although it was a different story at Puckett last week.

The Eagles and Coach Cecil Davis' Bulldogs always play a hard-fought, tight ball game and another top Capitol Athletic Conference match is expected this week.

Coach Boteler is expecting great things from his two star guards, Norris Moody and Billy Forney, Friday night.

Boteler considers Moody the hardest hitter on the team and one of the best guards in the conference. He has alternated at the halfback position on occasions this season.

Forney, a feather-weight linesman, is one of the most consistent players on the team. Moody and Forney both have had brothers to play under Coach Boteler since he has been at Raymond.

Hinds High co-captains this year are Fullback Billy Ferguson and Quarterback Eugene Osborn.

YOUR OCTOBER MEAL TICKET IS DUE

Do you want your "three squares" on October 1? You'd better ante up at business office before closing time, Friday, September 27. Alternatives? You could go on a day-long diet; you could eat at home if you are there. But come Monday morning, September 30, no meal ticket, no eat, in the cafeteria, that is.

NOTICE

Hindsonian staff members will meet Friday morning at activity period.

Eagles Blank Perkinston Bulldogs With 4 Touchdowns In Final Half

Battle-tested Hinds Junior College moves into Scooba Saturday night to meet the East Mississippi Lions for their fourth game of the season.

The Eagles will enter the game with an undefeated and untied record and the Lions possess a record of one win and two ties.

Hinds' Eagles looked as good as their press clippings in the final quarter by thrashing the Perkinston Bulldogs 27-0 last Saturday night.

Pre-season picks for the Mississippi Junior College crown, the backfield-rich Eagles unveiled another fine speedster in 150-pound Thornton "Tex" Medley to run in harness with aces Levi Barber, Raymond Abruzzese and C. J. Alexander.

The Bulldogs, brilliant defensively in spots, couldn't cope with Hinds' speed and mustered very little offense.

Coach Joe Renfroe's Eagles rolled up 23 first downs, while Perkins ton garnered only nine.

Late in the third stanza Halfback Raymond Abruzzese breezed around right end for a 25-yard touchdown to account for Hinds' first tally of the evening. Halfback Levi Barbara booted the extra point.

The final period saw Quarterback Melvin Champagne churn through from the five to score. Champagne's kick split the uprights.

Hinds' offense generated plenty of steam as the Eagles rolled out front 14-0.

Barber, the top ground gainer of the game, registered the third six-pointer midway of the closing period from the three. Again Champagne's kick was good.

With less than a minute to go Quarterback Hal Battle flipped a short pass to End Wendell Campbell from six yards out to tally the final marker of the game.

Excellent work from the entire Eagle secondary and fine play by Center Glynn Russell and Tackle Elmer Stringer anchored the Eagle defense the final half.

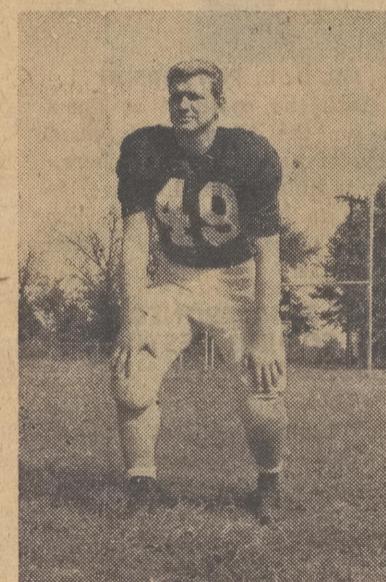

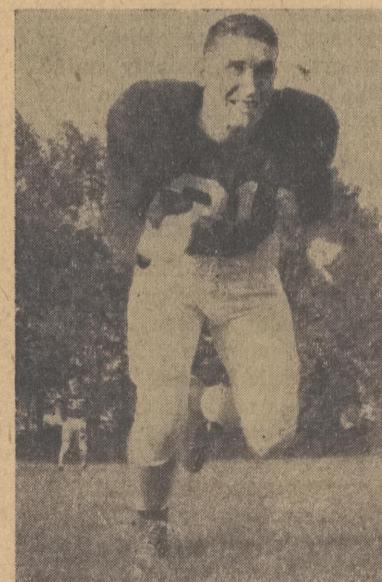

Guard Jimmy Smith and Tackle Donald Duplass were Bulldog bulwarks the initial half for Perkins ton.

HINDS JUNIOR COLLEGE ALMA MATER

(Tune: "Juanita")

Hail Alma Mater!
Hail to thee, Maroon and White.
We now salute you
Guide us in the right.
We will love thee ever,
For our heart to thee belong;
Always in our memory,
May be heard this song.
Hinds, Oh Hinds,
May we ever loyal be!
Hinds, Oh Hinds,
Thou art dear to me.

KEY PLAYERS—Three of Hinds Junior College's top gridiron performers are set and ready for action this weekend when the Eagles journey to Scooba for their fourth game of the season. Players are left to right, Jerome Cherry, end; Wimpy Martin, tackle; and Thornton "Tex" Medley, halfback. Cherry, Dothan, Ala. alternates at right end with Wendell Campbell and Martin, Forest Hill, is expected to be at full strength for the first time this season Saturday night after recovering from a knee injury. Medley, who hails from Texas City, Texas, is a speedy break-away back.

State Consultant To Speak Friday To College Group

Mr. J. A. Travis, State Student Education Association consultant, will be the featured speaker at the Future Teachers of America meeting Friday morning.

All prospective teachers are invited to attend.

The 1957-58 Future Teachers of America officers are Barbara Speights, Jackson, president; Rebecca Murphy, Brandon, vice president; Thelma Huff, Pelahatchie, secretary; Pat Moore, Forest Hill, treasurer; and Jo Anne Adcock, Forest Hill, reporter.

Dean M. F. Herring and Mr. A. L. Denton, head of the guidance department, are sponsors of the Future Teacher organization.

Ex-Hinds Student Wins Scholarship To Florida State

Mary Jo Laird, Hinds Junior College 1955 graduate, has recently been awarded a scholarship by the state of Louisiana to study musical therapy in the graduate school of Florida State University, according to The Progress Herald, Morton.

It is said that this scholarship is the first to be awarded by Louisiana in this particular field.

Mary Jo was a member of the Lions International All-State Band, 1950-51. After her graduation from Hinds, she was awarded a scholarship to Southeastern Louisiana College at Hammond, La., from which institution she was graduated in 1957 with a Bachelor of Music Degree. At Southeastern College she was a member of Kappa Delta Pi, a national honor society in Education, also the Delta Orion, a national music fraternity.

COLLEGE HEAD TELLS WORKERS TO BE ACTIVE

Speaking at the Hinds Junior College dinner for the Mississippi Junior-Senior College Conference Monday night, President G. M. McLendon challenged his co-workers in the State to be more active in the task facing colleges in Mississippi.

He urged concerted effort in awakening students to their responsibilities as students and citizens; and he pointed to cooperation among college presidents and citizens as a method for supporting colleges, both public and private, in the trend toward increasing enrollments and demands.

President Philip Sheffield of Itawamba served as master of ceremonies at the dinner in the college cafeteria.

Mary Carolyn Hart, and Myrna Loy Stuart, of the voice department, and Margarita Morris, pianist, furnished music for the program.

Preceding the dinner, the Conference guests toured the campus and inspected the new science building.

College Freshman Day Activities To Be In Two Weeks

Wednesday, October 16, has been designated as Freshman Day at Hinds Junior College.

Detailed plans for the Freshman Day activities were not available Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Beemon, sophomore class sponsors, and officers of the sophomore class are expected to release rules and other information early next week.

Ray Tomlinson, sophomore class president, is scheduled to appoint a Freshman Day committee later this week.

Hinds 1957 Homecoming To Be At Holmes Classic

Hinds Junior College's 1957 Homecoming has been set for Saturday, October 26.

Mr. T. T. Beemon, overall chairman of the homecoming committee, plans to release the homecoming committees later this week.

Mrs. T. T. Beemon, member of the mathematics department, has been appointed chairman of the committee on selecting the queen.

Christian Members Select Aberdeen Student To Post

Polly Harrington, Aberdeen, and Mary Tolar, Columbus, were elected to the positions of vice-president and worship chairman respectively at the weekly meeting of the YWCA last Tuesday night.

Jimmie Sheppard and Mary Tolar conducted the devotional service.

Future plans were made for the annual Penny Fair, which will be held on Halloween night, October 31. The various committee chairmen are busy making plans for this event. Those who have any plans or suggestions about decoration, floor show, the booths, or publicity should see Regina Godley. She will pass these on to various chairmen.

The new time for Y meetings is at 6:00 p.m. on Tuesdays in the music auditorium.

Year-Book Group Seeks Eagle Sales For 1957 Edition

Subscriptions for the 1958 Eagle, college year-book, are on sale by annual staff members.

About 75 annuals have already been sold and the staff hopes to sell 300 before the subscription is completed.

Contact any member on the business staff of the annual and make a $2.00 deposit for a copy of the '58 Eagle. Sellers are Rebecca Murtham, Carolyn Evans, Jimmy Sheppard, Betty Smith, Alma Lee Grapard, Jimmy Holder, Virginia Ronkin, Lanell McDonald, Joyce Bethune, and Gerald Miles.

MODERN LANGUAGE CLUB ELECTS MEMPHIS GIRL PRESIDENT OF GROUP

Melinda Ambrose, Memphis, Tenn., was elected president of the Modern Language Club this past week.

Others officers selected were Ben Morgan, Mendenhall, vice president; Donald Oakes, Redwood secretary-treasurer; and Sharrott McClurg, Vicksburg, reporter.

Miss Hilda Ree Davis, head of the language department, is sponsor of the club.

The Hinds-Holmes football game will highlight the day's activities. And the Homecoming Queen will be crowned during the halftime ceremonies to conclude the homecoming festivities.

The program will begin in the afternoon and alumni members will be served supper in the cafeteria.

The Homecoming Queen will be elected by the student body and will be selected from the sophomore class. Other homecoming royalty will consist of two sophomore maids and two freshman maids.

Prof. Beemon expressed hope of having a homecoming dance and reception following the football game.

Sophomores Elect Jackson Student In Initial Primary

Ray Tomlinson, Jackson, was elected president of the sophomore class in the first primary over two opponents last week.

Tomlinson topped Charles Wall, Utica, and Steve Cook, Vicksburg, for the president's post.

Also elected on the first ballot was Doris Toles, Jackson, treasurer. Toles won over Elmer Stringer, Houma, La.; Jogene Hand, Terry; and Willie House, Houston.

Lamar Knight, Jackson, vice president in the second primary over Selma Earnest, slate Springs. Shirley Ferguson, Pittsboro; and Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Bruce, were eliminated in the initial voting.

Jimmie Sheppard, Brandon, was elected secretary in a run-off over Nancy Carter, Raymond. Florence Hearn, Redwood, and Sharrott McClure, Vicksburg, were first primary aspirants.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Beemon of the biology and mathematics departments respectively, are the class sponsors.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Deans Observe Freshmen Mistakes

A few common errors of freshmen as observed on other campuses by their deans are summarized below.

Freshmen have the optimistic idea that by going to college they will automatically become educated. — Dean Ferm, Montana State University.

Deeper heartaches come to freshmen from failure to form good study habits than from failure to make social transition.— Hugo Thompson, Macalester.

A fundamental error many college students make is failure to realize that they themselves are responsible for their own education. The college can provide adequate facilities, but the individual himself is responsible for their efficient use. — Robert Shaffer, Indiana University.

If popularity and conformity is one's goal, then the golden mean is your path. But if quest for truth is your goal, then rigorous intellectual honesty is your path. The two can never coincide. — Andrew Yogg, Rochester, N. Y.

It is easy for a freshman to become a victim of an environment before he realizes what is happening . . . He joins every group he can . . . and before his sophomore year he is so enmeshed in activities that the real purpose of a college experience has somehow been lost along the way.—J. Wesley Robb, Univ. of Southern Cal.

One of the common errors of the freshman is the assumption that his particular problem is unique. No one else, he thinks, could possibly be as frightened or as lonely as he is.

Freshmen will be surprised to know how many adults there are on the campuses who are willing to be understanding friends . . . if only the freshman is willing to reveal his need . . . Edward Mattingly, Nebraska Wesleyan Univ.

These comments were made by experienced men in the administrative field of education. Certainly they are true, important and timely by men who know.

Six Weeks Exams Count One-Third

Next week is often looked forward to with fear and dread by many students, for it is six weeks test week.

We are often prone to look at only the dismal side of six weeks tests; we do not emphasize the joy and satisfaction of good grades on tests.

A good grade on a six weeks test may even pull up one's term grade a whole letter; so let's buckle down, and really give our tests the very best that we have. In many classes the six weeks test counts up to one-third of the entire six weeks grade.

Six weeks tests are not given to fail anyone, but to determine the amount a student has learned during that period, and also to give him the discipline of hard review and clear thinking. So let's study and make the best grades we can on our first six weeks tests.

Publication Endorses Religious Week

America is the great country it is today because of the firm foundation of religion on which it was established.

Faced with a crisis right now in the United States, America needs to again become more conscious of the power of God.

Therefore we wholeheartedly endorse the Religious Emphasis Week now in progress on the campus.

It is for your benefit that this Religious Emphasis Week is planned — only your support and attendance at the meetings can make it a success.

Through this crusade it is hoped that everyone will be inspired to greater Christian works and that this inspiration will be retained.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

New Class President, Ray Tomlinson Receives Hindsonian's Honor Award

By FLORENCE HEARN

"Rock and Roll

Swing and Sway

Go to the Polls

And Vote for Ray."

This slogan used on one of the posters around the campus this past week must have really paid off for our sophomore in the Hindsonian place of honor.

Ray Tomlinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Tomlinson, was elected president of the sophomore class in Thursday's election.

This handsome lad is 6 ft. tall, weighs 153 pounds, has black hair, and brown eyes.

Ray was born in Corinth, Miss. and now resides at 535 Mockingbird Lane in Jackson.

Our president considers his favorite pastimes as water skiing and hunting. His favorite foods are shrimp, pork chops, and french fried potatoes.

Although engineering is Ray's major, he is not sure about the field or branch in which he will specialize. After leaving Hinds, Ray plans to enter Mississippi State to complete his education.

Ray spent two of his high school years at Central High School, however, he was a graduate of Provine.

While in high school, Ray was assistant business manager on the annual staff, a member of the choir, Rotarian of the Month, and lettered in track.

Congratulations, Ray, and may you have the best of luck, and, again we salute you Ray Tomlinson as our Sophomore of the Week.

AROUND THE CIRCUIT

Paper Offers Advice To Freshmen

By CAROLYN BARTON

The San Jose Junior College Scribe from San Jose, California satirically offers eleven points to writers of freshman themes. One is: "Make your own rules of punctuation. Teacher will be impressed by your originality and force of character." The promise of regard is a long, satisfying tenure in the remedial English section!

Joseph Shamoun, Lebanon student at Delta State said in the Miss Delta "Studying in Lebanon is more difficult than it is here, because we have to take many subjects. For example, every student in high school is expected to take all subjects offered."

State College's Reflector reports that "Approximately 750 students earned $135,000 on the State Campus last year." That's speaking of the part-time jobs that supplement college costs.

In The Student Printz, Hattiesburg, Miss., Gabor Ketting, Hungarian student, said of the American coed: "Every girl here wants to get married so young. They are so different. At home, the marrying age is closer to twenty-five."

A chemistry professor at a Texas college says he needs no clock by which to time his lectures. He watches eye balls.

At a quarter after there are only a few; at a quarter to, there is a solid line of white eyeballs with little dots at the top watching the clock. The professor says the more white eyeballs, the nearer it is to bell time.

From The Tom-Tom, East Central Junior College, Decatur, Mississippi

pi, comes this note from an article by Anne Moore:

MONEY

Workers earn it

Spendthrifts burn it

Bankers lend it

Women spend it

Forgers fake it

Taxes take it

Dying leave it

Heirs receive it

Thrifty save it

Misers crave it

Robbers seize it

Rich increase it

Gamblers lose it

I could use it.

HINDS NEW FACULTY

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Sprayberry

By WAYNE TROTTER

This week the Hindsonian welcomes a husband and wife team, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Sprayberry, to the ever-growing circle of Hinds Junior College faculty members.

Former teachers at Madison-Ridgeland High School, both members of this duo received their higher education at the same two institutions — Mississippi College and Ole Miss.

MR. B. D. SPRAYBERRY

MRS. B. D. SPRAYBERRY

Mrs. Sprayberry, a member of Hinds' business education staff, was born in the small Mississippi town of Stewart, and spent her high school years at Kilmichael.

She secured her college education from both schools named above, taking a BA degree from Mississippi College and a MBE degree from the University.

Her favorite pastimes include cooking, reading, and traveling, which she shares with her husband.

Mrs. Sprayberry, when asked for her opinion of HJC, flashed that sweet smile so uniquely hers and said: "I just think it's the best junior college in the state."

Welcome, one and all, to the debut of a new phase of the Hindsonian!

Business Leaders Elect Magee Girl

On Friday, Sept. 27, at a regular meeting of the F.B.L.A. the following officers were elected: Lillie Meadows, Magee, vice-president; Jimmie Hawkins, Bruce, corresponding secretary; Pansy Jue, Vicksburg, publicity chairman; and Lamar Knight, Jackson, social chairman.

Initiated into the club were, Marie Allen, Carolyn Butts, James Craig, Howard Crossons, Jimmie Hawkins, Willie House, Kathryn May, Doris Toles, Robert Ervin, Jimmie Sheppard, Lanell McDonald, Iris McKay, Pansy Jue, Herman Grigsby, Marilyn Phillips, Billy Denson, Lillie Meadows, Laura Martin, Evelyn Sorrels, Elaine McDaniel, Patsy Malone, Mary Frances Waldrop, Lamar Knight, Nancy Carter, and Barbara Greer.

onian!

This is the first effort at a column which is to feature music and everything that's associated with it; in other words, anything.

We will try each week to add a little news of the musically inclined persons around Hinds, a listing of the top pop songs, and a little merriment to your life.

As we have just returned from a return engagement with the most popular thing around right now, the flu, we haven't had a chance to scrape up many bits of information, but we can pass a few your way.

We heard that Myrna Loy Stuart has been on a personal appearance tour this summer — she sang at some swank hotels and supper clubs.

Isn't it nice to have such an outstanding music faculty that nine students and two teachers are chosen for roles in the Jackson Opera.

line coach; and Troy A. Ricks, head basketball coach. Renfroe graduated from Tulane, Young and Ricks from Delta State and Graham attended Louisiana State University.

Hinds High Gridiron Aggregation Tops Satartia Team In Monday Night Battle

The Hinds High Eagles made it their second victory of the season Monday night in their first home game of the season by topping the Satartia Tigers, 31-14.

Coach Louis "Skin" Boteler's aggregation posted a score of 18-0 halftime margin.

Halfback Dalton Thames accounted for two Eagle touchdowns and Fullback Bill Ferguson picked up one tally.

Hinds chalked up a 31-0 lopsided advantage before the Tiger offense could muster a win.

Quarterback Dickie Osborne and Halfback Billy Forgey added a tally each for the winners. End Bill Birdsong scored the only conversion.

Satartia's Billy Lewis, tailback, broke away on two long sweeps around left end for the two Tiger scores. Lewis tallied the two extra points.

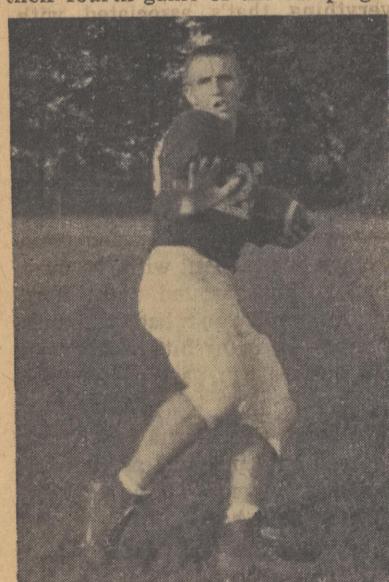

Hinds gave the Terry Yellowjackets a 41-0 cleaning for their first game of the season and suffered the only defeat thus far this season at the hands of Puckett 27-0.

Coach Boteler's crew will host the Flora Lions next Thursday for their fourth game of the campaign.

Victorious Tutor

COACH LOUIS 'Skin' Boteler, Hinds High football coach, topped the Satartia Tigers Monday night in the Eagles' first home game of the season 31-14. Boteler has never lost a football game to Satartia since he took over the Eagles six years ago. The victory marked the sixth straight time the Hinds High team had defeated Satartia.

Bobcats Loom As Eagle Roadblock Saturday Nite

By CURTIS NIX

Jones Junior College Bobcats of Ellisville loom as the Eagles' first roadblock of the season Saturday night when the Hinds aggregation moves in for competition.

Coach Joe Renfroe's crew caged the East Mississippi Lions last week for a 14-0 last half victory on a mud-sloppy field in a knock-down and drag-out battle.

Hinds' record reads four straight victories thus far this season.

On the first play from scrimmage, after the Eagles had kicked off to start the second half, Eagle pivot man, Glynn Russell, grabbed a Lion bobble on the enemy 18 yard line. Four plays and a first down found Hinds on the five.

On a fourth and one situation, Abruzzese sneaked into the end zone for a 6-0 lead. Melvin Champagne's try for point was no-good.

The Eagles again took advantage of a Lion fumble to score their second tally. Abruzzese took a pitchout around right end, cut the corner, and skirted the sidelines for 22 yards. Champagne's second attempt for the point after was wide.

Hinds, after moving downfield to the Lion four, lost the ball on downs. The Lions immediately attempted to punt, fumbled in the end zone, and recovered for an automatic safety and a 14-0 Eagle lead.

East Mississippi threatened only once. After recovering an Eagle fumble, the Lions moved for two first downs to the Hind's nine. A rugged Eagle defense held for four downs.

The Eagle defense was terrific, allowing only 46 net yards rushing and three first downs! The Eagles gained 16 first downs and 239 yards rushing. Hinds punted seven times, while East Miss. booted ten times.

Champagne ran the options well, while Abruzzese and Alexander were the leading ground gainers.

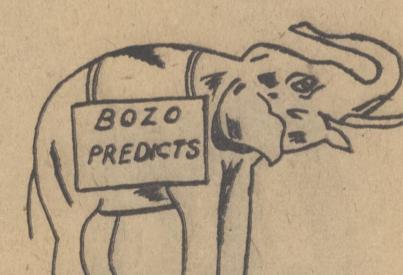

Bennie Hawkins, Glynn Russell, Wendel "Moose" Campbell, and Jimmy Stubbs led the stalwart Eagle line.

Ladies' Net Team Engages In Meet

The tennis tournament is the main event which the Women's Athletic Association is sponsoring.

Those contestants still competing in this tournament are Mary Katherine Gates vs. winner of Florence Hearn vs. Anna Summers, Sharrott McClurg vs. Louise Earnhardt, Regina Godley vs. winner of Virginia Ronkin vs. Jean Gill, Roxie Easley vs. Nancy Pharr, and Phyllis Dungan vs. Peggy Fugate.

The W.A.A. council held a meeting Monday to make plans for future activities of the association. Plans were also made to order sweaters for the sophomore council members and for the election of other council members.

Methodist Group Hears Missionary Tell Of Progress

A Methodist missionary from Central Congo told the Hinds Junior College Wesley Foundation of the great opportunity in the Congo Monday night.

Sponsored by the college Methodist group, the Rev. Marshall Lovell, described the vast improvement in the Congo.

The speaker told of the rapid progress in school and churches made in the last 80 years by the leadership of mission workers of different denominations. Two problems common in America he named as prevalent in the Congo are the shortage of native teachers who leave teaching for more attractive jobs financially, and the general tendency of natives toward leaving rural sections and moving into towns.

One of the teachers in a mission under his supervision, Mr. Lovell mentioned, is Miss Mary Bozeman, former Hinds teacher of girls' physical education.

SOPHOMORES GET REVENGE ON FROSH DAY

By ROYCE BAKER

Today was a day that will long be remembered by students and teachers alike, especially freshmen, for it was Freshman Day.

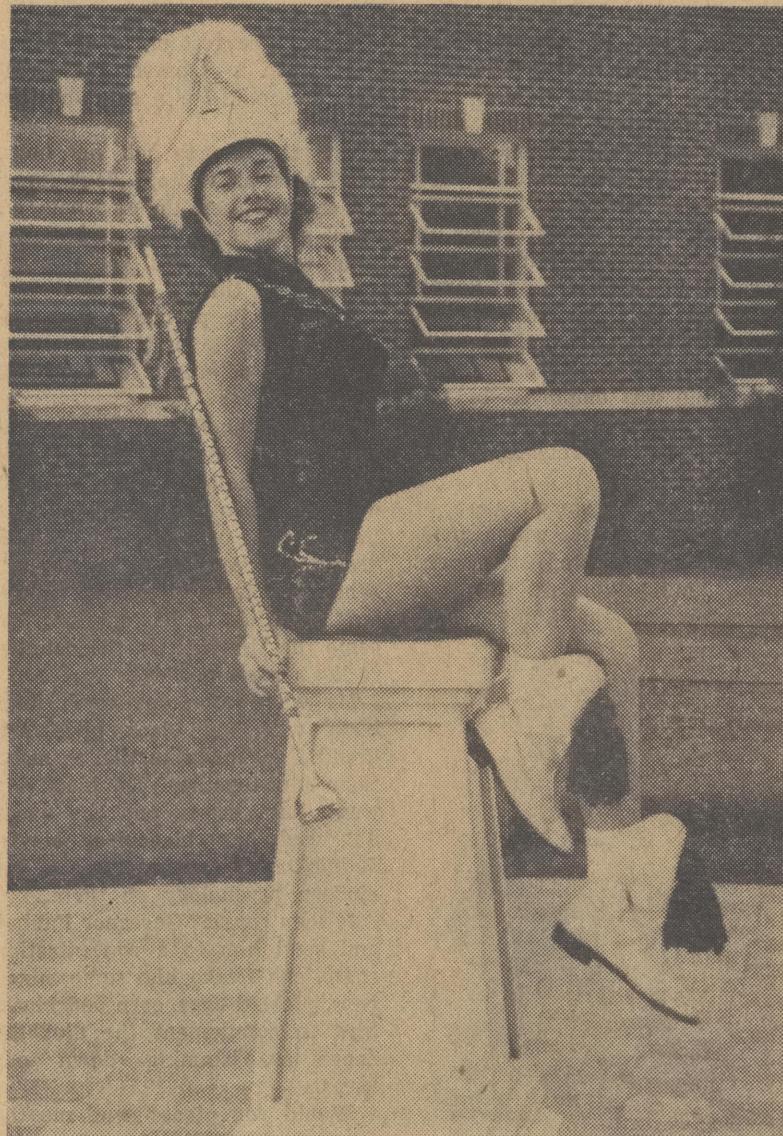

The sophomores were taking out their revenge for what the sophomores of last year did to them a year ago today. They have dressed freshmen up in every unbecoming manner possible.

They have put lipstick on them from head to toe. They made them eat dinner with only a knife, carry their books to class, and yell "AIR - RAIDS" at the most unlikely times.

The teachers have also had a day of utter confusion. Students have come into classes so disguised in old clothes and lipstick that their teachers have been unable to recognize them.

The entertainment program presented by them this afternoon was hilarious.

Freshmen will get their chance for revenge, however, on next year's freshmen.

HINDS DRUM MAJORETTE—Rebecca Murphy, Brandon, will be leading the Hinds Junior College Eagle Band Friday in Hinds Memorial Stadium during the halftime show between the Hinds Eagles and the Copiah-Lincoln Wolves. The Eagle Band is under the direction of Mr. Al Rowan, who is in his third year at Hinds.

Hinds Students Select 1957 Homecoming Court

Three sophomore girls were elected yesterday to positions of honor in the 1957 Hinds Junior College Homecoming festivities.

Nancy Carter, Raymond; Margarita Morris, Yazoo City; and Doris Toles, Jackson, were selected in a student body election as top royalty in the college homecoming.

One of these three girls will serve as the 1957 Homecoming Queen, the one having received the most votes. The queen will not be revealed until the crowning ceremonies Saturday night, October 26.

The other two young ladies will attend the queen in the court as sophomore maids.

Other royalty will be Flora May, Pearl, and Donna Musil, Vicksburg, freshman maids.

Virginia Lee, Hinds freshman, will serve as the fairy god mother and announce the queen to climax the halftime ceremonies Saturday night week.

Chairman Beemon Names Committees For Homecoming

Homecoming festivities at Hinds Junior College are scheduled for Saturday of next week, October 26.

Campus plans for the annual celebration are shaping up rapidly. Among these plans are those for an afternoon parade, a campus tour for visitors, cafeteria dinner, and the game between Hinds Eagles and Holmes Bulldogs.

Of special interest to the returning graduates will be the tour of the new science building now open to the public.

Faculty committees in charge of plans for Homecoming have been named as follows—Invitation: Miss Mildred Herrin and Mrs. Maybelle Furness; Publicity: Miss Gertrude Davis and Mrs. A. L. Denton; Registration: Miss Mary Sue McNair and Miss Lola Allen;

Coffee: Miss Lurline Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Herring, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Clark, Mr. A. L. Denton, Mr. Jobie Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McKenzie;

After game Reception and Dance: Miss Genevieve Williams, Mrs. Gertrude Rowzee, Mr. Jack Treloar, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Sprayberry, Mrs. Clifford Gookin, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reeves.

Arrangements for Queen: Mrs. T. T. Beemon, Miss Hilda Brantley, and Miss Peggy Pennell; Float: Mr. William Oakes, Miss Marjorie McCord, Mr. David Lewis, Mr. D. C. Ware, Mr. Warren Fortenberry, Mr. Edgar Bray, and Mr. Harvey Robinson.

Campus and Buildings: Mr. Louis Boteler and Mr. J. B. Patrick; Cafeteria Dinner: Mrs. Marian Welch and Mrs. Ruby Berryhill; Grill: Mrs. Margaret Kimball, Mr. Arliss R. Ricks, Mr. Robert Ringer, and Mr. J. C. Cannon; Decoration of Cafeteria: Miss Christine Berry, Miss Belle Lindsey, and Mrs. A. L. Denton; Evening Show: Mrs. Alon Bee and Mr. Albert Rowan; Hosts and Hostesses of Buildings; Cafeteria: Miss Gertrude Davis, Miss Lula Mae Fowler, and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Burleson; Main Dormitory: Miss Fleta Whitaker.

Chairman of General Arrangements, Mr. T. T. Beemon.

Dramatic Players To Present Play On November 15

The theatre group of Hinds Junior College, The Lendon Players, has set Nov. 15, 1957, as its fall theatre production date.

The comedy-drama production entitled Lavender and Old Lace has been selected, and the cast has been named recently, according to Mr. Fred L. Brooks, Jr., head of the speech department.

Cast members include Mary Ainslie played by Carolyn Barton of Louisville; Jane Hathaway, by Barbara Clifford of Morton; Ruth Thorne, by Melinda Ambrose of Memphis, Tenn.; Bernice Carlton, by Jo Anne Adcock of Forest Hill; Carl Winfield, by Charles Wall of Utica; Sophrony Trotter, by Iris McKay of Pelahatchie; Dr. Howard Patterson, by Dee Greathouse of Fayette; Hepsey, by Rebecca Murphy of Brandon; Joe Pendleton, by Larry Craft of Utica; and James Ball, by Robert Seawright of Jackson.

The play is a modern dramatization in three acts by Rose Warner of Myrtle Reed's most popular novel. It includes gaiety and romance mixed with sadness and sentimentality, reports Director Brooks.

Hinds Instructors To Participate In Research Project

Hinds Junior College will participate in a speech phase of the Research Project in Higher Education being conducted by the University of California with funds granted by Carnegie Corporation of New York.

Approximately 70 junior colleges of different types throughout the nation are cooperating in the overall study.

Hinds Continues Educational Project

For the second straight year, Hinds Junior College is continuing its special educational project for the deaf. A total of ten students have enrolled this semester—seven boys and three girls.

This program, organized by the Mississippi Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, and provided for by Public Law 565, remains as the only project of this type in the country. Due to such factors as vocational facilities and educational philosophy, Hinds was chosen as the school best fitted for inauguration of the plan.

Acting as co-ordinator and general counselor for the students again this year is Mr. James C. Canon, who has had several years-experience in teaching the deaf.

Objectives of this program include, giving further vocational and academic training to those handicapped for employment, and helping these to adjust more readily to a social environment such as college campus life.

While the project is still in the beginning stage, all indications are that it is proving very successful. This is true, not only in the academic sense, but in the social light as well. The relationship between these students and other pupils is harmonious.

Local Cafeteria Offers Quality Meals

Have you noticed the unusually good meals that the cafeteria has been offering this year?

Mrs. Marian Welch, college dietitian, and her fine staff are doing everything possible to provide meals that will not only taste good, but be wholesome as well.

Too many students do not take advantage of the good breakfast that is provided each morning. A good breakfast early in the morning will make one feel much better all day long.

We should appreciate the good meals even more when we realize that they cost us much less than meals at most other colleges in the state, and even less than they would cost us at home.

Good Publicity Calls For College Sign

Have you ever tried hiding a good junior college?

Well, don't look now, but we're doing a pretty efficient job of doing just that.

Our dormitories are plainly engraved, the forbidden areas that might lure our metal monsters are well marked, we have no trouble finding any rooms or offices that might attempt to elude us, and that new red masterpiece decorating our cold storage plant is a fine sight to behold—but, no place, not the first place, do we find a sign telling the world that this is Hinds Junior College.

You know, not everyone knows that Hinds Junior College is in Raymond.

Some people don't even know that there is a place named Hinds Junior College.

Let's help them to find out.

THE HINDSONIAN

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Versatile Sophomore Class Secretary Wins Hindsonian's Weekly Salutation

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

"She's a doll, she's a dream, she'll keep your records clean."

This slogan was used on posters during the campaign of Jimmie Ella Sheppard for sophomore class secretary. Although her competition was keen, Jimmie won the race.

JIMMIE SHEPPARD

Jimmie was born in Brandon on Nov. 3, 1937. This black-haired, blue-eyed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sheppard is 5'7" tall and weighs 127 pounds. Her favorite foods are shrimp and French fries; her favorite pastime is talking to Jimmy Holder.

While attending Brandon High School Jimmie received many honors. She was Homecoming maid, a member of the Beta Club, Girls' Ensemble, and a class officer in both her junior and senior years. Chosen Most Courteous and Spiritual Vision girl in the school's Who's Who contest, Jimmie decided to work a year before entering Hinds. She was employed by the accounting department of Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company.

During her freshman year at Hinds the young lass was a member of the choir, Baptist Student Union, Young Women's Christian Association, and the Women's Athletic Association. This year she is president of the choir, secretary of the sophomore class, music director of the B. S. U. and a member of the Y.W.C.A., W.A.A. and Girls' Ensemble. Becoming a member of the annual staff is one of her present goals.

Jimmie plans to continue her college education at Mississippi Southern where she will major in business.

Once more we salute you, Jimmie Ella Sheppard, as our Sophomore of the Week. May your life be a most successful one.

TO THE EDITOR

(Editor's Note: The following is a letter that was published in the Commercial Appeal. It was passed to the Hindsonian for publication.)

Dear Editor:

Before I start my next year's crop, I would like to get things straight, since the Supreme Court has changed so many things that the Constitution and our forefathers stood for.

I would like to know if I will be permitted to plant my white and black peas in separate rows of equal width and length, or will I have to mix them up and sow them broadcast?

When I harvest my peas, can I store them in separate but equal bins, or should I play safe and mix them?

I would like to sell my hogs, but I have all white, I don't know if I can sell them unless I have an equal number of black hogs to go along with them. Will you give me a ruling on this?

Would it be permissible to separate my white and black cattle by a fence, or must I let them run together?

I have a black hen that lays a white egg. I haven't tried dye to change the color of the egg, but I will take this hen before Judge Davies when he gets through with dragging Governor Faubus around. When she hears of the law of the land preached to her she may become the first hen in the country to lay a two-toned egg.

My white coon dog won't hunt birds with my black bird dog. Could I get an injunction to make them hunt together? The black dog won't hunt coons, and the white dog won't hunt blackbirds. Maybe Judge Davies can use some of his modern psychology on them.

If they convict Governor Faubus and send him to a concentration camp, can I take him some mixed peas, piebald eggs, corn and blackbird to supplement the diet the courts are jamming down our throats?

Would you please send me the new words to the Star Spangled Banner? It's all mixed up down here with Old Black Joe and we do want to get it right so we can be 100 per cent Americans again.

Group Performs
At Farm Meeting

By BUDDY CALHOUN

News Notes -- The girls ensemble and soloists Miss Sidney Comfort and Miss Mary Tolar performed last night for the Farm Bureau's Harvest Banquet. From what we've heard, the girls are one of the top vocal groups in the state.

Wayne Boyd, Liberty, Miss., is one of the promising directors when he completes his college education.

Tickets for the Jackson Opera Guild are now on sale and may be purchased from Mrs. A. L. Denton and Mrs. J. C. Reeves. The Guild has a most excellent program planned for this season. A ticket is good investment.

We've seen many halftime shows in our life but the performance by the Eagle Band and Hi-Steppers at the ECJC game was one of the very best we've ever seen or had the privilege to appear in. Mrs. Alon Bee, Mr. Al Rowan, the Hi-Steppers and the Band are to be commended for a fine job!

Hinds is fortunate to have a splendid football team, music department, and other outstanding functions with your support. Let's back all our organizations.

Let's get back to normal, too, after the fair and six weeks tests!

You missed an unusual treat if you did not see "Ice Vogues" at the fair.

Watch for the announcement in this column next week of a contest for you to participate in.

Just in case you're wondering, here's the top five songs of the week, according to Billboard and WSLI's Top Thirty.

1. Honeycomb
2. Tammy
3. Diana
4. With You on my Mind
5. That'll be the Day

Miss McCord, a member of Hinds' music department, received her education at no less than four institutions of higher learning: Murray State College, Louisiana State University, Chicago Musical College, and Aspen Institute of Music. During her stay at these schools, she earned her MM and BM degrees.

The talented piano teacher was selected as the outstanding girl graduate of the school of music when she took her diploma from Murray State. She also played in the symphony orchestra, was a member of the band, and was a majorette at Murray.

She is a Presbyterian and names record listening as her favorite pastime.

Miss McCord is very complimentary of the quality of Hinds' music department as she gives her opinion of the school: "I'm a native Mississippian and I am enjoying very much teaching in my home state. When I came back from Virginia I was pleasantly surprised to find such excellent facilities here. The facilities are most conducive to good teaching. The people I'm working with have also been so helpful and have made my work very enjoyable."

Modern Language Members Hear Guest Speaker

At the first meeting of the Modern Language Club the guest speaker was Jose La Rosa.

Mr. La Rosa is from Peru. He told the club about his country and customs. After he had finished his talk there was a question and answer period. The club served refreshments afterwards.

At their business meeting members decided to serve refreshments at all meetings. Papers were given out listing the various types of programs available for meetings.

Future Business Leaders To Sell Corsages For Homecoming Program

Future Business Leaders of America members at Hinds Junior College are selling corsages for Homecoming on October 26.

All orders must be in by Friday, October 18. Each corsage will cost $1.50 each.

Students taking orders are Evelyn Sorrels, Addie Carolyn Pearson, Lillie Meadows, Anna Summers, Lamar Knight, Willie House, Elizabeth Herring, Evelyn Tinsley and Alma Lee Grantham.

Tickets Go On Sale For 'Lucia' In Jackson
By Raymond Chairman

Campus sale of tickets for "Lucia", opera scheduled for Jackson next month, have exceeded expectations, reports Mrs. A. L. Denton, chairman of Raymond ticket sales.

In addition to a number of students who have purchased tickets, a large number of faculty members have already secured tickets.

Buses will be arranged to take care of transportation for this event.

HI-STEPPER, BAND DIRECTORS — Hinds Junior College's nationally famous Hi-Steppers and Eagle Band are under the direction of Mrs. Alon Bee, left, and Mr. Al Rowan. The Eagle Band and Hi-Steppers will perform for the Mississippi Manufacturers Association Thursday night on the Mississippi Gulf Coast and will stage another 100 piece performance Friday night at the halftime of the Hinds-Co-Lin game.

LIBRARY NOTICE

All overdue books must be returned to the library by Thursday, October 17, if students intend to get their report cards, reports Mrs. Virginia Riggs, assistant librarian.

When the fine is paid the student may receive his report card. This is standard procedure at Hinds Junior College.

HINDS' FIRST SCORE—Halfback Raymond Abruzzese sweeps around right end for 10 yards out to send the Hinds Eagles ahead of the East Central Warriors in Hinds Memorial Stadium last Saturday night. The Eagles play Co-Lin at the same site Friday night.

Women's Athletic Association Moves Tennis Tournament Into Second Week

The beginners' tennis tournament, one of the activities of the W.A.A., is now in its second week of play.

Ann Boyd drew a bye, Ann Williams vs. Mary Hart; Sidney Comfort vs. Grace Loper, Joyce Beethune vs. winner of Shirley Gardner vs. Mary Noble, Jo Ann Rhodes vs. Nancy Turnage, Marilyn Phillips vs. winner of Shirley Ferguson vs. Lillie Meadows, Fay Rollins vs. Dacia Joyner, Jeannine McGuire vs. Ruth Campbell, Dot Pickett vs. Nancy Lee, Maybelle Benn vs. Polly Harrington, Dorothy Butler vs. Reba Gail Pierce, Janyce Wisnesky vs. Linnie Farmer, Iris McKay vs. winner of Robinette Riddle vs. Margarita Morris.

Girls who are still in the tournament are Mary K. Gates vs. winner Florence Hearn vs. Anna Summers, Nancy Pharr vs. Sharrott McClurg, Regina Godley vs. Jean Gill, and Phyllis Dungan vs. winner of Regina Godley vs. Jean Gill.

Another activity of the W.A.A. is a roller skating trip to Jackson tomorrow night. Any W.A.A. member who is interested should sign up on the physical education bulletin board.

LARGE GAIN — Raymond Abruzzese picks up yards against the East Central Warriors in Saturday night's 45-0 cleaning. Hinds takes on second place Copiah-Lincoln Friday night in Hinds Memorial Stadium for the game of the year in the Mississippi Junior College Conference.

Eagles To Meet Co-Lin In 'Game Of The Year'

In five plays the Eagles had six points with Halfback Raymond Abruzzese doing the honors on a pitchout around right end from 11 yards out. Levi Barber, attempting to kick the extra point, had to run because of a bad pass from center. He was stopped short.

Glynn Russell, alert Eagle center, stole an East Central pass and returned 11 yards to set up the second Hinds score. On third down Hal Battle took to the air and connected with Barber who made a spectacular catch at the five and scooted across the goal line. Barber also booted the point after.

In the second period on fourth down, East Central attempted to run, but were stopped by a rugged Eagle line. From that point the Eagles took over and in seven plays had scored again. Battle's 20 yard gain on a "keeper" set the stage for the score. Abruzzese countered from the three. Barber's kick was good.

Russell picked off his second aerial to give Hinds possession at the 47. Wendall Campbell, Eagle end and fullback, made several good gains, and Tex Medley bucked the line for the fourth Eagle score. Champagne's conversion attempt was no good.

Athletic Director Renfroe Speaks To Canton Grid Group

Coach Joe Renfroe, head coach and athletic director, addressed the Canton Touchdown Club Monday night on the topic, "Junior College Football."

Renfroe described the junior college athletic system and the kind of program that each school operates with emphasis on Hinds' athletic outlook.

Durwood Graham, assistant line coach, gave a talk and showed the Hinds-Jones film to the Bolton Rotary Club last Monday night.

Half time score: Eagles 26; Warriors 0.

In the second half the Eagles continued their devastating attack with Abruzzese taking the kickoff and moving 42 yards to East Central's 48. In ten plays the Eagles had made the score 32-0, with C. J. Alexander slipping through Warrior defenses for the tally.

Late in the third quarter the Eagles gained possession with M. J. Harrison calling signals. Harrison calmly lobbed to Alexander who was escorted down the sidelines and across the glory stripe by almost the entire Eagle line. Harrison's attempt for point was wide.

Curtis Nix, under-study at center, pounced on an Eagle ball as it rolled into the end zone after the Warrior safety man had fumbled. This was the final Eagle score with Harrison kicking the point after.

The rugged Eagle line was led by Glynn Russell and Bennie Hawkins, while Ray Abruzzese spearheaded the backfield attack.

Hinds gained 19 first downs to East Central's 5. The Eagles blasted their way for 475 total yards, while the Warriors could muster only 88.

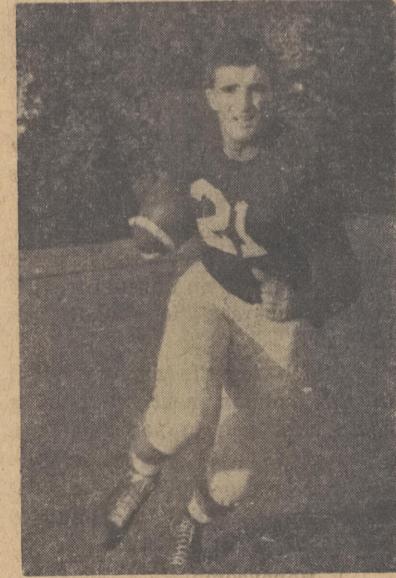

Hinds Junior College's unbeaten Eagles will go after their seventh straight victory of the campaign Friday night in Hinds Memorial Stadium with Co-Lin of Wesson moving in to furnish opposition.

FEMALE FOOTBALL GAME TO BE HELD MONDAY ON COLLEGE CAMPUS

A girls football game sponsored by the sophomore class, is being planned for Monday, October 21 at 3:30 p.m.

Proceeds of the game will go to the Penny Fair King and Queen candidates of the sophomore class.

The contest will match girls from each dormitory. Captains for the event are Ann Boyd of Main and Regina Godley of Westside. All interested girls should contact the team captains.

Hinds To Celebrate Homecoming

WHICH WILL BE CROWNED? — Nancy Carter, Raymond; Margarita Morris, Yazoo City; or Doris Toles, Jackson; will be crowned the 1957 Queen of Homecoming Saturday night at the halftime of the game between the undefeated Hinds Junior College Eagles and the Holmes Junior College Bulldogs.

Frosh Candidates To Vie For Office In Thursday Race

With campaigns well under way the seventeen candidates for freshman offices are preparing to await returns from Thursday's elections.

Aspiring to be president are Marvin Crocker, Dick Gabriel, and Larry Pennington, all of Jackson, as well as Bobby Sheffield, Raymond, and Robert O'Connor, Vicksburg.

Seeking the vice presidential post of the class are M. J. Harrison, Forest Hill; Elizabeth Brasfield, Vicksburg; George Stockstill, Brandon; and Mary Lane Noble, Jackson.

The candidates for secretary are Mary Tolar, Columbia; Jo Anne Adcock, Forest Hill; Nancy Pharr, Vicksburg; Shirley Catledge, Port Gibson; and Polly Harrington, Aberdeen.

In the running for treasurer are Flora May, of Pearl; Reba Gail Pierce, and Pat Sanford, both of Jackson; and Betty Jean Smith, from Louise.

College President Extends Welcome

A cordial and sincere welcome to all alumni and visitors on this our "homecoming day". It is increasingly gratifying to see a continuous stream of progress unfold before our eyes. The most gratifying thing is that graduates of Hinds Junior College are proudly taking their places in all of the worthwhile phases of our community, county, state, and nation. Please visit us often and give us the benefit of your wise counsel.

G. M. McLendon

FLORA MAY, Pearl, and Donna Musil, Vicksburg, will serve as freshman maids in the coronation ceremonies Saturday night during the halftime intermission in the game between the Hinds Junior College Eagles and the Holmes Junior College Bulldogs.

Unknown Queen To Be Crowned During Halftime

With a parade of several floats and a number of cars, beginning at 2 p. m., Saturday, the college homecoming celebration will begin.

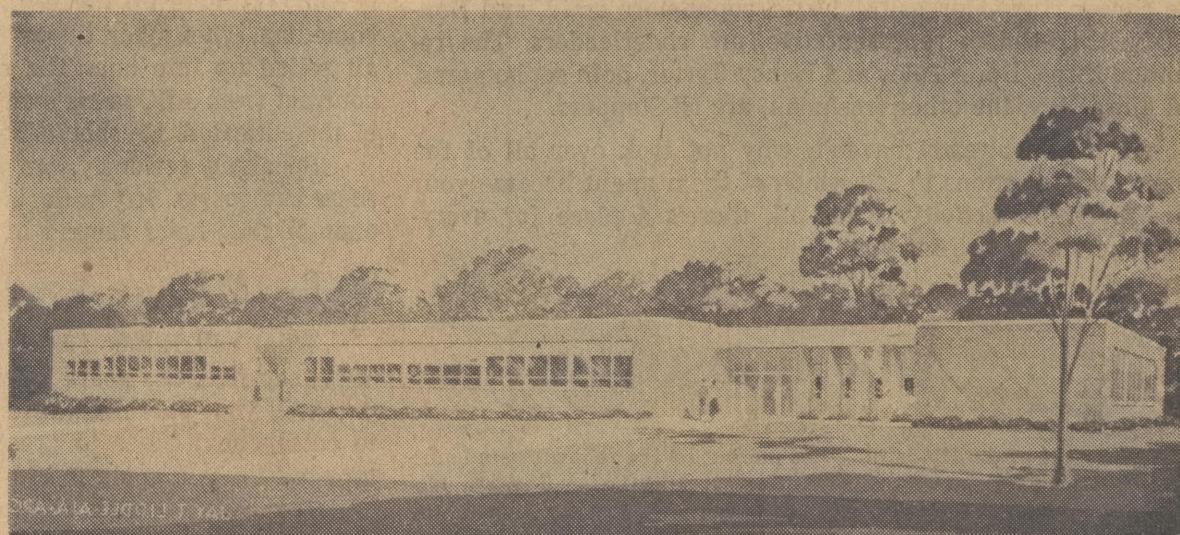

The parade will form in front of the administration building and proceed through Raymond and vicinity.

At 4 p. m. coffee will be served visitors at Westside Dormitory. A tour of the campus with special inspection of the new science building is planned for all visitors, before and after the cafeteria dinner at five o'clock.

Highlight of the celebration, the Hinds-Holmes football game is scheduled for 8 o'clock. Preceding the game will be the appearance of the queen and her court at 7:45.

The homecoming queen elect is one of the following sophomores: Nancy Carter, Raymond; Margarita Morris, Yazoo City; and Doris Toles, Jackson. Her identity will not be announced before the coronation ceremony. Freshman maids of the queen's court will be Flora May, Pearl; and Donna Musil, Vicksburg.

Personnel of the reception-dance committee are Miss Genevieve Williams, Mrs. Gertrude Rowzee, Mr. Jack Treloar, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Sprayberry, Mrs. Clifford Gookin, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reeves of the faculty; and Iris McKay, Ann Boyd, Regina Godley, Roxie Easley, Florence Hearn, Jimmie Hawkins, Phyllis Dungan, Anne Taylor, Polly Harrington, and Thelma Huff, students.

HINDS JUNIOR COLLEGE'S new science building. This new one story building modern in every respect, is the newest addition to the Hinds Junior College campus. The new science building is the first building of a major two-stage building program at Hinds Junior College. The program will give Hinds seven new major buildings and expand the present gymnasium.

Hinds Extends Welcome To Alumni

We take pride in welcoming you, alumni, former students, former teachers, and interested friends on the occasion of the 1957 Homecoming.

News of former students, their achievements and honors, their homes, their families, their interests, will always be welcomed by Hinds Junior College. The college depends largely on the advertising done by those who have been a part of it. Almost without exception the new students who come from year to year have a personal connection with someone who has been here before.

To you who are visitors today we take pride in presenting this new student body, 951 strong, engaged in a widely expanded program of academic, vocational-technical, arts, agrarian, and athletic training.

We point with grateful pride to the 38 buildings on the campus, the newest, a science building, one of the most modern and best equipped in Mississippi.

We take particular pleasure in presenting to you our faculty, more than 60 in number who are doing an outstanding job of instruction in a number of fields including the sciences, humanities, guidance, business training, technical skills, speech, arts, and physical development.

We sincerely express our unceasing appreciation to you who have helped to make Hinds one of the outstanding junior colleges in the nation.

Collect Pennies From HJC Students

Hinds Junior College's classes of '58 and '59 are facing a beautiful chance to distinguish themselves in the eyes of the faculty and friends of this institution.

That chance is the Penny Fair, an annual fund-raising event whose proceeds go to World University Service. This organization, by dedicating its efforts to a worldwide program of student help, has brought untold good to the campuses around the globe.

With Hinds' enrollment at an all-time high and pennies supposedly more plentiful than ever, we should certainly be able to push the fair's grand total over the previous high of $300.

At any rate, we could try.

Hoarded pennies never helped anybody.

Find Your Place In Extra-Curricular

With apologies to Mr. Dale Carnegie, we'd like to pass along a little advice on how to win friends and influence people.

It's simple; go out for all the activities that you can afford to, but know your saturation point.

The recent election of Homecoming Maids on this campus seems to have borne out the wisdom of this advice. Of the five chosen, two, Margarita Morris, sophomore maid, and Donna Musil, freshmen representative, are cheerleaders. The remaining three, Doris Toles and Nancy Carter, both sophomores, and Flora May, the other freshman, are Hi-Steppers.

So, if you already haven't, why not look over all of the campus organizations to see which of them might become your extra-curricular activity. After all, there's a place for everyone—and surely two for you.

THE HINDSONIAN

Hi-Stepper, Hinds Homecoming Maid Captures Local Place of High Esteem

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

This beautiful green-eyed, brown haired daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Carter was born here in Raymond on April 22, 1937.

Nancy Louise Carter is the only girl member of her graduating class at Hinds High to begin in the first grade and continue through her first two years of college.

Our lovely classmate has been a member of the Hinds Hi-Steppers since she was a junior in high school. During her junior year she was also a member of the Y-Teens, Future Homemakers of America, and basketball team; and she was a football maid. While she was a senior, Nancy was vice president of the Y-Teens.

Nancy served as secretary of the 1956-57 freshman class and was a candidate for secretary of the sophomore class this year. She is a member of the Future Business Leaders of America and was selected one of the top three in the competition for Football Queen.

A member of the Raymond Baptist Church, Nancy plans to attend Mississippi College with business as her major.

Holding hands with Lamar Knight is our sophomore's favorite past-

Let's Prevent Teachers' Gray Hairs

Intent on making another of those reports on "Why Teachers Get Gray," the Hindsonian staff has loosed its all-seeing watchdog in those dens of confusion we call classrooms. He hath returned from the wars with the following commentary on the types of students found lurking in the shadows of education:

First, there is the would-be musician. You know, the kid who never quite made the band, so he has to conserve his leisure time by practicing in class. Generally he aspires to be a drummer, unless, of course, he is the long-haired type who can afford a paper clip.

Then, we have the lovers. For obvious reasons, their thoughts never coincide with those of the teacher. The only thing they get out of the class is themselves—and some of them are lucky to do that.

The third, and most dangerous of all, is the campus lovely. She is sometimes classified with the lovers, and is always trying to be. Her ogling eyes have been known to disrupt whole classes. Nobody's safe while she's around.

And, bringing up the rear, is our old friend, the classroom comedian. This joker thinks he's a Gleason, Gobel, and Arnez all rolled up into one. The only reason he turned down that contract from ABC is his overwhelming desire to join the ranks of the educated. He should have taken the contract.

Speaking seriously, we hope you don't fall into any of these categories. If you do, let's try to straighten up. There are enough gray hairs around here already.

Take A Long Look Ahead, Freshmen

What will Hinds' Homecoming mean to you, freshmen of 1957, say five, ten years from now?

Will your stay here have been such that you will be proud to come back, eager to greet old friends made here, and interested to walk again in old paths you are traveling now?

The college yearbooks and scrapbooks, bound volumes of The Hindsonian, and pictures of this year's activities will be on display. Will you have contributed your best toward making all these records, and the permanent record cards, too (!) reflect your best of serious loyal effort for your Alma Mater? The time is Now, and time passes all too soon.

time. Her favorite foods are lemon pie and shrimp and she thinks Hinds is the greatest junior college.

Congratulations, Nancy, and we wish you luck in everything you attempt. Again we salute you, Nancy Louise Carter, as our Sophomore of the Week.

DANCE GROUP, BAND PERFORM ON GULF COAST

Hinds Hi-Steppers and Dance Band performed on the Mississippi Gulf Coast last Thursday night for the Mississippi Manufacturers Association Convention.

The group was under the direction of Mrs. Alon Bee and Mr. Al Rowan.

Delores Stevenson and Buddy Calhoun also presented acts with their twirling batons between the dances.

While on the coast, the Band and Hi-Steppers stayed at the Markham Hotel overlooking the Gulf of Mexico.

Hi-Steppers making the trip were Sarah Selman, Virginia Owen, Beverly Brown, Sara Webb, Marie Allen, Nancy Carter, Brannon Robbins, Hazel Baynes, Norma Jean Carter, Betty Jo Clements, Doris Toles, Barbara Ann Allen, Lou Ann Carter, Laura Nan Allen, Zula Harris, Fayrene Andrews, Billy Jo Pettis, Sara Margaret Smith, Sue Pittman, Kathryn May, Betty Denton, Alice Herrin, Betty Thornton, Pat McIntyre, Flora May, Margaret Hill, Shirley Catledge, Jo Anne Adcock, and Joan Byrne.

VOCATIONAL-TECHNICAL STUDENTS ENTER CAMPUS

PENNY FAIR ACTIVITIES

With the entrance of the vocational-technical students in the Penny Fair campaign for king and queen, campus class activities have been accelerated.

The vocational students elected as their candidates for royalty Shirley Ferguson and Al Williams. They have begun building their fund for votes by imposing fines for tardiness to classes, tax on haircuts, and by sizable out-right collections.

Among other campus collection projects have been the cake sale last night by high school seniors, and the all girl football game for sophomores with Westside girls opposing residents of Main.

College Machine Shop Makes

Penny Fair New Crowns For Coming Ceremonies

Penny Fair rulers this year will wear new crowns.

These are of burnished copper ornamented with jewels. They were made in the college machine shop under the supervision of Mr. Frank Stephenson, instructor. Patterns for the crowns were designed in the art department under direction of Mrs. A. L. Denton, art instructor, who is also assisting with plans for the royal robes.

Crowns and robes will be kept by the YWCA, sponsor of the annual event, for use in the future by the Penny Fair kings and queens.

Edwards Girl To Reign As Queen Of Homecoming

Virginia Owens, senior from Edwards, has been selected Queen of the seventh annual Hinds High School Homecoming.

The date of the high school homecoming has been set for October 31, according to Coach Louis Boteler.

Future Business Leaders Bring Conference Here

The Future Business Leaders of America State Conference will be held at Hinds Friday and Saturday, Nov. 15th and 16th, according to Mrs. Maybelle Furness, faculty sponsor of the local chapter.

The conference will open with registration and general meeting Friday afternoon followed by a banquet in the cafeteria Friday night. Committee meetings and a general session Saturday morning will close the conference.

Dr. A. J. Lawrence of the University of Mississippi will be the featured speaker to representatives from secondary schools and colleges of the state.

Addie Carolyn Pearson, president of the state conference, and Jogene Hand, secretary are making plans for receiving the visitors.

Alma Lee Grantham, president of the local chapter, is overall chairman of the conference activities.

OCTOBER THOUGHT

They fluttered past my window
This late October day—
Two brilliant yellow butterflies,
In flight and spirit gay.

No fear had they of winter,
December's rain and cold;
Late roses bloomed across their way,
Though summer's days were old.

My heart in gorgeous color
Shall lilt though love soon goes;
Why dread the folded wing / and still,
If summer had her rose!

STAFF MEETING

A paper staff meeting will be held at 10:20 Friday morning in the Hindsonian office for the purpose of naming staff positions.

Jackson, Vicksburg Students Dominate Hinds Junior College Term Honor Roll

Jackson and Vicksburg students led the numbers at Hinds Junior College who placed on the first term honor roll.

Making A's and B's in the college division for the first six weeks of the current session are the following students, according to Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar, who released the honor roll.

Alice Marie Allen, Mendenhall; Carol Jean Benton, Jackson; Ann Boyd, Raymond; Billie Jean Bridges, Jackson; Joanne Carpenter, Morton; James Coley, Vicksburg; Selma Earnest, Slate Springs; Warren Fortner, Glen Allen; Dick Gabriel, Jackson; Warren Garrett, Crystal Springs; Alma Lee Grantham, Jackson; Elizabeth Herring, Winona; Thomas Hicks, Vicksburg; Pansy Jue, Vicksburg; Jeff Kitchens, Jackson; Gustave Kuhnert, Vicksburg; Jeannine McGuire, McComb; Flora May, Pearl; Lillie Meadows, Brandon; Addie Carolyn Pearson, Star; Larry Pennington, Jackson;

Marilyn Phillips, Carthage; Delores Ray, Sharon; Jo Ann Rhodes, Raymond; Claude Roberts, Utica; Faye Rollins, Jackson; Jimmie Sheppard, Brandon; Barbara

Speight, Jackson; William Thomas, Jackson; Nancy Turnage, Jackson; Sara Webb, Jackson; Ann Williams, Utica; Janyce Wisniewski, Vicksburg.

In the high school senior class, with the exception of one student from Edwards, and one from Jackson, Raymond and Bolton students composed the honor roll.

These are, from Raymond: Dorothy Brock, Nancy Ruth Chapman, Betty Denton, Bill Ferguson, Mary Linda Herrington; Maurice Holliday, Margaret Lynn Peyton, and Donald Sheffield.

From Bolton are Mary Bess Beard, and Robert Seawright.

From Edwards, Virginia Owen, and from Jackson, Dale Myers.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments:

For length of days and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

BUDDY CALHOUN, Forest Hill, and Delores Stevenson, Pearl, will be the featured twirlers at the halftime activities of the game between the Hinds Junior College Eagles and the Holmes Junior College Bulldogs. Special acts will be the using of fire batons and fire rope jumping.

Historical Highlights Of Nationally Famous Hinds

By BARBARA SPEIGHT and BARBARA CLIFFORD

Deep in the heart of Mississippi, 14 miles west of Jackson, is Hinds Junior College, a community college.

Founded as a county agricultural high school in 1917 with the expressed purpose of providing educational opportunities at low cost to the student willing to work, the school was built on the old home site of J. R. Eggleston, captain of the Merrimac of Merrimac and Monitor fame.

On the campus in that opening year were the administration building, later known as Old Science Hall; a boys' dormitory, now Shangri-La; a girls' dormitory, now Main; a superintendent's home, now a faculty duplex, a power plant; and a barn. The school then owned 74 acres of land.

In the first year, W. N. Taylor served as superintendent. Upon his resignation, R. E. L. Sutherland was made acting superintendent, and in 1918 was made superintendent to become president of the junior college, the first year of college work being added in 1922, and the second in 1926, when Hinds Junior College was officially born. That year the enrollment passed the 400 mark. A new administration building, now the library building, was added that year.

Winning Streak

The next year, 1927, was the beginning of a long winning streak for Hinds. The state cup for first place in literary and athletic events went to Hinds that year, and the three years following.

The college "grew up" in 1928 when it was admitted to the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

In 1930, G. J. Cain became president of Hinds when President Sutherland resigned to accept the presidency of Mississippi State College for Women. By 1933, the enrollment passed the 550 mark. The year 1936 brought the state cup for literary and athletic competition back home to the Hinds students, and first place honors to the Hinds debate team.

In 1937 a well-equipped gymnasium and a second dormitory for boys, now Central, were added to the campus. That year, also, brought awards to the college music department from the Commercial Appeal's Cottonland Music Festival—first places to the men's chorus, the women's trio, and the male quartet in the senior division; in the junior division, Hinds soprano soloist took first place.

G. M. McLendon became president of the college in 1938 when President Cain resigned to accept a position in the Mississippi State Department of Education.

The following year campus drives were paved; a lighted football field was added; additional shops were constructed, and the Meat Curing and Cold Storage Plant was built.

Over 700 students attended Hinds in 1940, and once again highest honors in literary competition, superior rating in dramatics, championship in track events, and for the fourth consecutive time, first place in debate in the state finals were won by Hinds. The next year, 1941, the beginning of the war, with a lessened enrollment, the college won first place in platform events in the state, and first place in debate.

The curriculum was expanded to include an "all out" war effort. In 1942 classes in war training were organized including welding, aircraft riveting, auto-mechanics, and pilot training.

Football Champs

In 1944 again the state junior college football championship was brought to Hinds, and five players were placed on the all-state team.

When the war ended, Hinds once again turned its attention to vocational trades, and a new Vocational Trades Building was added in 1945. In 1947 a new dormitory for girls, now Westside, was made available. In the same year another dormitory for boys, Eastside, was built.

The next year saw the addition of Music Hall, a new science building and a new practice field. Athletic honors that year were marked by four championships in weight-lifting state contests.

In the spring of the 1949-50 session Old Science Hall was destroyed by fire originating in the National Guard headquarters on the ground floor.

The next year marking the largest enrollment in the history of the college, 750, saw the continuation of the expansion program, as the Band Hall was added to the Music Hall, and a full-scale poultry project was begun, supplying eggs and chicken for the cafeteria. That year Hinds won the state track meet for the fourth time in succession. Trophy cases were built and placed in the Administration Building. The state junior college music festival was held on the campus. Boys' dormitories were remodeled, and concrete porches were added to Main and Shangri-La.

Rose Bowl Win

In 1952 Hinds Junior College continued to grow. The new Administration Building was opened to students. The John Bell Williams CAA approved airport was assigned to the school, hangar and lean-to shops included. Training in airplane body mechanics and engine mechanics became available. The football team won the Olander Bowl game at Galveston, Texas, January 1, 1952 against the San Angelo team of Texas, Pioneer Conference Champions, presaging an unforgettable victory in 1954 when

HINDS NEW FACULTY

Mr. Warren D. Fortenberry

This week the Hindsonian has chosen Mr. Warren D. Fortenberry, Hind's new director of reading, to occupy its traditional arena for new teachers.

sippi Southern College (Hattiesburg). His efforts at Southern gained him both the BA and the MA degrees.

He apparently made quite a splash at Southern, for, in the course of his studies, he became the treasurer of the student body; the vice president of Alpha Tau Omega, social fraternity; the president of Kappa Pi, honorary art fraternity; and he was affiliated with Phi Delta Kappa, honorary educational fraternity.

Mr. Fortenberry's hobby is art, his interests lying in the fields of ceramics sculpturing, and oil painting.

When asked for his opinion of Hinds, Mr. Fortenberry said: "Hinds is one of the most progressive junior colleges in the South, not only in service to the local community but in service to Mississippi through the academic and vocational programs here."

Facts of Mr. Fortenberry's past appear here, but some things are hard to place in print. We salute Mr. Fortenberry, not because he is highly educated, nor because he is a fine teacher, but because of the kind of man he is—the kind of man that all of us admire.

SCALING THE CLEF

Put On Your Brainy Beanies

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Put on your brainy beanies; we're going to have a contest! Yep, here is contest that should make you go "Zip, Zip".

The rules are as follows:

1. You must correctly predict the top five songs for next week.
2. All entries must be turned in to the Hindsonian office by 2:30 Friday. All entries should be marked CONTEST.
3. Only one entry per person is permitted.
4. Please sign your name to your entry.

What do you win?

HINDS' NEW INSTRUCTORS TO BE COFFEE GUESTS OF THE G. M. McLENDONS

Hinds' new teachers will be coffee guests of President and Mrs. McLendon in the McLendon home on the campus Thursday evening of this week at eight o'clock.

Hinds Eagles defeated El Camino Junior College by 13-7 in the Junior Rose Bowl competition before a 61,000 crowd in Pasadena, Calif.

The President's home, and the new science building are the two most recent buildings added to the campus. The latter, opened this fall, is one of the most modern and best equipped science buildings in the state.

Now what of the future for this community college, deep in the heart of Mississippi? Nationally recognized, highly accredited, outstanding in academic and athletic achievements, with the current enrollment of 951, Hinds Junior College faces the future with confidence, "Hinds marches on".

All expense paid tour of Europe?

No.

New car?

No.

Anything at all?

Yes.

What?

Can't tell.

Enter the contest and find out. The winner will be announced in next week's column.

To help you on your way, we list the top five songs of the week, according to the surveys of the Billboard and WSLI's TOP THIRTY.

1. Wake Up Little Susie.
2. Jailhouse Rock.
3. Honeycomb.
4. Tammy.
5. Diana.

HINDS JUNIOR says . . .

Tell me not in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream;
For the rat will flunk that slumbers
Tests are harder than they seem!

G. M. McLendons To Hold Reception For Sophomores

College sophomores will don best bibs and tuckers Thursday afternoon and go across the street from the campus to be honored guests in the home of President and Mrs. G. M. McLendon.

Six freshman girls will assist with serving and conducting the guests on a tour of the new home, one of the most recent additions to the Hinds campus.

Receiving with President and Mrs. McLendon will be Dean and Mrs. M. F. Herring; class sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Beemon; and Miss Gertrude Davis, dean of women.

Reception hours are from six to seven-thirty.

Phi Theta Kappa Invites 9 Members To Honorary Club

Nine sophomores have been invited to membership in Phi Theta Kappa, national junior college honorary fraternity recognizing scholarship, citizenship, leadership, and character, Ben Morgan, president of the local chapter reports.

Those receiving invitations to the fall initiation are these: James Coley, Vicksburg; William Fortner, Glen Allen; Florence Hearn, Redwood; Elizabeth Herring, Winona; Pansy Jue, Vicksburg; Gayle Lee, Mendenhall; Claude Roberts, Utica; Sarah Selman, Jackson; and Ray Tomlinson, Jackson.

Pledges chosen had a 2.0 or above average on all previous college work, and were approved by a faculty committee and active members of the Hinds chapter.

The initiation services, open to the public, will be held Tuesday, p.m., November 5, at 7 o'clock in the Music Hall.

Assisting the chapter president in the activities will be Selma Earnest, secretary; Carol Benton, treasurer; and Miss Mildred Herrin, faculty sponsor.

HINDS LIBRARY ASSISTANT TO ATTEND MEET

Hinds Junior College's library will be represented at the Mississippi Library Association convention scheduled at Clarksdale, October 24-26.

According to Mrs. Gertrude Rowzee, head librarian, Hinds' representative will be Mrs. Virginia Riggs, reference and circulation librarian.

Mrs. Riggs holds the state position of secretary of the college section in the Library Association.

Over 450 representatives are expected at the convention this week. Featured speaker for the event is Dr. Robert Bruce Weirick from the University of Illinois. Also speaking at the convention will be Miss Helen Geer, a foremost expert on library circulation methods.

THE ALLEN TWINS—Two of Hinds Junior College's high stepping Hi-Steppers are Barbara Ann Allen and Laura Nan Allen ready for pigskin action.

The twins hail from Jackson. They will perform with the precision dance team Saturday night.

English People Cast Distasteful Eye Toward 300,000 West Indies Negroes

By BUCK O'CONNOR

In England there is also a race problem. After more than 300,000 Negroes came from the West Indies to the mother country, the English cast a distasteful eye toward the migrants. Should Great Britain have 15,000,000 Negroes, as does the South, her problem would be much the same as ours.

PEP RALLY

A Holmes Bulldog will be burned at the stake tomorrow night at 7:15 in front of the Administration Building.

A pep rally will be conducted by the Hinds Junior College cheerleaders. Leading the cheers will be Head cheerleader Ann Boyd, Nancy Pharr, Sue Pope, Janyce Wisniewski, Peggy Sandford, and Mary Nell McGowen.

The undefeated Eagles have compiled a total of 7 victories this season.

Penny Fair Funds To Help Students In Other Lands

"Hinds Junior College, Raymond, Miss.: Your generous contribution will help to relieve the distress of thousands of students in many parts of the world who are still hungry and cold and sick. The spiritual value of your testimony of concern for their needs cannot be over-estimated as a contribution to understanding and peace."

The excerpt above is one from the many letters of acknowledgement of the Hinds Penny Fair fund, a contribution made annually through the years to the World University Service, "WUS".

Funds raised this year in the United States will be spent in many countries for student needs. Among these are the Refugee Scholarship program in France; relief and assistance to individual students in need in Greece; University Health Service, Yugoslavia; construction of student TB wards in India, Japan, Korea, and many similar needs in other lands.

The WUS funds spent in the United States are allotted to the Displaced Student Loan Fund and Scholarship program, and to a broad college program of education

Writer Describes Football Player With Unusual Words; Ideal Player Judges Success Of Team By Yardstick

(Note: This article is anonymously written, and is quite old, but still applies to the immortal gridiron hero.)

Between the innocence of boyhood and the dignity of man, we find a sturdy creature called the football player. Football players come in assorted weights, heights, jersey colors and numbers, but all have the same creed: to play every game to the best of their ability.

Football players are found everywhere — underneath, on top of, running around, pumping over, passing by, twisting from, or driving through the enemy. Teammates rub them, officials penalize them, students cheer them, kid brothers idolize them, coaches criticize them, alumni tolerate them, coeds adore them, and mothers worry about them. A football player is courage in cleats, hope in a helmet, pride in pads, and the best of young manhood in moleskins.

When your team is behind, a football player is incompetent, careless, indecisive, lazy, uncoordinated, and stupid. Just when your team threatens to turn the tide of battle, he missed a block, fumbles the ball, drops a pass, jumps offside, falls down, runs the wrong way, or completely forgets his assignment.

A football player is a composite — he eats like Notre Dame, sleeps like Notre Dame, but more often than not, plays like Grand Canyon

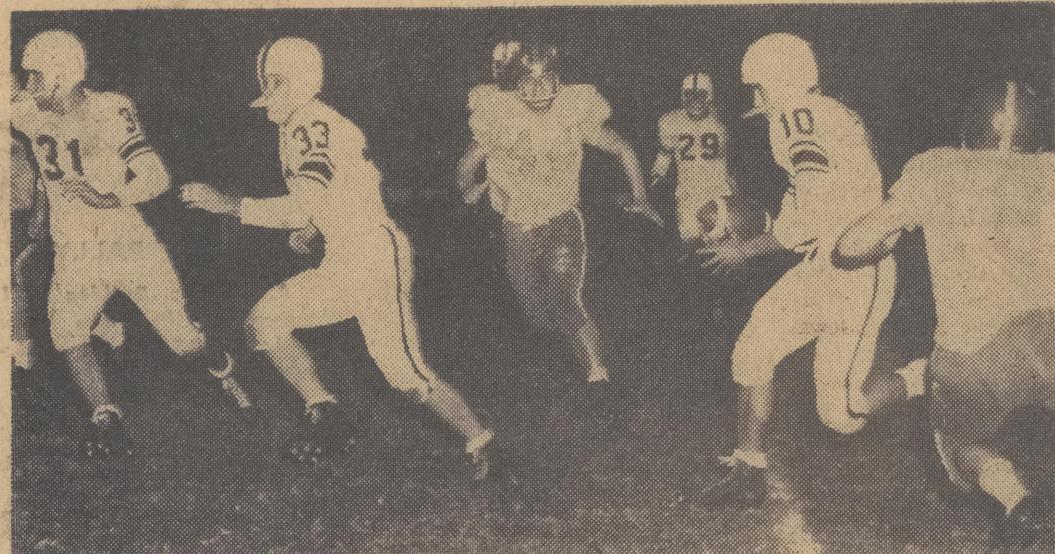

Grade School. To the opponents publicity man, he has the strength of an ox, the size of an elephant, the cunning of a fox, the agility of an adagio dancer, the quickness of a cat and the ability of Red Grange Bronko Nagurski, Glenn Davis, and Jim Thorpe combined.

To his own coach he has, for press purposes, the stability of mush, the fleetness of a snail, the mentality of a mule, is held together by adhesive tape, bailing wire, sponge rubber, and has about as much chance of playing on Saturday as would his own grandfather.

To an alumnus a football player is someone who will never kick as well, run as far, block as viciously, tackle as hard, fight as fiercely, give as little ground, score as many points, or generate as much spirit as did the particular players of his own yesteryear.

A football player is a wonderful creature — you criticize him but you can't discourage him. You can defeat his team, but never his spirit.

MASTERFUL MELVIN REELS — Hinds JC Quarterback Melvin Champagne (10) follows the lead of End Jerome Cherry (31) and Guard Bennie Hawkins (33) for an 18 yard gain to the Copiah-Lincoln 37 in Friday's 27-0 Hinds victory. Co-Lin Guard Jimmy Kendrick (center) and Halfback Jimmy Freeman, both from Hazlehurst, close upon Champagne.

Experts Consider Knit Fabrics Good In Winter Season

It may be fall but it's still warm in the sun. Just the same, if you've collapsed in the shade lately, you know that summer's gone. It's time for something more than a shirt.

A long-sleeved knit shirt is pretty comfortable along about now — just warm enough. And this isn't the old polo-shirt deal, either. The newest knit shirts are cut just like a regular shirt, complete with button-down collars. In the solid colors, red is a natural. Loden green is growing fast in popularity, too. Stripes are always good, particularly when they're offered in ivy colorings. Trend setters swing to the ones with a horizontal stripe across the chest (broadening, I'm told), designed after the Italian style.

Knit Fabrics are Good

There's a good choice of fabrics in knits this season. Besides the perennial favorite, the flat knit cotton, there are now all-cottons that look tweedy and wooly. A new Orlon-wool construction creates a fabric that is both warm and washable. For a weekend trip to a neighboring campus choose a 100 percent Orlon knit that affords all the advantages of quick drying and a minimum of wrinkling. Whichever you pick, and whatever pattern of color you like, they all look pretty trim.

Ivy League is ever Popular

Of course, there are times when even the handsome knit shirt is too informal. If you want a warm, comfortable shirt that's still dressy enough for dinner off campus, the new Arrow Cambridge Cloth shirts provide the answer. These are made of brushed cotton, and they feel almost as soft as cashmere. In solid colors, such as blue or ivory, they can be worn any place you would wear a good oxford button-down. Ivy league styling, with the new short-pointed Glen button-down collar plus trim Mitoga fit, makes this a great shirt for almost any fall occasion. In broken line checks or stripes, the Cambridge Cloth takes on a sportier look.

COMEBACK — Co-Lin's Leslie Henning (17) tries to get away from Hinds' C. J. Alexander, but is stopped after gaining five yards deep in his own territory. Hinds was successful in stopping Co-Lin the same way all night, and went on to win 27-0.

Tennis Tournament Nears Completion With Advance Girls In Athletic Group

The advance tennis tournament sponsored by WWA is nearing completion. In the matches that have already been played Nancy Pharr defeated Roxie Easley 6-1; 6-0; Jean Gill defeated Virginia Ronkin 6-2; 6-3; and Phyllis Dungan won over Selma Earnest 6-0; 6-1; and Peggy Fugate 1-6; 6-4; 6-4. Yet to play are:

Mary K. Gates vs. winner of Florence Hearn vs. Anna Summers, Nancy Pharr vs. Sharrott McClurg, Regina Godley vs. Jean Gill, and Phyllis Dungan vs. winner of Regina Godley vs. Jean Gill.

In the non-beginners tennis tournament, Joyce Bethune defeated Mary Tolar 6-4, Jo Ann Rhodes defeated Nancy Turnage 6-0, Marilyn Phillips defeated Carolyn Butts 6-0, Shirley Ferguson won over Lillie Meadows 6-1 and Marilyn Phillips 6-0, Reba Gail Pierce defeated Dorothy Butler 6-1, and Iris McKay defeated Jimmie Sheppard 6-0. Others to play:

Ann Boyd vs. winner of Ann Williams vs. Mary Hart, Sidney Comfort vs. Grace Loper, Joyce Bethune vs. winner of Sidney Comfort vs. Grace Loper, Shirley Gardner vs. Mary Nell McGowen, Jo Ann Rhodes vs. winner of Shirley Gardner vs. Mary Nell McGowan,

Your November Meal Ticket Is Due

Do you want your "three squares" on October 28? You'd better ante up at the business office before closing time, Friday—October 25. Alternatives? You could go on a day-long diet; you could eat at home if you are there. But come Monday morning, October 28, no meal ticket, no eat, in the cafeteria, that is.

Faye Rollins vs. Docie Joyner, Jeannine McGuire vs. Ruth Campbell, Dot Pickett vs. Nancy Lee, Polly Harrington vs. Maybelle Benn, Reba Gail vs. winner of Janyce Wisniewski, Iris McKay vs. winner of Robinette Riddle vs. Margarita Morris.

The annual intra-class basketball, which is sponsored by the WAA, will be getting under way next week. Girls that are interested should check the P. E. bulletin boards for further notice.

Women's Athletic Members Select Three To Council

Three sophomore girls were named to the Women's Athletic Association council in the election last week.

Florence Hearn, Redwood; Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Bruce; and Roxie Easley, Bruce; were elected to the positions over Peggy Fugate, Madison; and Sharlotte McClurg, Vicksburg.

Iris McKay, Pelahatchie; Ann Boyd, Raymond; and Regina Godley, Vicksburg, sophomore council members, were awarded their sweaters in assembly by Mrs. Anne Gookin, girls physical education instructor. This is the second year for these three girls to be members of the council.

Elected were Polly Harrington, Phyllis Dungan, Thelma Huff, and Ann Taylor. These girls won over Nancy Pharr, Jo Roby, Sue Pope, Ginger Cagle, Faye Rollins, and Docie Joyner.

Roxie Easley was elected treasurer, and Ann Taylor, the historian of the association.

Eagles Blank Wolf Pack In Ideal 27-0 Shellacking

By CURTIS NIX

Upset-minded Co-Lin received a sound shellacking last Friday night as the Eagles from Hinds exploded for four touchdowns in the first half and held the Wolves scoreless for a 27-0 victory.

Hinds' first score came nine plays after C. J. Alexander returned the ensuing kickoff to his own 47.

With Melvin Champagne in the quarterback slot, the Eagles moved to twelve yard line. Ray Abruzzese picked up 11 on an end run to the one. However, a five-yard penalty on the play placed the ball on the 17. Champagne promptly took to the air and hit Abruzzese in the end zone from eleven yards out for a six point advantage. Levi, "the toe," Barber converted.

The Wolves took the kickoff and couldn't move. Homer Boyd raced through to block the punt with Bennie Hawkins recovering the ball on the ten. Alexander scampered nine yards to the one and in the following play plowed over for the score. On Barber's first conversion attempt Hinds was assessed a 15 yard penalty for holding. The second attempt from the 17 was short.

Co-Lin was stopped again as alert Eagle center, Glynn Russell, intercepted a pass at midfield, picked up blockers, and scored untouched with Alexander, Hawkins, and Jimmy Stubbs throwing key blocks. Barber's point after was good. The tally made the score 20-0 with 3:48 minutes remaining in the first period.

The final Eagle score came early in the second quarter. A Co-Lin punt and penalty gave Hinds possession at the Wolves' 20 yard stripe. Abruzzese ran for five, Barber picked up 11, and Abruzzese sailed around right end for the touchdown. Barber's kick was perfect.

Co-Lin threatened seriously only once. After driving to the Eagle nine, the Wolves' drive was smothered by a wall of defensive giants.

In the third period Co-Lin punted to the Eagle 34, the ball rolling dead as a pack of Wolves hovered over it. Alexander quickly picked up the ball, got away from the surprised Wolves, and raced down the sidelines to the Co-Lin 29. The Eagles moved inside the ten, but on fourth down Tex Medley was thrown for a loss.

Alexander was a continuous threat with his running and was a stickout on defense. He was ably aided by Abruzzese, Barber, and Champagne.

Hawkins and Russell led the Eagle strong line, each getting several jarring tackles. Plenty of help was received from Wimpy Martin, Tommy Furlow, Jerome Cherry, Stubbs, and Boyd.

In the third period Abruzzese was removed from the game with a sprained right ankle. However, it is believed that it is not too serious.

The Eagles knocked second place Co-Lin to third place and will face arch-rival Holmes who moved up to second place after the Wolves' loss. For the second week in succession, Hinds will face the number two team.

GOING UP — Halfback Pruitt Blalock of Hinds Junior College picks up five yards before being lifted up and slammed down by Co-Lin's James Book. Blalock carries from the Co-Lin 45 to the 40. About to throw a block is Hinds' Tommy Furlow (42) and on the receiving end is Co-Lin's Jimmy Kendrick.

HINDS' LEAGUE LEADING EAGLES

Hinds Junior College's undefeated and untied Eagles place their unbeaten record on the line Saturday night against the strong Holmes Bulldogs of Goodman in Eagle stadium. # Hinds Homecoming Hosts Holmes

Teddy Bears Unload Offense To Win Female Football Contest Monday 7-0

Monday afternoon the Teddy Bears, Westside, defeated the Lady Tigers, Main, in all girls football game 7-0.

Regina Godley, quarterback, made the lone touchdown while Melinda Ambrose, halfback, ran the extra point.

Ann Boyd was head of the Lady Tigers squad and Regina Godley was captain of the Teddy Bears.

Running from the T formation, the Bears were led offensively by Melinda Ambrose, Anna Summers, and Regina Godley.

Defensive stars for the Bears were Mildred Dowdy, Florence Hearn, Reba Gail Pierce, Roxie Easley, Sharrott McClurg, Iris Mc Kay, and Jimmie Hawkins.

The Tigers also ran their offensive attack for a T formation. Leading the attack was Ann Boyd, Martha Sharp, Faye Rollins, and Donna Musil, who was the only casualty of the game. She suffered from a sprained ankle.

Leading the defensive attack for the Tigers were Robinette Riddle, Dot Pickett and Delores Stevenson.

Although the Tigers, under false pretense, slipped a male, Gerald Miles, into the game, he was unable to stop the strong Bear attack.

Other players for the winning team were linemen Ann Taylor, Shirley DuBoise, Joyce Bethune, Lillie Meadows, and Polly Harrington. Completing the back field there were Shirley Ferguson and Nancy Pharr.

To complete the line for the Tigers there were Linda Roberts, Ann Williams, Priscilla Greenland, Jo Roby, Sue Pope, Billy Jo Pettis, and Billie Bridges. Other members of the backfield were Eleanor Johnson and Linnie Parman.

Burley Smith, Hinds Sophomore, was crowned king of homecoming by the captains.

HINDS over Holmes (The Bulldog bark is louder than the bite).

Copiah-Lincoln over Sunflower (The Wolves had to swallow plenty pride last week and will be hungry for victory).

East Mississippi over East Central (Warrior members will be crushed in more ways than one).

Pearl River over Jones (Coach Dobie has suffered enough trouble this season).

Tyler, Texas over Perkinston (A little too much longhorn Texas beef for the Mississippians.)

Miss. Southern Freshmen over Southwest (Another downfall for JC rookie coach Red).

OTHER COLLEGES

Mississippi State over Alabama (State is ready).

Mississippi Southern over Chattanooga (Those Southerners love that Tennessee meat).

Ole Miss over Arkansas (Competition will be tougher for the Rebels this weekend).

L. S. U. over Florida (Taylor and Cannon are setting the woods on fire down Tiger Town way).

Southwestern over Millsaps (It'll be a long and weary trip home for coach Sammy and Company).

State Junior College Championship May Be Determined Saturday Night

Golden opportunity knocks once again for the unbeaten Hinds Junior College Eagles Saturday night when the Holmes Bulldogs invade Raymond for what is expected to be something akin to a gridiron classic.

A victory for the Bulldogs would send the visiting Holmes gridders tied for first place with the Eagles. And, on the other hand, a win for the Eagles would keep the Hinds aggregation in the undefeated and untied ranks and atop the State Junior College circuit.

It will be Homecoming for the home standing Eagles and nothing would suit the Bulldogs any better than to spoil their arch-rivals' Homecoming ceremonies. The Bulldogs are rated in second place, and they are about the only teams still in reaching distance of the high-flying Eagles.

A 22-year review of the Hinds-Holmes squabbles gives Hinds a slight edge. The Eagles have rolled up 11 victories, while the Holmes team has acquired eight. The 1956 game ended tied 6-6 and in 1943 and '44 the teams did not encounter each other.

Holmes won six of their eight games from 1935 through '40; the Bulldogs picked up two more victories in 1949 and '50 to the tune of 21-14 and 19-12.

Hinds has encountered very little trouble with the Bulldogs since 1940, only the loss of two games. The Eagles have collected 307 points in the 22 years and the Bulldogs 286.

Joe Renfroe, Hinds head coach, holds a record of eight wins and two losses since becoming a member of the Hinds coaching staff. The Eagles' tutor is undefeated in his own right as master-mind of the Hinds team. Renfroe shows a 3-0 record as head coach.

Nancy Carter, Raymond; Doris Toles, Jackson; or Margarita Morris, Yazoo City, will be crowned queen of Hinds' 1957 Homecoming at the halftime Saturday night. The other two young ladies will serve as sophomore maids. Donna Musil, Vicksburg, and Flora May, Pearl, will complete the court as freshman maids.

Hinds High Eagles Go To Bentonia

Coach Louis Boteler's Hinds High Eagles will invade Bentonia Friday night for their fifth game of the season.

The Eagles have posted a record of 3 wins and 1 defeat in their first 4 games. Hinds High has defeated Satartia, Terry, Flora, and they suffered their only setback of the season to the Puckett Wolves 27-0.

The Boteler coached aggregation picked up the 3 victories by the following scores, 41-0 over Terry, 31-14 over Satartia, and 19-0 over Flora.

Byram Freshman To Edit Paper On Local Campus

Wayne Trotter, Byram, has recently been named Editor-in-chief of the Hindsonian, Hinds Junior College's weekly publication.

Other members named to the staff are Florence Hearn, Redwood, copy editor; Buck O'Connor, Vicksburg, and Bobby Sheffield, Raymond, news editors; Marilyn Phillips, Carthage, feature editor; Royce Baker, Brandon, editorial assistant; Carolyn Barton, Macon, and Buddy Calhoun, Forest Hill, columnists; Curtis Nix, Forest Hill, sports editor; Regina Godley, Vicksburg, club editor; and Billy Swilley, Brandon, circulation manager.

Reporters are: Sara Webb, Barbara Clifford, Barbara Speight, Rebecca Murphy, Anne Taylor, and Janyce Wisneski.

2 Representatives To Speak At Hinds Next Wednesday

Two representatives from Vickers Inc. will speak to Hinds Junior College students at assembly next Wednesday.

Mr. Al Beck, plant superintendent, and Mr. E. C. Haapala, plant comptroller, will discuss skilled trades in the Jackson area, according to Mr. F. J. Stephenson, machine shop instructor of the vocational department.

Billy Matthews and Mary Beasley of the Raymond Consolidated School will have charge of the devotional.

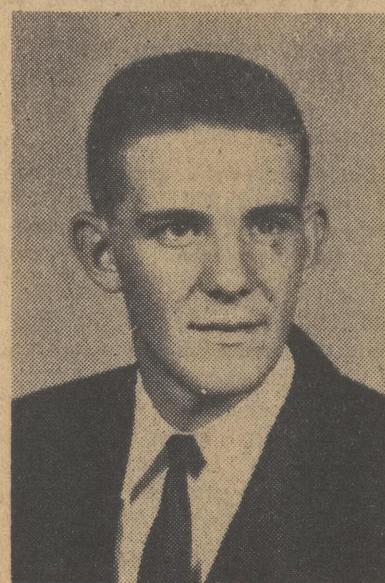

Mr. Walter H. Gibbs, vocational-coordinator, reports this to be the first of a series of programs to be presented by the vocational department.

Vocational-Technical Division Offers Many Courses In Specialized Training

All eyes were focused on the big red, white, and blue float in the Homecoming parade as it rolled around the corner into view. Hanging from its side was a sign that about told the story. Here was a symbol of learning — a gaily decorated testimony to the efforts of Hinds Junior College's Vocational-Technical division.

These efforts began with the opening of the vocational division in 1944. Eight years later, in 1952, the technical section threw its doors open to the area students. Today, under the direction of Mr. Walter Gibbs, the department boasts 185 vocational students and 97 technical-industrial majors. Fifteen courses, ranging from auto mechanics to refrigeration, are offered to interested students.

The vocational department today is so completely integrated with the rest of the school that a casual observer couldn't tell the

ROBERT LEE SHEFFIELD

Raymond Student Wins Hinds Frosh Class Presidency

In the second primary on Friday of last week, the election of officers for the freshman class was completed.

Bobby Shieffield, Raymond, was named president over the runner-up Robert O'Connor of Vicksburg.

M. J. Harrison, Forest Hill, was elected to the vice president's post, edging out George Stockstill of Brandon.

For secretary, Mary Tolar, Sandy Hook, was elected over Nancy Pharr of Vicksburg.

In the treasurer's race Charles ("Pat") Sanford, Jackson, defeated Flora May, Pearl, and Reba Gail Pierce, Jackson.

More than 200 votes were cast in the final election which was sparked by campus-wide campaigning, scores of posters, and considerable soap-box oratory.

difference. They even have two candidates, Shirley Ferguson and Al Williams, in the running for the rulership of the Penny Fair.

Like the regular academic classes, this department has its own governmental set-up. Charles McWilliams, of Jackson, serves as president with Ray Stewart, Raymond; Samuel Magee, Bolton; and James Hardwick, Raymond, assisting him by serving in the respective offices of vice president, secretary, and treasurer.

Each class also has a representative on the Committee to Coordinate Student Activities, these members being: Earl Tollison, Raymond; Edward Taylor, Brookhaven; Alvin Ratliff, Tylertown; Charles Smith, Raymond; Richard Bevers, Vicksburg; Charles Wilson, McComb; Easley Abernathy, Jackson; and William Clark, Philadelphia.

Morris Reigns As Queen Hinds Homecoming Court

Margarita Morris, sophomore music major from Yazoo City, was crowned Hinds' Homecoming Queen of 1957 during the half-time activities of the Hinds-Holmes football game Saturday night. Her escort was Hank Anglade.

Doris Toles, Jackson, escorted by Ross Alman, and Nancy Carter, Raymond, attended by Lamar Knight, served as sophomore maids.

Flora May, Pearl, and Donna Musil, Vicksburg, freshman maids, were escorted by Don Willis, and Charles Wall, respectively.

The Hinds Junior College band played "Far Away Places" as the court's float entered the field at the beginning of ceremonies. The Queen, unidentified and hidden under colorful "rags" was approached by Fairy Godmother Virginia Lee, who waved the magic wand. Immediately the lovely queen was revealed wearing a sea-green formal.

Future Business Leaders

Organize Central Chapter

For 1957-58 School Year

Six members of Hinds Future Business Leaders of America club recently accompanied their sponsor, Mrs. Maybelle Furness, to Jackson for purpose of helping Mrs. Mary Denson organize a FBLA chapter at Central High School.

Those participating in the program were: Addie Carolyn Pearson, Lillie Meadows, Anna Summers, Jimmie Hawkins, Jogene Hand, and Howard Crassons.

President G. M. McLendon placed the crown, and the queen and her court were seated in a section reserved in the stands. Ray Tomlinson, president of the sophomore class attended Virginia Lee, fairy godmother of the queen.

Immediately following the game, a reception honoring the queen and her court was held in the college cafeteria. At the conclusion of the reception, a dance in the student activities hall adjoining the cafeteria concluded the program of the college homecoming.

Lamplighter's Club To Send Delegate To State Meeting

The State Convention of the Mississippi Home Economics Association is to be held at the Heidelberg Hotel in Jackson on Friday and Saturday, November 1-2.

The Lamplighter's Club, the local college home economics organization, is taking part in the convention by presenting a musical number to the club section of the association on Saturday morning. The number will be Debussy's "Reverie," presented as a piano solo by Barbara Clifford, publicity chairman of the Lamplighters Club.

Sharlot McClurg, president of the Lamplighters, will represent the club at the convention, and several members are expected to attend.

VIRGINIA OWEN, Edwards, will reign as queen of the Hinds High Homecoming Thursday night when the Baby Eagles host the Byram Bulldogs. It will mark the seventh annual and final homecoming at Hinds High.

Officers Need To Promote Publicity

The newly-elected Freshman officials have recently entered the fold, leaving Hinds with all class and club offices filled for the fall semester.

Each organization either has a reporter or a secretary who is responsible for keeping the public abreast of his particular society. If this officer fails in his duty, then the president inherits the job.

One of the most important facets of anyone's organization is publicity. We hope and trust that there will be no instances of poor public relations exhibited on our campus.

We want the world to know of all the great opportunities for training that Hinds offers, through a well rounded extra-curricular program. Are you doing your part? Are you getting the training your office and membership entitle you to?

Americans Seek Less Work Hours

Can it be that Americans are becoming lazy?

Already blessed with one of the best pay to work ratios in the world, the apparently starving masses of the United Auto Workers, led by Walter Reuther, are letting the call sound for a four-day-work-week.

It will be interesting to note how well the automobile industry holds up under this assault on our national economy. We hope that they show considerably more spunk than they did during the skirmish over the guaranteed annual wage plot.

After all, our forefathers made this country great by devoting most of their waking hours to some useful endeavor.

"Six days shalt thou labor?"

Well, five at the least.

Take Advantage Of Right To Vote

Out of four hundred freshmen, only about two hundred voted during the election of their class officers.

We would like to commend those who supported their candidates by voting for them, but the other half of the freshman class should realize that they owed it to themselves and the rest of the freshmen to vote for the candidates they felt to be most qualified.

It is the duty of your class officers to serve you. You should, therefore, have voted for the candidates most able to serve you and the rest of your class.

Hinds Faculty Merits Appreciation

Commendations are due all those who labored to make the college homecoming program a success.

To Mr. T. T. Beemon, general chairman of arrangements, to all those who worked hard to make the parade possible, and to the vocational-technical group, and the W. A. A. special thanks are due for their impressive floats.

To Coach Joe Renfroe, his assistants, and players, goes our continued appreciation for another superb game.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Athletic Ace Receives Recognition As Outstanding Eagle Ground Gainer

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

Some call him the Black Stallion. Others say the mighty Black Knight.

But whatever the verdict may be he has netted 805 yards in 130 rushes for a 6.2 average per game thus far this season.

Born November 21, 1936, to Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Alexander, Clarence Felix Alexander, Jr., is a native of Donaldsonville, Louisiana.

This black-haired, brown-eyed football player is better known here at Hinds as C. J. Alexander. C. J. seems to have acquired a number of other nicknames.

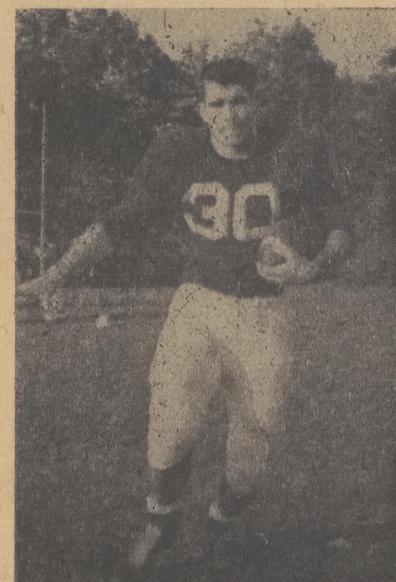

While a student at Donaldsonville High School, C. J. earned letters in football, basketball, and baseball in 1953, 1954, and 1955. He also won letters in track in 1954 and 1955.

During his junior year C. J. was named to the All Area, All District, and All South Louisiana football teams. In his senior year he was named to the All Area, All District, and All State football teams and was an honorable mention to the All South United States team. He played in the All Star game and the Donaldsonville High team won the state championship.

As a high school student, C. J. was a member of the Newman Club and the annual staff and was also on the paper staff. During his senior year he was elected Friendliest Boy, Most Athletic Boy, and Most Valuable Player.

The athletic ace received a football scholarship to L.S.U., where he played left halfback on the first team and was the leading ground gainer on the freshman team. He did not enter school in September of 1956, but came to Hinds second semester.

C. J. ALEXANDER

C. J. is a member of the Catholic Church and a physical education major. He wed his high school sweetheart, Beverly Oliver, last December.

Again the Hindsonian salutes C. J. Alexander. Best wishes for a successful future.

Campus Co-Eds Contribute Humor

By CAROLYN BARTON

The CORSAIR from Pensacola Junior College, Pensacola, Florida, carries this quip: ROTC Student: "I haven't a pencil or paper for the Exam."

Sergeant: "What would you think of a soldier who went into battle without a gun?"

ROTC Student: "I'd think he was an officer."

Here is an "Ode to Chemistry Majors" from THE STUDENT PRINTZ of Southern:

Sing a song of sulfide, a beaker full of lime;

Four and twenty test tubes breaking in a line.

When the corks were opened, the tubes began to leak,

Boy that's an awful mess to have five times a week.

A Sunflower Junior College co-ed remarked: "Golly, my dates are just pouring in." Her roommate replied: "Yeah, so are mine—drip by drip."

Cruelty jokes are explained in the Collegian from Mississippi College with absurdity as the reason. Quoting Ken Rainey: "In telling these jokes, there is no implication that the joke is accepted as 'regular' among the great majority of us. The simple explanation is that such a joke is unreal, so unreal in fact that we laugh at its absurdity."

The October 17 issue of the Mill-

saps PURPLE AND WHITE says "Seems the price of an education last week was a ticket to the late showing of 'Harlem in Havana'."

Conclusively, from East Central Junior College's TOM-TOM: Warning at a dangerous intersection: "Cross Road—Better Humor It."

HINDS JUNIOR says . . .

"It's high time that a certain prof. decides which music teacher he really wants."

McLendons Hold Annual Reception For Local Groups

The Halloween motif, carried out in artistic arrangements of fall flowers, and in chocolate and orange-colored sweets, contributed to the lovely setting in the campus home of President and Mrs. G. M. McLendon on the occasion of the annual reception for college sophomores Thursday evening, from six to seven-thirty o'clock.

Officers and members of the large class of graduating sophomores were welcomed at the door of the spacious reception room by Miss Gertrude Davis.

In the receiving line, in addition to President and Mrs. McLendon, were Dean and Mrs. M. F. Herring, and Prof. and Mrs. T. T. Beemon, sponsors of the class.

Five freshman girls assisted at the reception. Barbara Speight, Jackson, directed the guests into the study, where Mary Lane Noble, Jackson, presided at the register. Patricia Mulligan, Florence, conducted visitors on a tour of the lovely three-bedroom, ranch-type home. In the dining hall Donna Musil, Vicksburg, presided at the coffee service, and Polly Harrington, Aberdeen, at the tea service. Mary Tolar, Sandy Hook, assisted with the refreshments.

Mr. Tom Bowen, son-in-law of President and Mrs. McLendon, bade the guests farewell at the door of the sun parlor.

At eight o'clock on the same evening, new faculty members were coffee guests in the McLendon home.

Those enjoying the hospitality of the occasion were Miss Marjorie McCord of the music department, Mr. Warren Fortenberry, director of the reading program, Mr. E. F. Case, supervisor of the college recreation area at Raymond Lake, and Mrs. Case; Mr. and Mrs. B.D. Sprayberry of the science and mathematics departments; Miss Genevieve Williams, chemistry; and Mr. Irl Dean Rhodes of the public relations office, and Mrs. Rhodes.

Gamma Lambda To Stage Party For Honor Group

Gamma Lambda Chapter, Phi Theta Kappa will honor all "B or Better" students with a morning Coke party Friday at activity period.

The group will assemble in the TV Room of Westside Dormitory.

The following, whose names were secured from the first term honor roll, are those who have been issued invitations to the chapter party: Billie Jean Bridges, Jackson; Joanne Carpenter, Morton; Dick Gabriel, Jackson; Flora May, Jackson; Larry Pennington, Jackson; Delores Ray, Sharon; Jo Ann Rhodes, Raymond; Faye Rollins, Jackson; Barbara Speight, Jackson; Sara Webb, Jackson; Ann Williams, Utica; Janyce Wisniewski, Vicksburg; and Warren Garrett, Crystal Springs.

LEAD HINDS HIGH EAGLE SUPPORT — Seven Hinds lassies have been cheering the Baby Eagles to victory this fall as they have picked up three wins and only one loss in four outings. The cheerleaders will be lending their support Thursday night at the

Phi Theta Kappa To Initiate New Members Tuesday

With Ben Morgan, Gamma Lambda president, in charge of the ritual, nine Phi Theta Kappa pledges will be initiated Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the music auditorium.

Carol Jean Benton, treasurer of the Chapter, will sing the official song of Phi Theta Kappa.

Selma Earnest, secretary, will lead the pledges in the Greek letter formation as required. The public is cordially invited to the initiation ceremony, according to Miss Mildred Herrin, PTK sponsor.

Those to be received into membership are James Coley, Vicksburg; William Fortner, Glen Allen; Florence Hearn, Redwood; Elizabeth Herring, Winona; Pansy Jue, Vicksburg; Gayle Lee, Mendenhall; Claude Roberts, Utica; Sarah Selman, Jackson; and Ray Tomlinson, Jackson.

A brief informal reception for the members and visitors will be held following the initiation.

Unbeaten Eagles To Host Sunflower Friday For Ninth Battle of Campaign

By CURTIS NIX

Displaying a superlative offensive attack and a stubborn, determined defense, the Hinds Junior College Eagles knocked off second place Holmes before an enthusiastic homecoming crowd to remain alone atop junior college standings.

With eight wins in a row under their belts, the high-flying Eagles will face Sunflower from Moorehead Friday night. The Trojans will be out to upset the Eagles.

After taking the opening kickoff the Eagles picked up a first down in two plays. On the third play C. J. Alexander broke into the open and galloped 64 yards for a touchdown with Wimpy Martin and Jerome Cherry opening the hole and Elmo Stringer throwing a key block. Melvin Champagne booted the extra point.

Holmes took the kickoff, moved for one first down, but then was forced to punt. The Eagles marched goalward, picking up five first downs with Alexander spearheading the charge, but were stopped shy of the goal. Holmes took over on downs. After a series of plays a Bulldog got loose and scampered 68 yards down the sidelines before Alexander ran him out of bounds on the three yard line.

On the play Holmes' Cecil Stagg and Alexander had a slight misunderstanding. Their attempts to straighten matters out were quickly interrupted by players, coaches, and officials.

Both players were ejected from the game. Eagle forces held strong under heavy enemy artillery, and Hinds took over on downs.

The second Eagle marker came late in the second period. Champagne sneaked over from the one after the Eagles had driven 48 yards downfield. Levi Barber, doing most of the ball carrying, led this attack. Levi's kick was perfect.

The first half ended with Hinds in front 14-0.

Upon taking the second half kickoff, the Bulldogs were stopped cold by the rugged Eagle line. The Eagles took the Holmes punt and marched 76 yards for their third score. Champagne counted his second touchdown on a beautiful 15 yard keeper play. End Wendell Campbell, playing fullback, and Barber were main factors in this drive. Barber again booted the point after.

Holmes threatened seriously in the third quarter. On fourth down the Bulldogs faked a punt and completed a pass play covering 32 yards. Again the powerful Eagle line checked the Bulldogs, and Hinds took over. Barber reeled off 16, but a holding penalty nullified the play.

After moving to midfield via the Barber-Campbell route, Champagne rolled out left and passed to Barber, who was downed at the 25, the play covering 23 yards. Barber churned to the nine, and Campbell, in two plays, barrelled across the goal line. Barber, the guy with the educated toe, again split the uprights.

Seconds later alert guard and linebacker, Bennie Hawkins, intercepted a 'Dog pass and raced 24 yards down the sidelines before being downed at the Holmes six. On third down Campbell found a hole in the right side and breezed through, and Barber added the point.

Bulldog attempts to score in the closing minutes were smothered by the second Eagle unit. The Eagles took the ball and ran the clock out.

Raymond Abruzzese, out with a sprained ankle, and Alexander, ejected in the second quarter, were ably replaced by Thornton "Tex" Medley, Pruitt Blaylock, and Campbell.

Defensive standouts for the Eagles were Glynn Russell, Bennie Hawkins, Jimmy Stubbs, Stringer, Martin, and Blaylock.

Alexander, who made his exit in the opening minutes of the second period, amassed 96 yards in 10 carries; Barber rolled up 138 yards in 22 carries; Campbell scraped up 86 yards in 14 carries; and Medley toted 15 times for 84 yards.

JUNIOR COLLEGE

HINDS over Sunflower (The Eagles are flying high).

East Mississippi over Holmes (Bulldogs' fire is still flat from last week).

East Central over Itawamba (The Indians might surprise a few people).

Jones over Southwest (they will name their own score).

Copiah-Lincoln over Perkinston (the Wolf Pack can give most any team plenty of trouble except the Eagles).

STATE COLLEGES

Ole Miss over Houston (a rugged Rebel attack will be on the rebound and look out Claude King the Vaught men will be waiting for you).

Mississippi State over Tulane (it should be Stacy and Company all the way).

Mississippi Southern over Abilene Christian (the Southerners have too much defensive power for the Texans).

Delta State over Alabama State Teachers (the Greenies are hard to cage).

Mississippi College over Hendrix (little talent will be seen from either squad).

Louisiana State University over Vanderbilt (after last week's heartbreaker the Tigers will be primed for action). (Season's record on predictions: 27 correct, 7 wrong, 1 tie.)

BROOKS DIRECTS

Lendon Players Ready Production For Friday Night's Debut Curtain

By BUCK O'CONNOR

The Lendon Players will present the fall production, Lavender and Old Lace, Friday night in the college auditorium at 8 p.m.

This comedy-drama by Myrtle Reed is a modern portrait of present day life, with scenes of bristling comedy, arresting drama and a touch of heart warming tenderness.

Mary Ainslie, a charming little lady who has become a tradition in the quaint New England village where she has lived for years, will be played by Carolyn Barton. Miss Ainslie's closest friend, Jane Hathaway, portrayed by Barbara Clifford, is planning a personally conducted tour of Europe. Jane's young niece, Ruth Thorne, played by Melinda Ambrose, is coming from the city to occupy the house of her aunt while the latter is away.

When Jane finds she must leave a week earlier than expected, it is decided that the Hathaway house be closed up and that Ruth stay with Miss Ainslie.

During the warm relationship between Ruth and Miss Ainslie, Carl Winfield, a young newspaper reporter from the city, played by Charles Wall, comes to the village for a rest. On their first meeting Carl is ordered out of Miss Ainslie's house. Later, Miss Ainslie apologizes and fights heroically in order to help Carl regain his vision.

Her actions toward Carl, as well as her reasons for having lived such a strange life are not revealed until just before the final curtain.

Other cast members include Bernice Carlton, by Jo Anne Adcock; Sophrony Trotter, by Iris McKay; Dr. Howard Patterson, by Dee Greathouse; Hepsey, by Rebecca Murphy; Joe Pendleton, by Larry Craft; and James Ball, by Robert Seawright.

There are multitudes of people who have been thrilled by this masterpiece of fiction and it has held its place in many memories long after other plays are forgotten.

Hinds Registration For Second Term Opens Next Month

Preregistration for the second semester will begin immediately after Thanksgiving weekend, according to an announcement from the office of the registrar.

Printed schedules are available now for students who wish to arrange their schedules and get these on file beginning December 2.

Few changes are in view in the current schedule, according to Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar.

State Future Business Leaders To Convene Here

The Fall Conference of the Mississippi Future Business Leaders of America will meet on the Hinds Junior College campus Friday and Saturday, November 15 and 16.

The purpose of the conference is to organize and plan the work for the year. Twelve F.B.L.A. chapters are expected to be present.

Registration will be held from 1:00 to 2:00 in the Administration Building Friday afternoon. The first general meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Music Building at 2:00 Friday, with Addie Carolyn Pearson, state president from Hinds, presiding.

Mr. G. M. McLendon, Hinds president, will welcome the group, followed by the response by Mary Virginia Graham, from Mississippi State College for Women. Alma Lee Grantham, president of Hinds FBLA will then introduce the guest speaker.

Mr. Rubel L. Phillips, Chairman of the Mississippi Public Service Commission of Jackson, will address the group on the topic, "Business and Industry Need You".

The business meeting, following a short recess, will be presided over by Addie Carolyn Pearson. Chapter reports, and roll call by Jogene Hand from Hinds, secretary of Mississippi FBLA and report of the National Convention will be given, followed by the appointment of committees.

The group will then be adjourned until 7:00, when there will be a banquet in the cafeteria. Presiding will be Mary Virginia Graham, vice president of the Mississippi FBLA. The invocation will be given by Jogene Hand.

The speaker of the evening is to be Dr. A. J. Lawrence, advisor of the Mississippi FBLA and Chairman of the Department of Office Administration and Business Education of the University of Mississippi.

PRESIDENT G. M. MCLENDON

College President To Participate In Richmond Meeting

President G. M. McLendon will attend the meeting of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools scheduled for Dec. 2-5 in Richmond, Virginia.

This sixty-second annual meeting has for its theme "Education of Tomorrow's Citizens".

President McLendon will be particularly involved in the meetings of the junior college section working through the committees, administrative, curriculum, legislative, student personnel, and teacher preparation.

President William F. Quillian of Randolph-Macon Woman's College will deliver the main address at the junior college session.

STATE OFFICERS for the Future Business Leaders of America, the organization that Hinds will host this weekend. Seated are, Addie Carolyn Pearson, president, Hinds; back row, Mary Graham, vice president, MSCW; Jogene Hand, secretary, Hinds; Pat Bell, treasurer, Northeast; and Nelda Lyons, reporter, Northeast.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Busy Activity Week On Hinds' Campus

This must be the week we here at Hinds Junior College have chosen as "Activity week."

Already this week has seen a noted speaker on our campus, a very successful recital brought off by the music department, and numerous other activities, including some displays of feminine basketwork—on the court, that is.

Friday night, we will have the privilege of watching the fall production of the Lendon Players, entitled "Lavender and Old Lace," or at least we hope that most of us will take the privilege. This will be one of the high spots of the year. Also the Mississippi Future Business Leaders of America will be meeting on the campus this weekend.

Participation in or observation of our activities is one of the most important facets of our education. We hope that everyone on these premises will take advantage of this coming opportunity.

Pause For A Moment To Be Thankful

To many, Thanksgiving has become a day of American pompousness.

Although a great number of our fellow-countrymen view the day in the sacred light that it was intended to display, more and more of us are going off the deep end. We are beginning to celebrate Thanksgiving with a braggart philosophy — you know, "Everybody look, we've got the land of plenty."

Thanksgiving should be celebrated with an humble spirit. It should be dedicated to clean thoughts and clean living.

It should not pass without a prayer consecrated to those less fortunate than ourselves.

Giving thanks to our Creator is one of the greatest things we can do. By remembering that we are giving thanks, and not showing off, we can also enhance America in the eyes of humanity.

Be Considerate Of Your Librarians

Many students do not yet realize that the library is a great help in studying. It offers reference material on almost every subject that can be imagined.

We have one of the best libraries for junior college students in the state. Mrs. Gertrude Rowzee and Mrs. Virginia Riggs should be congratulated on the fine job that they are doing in keeping the library properly.

Our librarians have a problem, though, in the fact that too many of us are keeping books overdue. We should make an effort to get these books in on time, for someone else needs them.

Since the library is a place of study, absolute quietness should prevail. The library is for our benefit, so let's use it so that everyone can get the most good possible from it.

Five Year Hi-Stepper Obtains Campus Recognition For Outstanding Abilities

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

This week the Hindsonian recognizes Doris Lynn Toles, one of the two remaining Hi-Steppers who went to California in 1954 to cheer for the Eagles. She shares this honor with Nancy Carter.

DORIS TOLES

The blonde-haired, hazel eyed Miss is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Toles, Doris is 5' 7 1/2" tall and her favorite song is "Because."

In her junior year at Hinds High, Doris was secretary of her class, a member of the chorus, and a member of the Hi-Steppers. This talented lass also taught tap-dancing at Terry during this year.

As a senior Doris was treasurer of her class, vice president of the local chapter of the Future Homemakers of America, and a Hi-Stepper. She was chosen Most Versatile in Hind's High's Who's Who contest.

The Forestry Queen for Byram during her freshman year, Doris was also a member of the Women's Athletic Association and Hi-Steppers.

This versatile young lady is sophomore class treasurer, a Homecoming maid, and a member of the Future Business Leaders of America this year. Already a veteran of four years of hi-stepping, Doris is beginning her fifth year.

She is a member of the Methodist Church. Her ambition is to teach dancing and she plans to continue her education at Mississippi Southern.

May you have much luck toward fulfilling your ambitions, Doris. The Hindsonian wishes to salute you as its Sophomore of the Week.

HINDS JUNIOR SAYS

J. P.'s havin' a convention;
To modernize us, we've been told.
But he'll find out it's some's contention;
That nothing's better than the old.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord . . . I will pay my vows unto the Lord.

Empty Minds Could Lead To Trouble

Certain people on this campus, supposed to be students, we are informed, have been pulling malicious little "tricks" designed to hurt the dignity or the reputation of certain other students.

While we look with amusement upon jokes of a non-harmful nature, we cannot condone those meant to be cruel.

There is bound to be a way to call a halt to these disgraceful doings. Certainly something should be done. Maybe a temporary suspension of the tricksters from school would suffice.

We aren't advising anyone to be a "tattle-tale," but we do encourage good citizenship. At least, we are going to have to do something.

A person's actions reflect his character. And empty minds could easily lead to trouble. Does your reputation mean anything to you?

SCALING THE CLEF

Lendon Players To Present Play

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Once again, the curtains of drama will rise as the Lendon Players present their first production of the year on Friday night.

Included in the cast of "Lavender and Old Lace" are Carolyn Barton as Mary Ainslie; Barbara Clifford as Jane Hathaway; Melinda Ambrose as Ruth Thorne; Charles Wall as Carl Winfield; Jo Anne Adcock as Bernice Carlton; Iris McKay as Sophrony Trotter; Rebecca Murphy as Hepsey; Larry Craft as Joe Pendleton; Robert Seawright as James Ball; and Dee Greathouse as Dr. Howard Patterson. See you Friday night promptly at 8 p. m.

The Choir is now working on special Christmas music which they will present in concert on Sunday night, December 15. The selections will include parts of the "Messiah" and carols.

* * *

Seems Elvis caused the police to get "All Shook Up" the other night in Los Angeles — the chief didn't like Elvis' acrobatics, which accompany his music.

Which songs would you pick as the top five this week? See if your answers "jive" with the five listed below. Of course, the Billboard and WSLI's Top Thirty supply our information.

1. Wake Up, Little Susie
2. Jailhouse Rock
3. Chances Are
4. Silhouettes
5. You Send Me

Morton Freshman To Lead College Debate Members

Dinty Fairchild, freshman from Morton, was elected president of the Hinds Debate Club at the organizational meeting held last Monday.

James Robertson, Jackson, was named vice president and Delores Ray, Sharon, was picked to serve as the secretary.

The sponsors of the club, Mrs. Bell Lindsey and Mr. J. B. Patrick, announced the subject to be debated upon at the Mississippi Junior College Debate, which is to be held at Northwest Junior College, Senatobia, in February. The subject of debate will concern the "Right to Work" laws.

Plans are under way whereby the members of the club will be able to meet twice each week, so that the subject can be studied.

SPEAKER STATES

Technical Graduates From Hinds Rank High As Industry Employees

"Technically trained Hinds Junior College students have a decided advantage over other students."

That was the statement of Mr. Al Beck, plant superintendent of Vickers, Inc. in Jackson, speaking last week in assembly. Mr. Beck discussed the problems that confront the men employed by the industry and especially the students from Hinds Junior College.

Although Hinds students had limited technical training in special areas, it was sufficient to give them maintained in the factory. He described how some on personal warranting of these areas had been trained by some of the personnel from the technical area at Hinds Junior College. He told how all employees had to work as a team to get the job done in order to get the product to the consumer at the cheapest possible price.

Mr. F. J. Stephenson, vocational machinist instructor, introduced the two guest speakers to the audience.

Hinds Junior College Choir To Make Performance Off Campus Sunday Nite

The Hinds Junior College will make their first off-the-campus appearance Sunday night November 17, at the Raymond Methodist Church at 7:30 o'clock.

Composed of 43 members, the choir will present the following numbers as a part of the worship service: "He, Watching Over Israel", Mendelssohn; "Lift Thine Eyes", Mendelssohn, Girls Ensemble; "Heavenly Light", A. Kipylow; "Beside Still Waters", Hamblen, Girls Ensemble; "Listen To The Lambs", R. N. Dett; "My Lord, What a Morning", Spiritual, Men's Ensemble; "How Lovely is Thy Dwelling Place", Brahms.

The members of the choir are the following: Barbara Allen, Laura Allen, Edgar Bates, Carol Benton, Joyce Bethune, James Bishop, Robert Bloodworth, Billie Jean Bridges, Ginger Cagle, Mollie Cobb, Mary Hart, Jimmie Hawkins, Naomi Her-

College Annual Sponsor Reminds All Students To Make Money Deposit

Mr. Beemon, college annual sponsor, reminds all students that the Annual deposit is $2.00. The deposit can be made to any of the following students: Rebecca Murphy, Betty Smith, Alma Lee Grantham, Carolyn Evans, Jimmy Sheppard, Jimmy Holder, Joyce Bethune, Virginia Ronkin, and Gerald Miles.

a definite advantage. Mr. Beck cited 1200 applicants that were interviewed and tested. Only 42 stood out front and 39 of the 42 graduated from Hinds Junior College. Twenty-seven of these men are now supervisors.

The Vickers, Inc. representative said that Hinds Junior College trained students are able to stand with the best technicians in the country.

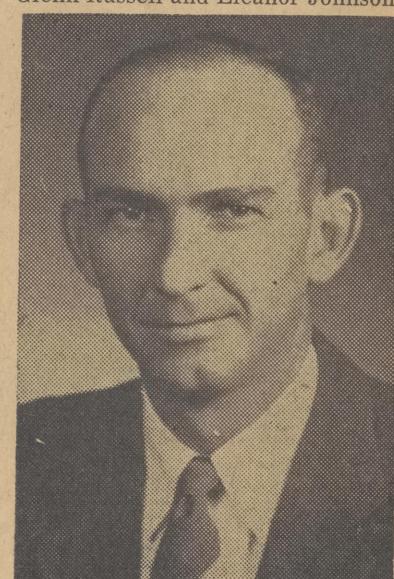

Mr. E. C. Haapala, comptroller for the company, gave facts on ways that people with various training qualifications could be used in industry. He showed various production reports that had to be

BAPTIST UNION GROUP GOES TO 'YOUTH NIGHT'

Sponsored by the local Baptist Student Union, a bus load of students will attend the "Youth Night" session of the Baptist Convention meeting in Jackson tomorrow night.

Buckner Fanning, famed youth leader of Dallas, Texas, will speak to the group at 7 p.m. in the city auditorium.

Selma Earnest, president of the campus Baptist students, states that all who plan to leave on the bus should be ready at 6 p.m. tomorrow.

BUCK'S BULLETIN BOARD

America Not Wary Of Reds

By BUCK O'CONNOR

Piles of scientific papers, containing clues to Russia's brain-work are piled up in the Library of Congress, unsorted and untranslated. Is America so smug as to believe that its scientists are so superior they have no need for such information?

Buck

It is estimated that the population of our country will expand by 60 million during the next eighteen years. Meanwhile, in Mississippi the population has dropped some 24,000 since the last census of 1950. We must gain 1200 residents a year until 1960 to keep from losing a seat in Congress.

Georgia is taking a stand on a decision to abolish public schools if integration is ever forced on the state. Those Crackers are not losing any time, much less their seats.

Hinds Voice Instructor To Appear In Production Of Lucia di Lammermoor

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Mrs. Geneva Reeves, Hinds voice instructor, is to sing the part of Alisa in the opera, "Lucia di Lammermoor" in Jackson on November 25 and 26.

In the role of Alisa, Mrs. Reeves will be playing opposite two Metropolitan Opera stars, Irene Jordan, as Lucia, and Walter Fredricks as Egardo.

Mrs. Reeves' part is one of the two female parts of the opera. She deems her selection as Lucia's companion in the opera "an honor".

Describing the opera, Mrs. Reeves says that it is of the usual entertaining type. Egardo and Lucia are lovers, but Lucia's brother won't allow them to be married. Heartbroken Lucia kills herself. Eggardo finds that Lucia is dead and kills himself. At the end of the opera only three people remain.

Therefore you might call this opera chain reaction of suicides. Mrs. Reeves believes she will enjoy doing the opera immensely.

Although Mrs. Reeves' greatest experience lies in the oratorio field, she has soloed in "The Messiah", "The Elijah", "St. Matthews Passion", and "The Seven Last Words of Christ". She has performed in an operetta, "H. M. S. Pinafore". Her performance in the production was as Little Buttercup.

Mrs. Reeves, graduated from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, with a Master's degree in Sacred Music, she has taught at Hinds for two years.

Before coming to Hinds, Mrs. Reeves served as Music Director of the First Methodist Church in Brookhaven, and taught public school music in Wesson. She is now music director of the Raymond Methodist Church.

Mrs. Reeves is the wife of Mr. Leslie Reeves, chairman of the Hinds music department. They have one son, Leslie Jr., better known as Jay. Asked if Jay liked music, Mrs. Reeves replied, "He responds to music as much as a 21 month old child could, I imagine".

After "Lucia di Lammermoor", Mrs. Reeves will begin on the college's Christmas music program and Raymond Methodist Church's Christmas music. Also, she will sing the solos for "The Messiah" at Paryway Baptist Church, December 8.

Sheffield Serves Press Association As Vice President

Bobby Sheffield, news editor of the Hindsonian, was elected vice president of the Mississippi Junior College Press Association at the fall meeting held at Holmes Junior College Saturday.

Attending the convention from Hinds, in addition to Sheffield, were Wayne Trotter, editor; Regina Godley, club editor; Sara Webb, reporter; Barbara Speight, reporter; and Miss Gertrude Davis, Hindsonian sponsor.

The group was entertained with a tea at the President's home Friday afternoon. A banquet was held in the dining hall of the college Friday night. The guest speaker was Mr. Robert Canzinari, professor of creative writing at Mississippi College. Following the banquet a social was held in the recreational center. The group enjoyed dancing and table games.

Saturday morning there were workshops for the various fields of newspaper writing. The workshops included news, sports, features, editorials, advertising, and photography.

A general business meeting closed the convention with plans to meet at Northwest Junior College for the spring conference.

HINDS HIGH HOMECOMING — The last high school homecoming to be held in connection with the junior college department took place on the Hinds Junior College football field, Thursday night, Oct. 31. Members of the homecoming court are Billy Grogan, Betty Thornton, Chris Lewis, Dickie Osborn, Ethel Rumbavage, Dalton Thamas, Winnie Lou Smith, Charles Edwin Banes, Barbara Smith, Jimmy Jackson, Mary Bess Beard, Donnie Sheffield, Lou Ann Carter, Virginia Ann Owen, Nancy Ruth Chapman, Dan Hodge, Betty Jo Clement, Danny Aldridge, Brannon Robbins, Alice Herrin, Robert Moody, Billy Forgey, Dorothy Brock, Bill Ferguson, David Mason, Lynn Pennebaker, and Bill Birdsong. Behind this group are Velma Ruth Hand and Jerry Bridgers. In front are Coach Louis Boteler and his two sons, Bill and Bob.

Godley's Sextette Tops Boyd's Team By 32-17 Margin

Godley's keyed-up sextette lowered the boom on Boyd's six by the score of 32-17.

The winners began the scoring early in the game and couldn't be stopped by the defense of Boyd's girls.

Leading the scoring for the winners were Faye Rollins and DeLores Ray who tallied 11 points each.

The high scorer for the losers were Phyllis Dungan with 13 markers.

Defensive standouts for the winners were Anna Summers, Ann Williams, Shirley Gardner, and Regina Godley.

Leading the defense for the losers were Ann Boyd, who had a slight mishap in the early minutes of the game — she sprained her ankle, Shirley Catledge, Selma Earnest, and Martha Sharp.

Tomorrow night there will be a double header. Ann Boyd's girls clash with Easley's aggregation at 6:00 p. m. and Hearn's team meets Godley's six at 7:00.

the score of 32-17 last night.

Easley's and Godley's teams will have a slight edge, although most observers say both battles will be evenly matched.

4-H CLUB WINNERS—Hinds Junior College freshmen who will make the trip to National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago later this month are Don Willis, Mendenhall, and Sara Smith, Raymond.

Coach Troy Ricks Releases Cage Slate For Hinds 1957-58 Basketball Season

Hinds Junior College basketball coach Troy A. Ricks released this week a 22-game basketball schedule and plans for participation in three tournaments for the Eagles' 1957-58 hardwood slate.

Hinds will make its opening debut of the season Tuesday, December 3 at Raymond against the Sunflower Trojans. The Eagles will close the season of regular scheduled games on Friday, February 14.

Hinds will participate in an individual tournament at Southwest Junior College at Summit in December, and the Eagles will play in a tournament at Northeast Junior College at Booneville during the Christmas holidays.

The schedule is as follows:

Miss State over LSU (hungry Bulldogs).

Tennessee over Ole Miss (no sugar for the Rebels).

Miss. Southern over Florida State (it'll be a happy homecoming).

Delta State over Arkansas Tech (the Greenies grow greener).

Texas A & M over Rice (the Aggies won't be stopped).

Kentucky over Xavier (the Wildcats are over due).

Vanderbilt over Florida (King should be coming around).

Auburn over Georgia (legal mayhem).

Georgia Tech over Alabama (the Yellow Jackets are hungry).

Army over Tulane (the infantry marches on).

Oklahoma over Notre Dame (the Sooners are looking for victory number 48).

Copiah-Lincoln over Holmes (the Wolf-pack is hard to beat in its own bed).

Jones over East Central (the Warriors shall fall).

- Dec. 3—Sunflower at Raymond
- Dec. 5—Holmes at Goodman
- Dec. 10—Co-Lin at Wesson
- Dec. 13—Itawamba at Fulton
- Dec. 14—Northeast at Booneville

MANAGER GRADY SHEFFIELD of the Hinds Junior College frozen food locker plant is inspecting some of the choice beef that is being processed at the local plant. The beef used in the college cafeteria is processed at Hinds' own plant. Mr. Sheffield is a former Hinds student.

NIX'S . . .

Scrappin's

By CURTIS NIX

Sprinkled

Last Thursday night Coaches Joe Renfroe, Frank Young, and Durwood Graham were dunked in the shower by players after winning number 10. All three came out smiling.

Managers

Sonny Wiman, Adrian "Goose" Summerlin, and Bryan "Boweevil" Long, the man-

CURTIS agers of the state champs, have worked hard this season. Each has worked in the interest of the players and has done his best.

Red Shirts

These fellows are the silent members of the football team. They practiced hard every week and watched the games from the bleachers. They include: Wilbur Luker, Pensacola, Fla.; Kenneth Guilbeau, Lake Charles, La.; and Kenneth English and Oliver "Moon" Russell from Augusta, Ga.

Balanced Backfield

Levi Barber, with a 24 point showing in last week's game, moved into first place in the scoring department with 75 points. Ray Abruzzese is close behind with 72, and C. J. Alexander follows with 66. These "hosses" along with signal-callers Melvin Champagne and Hal Battle make up a perfectly balanced backfield. Always ready for action were halfbacks Thornton "Tex" Medley, M. J. Harrison, and Jerry Foster and fullback Pruitt Blalock.

Unsung Heroes

The unsung heroes of the '57 Champions are the linesmen or "Meat-heads" as they are sometimes called. No matter how good a back may be, he couldn't go without a good line in front of him. These gallant warriors have blasted big holes in enemy lines all season. Glynn Russell at the pivot post, Bennie Hawkins and Jimmy Stubbs at guards, Wimpy Martin and Elmo Stringer at the tackle slots, and Homer Boyd and Jerome Cherry at ends make up the starting Eagle line. On hand whenever called upon were ends Bobby Howell and Wendell "Moose" Campbell, tackles Tommy Furlow, Donald Oakes, Fred Griffin, and Don Brady, and guard Eddie Garver. Yes, these are the unheralded heroes, but most linemen don't care about glory as long as they have that satisfaction deep within.

Southern Houston Game

Houston coaches invited the entire Eagle squad to sit on their bench last Saturday night at Hinds Memorial Stadium. Most of the fans were wrapped up in big coats, for believe me, it was cold.

Versatile Hawkins

Bennie Hawkins, hard-charging guard, was a big man in the Eagle line last year and even more so this year. Bennie has proven himself in many ways. Though rather small for a junior college lineman, he has more than his share of desire, stamina, and aggressiveness. Last year Bennie played guard and spent some time in the backfield as fullback. Since last spring he has played end, tackle, guard, and center.

HINDS HIGH STARS—Two of the Hinds High Eagles' top performers this season have been Jimmy Jackson and Donnie Sheffield. The two gridders played their last game of the season last Friday against the Utica team. Both performers have provided added strength for the Eagles in scoring a 4-2 record for the season.

Hinds Eagles Close Year By Crushing Northwest

With the "big three" hosses of C. J. Alexander, Raymond Abruzzese and Levi Barber garnering more than 335 collective yards, Hinds' awesome Eagles closed the book on an ultra-successful season by smashing Northwest 49-0.

The victory marked the end of Hinds' second perfect season in twice as many years.

After a fired-up Ranger team stopped Hinds on the Eagles first ball-handling occasion, the home standing Birds opened up with a 61 yard march to pay dirt midway the initial quarter. Quarterback Melvin Champagne, after directing the team via terra-firma to the 35 yard stripe, fired a strike to end Jerome Cherry, which put Hinds on the opposition four. C. J. Alexander bulled his way for the final yardage and Barber added the point after, his first of six.

Later in the same period, Half-back Raymond Abruzzese took a Champagne pitch-out, rolled around end and shot 55 yards for the second tally. The extra point gave Hinds a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Abruzzese, the Philadelphia, Pa., pepper-pot, also accounted for the third Hinds TD, as he streaked 17 yards off right tackle early in the second quarter.

Hinds continued to roll deep in the second period as Levi Barber, who was to wind up accounting for almost half of the 49 Eagle points, burst 26 yards to "goal-to-go" territory, and scant plays later, pushed over from five yards out. The PAT was successful and Hinds held a 28-0 halftime lead.

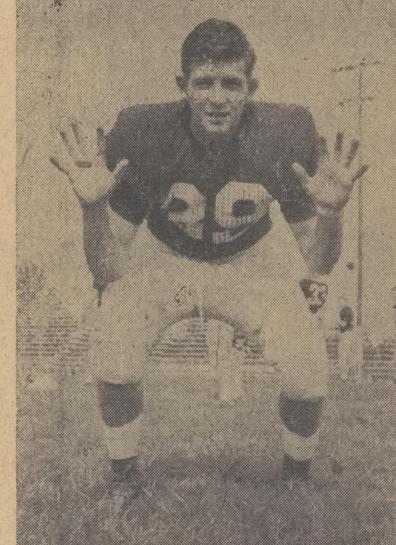

After the intermission, the Eagles took up the cause again. Starting from their own 35, they moved in 11 plays to the Ranger 16, where Abruzzese, turned passer, threw to Barber for the 34th point. Levi split the uprights to make it 35.

Barber got his final touchdown early in the fourth quarter when he scooted 21 yards around right end on a reverse to climax a 35 yard drive which started when Eagle center Glynn Russell intercepted a Boyce Houge pass at the Northwest 35-yard line.

Late in the fourth quarter Tommy Furlow, Eagle tackle, broke through the Northwest line to block a Houge punt and then fell on the ball in the end zone for the last Hinds tally. Hal Battle, reserve signal caller, booted the extra point which ended the scoring for the night and the season.

In the course of 10 games, the Eagles scored a total of 318 points as compared to only 46 for the opposition. They gained a total of 3792 yards while allowing only 1417. They made 167 first downs, with all but 28 coming on the ground. They intercepted 14 passes and pounced on 18 fumbles.

Individually, Levi Barber made nine touchdowns and kicked 21 extra points to pace the squad with a total of 75 points. Trailing close behind were Raymond Abruzzese, who accounted for 72 points, and C. J. Alexander, who was responsible for 66. Alexander led in rushing with a grand total of 1074 yards.

MR. WARREN FORTENBERRY

Reading Instructor To Attend Confab

Mr. Warren Fortenberry, reading instructor at Hinds, will attend the annual National Reading Convention at Fort Worth, Texas, December 5-7.

The convention is to be held this year at Texas Christian University, with reading specialists from junior and senior colleges all over the country attending. These specialists, through speakers and group discussions will obtain data, experience, and information in regard to reading and instruction procedures.

"Techniques and Procedures in College and Adult Reading Programs" is the topic for this year's convention. The main speakers, one of whom is from Mississippi, are Dr. Ralph Staiger of Mississippi Southern College, Dr. Albert T. Kingston, Atlanta public schools, and Mr. Edmund Fulker from Washington, D. C.

Hinds Junior Who's Who Contest Opens Thursday

Nomination for Hinds Junior College's 1957-58 Who's Who election will be held Thursday, December 5.

Polls will open in the administration building at 8 a.m. and will close at 2 p.m.

All academic freshmen and sophomores are eligible to participate in the election.

Candidates for Miss H.J.C. and Mr. H.J.C. are chosen from the sophomore class. Election to these two positions represents the highest honor students can bestow on their fellow classmates, chosen for their quality of character, scholarship, participation in activities, and service to their fellowmen.

A person will be allowed to receive only three positions in the contest, including the campus favorites.

Stage Performer Presents Program In Hinds Assembly

Robert Mason, stage and television performer, presented a miniature revue entitled "Puppet Varieties" in chapel today.

Included in the cast of puppet personalities were several numbers using marionettes performing tricks and stunts. These were imported from England, France, Germany and Italy.

Mason's appearances have included over 24 motion picture roles, performing as a clown with the "Greatest Show On Earth," USO shows for the armed forces, television work over the national networks, and performing in productions of the Pittsburgh Civic Opera Company in Pittsburgh, Pa.

He also appeared with Orson Welles and Rita Hayworth in a magic show that ran for almost a year in Hollywood, California.

Night Watchman Deserves High Praise

Hinds Junior College mourns the passing of Mr. Fitzhugh M. Herron, our loyal night watchman of almost a decade and a half.

Mr. Herron was more than a night watchman to most of us. He was a friend, a rock-steady individual upon whom you could depend, a symbol of honesty and integrity, and, at the same time, a pillar of understanding.

At six o'clock on almost any evening of the years Mr. Herron spent at Hinds, he would appear, with several canines, most notable of which was his cocker, "Honey," and begin his nightly ritual of rounds.

Thousands of past Hinds students join with us in expressing our grief over the death of Mr. Herron.

To his family go our sincere condolences.

To his many friends go our sincere condolences.

We know that, although his job will be filled by others, his place will never be taken. He will remain dear to the hearts of those that have known him.

His faults were few, his virtues many.

Booklet Offers Food For Thought

Recently thrown helter-skelter in our direction, as food for editorial thought, was a booklet put out by the Automobile Manufacturers Association, entitled Automobile Facts and Figures.

Here are some of the more interesting facts that we garnered from it:

1. There are now almost 78 million people in the United States licensed to drive.
2. The small car craze in our country continues to grow, as automobile imports now exceed exports for the first time in history.
3. Mississippi is close to the top in percentage of increase in passenger car registration since 1941, ranking 14th with an increase of 112 percent.

These observations lead us to conclude that:

1. Maybe we are too lenient with our driver code. An automobile in the wrong hands is a lethal weapon.
2. People are becoming more economical minded — a sign of thriftiness that could well bring a halt to the present inflation.
3. We're not last in everything.

Comments could be written all day long on the contents of this little book. We'd like to thank the AMA for seeing to it that we got a copy.

Make Your Choice Now --- Study Or Fun

Two down and one to go, one more term, that is.

This third term of the semester, the last of the crop, will swing the pendulum of fate to its final destination. The records will be down; the job will be over; the battle will be won or lost. It is up to you to call the play.

Activities will drain a great deal of our time during the days to follow. Christmas will occupy much more.

Only one week after the return from Christmas holidays, semester exams come up. One will have to be familiar with his subject beforehand to prevent blighting one of two essentially nice elements—the holidays or the report sheets.

The time to buckle down and start studying is now.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Hindsonian Honors Chemistry Major, Sportsman From Central High School

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

Chemistry major, amateur artist, and traveler, Lamar Von Knight receives tribute in this week's issue of the Hindsonian. Born in Oak Grove, Louisiana, he is the son of

As a sophomore Lamar is vice-president of his class and social chairman of the Future Business Leaders of America. He served as Nancy Carter's escort during the homecoming festivities.

While a senior at Central High School in Jackson, Lamar was a member of the Square Dancing Club and the Reserve Officers Training Corps.

Lamar has taken two carrier cruises with the Naval Reserve during recent summers. One cruise was from Charleston, South Carolina, to Washington, D. C. As a Clarion Ledger carrier boy, this hard-working young lad travelled to Chicago in 1952.

Fishing and hunting are this all-around, likable sophomore's favorite sports. As an amateur artist, Lamar likes to paint the modern kind of pictures which you can't tell heads or tails of.

Congratulations, Lamar, and may you find only the finest things waiting for you along the highway of life. Again the Hindsonian wishes to salute you as its Sophomore of the Week.

Other Schools Donate Humor, Advice

By CAROLYN BARTON

Twenty-two business men were guests of Meridian Junior College on Business-Education day. They visited the classes of their choice and observed the teachers and students at work.

CAROLYN

The Collegian from Mississippi College states that plans are now being made through the Ground Observer Corps to put into action a Moon-watcher station at MC for the purpose of viewing the satellite additions to space.

Does this sound familiar? It's from Belhaven's Clan-Call.

Dear Mom,

Need some money. Seems as if I'm sinking in my social life. Send social assistance if possible.

Dear Son,

Stop social stuff—study.

A mother had been lecturing her small son, stressing that we are in this world to help others. He considered this, then asked somberly, "What are the others here for?" This is from Northeast Junior College's Beacon.

To those contemplating drastic escape from the grades, here is some advice from East Mississippi Junior College's Collegian:

Razors pain you;
Rivers are damp;
Acids stain you;

And drugs cause cramp;
Guns aren't lawful;
Nooses give;
Gas smells awful;
You might as well live.

* * *

Belhaven College recently celebrated a "Blue Jean Day." Everyone who wanted to wear sports clothes for the day paid fifty cents for the privilege. The proceeds went for the annual Christmas Dance. A Jean Jamboree in the gym climaxed a comfortably enjoyed day!

* * *

* * *

An editorial from The Tiger Talks gives a PRACTICAL LESSON: A teacher out west with a group of children stopped at a restaurant where one youngster noticed a slot machine and asked what it was. The teacher launched into a lecture on the evils of gambling. To dramatize the futility of trying to get something for nothing, she said she would show them what she meant.

She put a nickel in the machine, pulled the handle—and hit the jackpot.

Belhaven's Clan-Call, in an article by Morris Taylor, gives the three great enemies of happiness: worry, boredom and self-centeredness.

Conclusively, some advice from the Miss Delta: Study getting you down? When you get to the end of your rope, tie a knot and hang on!

Sophomore Wins Trip To Windy City

By BUDDY CALHOUN

I'm beginning to feel left out around here; practically everyone except me has won a trip to Chicago!

Gay Moon, sophomore from Pelahatchie, won the State Farm Bureau Talent Contest recently. The prize? A trip to Chicago, of course! Next Saturday will find Gay singing "Country Mile" in the national contest held at the Chicago Opera House.

Students Arrange New Schedules To Escape Late Rush

A line of students looking to the future filled the registrar's office yesterday making schedules for the second semester.

The new semester will begin January 20.

Schedule making for the semester began Monday of this week.

A bulletin from the registrar's office issued earlier urged students to arrange schedules ahead of time and avoid the last minute rush.

A later bulletin reminded all students who are planning to complete graduation requirements at the end of the current semester, January 17, to check in the registrar's office requirements for graduation, to pay the graduation fee, $7.00, to the business office, and to expect exemption from final examinations if they will have made "B or better" on each of the six weeks' averages for the semester.

The morning after the band and Hi-Steppers returned from a performance at State College, we thought Sputnik or Whatnik had landed on the Hinds campus. Why? Because Miss Williams, Molly Cob, Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, and Myrna Loy Stuart had turned gray-haired overnight! We later found out that the gray was part of the makeup for their appearances in the chorus of the opera "Lucia di Lammermoor."

New uniforms have been ordered for the band. Just wait until you see how splendiferous our band looks.

* * *

At the moment that you are reading this the Hi-Steppers and band will be parading along the streets of that fine ole Delta town, Yazoo City.

* * *

Are you coming to Jackson Saturday for the Junior College All-American game? The band and Hi-Steppers will be there along with a fine contingent of Hinds football players and coaches!

With such songs as "Raunchy," "Jailhouse Rock," "Wake Up, Little Susie," "You Send Me," and "April Love" currently topping the pop charts, the songs of ten years ago seem rather obsolete.

But, just so you'll get an idea of the songs your Mom and Pop bought and heard ten years ago, here are the top five songs of December, 1947, according to to Billboard.

1. Near You
2. You Do Something To Me
3. I Wish I Didn't Love You So
4. How Soon
5. Dance, Ballerina, Dance

Baptist Students Attend Convention On Mississippi Southern's Campus

Baptist students, representing colleges all over the state, gathered at First Baptist Church, Hattiesburg, on Friday afternoon, November 22, for the annual State Baptist Student Union Convention.

Those attending the Convention from Hinds were Selma Earnest, Joanne Carpenter, Linnie Parman, Jean Gill, Shirley Bridges, Sue Cox, Thelma Huff, Mattie Brown, Marilynne Agent, Polly Harrington, Bobby Sheffield, Billy Denson, K. L. Smith, Sharrott McClurg, Jerry Bridges, Elizabeth Herring, Barbara Speight, and James McNair.

Opening the convention with a message was Dr. W. O. Vaught of Little Rock, Arkansas. Dr. Vaught, in keeping with the theme of the convention, spoke on "Christ the Hope —." He said while the Russians are sending up Sputniks and the United States is trying to catch up, Christian students are looking to God for the Hope. He made clear that the only Hope of the world today is Christ and the only way this hope can be given to confused men is through Christian students. In closing he challenged the convention by asking, "Students will you or will you not give the one and only hope to the world?"

Saturday was given primarily to conferences on problems facing students today. Conference topics included "Moral problems of Students," "Alcohol — the campus Scandal," "Finding God's Will for Your Life," "You and your Beliefs." Conference leaders included Dr. W. C. Fields, editor Baptist Record, Dr. C. K. Pepper, Chaplain Mississippi State Mental Hospital, and Dr. Wayne Todd, pastor First Baptist Church, Brookhaven, Mississippi.

Card Of Thanks

The death of a loved one overwhelms us with the fact that Life is short and extremely uncertain, but expressions of love, sympathy, and helpfulness remind us that friends along the way lend meaning and a measure of stability which enables us to endure sadness and heartache and to find the rainbow in the rain. Your flowers, your lovely cards and notes, your contributions of all kinds have made us know that people really care.

If faithfulness and loyal devotion to duty and to his friends could suffice, we believe that the most genuine and sincerest of all "THANK YOU'S" has been said already; and in that belief we humbly and gratefully accept all expressions of sympathy — generous beyond measure as they have been. We shall never forget, and we trust that the future will bring opportunities for us to serve in ways which will really prove our deep appreciation.

Sincerely,
Mrs. F. L. Herron and all the

Hinds Vocational Technical Division Offers Many Occupational Courses

By BOBBY SHEFFIELD

Training! Training! Training! This is the motto and cry of industry as it looks for men with not only book training but with actual vocational training and experience.

The aim of the valuable vocational-technical department of Hinds Junior College is to integrate as far as is humanly possible the

Engineering Group Tours Vickers, Inc. Plant In Jackson

A group composed of 140 pre-engineering and technical students toured the Jackson plant of the Vickers Co. on December 2, 3, and 4.

Accompanying the groups were the following faculty members: Miss Lurline Stewart, of the math department; Mr. Frank Stephenson, of the vocational department; Mr. Wallace Wall, also of the vocational department; and Mr. Walter Gibbes, Hinds' vocational coordinator.

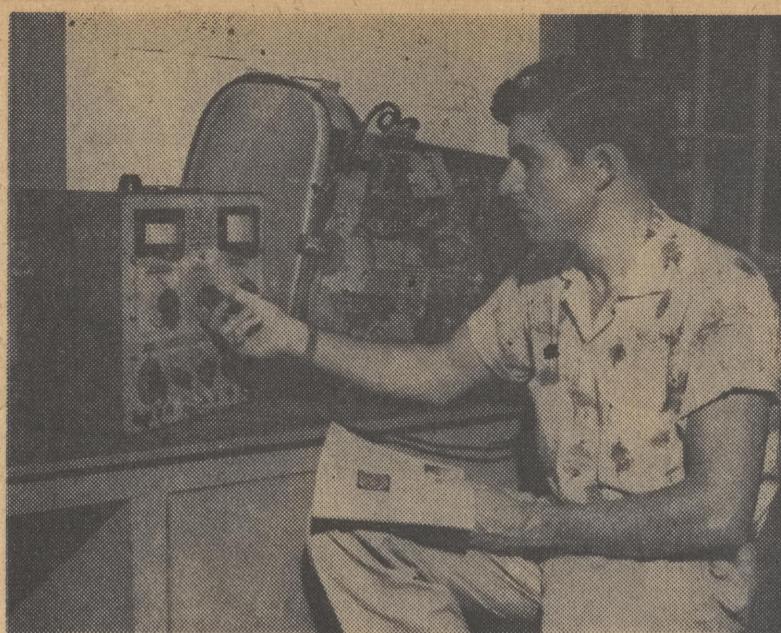

The students toured the machine shop and the blueprint reading room. They were shown a 20 minute film by Mr. Hoffa, who served as guide.

vocational and academic parts of our institution.

In order to accomplish this feat offerings are made to the public, training in the following fields: barbering, office machines, auto mechanics, radio & TV, auto body repair, electricity, machine shop, refrigeration repair, airplane engine mechanics, flight training, electric motor repair, household appliance repair. One of the new fields that the vocational department is offering is the training in the announcing and control phase of radio and television.

Every year dozens of graduates from the vocational department are placed in well paying positions as industry lines up for the well trained alumni, one of the most valuable assets that Hinds Junior College has. The vocational department is continually striving to bring modernized and better equipped features for the benefit of the student and industry.

Mr. Walter Gibbes, vocational coordinator, urges all students, whether majoring in engineering, business, or any of the related fields, to take at least one semester in one of the vocational departments for further equipment for the future.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING — Actual training and experience is the cry of industry in the technical fields and Hinds Junior College is playing an important part in supplying trained workers for the Jackson area. Shown in Leonard Frank Signa of the Hinds vocational department.

CHRISTMAS CALENDAR

Activities Start For Yuletide Season

A full calendar of pre-Christmas activities will be observed on the campus.

Events already listed include a sacred concert by the college choir under the direction of Director J. L. Reeves scheduled for the evening of Dec. 15, in the college auditorium; open house and style show in the afternoon of Dec. 16, at the home economics building; Christmas dinner at 5 o'clock of the next day at the college cafeteria; coffee under the supervision of Miss Lurline Stewart, at Westside, 4-5 p.m., Dec. 18; a Christmas ball sponsored by the college classes Dec. 19, in the student center.

Door decorations contest in Main and Westside will begin Dec. 9. A group of faculty judges to be named later will list best decorated doors in each dormitory after Dec. 16. Prizes will be awarded winners and runners-up in the evening of Dec. 19 when Christmas trees in their dormitories will be the center of attention for dormitory girls.

GAMMA LAMBDA TO HOLD PARLIAMENTARY MEETS FOR ALL HINDS STUDENTS

Gamma Lambda, the local Phi Theta Kappa chapter, is sponsoring a study of correct parliamentary procedure for all class and club officers to be held in two sessions Friday, December 6, and Friday, December 13, at the 10:30 period.

Mr. Jack Treloar of the vocational agriculture department will hold these study periods in Room 12 of the Administration Building.

Engineering Club Slates Initial Organizational Day For Technical Group

All pre-engineering, math, geology, science, and engineering-technical majors are requested to meet in the auditorium Friday at activity period to aid in the formation of an Engineering Club.

This organization, sponsored by Miss Lurline Stewart and Mr. Wallace Wall, will feature speakers and field trips.

The YWCA is again sponsoring "Cappy Week", December 11-19, and the Y Cabinet will decorate Westside lobby.

The Wesley Foundation members are requested to decorate the college cafeteria under the supervision of Miss Christine Berry.

The Westminster Fellowship and the Newman Club under direction of Mrs. A. L. Denton will collaborate in giving the "Christmas look" to the foyers of the academic and the administration buildings.

Representatives of the campus BSU will serve as hosts and hostesses at the annual Christmas dinner.

The Lamplighters, the home economics club, will decorate Main lobby, and also sponsor the style show and open house at the home economics building under the supervision of Miss Fleta Whitaker, head of the homemaking department.

Second Semester Evening Courses Offer 12 Classes

Twelve courses will be offered in the evening classes in the second semester, representing eight different fields of study.

All classes will begin at 6:30 p.m. and close at 9:00.

On Monday college algebra, mathematics of finance, and principles of business law will be offered; Tuesday freshman composition and English literature are scheduled; Wednesday general psychology and history; Thursday principles of economics and United States history are on the schedule; and Friday physical science survey and office machines complete the schedule of night classes.

Each of these courses will carry 3 semester hours credit.

The cost announced is $5 matriculation fee, and $5 per semester hour of credit.

The first meeting of the second semester evening classes will be held Monday night, January 20.

THIRD SHOT ESSENTIAL — Mississippi's Teens Against Polio Chairman, Kay Swayze of Oxford and the University of Mississippi, looks mighty cheerful as Dr. A. H. Little, Oxford physician, administers her third shot of Salk polio vaccine. Surely her smile is because she knows that she'll get 90 per cent effective immunity from crippling polio by taking all three shots. Almost 100,000 Mississippi teenagers between 15-19 haven's begun the series . . . as TAP chairman, Kay recommends they run, not walk, to get their shots to insure they'll keep on walking and running — free from crippling polio.

Florence Hearn's Aggregation Bops Godley's Sextette

Florence Hearn's six came from behind to beat Godley's sextet for their initial win of the season in the game last Tuesday night.

The game was a close one from the start, but in the last few minutes of the game Hearn's offense sparked to win the game 29-22.

The high scorer for the winners was Peggy Fugate with 17 points. She was followed by Mary Nell McGowen who bucketed 10. Defensive stars were Sue Pope, Florence Hearn, and Marilyn Phillips.

Faye Rollins and Delores Ray were the high scorers for the losers with 10 points each. Defensive standouts were Ann Williams, Anna Summers, and Regina Godley.

In the second game of the night, Boyd's team ran over the second place Easley's crew by the score of 48-30.

Boyd's offense began to move the second half and Easley's defense was unable to hold them down. Bad luck was with Easley's girls, for two of their six players fouled out in the last minutes of the game.

Top scorer for the winners was Phyllis Dungan with 22 points. Close behind her was Iris McKay who tallied 15.

High scorer for the losers was Nancy Pharr with 12 markers.

Selma Earnest, Ann Boyd, Dot Pickett, and Robinette Riddle led the winners defensive attack, while Sharrott McClurg, Shirley Dubois, and Doris Toles led the losers' defensive attack.

The ten top scorers for the season are:

|                       |    |
|-----------------------|----|
| Nancy Pharr           | 70 |
| Phyllis Dungan        | 64 |
| Iris McKay            | 62 |
| Barbara Pope          | 61 |
| Peggy Fugate          | 60 |
| Faye Rollins          | 56 |
| Delores Ray           | 34 |
| Jean Gill             | 31 |
| Mary Nell McGowen     | 30 |
| Gay Moon              | 25 |
| The league standings: |    |
| Godley's              | 4  |
| Easley's              | 3  |
| Boyd's                | 2  |
|                       | 4  |

BUCK'S BULLETIN BOARD

State Football Hot, Sputnik Cold

By BUCK O'CONNOR

Fellow Democrats will be interested to know the results of the recent "Gallop poll" which showed Democratic favorites for the next presidential election. Sen.

Kefauver led the pack with Eleanor Roosevelt bringing up the rear.

Men still have the upper hand in at least one situation as shown by a recent survey from the University of Michigan. 70% of all married women stated that the purchase of an automobile was left entirely up to the male spouse.

Cheers go to the two Mississippi football teams who will represent the state in Bowl games this year—Ole Miss and Miss. Southern.

Ray Tomlinson, Jackson; Nancy Turnage, Jackson; Earnest Weeks, Jackson; and Ann Williams, Utica.

John Armstrong of Edwards was the one high school senior winning all A's.

Other seniors who made honor roll, making A's and B's are these:

Dec. 12, 6:30 p.m.—1st Central vs. Football Team

7:30 p.m.—2nd Shangri-La vs. 1st Eastside.

Mr. and Mrs. Crigger had held a homecoming dinner for their five year old daughter who had been hospitalized for two months suffering from severe burns. At 2 o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Crigger was awakened by the smell of smoke and escorted her daughter and son from the house. When firemen had combatted the blaze, Mr. Crigger was found in the rear of the house, burned to death.

Eagles Dominate All State Squad With 6 Gridders

Hinds Junior College's undefeated and untied Eagles dominated the All State Junior College selections by the conference coaches last week.

The Eagles placed six on the 23-player team. Two of Hinds' performers received honorable mention.

Eagle players making the All State squad are fullback C. J. Alexander, halfback Raymond Abruzzese, guard Bennie Hawkins, center Glynn Russell, tackle Wimpy Martin, and end Homer Boyd.

Quarterback Melvin Champagne and halfback Levi Barber received honorable mention.

Current, Former College Musicians Perform In Opera

The names of twenty-one current and former Hinds Junior College musicians appeared in the programs of Lucia di Lammermoor, presented in the thirteenth season of the Jackson Opera Guild, Inc., on two evenings last week.

Leading the list was Mrs. Geneva Davis Reeves, Hinds Voice Teacher, who sang the second feminine role, that of Alisa, maid to Lucia, sung by Irene Jordan, Metropolitan opera soprano. Walter Fredericks of the New York City Opera sang the leading male role.

Mr. J. L. Reeves, head of the Hinds music department, with the following members of the college choir, sang in the opera chorus: Mary Carolyn Hart, Myrna Loy Stuart, Billy Jean Bridges, Patsy Wade, Molly Cobb, Mary Tolar, Bob Bloodworth, Jimmy Holder, and Jimmie Ruth Hawkins. Miss Genevieve Williams, science instructor, sang in the chorus, also.

Mr. Al Rowan, Hinds bandmaster, played in the orchestra.

Names of former members of the college music department appearing on the programs were Mrs. Thelma Westbrook, Betty Lou Prassel, Jack Jones, Kelly Travis, Jean Travis, Hagen Thompson, and Merle Graham.

Bob Wallace Heads College Circle K Club As President

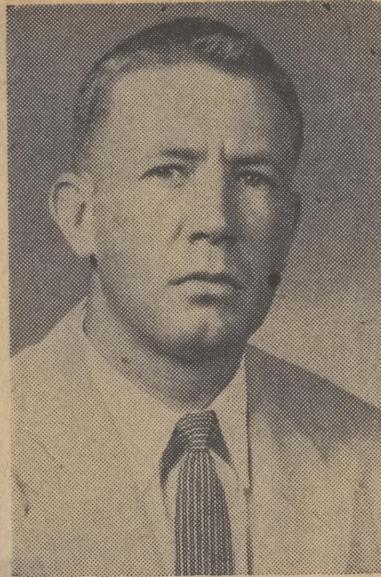

Bob Wallace has been elected president of the Circle K Club which has recently been reorganized on the campus.

Other officers are: vice-president, Morris Ward Willis; secretary-treasurer, Ben Morgan; and reporter, Terry Blackmon.

This is a service club designed to perform some duty that will benefit the campus as a whole. Projects are now being considered for this year's club.

HINDS DISPLAYS
ALL-AMERICAN TEAM

Six members of Hinds' undefeated and untied Eagle team appear on the East JC-All-American roster. To these six players practice, which started Monday, Dec. 7, will not seem too different from regular season practice sessions, because Coaches Renfroe and Young were named along with Coach McCool from Holmes to direct the East team.

CURTIS

Renfroe is head coach with Young and McCool as assistants. Alexander, Hawkins, Russell, Martin, Boyd, and Stubbs should see plenty of action Saturday, December 7 as the East and West teams meet head on at Hinds Memorial Stadium.

BASKETBALL APLENTY

Mr. William C. Oakes, with the aid of Mrs. Anne Gookin and Coach Troy Ricks, has released the intramural basketball schedule for the next two weeks. Intramural basketball gives all students a chance to participate.

MIDDIES BLAST ARMY

Navy's Ned Oldham and Harry Hurst led the way to victory over Army last Saturday. Having scored at least three touchdowns in every game this season and averaging 406 yards per game, Army could go nowhere against the powerful Navy defense which is second in the nation. Bob Anderson, Army's sophomore All-American halfback, looked like a "rinky-dink" with the Middie line keeping him contained the entire afternoon. Oldham scored all of Navy's points in the 14-0 victory.

STATE OUTPLAYS OLE MISS

The Bulldogs from Mississippi State, led by Molly Halbert and Gill Peterson, ran roughshod over the Ole Miss Rebels but had to settle for a 7-7 tie. The Rebels could not hold Halbert who continuously ground out needed yardage. With better quarterbacking down close to pay dirt, State may have scored more than once.

ALL AMERICAN CLASSIC*Hinds Coaches, 6 Players On East All Star Squad To Play Saturday

By CURTIS NIX

Coach Joe Renfroe, Hinds Eagles' head coach, has been named head coach for the East All-American Junior College Team.

He replaced Red Drew of the University of Alabama who has resigned. Coach Renfroe has been at Hinds for 11 years now and head coach for four years. His 11 year record is 90 wins, 19 losses, and four ties, while his record as head coach shows 32 wins and five defeats.

Assisting Renfroe are Coaches Frank Young of Hinds and Horace McCool of Holmes.

The brilliant array of Junior College All-American players, the cream of the crop, is brightly studed by six glittering Eagle stars.

There are two out-of-staters in this sextette and four local boys.

Bennie "Proud Pappa" Hawkins, fast, aggressive, agile, and consistent guard, in his third year as an Eagle, is from Memphis, Tenn. He made the all-conference in high school. Because of his speed Bennie can play practically any position, but you can bet that whatever position he plays, he'll be all over the field.

Fullback C. J. "The Black Stallion" Alexander, a transfer from Louisiana State University where he played his freshman ball, hails from Donaldsonville, La. As a senior in high school, Alex scored a whopping 31 touchdowns. This season he blasted his way for 66 points and racked up close to 1,100 yards rushing.

The next lad played his high school ball at Forest Hill where he graduated as a five-year letterman. Wimpy "Man-Mountain" Martin played tackle on the Renfroe-Young Combo last year and did a fine job. During the second day of practice this season Wimp received a knee injury which caused him to miss the first two games, but he came back to play outstanding ball for the rest of the season.

Homer "Block-Buster" Boyd from Learned was always on hand to turn in a fine perform-

Eagles Bop Trojan Five; Host Bulldogs Tomorrow

By CURTIS NIX

The Hinds Junior College cagers knocked off the Sunflower Trojans 92-67 in the team's first outing of the season last night.

Tomorrow night the Eagles host arch-rival Holmes. Anything can happen when the Eagles and the Bulldogs tie up.

After a rather slow start, the Eagles, led by the rebounding of Bill Castilaw and the shooting of Johnny Gray, poured on the coal and held a comfortable 29-15 lead at the end of the initial period. Hinds outscored the Trojans by two points in the second quarter to hold a 50-34 lead at halftime.

The Eagles' Larry Pennington and Castilaw had almost complete control of the boards in the first half, while Gray sizzled the nets for 18 points.

The third period found a little slack in the scoring as each team accounted for 15.

Gray led the Eagles with 25 points, followed by Castilaw with 18, Pennington with 14, and Carl Harris with 13. Jack Cavan sacked 25 for Sunflower.

Freshmen Pennington, Gerald Lee, and Bucky Whiffen showed up well both offensively and defensively.

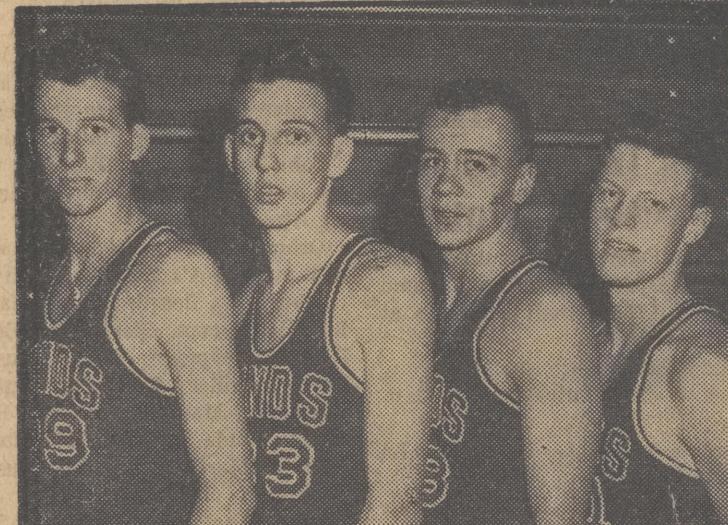

The Hinds High Eagles and Eaglettes copped double wins over Flora. The Baby Eagles won 61-23 with Bill Birdsong and Donnie Sheffield spearheading the attack with 18 points apiece, while the girls, led by Winnie Lou Smith with 20 markers, won 40-28.

Christmas Ball To Close Pre-Holiday Season Next Week

A Christmas ball, scheduled for the evening of December 19, will close the pre-holiday season on the campus.

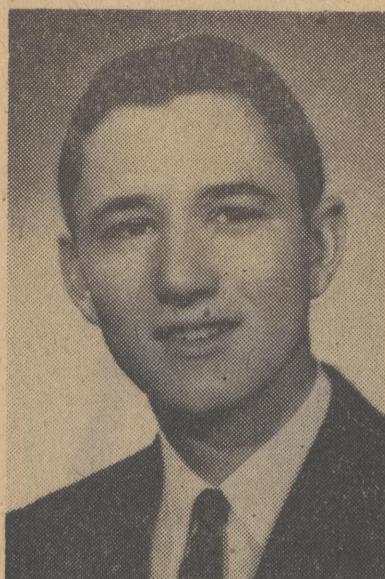

Sponsored by the sophomore class, assisted by the freshman class, the ball will be held at the student center, beginning at 7:30 o'clock and closing at 12:00 o'clock.

The following special committee chairmen have been named: entertainment, Dee Greathouse; ticket, Bobby Sheffield; decorations, Reba Gail Pierce, and clean-up committee, Ray Tomlinson.

Duke Huddleston and his orchestra have been secured to furnish the music for the occasion.

Class sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Beemon, Mr. W. C. Oakes, recreational director, and Mrs. Anne Gookin, girls' physical education director, are assisting with plans.

Tickets will be on sale for the ball.

Choir To Present Program Sunday On Hinds Campus

Mr. Leslie Reeves, chairman of the music department of Hinds, announces the Christmas Choir Concert to be held December 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the college auditorium.

The first part of the program will consist of selections from the Messiah by George Frederick Handel. Soloists for this portion of the program will be Bob Bloodworth, tenor; Bob Wallace, bass; Gay Moon, contralto; Jo Ann Rhodes, contralto; and Mary Carolyn Hart, soprano.

The following selections will be presented:

Recitative (tenor) "Comfort ye my people"

Air (tenor) "Every valley shall be exalted"

Chorus "And the glory of the Lord"

Air (bass) "But who may abide the day of His coming?"

Recitative (alto) "Behold a Virgin shall Conceive"

Air (alto) and chorus, "O, thou that tellest good tidings to Zion"

The second part of the program will be in the form of a pageant depicting the familiar Christmas stories from the Bible. The reader for this part will be the Reverend Clay Lee of the Raymond Methodist Church.

Soloists during this phase of the program will be Myrna Loy Stuart, soprano; Sidney Comfort, soprano; and Edgar Bates, tenor. Selections will include the following:

Chorus: "O Come, O Come Immanuel"

Solo: "Ave Marie" Gounod

Chorus: "Joseph, O dear Joseph Mine"

Solo: "Slumber Song of the Madonna," by Head

Chorus: "O Ru Ru Ru, My Little Jesus."

Methodist Choirs To Present Carols Wednesday Night

The combined adult and youth choirs of the Raymond Methodist Church will present a program of Christmas Carols in the Church sanctuary on December 18, at 7:30 p.m.

The choir, which will be under the direction of Mrs. Leslie Reeves, will present a program of less familiar carols in song and scripture.

The program will include the following numbers: Sanctus by Gounod, Mary C. Hart, soloist; We Adore Thee by Palestrina; A Christmas Lullay, sung by the Women's Chorus; and the following numbers by the whole choir: Masters in This Hall, two negro spirituals, Behold That Star, Rise Up Shepherds and Follow.

Scientific Machinery Put To Test

America is being put to the big test of her governmental and scientific machinery.

We are, for the first time since World War II, behind Russia in the development of any major weapon.

Our version of a space satellite, or rather our ground satellite, is having its troubles finding suitable transportation to join its avowed enemy, Russia's Sputnik, in the wild blue yonder.

Now comes the test. We are behind, and we admit it. But, are we going to stay behind?

Let's see if the wheels of government can be made to move as fast as they did during the Little Rock encounter.

If not, Sputnik may be wanting for international company for a long time.

Governor Seeks Strong Marriage Law

Governor J. P. Coleman, after having failed in his attempt to get a constitutional convention called at this legislative session, is now pressing for strengthening measures to implement Mississippi's marriage laws.

We commend this effort with all our heart, but then too, we commended the constitutional try.

Our state has long been a haven for those who could not, for various reasons, procure marriage licenses in neighboring states. The leniency of Mississippi's laws has brought much sorrow, not only to the parents of those too young to obtain betrothal in their native states, but also to those involved themselves. It has been reflected in a high divorce rate.

We trust that the Governor will succeed in his efforts; but we think that he won't. There are too many old fogies around.

Help Keep Hinds Campus Beautiful

In the early B. C.'s the people of Babylonia discovered the use of the wheel, took it, and built a great empire.

Along in the A. D.'s the people of Europe discovered the use of gunpowder, took it, and built a great civilization.

Now, far along later in the A. D.'s, the students of Hinds Junior College may discover the technique of keeping a campus beautiful, and making a pleasant recreation hall more attractive. This would then become a fine art, and would prove that this generation of freshmen and sophomores, at least those at Hinds, do like neatness, orderliness, and cleanliness.

"That which is bequeathed to you,
Must by you be earned anew."

Shaw Provides Food For Our Thought

"I am of the opinion that my life belongs to the whole community, and as long as I live it is my privilege to do for it whatsoever I can.

"I want to be thoroughly used up when I die, for the harder I work the more I live. I rejoice in life for its own sake. Life is no "brief candle" for me. It is a sort of splendid torch, which I have got hold of for the moment, and I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it on to future generations."—George Bernard Shaw.

Head Cheerleader, Versatile Student Receives Weekly Hindsonian Award

By REGINA GODLEY

Are you ready gang?

This is the familiar cry of the sophomore found in the Hindsonian's spotlight this week. She is head cheerleader, Elizabeth Ann Boyd of Raymond, Miss., who celebrated her 19th birthday December 8.

ANN BOYD

The brown-haired, hazle-eyed cheerleader stands five feet three inches tall and weighs 109 pounds.

Ann is well known in Raymond for she has attended school here since the sixth grade, and she was a member of the Hinds High '56 graduating class. During her senior year, the Raymond graduate was chosen Most Courteous Girl in the high school Who's Who contest and was president of the Y-Teens. She was a cheerleader in high school for two years and also lettered in basketball and track.

After graduation, Ann chose secretarial science as her major and entered Hinds Junior College. She is putting her secretarial ability to use by working as secretary in the chemistry department.

This week's Sophomore of the Week is very unusual for she has her future well in hand. She is engaged to Ben Ezell, who attended college here last year. Can you imagine what her favorite pastime is? Of course, it is writing Ben.

As a freshman, Ann was a cheerleader and a member of the Women's Athletic Association. She served on the council as historian, participated in the sports that were sponsored by the W. A. A., and was awarded her athletic letter.

This year she was chosen head cheerleader and secretary of the W. A. A. This secretary was presented an award sweater for serving on the council for two years. She is an active member of the F. B. L. A.

Hobbies, besides cheerleading, of the reigning sophomore are listening to records—rock an' roll are her favorite and dancing. Just because she is small in size don't think she doesn't like to eat. Steak and French fries, ham, and apple pie and ice cream are her favorite foods.

Ann will complete her junior college work in January. Then she plans to work in Jackson, that is until the wedding bells ring this summer.

Congratulations to you and may your future hold much happiness.

Again we salute you Elizabeth Ann Boyd as the reigning Sophomore of the Week.

Students Voice Opinion On Sputnik

By CAROLYN BARTON

At Millsaps recently, an interview had students giving their comment on Sputnik's and Muttink's effect on the United States. The result of that poll: twelve out of twenty did not believe the United States had suffered a defeat. Sixteen agreed that the satellites proved Russia's advancement in science over the United States. The quote of one student is, "Russia might be ahead in that particular field of science, but not overall. The only defeat the United States suffered was a psychological one."

From Southwest Junior College's Pine Burr, here is an interesting article:

There Just Ain't No Justice

If a girl speaks to everyone, she is forward;

If she doesn't, she's bashful.
If she talks, she's a flirt;
If she doesn't she's a high-hat.
If she's smart in school, she's a highbrow;
If she isn't, she's dumb.
If she talks about others, she's catty;
If she talks about herself, she's conceited.
If she's popular, she's talked about;
If she isn't, she's a dud.
If she goes with boys, she's a pick-up;
If she doesn't, she's a wall flower.

Poll Nets Favorite Songs of Students

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Jingle, Belles!

Yep, every young lady on the Hinds campus will have a chance to really sparkle on the night of December 19 at the Christmas Ball.

I hear a committee has secured a really good band for this affair.

* * *

BUDDY It seems that Rudolph the Reindeer isn't the only one who has a red nose. In fact, nearly everyone has a red or slightly purplish one in this cold weather.

Speaking of Christmas music (well, I was — in a roundabout way), records make ideal Christmas presents for everyone.

* * *

I made sort of an impromptu "Favorite Song Survey" the other day. Here are the favorites of several students. I'll let you guess the reason why they are their favorites.

Sue Ann Boozer likes "You Send Me."

Tommy Furlow picked an all time Christmas favorite, "White Christmas."

Sue Pope said "Only You" was hers.

Bucky Whiffen said "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing." (He probably meant "Love is a Many Splintered Thing.")

* * *

I take this opportunity to say "Thanks" to Jo Ann Rhodes and Jeannine McGuire, the two persons who have said they liked my column!

* * *

Mrs. James Reeves sang the solos of the "Messiah" at Parkway Baptist Church last Sunday night. Her plans now include Raymond Methodist Church's Christmas Music and the Christmas Choir Concert. The latter will be held Decembr 15 in the college auditorium.

Have you noticed? Doris Toles, Hazel Baynes, and Joan Byrne, three Hi-Steppers, are also very adept at other types of dancing including tap, toe, and ballroom.

Nancy Turnage, one of the South's finest female trombone players and a member of the Hinds Bands, is studying to be a band director. Nancy amazes me with her wonderful control of such an instrument.

Last Friday at activity period pre-engineering, math, geology, science, and engineering-technical majors met in the auditorium to become formally organized. Officers elected were: president, Claude Roberts, Utica; vice-president, Larry Pennington, Jackson; and secretary-treasurer, Ann Williams, Utica.

A board of directors was also planned. It is to be composed of three members, representing the different fields included in the organization. The director from the pre-engineering group was elected at this meeting. Donald Oakes, Redwood, will be the science representative, and Marvin Crocker, Jackson, will be the engineering technical major. He is Warren Fortner, Glen Allan. These directors will work with the officers and the sponsors, Miss Lurline Stewart and Mr. Wallace Wall, in planning interesting programs.

The organization will meet once a month, the next meeting being scheduled for January. Over 80 students were present for the December meeting.

From all indications, it was a mighty good game we missed last Saturday night over at the Hinds Memorial Stadium. Congratulations to the sponsors of the classic event for leaving everyone uninformed that no season tickets were being honored. Your reporter was among the unfortunate crowd that was refused admission. Literally scores of people were seen and overheard deplored the tactics of the military gate management. Maybe next year Santa will bring a genuine legitimate ticket to this disillusioned fan. That is, of course, if the game is to be held in Jackson or at all.

It is understood that there was a little misunderstanding about the awarding of watches to the participating players. The question is, would the boys have really gone on strike as they threatened? Surely, this would have made the game officials as angry and embarrassed as some of the fans that met with opposition at the gate.

5 Hinds Students Go To 10th Annual Youth Conference

Five Hinds Junior College students, led by speech professor Fred Brooks, formed the local delegation to the tenth annual Youth Conference held Friday and Saturday, December 6 and 7, at the Capitol Building in Jackson.

Music Department Presents Recital

Hinds Junior College's Department of Music presented the second piano recital of the year last Thursday morning at activity period in the music auditorium.

The numbers and performers of the recital were "Minuet," Sidney Comfort; "The Pixie and the Fairy," Jimmy Holder; "Dancing Song," Pete Sherlock; "Romance," Irvita Kelley; "The Hurdy Gurdy Tune," Wayne Boyd; "Rondino," Ella Agnes Grantham; "In Old Japan," Ed Morton; "A Bit of Kilkenny," Ronald Beard; and "Norwegian Dance," Irvita Kelley and Ed Morton.

Mrs. Marlene Combs is the instructor of these piano students.

WHERE ARE THE CIGARS?

Bennie Hawkins and C. J. Alexander are "proud All-American pappas." Bennie is the father of an eight pound baby boy. His name is Bennie Joe "Rocky" Hawkins, Jr. C. J. has been a pappa for a month or so now. The Alexander's daughter is named Janyce Marie. Congratulations fellas!

Hawkins-Stubbs Enterprises, Inc.

Hinds' pair of All-American guards, Bennie Hawkins and Jimmy Stubbs, are in the fireworks business. These fellows operate a fireworks stand in North Jackson. They seem to have a prosperous establishment, but they could use some more customers. Their explosive house is one door north of the Shamrock Drive-in. There is a fireworks stand on each side of the Shamrock but Hawkins-Stubbs, Inc., is north.

Pietrosante Deserving

Nick Pietrosante, Notre Dame fullback, made NBC's first team All-America. Nick paved the way to the Irishmen's defeat of the Oklahoma Sooners that ended modern football's longest winning streak.

All-American Team

The Hinds Eagles dominated the East All-American Team with six players, and the Eagles also placed six on the All-Staters with two receiving honorable mention. The entire starting team made All-State and All-America by TSW's selections. (TSW — This Sports Writer).

Crooked?

Could the selection of awards handed out in the Miss. Junior College circuit be crooked? Something is very "fishy" by Co-Lin's getting all the honors. The "Coach of the Year," "Most Outstanding Back," and "Most Outstanding Lineman" awards all went to Co-Lin, but we know where they should be. By the way, Tyler, Texas, stomped Co-Lin in the Hospitality Bowl.

Cagers Looking Good

The Eagle cagers have started off with a bang by taking their first two games. Second-Year Men, Carl Harris and Johnny Gray, have been showing up well at the guard positions, while Big Bill Castilaw, a transfer from Louisiana State University, has the pivot spot tied down.

Larry Pennington and Gerald Lee, both products of Jackson, make up the rest of the starting team. With plenty of assistance from Lee, Pennington and Castilaw team to hold down the backboards.

Bucky Whiffen, also from Jackson, has been showing up well as a reserve.

The basketball cheerleaders need some help from you, the students, to do their yells at the games. The cheering section has been sparse so far and the spirit not so good, so let's all chip in and give the cheerleaders a hand.

HINDS RETURNEES — Hinds Junior College's cage returnees have been playing an important part in the team's successful hardwood campaign this fall. The performers are Don Johns, Carl Harris and Johnny Gray, all of Pelahatchie, and C. T. Thornton of Edwards.

Eagles Edge Copiah-Lincoln Wolves; Invade Fulton, Booneville This Week

By CURTIS NIX

The Hinds Eagles took to the road for their first trip away and dumped the Wolves from Co-Lin before a capacity crowd Tuesday night.

The Eagles got off to a rather rocky start and were behind 14-11 at the quarter and 33-29 at the half. The contest proved to be a battle for rebounds with both teams evenly matched.

In the last half the Eagles came back with plenty of fire and spurted into the lead. With only minutes left to play Hinds was ahead by 15 points, but a last minute Co-Lin rally moved the Wolves to within five points of the Eagles.

Big Bill Castilaw paced the Eagles with 23 markers with Johnny Gray and Carl Harris getting 17 and 14.

Shelby Watts topped Wolverine scorers with 25.

The Hinds Eagles teased the Holmes Bulldogs for three and a half quarters, then pulled away to win 82-70 last Thursday.

The game was nip and tuck with Hinds leading 18-14 at the end of the initial quarter and behind at the half 39-37. To start the second half, Johnny Gray sacked a lay-up and a long shot, Bill Castilaw crammed three points on a field goal and free throw, and Gray hit again to give Hinds a 45-40 lead. Moments later Holmes was behind 46-45. With the score knotted at 49-all, Larry Pennington scored one of the five field goals to give the Eagles the edge.

Eagle fans were beginning to feel uneasy in the fourth quarter with such evenly matched scoring, but midway of that fatal period Hinds came to life. With Gray, Castilaw, and Carl Harris leading the scoring and Pennington, Castilaw, and Lee clearing the boards, the Eagles fast-broke the Bulldogs into submission.

In the scoring column Gray had the edge over Castilaw in field goals nine to eight, but Castilaw pumped in 13 free chunks to take top honors with 29 points. Gray had 22, Harris 13, and Pennington 12.

Ronald Doyle had 24 for Holmes.

GODLEY'S TEAM WINS ATHLETIC CAGE LEAGUE

Godley's team won the Women's Athletic Association basketball league as they beat their second place rivals 32-26 last night.

Delores Ray was the high scorer for the winners with 25 points.

Barbara Pope, with 17 markers, lead the scoring for the losers, while Dot Grimes and Sharrott McClurg were the top defensive stars.

In the second game of the night, Boyd's team won over Hearn's sextette by the score of 40-20.

Top scorer for the winners was Iris McKay, who bucketed 23 points. Next in line was Phyllis Dungan with 16 points.

High scorer for the losers was Peggy Fugate with 19 points.

There will be a play off tomorrow night between Easley and Boyd for second place honors.

HINDS HIGH BASKETBALL SQUADS TO PLAY IN PORT GIBSON CAGE TOURNEY

Coach Louis Boteler's High High basketball squads will participate in the Port Gibson Invitational Basketball Tournament this weekend.

Both teams will play Culkin Academy cagers Thursday night in the initial rounds of the tourney.

The Eaglettes chalked up their fifth victory of the season against no defeats by trouncing Jett 42-24. The Eagles won 39-36 over the Jett Bulldogs in their third victory of the campaign.

The Hinds High teams will host the Brandon basketball squads Monday night for their final game before the Christmas holidays.

Meaning Of Christmas Extolls Joy To All People

Nigh upon two-thousand years ago, two weary travelers wound their way out of their native Nazareth, and south some seventy-plus miles to the hamlet of Bethlehem, located in Judea.

The couple, Joseph and his wife, Mary, came to Bethlehem in order to pay a tax, as was ordered by Ceasar Augustus, the prevailing personality of power in Rome. Upon reaching their destination they were denied room at the inn, for it was filled to capacity, but were allowed to rest for the night in the nearby stable.

During the night, a child, who was called Jesus, was born to Mary. Next Wednesday we are to celebrate his birth for the 1957th time.

It comes upon the scene and all trouble vanishes. War chances become remote; we are reminded by the gospel that something flies higher than a mere piece of metal supported by centrifugal force; we remember that our Lord and Saviour was born in humility and died in pain so that we might live.

As we consider Christmas and the reverence it demands, however, we should become keenly aware of the insufficient reverence it receives. Just recently one of our leading local publications pictured a large color advertisement that featured all the traditional Christmas trimmings combined with a prominent amount of the alcoholic beverage that was being pushed.

Xmas is another branch of Christmas in which we falter. X in this reference apparently stands for Christ, since that is what X replaces. Christ is Christmas. To replace his part in it with an X is hypocrisy of the highest caliber.

But, all man-made faults aside, Christmas is still the most wonderful time of the year. Even those long faced Joes who just can't muster a good word for 11 months of the year become everybody's bosom pals in December.

And that helps to make it nice.

Merry Christmas, all of you!

...and on Earth
Peace and Good Will to Men...

Predictor Views New Year's Destiny

Since this is the last edition of the Hindsonian before the new year bows in, the urge has suddenly become irresistible to try our hand at predictions.

In science, we see the United States fast overcoming the current Russian missile lead and maintaining her lead in all other departments. A successful satellite will be launched some time in early February.

Politically, 1958 will bring elections and elections will bring searing setbacks to the Republican cause, as they pay dearly for the Little Rock folly.

Sportswise, the Yanks will grab the American League pennant and will lose to the National League's representative, either Milwaukee, Los Angeles, or Cincinnati, the World Series. Auburn, after a roughhouse battle with State and Ole Miss, will take their second consecutive and second overall SEC crown. Hinds Junior College will also repeat as champs—of the Mississippi Junior College conference, that is—and this time Coach Joe Renfroe will be named "Coach of the Year." Forest Hill's gals will win the A-AA state basketball crown and will break the jinx held over the larger schools by defeating the B-BB team in early March. Philadelphia's boys will bow to tradition and lose to the B-BB representative after they tie up the A-AA trophy.

In State politics, Carroll Gartin and Ross Barnett will announce their candidacies for the 1959 gubernatorial race.

Agriculturally, the poor small farmer will see his insufficient income hold steady. It will not recover, as the administration desires.

Segregation-wise, the year will not pass without seeing the NAACP gain in the border states, but integration's forces will not tally in the Deep South.

The Middle East will continue to boil, with occasional border skirmishes, but the stabilizing influence of the United States will prevent a real, honest-to-goodness war.

There will not be a major purge thrown by our Commie friends for at least eight months, but after that all dignitaries from Leninland had better watch it.

Also, we see another of those crazy years in which water hoses burrow in the ground, or windshields crack, or monsters flop through the snow. Could even be the long-awaited year for house creeping.

And, conclusively, the enrollment of Hinds Junior College will increase at such a pace as to make a building program mandatory.

Christmas Program Excellent Show

The Christmas program presented by the choir in the auditorium last Sunday night was a treat to the eyes, ears, mind, and soul.

We cannot imagine a more sacred scene than that set by the program. The choir reached a high point for the year as they produced the music of the Messiah.

Mr. Leslie Reeves, other members of the music faculty, Rev. Clay Lee, and everyone connected with the concert are to be congratulated.

We're looking forward to more of the same in the future.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Two-Time President, Editor Garners Seat In Hindsonian's Hall of Honor

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

Liz is her nickname; Minnie Elizabeth Herring is her real name and she's quite a girl.

Are Phi Theta Kappa members squares? No, and especially not this one. She can laugh and joke like any of the rest of us.

Born June 25, 1938, Elizabeth is

ELIZABETH HERRING

19. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Herring of Winona, Liz has blonde hair and hazel eyes, and is 5' 1" tall.

While a senior at Kilmichael High School, this cheerful young lady was president of her class, president of the Future Homemakers of America, editor of the annual, salutatorian of her class and a member of the Y-Teens. She won the Balfour Award for loyalty, scholarship, and achievement and was voted Most Dependable Girl and Girl Most Likely to Succeed in the school's Who's Who Contest.

As a freshman at Hinds, Elizabeth was a member of the Baptist Student Union and Women's Athletic Association, a typist on the Eagle staff, publicity chairman of the Future Business Leaders of America and editor of their publication, the Tabs.

After attending school last summer, this attractive student entered as a second semester sophomore in September. She is devotional vice-president of the Baptist Student Union, secretary of the Future Business Leaders of America, a member of the Phi Theta Kappa and Women's Athletic Association this year. Elizabeth was nominated for Most Dependable Girl and Girl Most Likely to Succeed.

Liz has been a student worker in Dean M. F. Herring's office since she entered junior college in the fall of 1956.

When the intelligent Miss completes her secretarial science course at Hinds in January, she plans to take a delayed vacation before entering Delta State in March.

This sophomore's favorite pastime is annoying her roommate, Selma Ernest, and her favorite song is "That's Where Your Heartaches Begin."

Congratulations to you, Liz, and may all of your good dreams come true.

Again we salute you, Minnie Elizabeth Herring, as our Sophomore of the Week.

Ancient Poem Recalls Christmas Joy

In extending to our readers the old greetings, every joyous, ever new, the Hindsonian speaks through the ancient stanza printed below in Harper's in 1875:

The joyous call that the bells have rung,
Is summons to love and home—
The same old song that the angels sung
Who venture on earth to roam.
Good will and peace where tired ones wait,
An eager hand on the cottage gate—
Old Christmas comes again!

Card's Origin Found In Bad Grades

The origin of Christmas cards is credited to schoolboys of England a century ago.

It is said that these boys in boarding schools had to write home their progress at intervals to fond but stern parents.

In order to brighten up their not-so-good reports and please their parents with decorations, if not with grades, the boys drew pictures of birds and flowers on notes. And on the Christmas greetings their decorations were more elaborate.

Fashionable adults took up the idea, and soon business caught on. Thus, the millions of cards today.

Legend Tells of Jesus' Hand Imprint

If you cut a pine cone lengthwise at Christmastime, you can see, they say, the imprint of the Baby Jesus' hand.

This, one of the many legends about Christmas customs, tells of the faithful pine which sheltered the Holy Family during the flight to Egypt. Herod's soldiers, it is said, passed by the tree which bent its branches to conceal the huddled little group at rest. When the danger was past, the tree was forever blessed.

HOG CARCASS SHOW DAY SET FOR FEBRUARY

Plans are now being laid for the first annual Hog Carcass Show, at Hinds Junior College's cold storage plant on February 27 and 28.

The event, co-sponsored by Hinds' agricultural division and the cold storage plant, will enable farmers and producers from Rankin, Hinds, Madison, Warren, Copiah, Yazoo, and Claiborne counties to compare their hogs with other producers and will be an aid to informing producers as to the quality of the hogs in demand by packers.

To qualify for the $35.00 top prize and trophy or any of the other twelve prizes totaling $150.00, a farmer or producer operating within the seven county area must mail a card or letter to the Hinds Junior College Cold Storage Plant, Raymond, Miss., before February 25, 1958.

Only one entry per farmer will be allowed.

A preliminary live placing will be held on Thursday, February 27, with the actual carcass judging following on the 28.

After the judging is completed, the owners will have the option of processing their animals at the plant or selling them to commercial buyers.

Mr. Grady L. Sheffield, manager of the plant, and Mr. Jack Treloar, of the agricultural department Morris, and Ed Morton;

FLORENCE HEARN
Miss H. J. C.

Hinds Hi-Steppers, Band To Perform At Gator Bowl

By BUDDY CALHOUN

The Hinds Junior College Hi-Steppers and Eagle Band will once again step into the national spotlight when these combined groups perform for the 1957 Gator Bowl on December 28, at Jacksonville, Florida.

Having won this honor to perform over other well known gridiron show groups, the band and Hi-Steppers will perform in half-time and post game ceremonies some of the same routines which won them this position.

After spending Christmas Day with their families, members of this musical and dance group will return for practice on the morning of December 26.

Along with Mrs. Alon Bee and Mr. Al Rowan, directors of the Hi-Steppers and Band, respectively, the personnel of the organizations will board buses about noon for their trip and will travel straight through.

Arriving on December 27 early in the morning, the members of the Hi-Steppers and Band will have a short practice workout and then return to their hotel for a rest.

On the morning of December 28, the combined groups will run through the shows. Directly after this rehearsal, the Band and Hi-Steppers will head the Gator Bowl Parade in downtown Jacksonville.

Come halftime of the Tennessee-Texas A&M Gator Bowl Classic, the Band and Hi-Steppers will be performing for an estimated 50 million TV viewers.

After the post game show, featuring five numbers, the organizations will again board their buses for the return trip to Hinds' Campus. It is possible that an excursion trip to some other scenic Florida spot may be taken during the return trip.

Musicians making the trip will be the following. Delores Stevenson, Rebecca Murphy, Buddy Calhoun, Earl Adams, Royce Baker, Wallace Ballard, Ranny Beard, Wayne Boyd, Ed Coleman, Jeanette Davis, Jimmy Burt.

Other Band members include

Easterwood, Jake Freshour, Jerry Pabst, J. D. Eichelberger, Charles Wicker, Roxie Easley, Russell Gay, Mary Guion, Jerry Hardin, Buck Harris, Joe Henry, Floyd Hodo, Katy Houston, Jim Hudson, Dick Liggett, Billy Magers, Charles Mercier, Charles McCormick, Jimmy Morris, and Ed Morton.

Joe Pace, Bill Perrett, Johnny Richardson, Josephine Roby, Pete Sherlock, George Stockstill, Billy Swilley, Nancy Turnace, Nancy Chapman, Pete Weems, Don Willis, Morris Willis, George Bennett, Ethel Rumbavage, Walter Bivins, Irvita Kelly, John Preston Moore, Barbara Clifford, Jimmy MacMillan, and Marvin Baker.

Hi-Steppers scheduled to make the trip are Jean Ainsworth, Sue Boozer, Elizabeth Brasfield, Sherry Carson, Barbara Chamblee, Carolyn Curtis, Alice Eskridge, Shirley Gardner, Patsy Grantham, Nancy Hall, Jimmy Hawkins, Linda Herrington, Nancy Hutchins, Maxine Jones, Virginia Lee, Patricia Moore, Becky Monroe, Patricia Mullican;

Jane Noble, Addie Pearson, Lynn Pennebaker, Patsy Ratcliff, Peggy Stevens, Virginia Vaughn, Barbara Ann Allen, Laura Nan Allen, Fayrene Andrews, Hazel Bayens, Beverly Brown, Joan Byrne, Lou Ann Carter, Nancy Carter, Norma Jean Carter, Shirley Catledge, Betty Jo Clements, Betty Denton, Zula Harren, Margaret Hill, Flora May, Kathryn May, Pat McIntyre, Virginia Owens, Billie Jo Pettus, Sue Pittman, Brannon Robbins, Sara Margaret Smith, Doris Toles, Betty Thornton, Sara Webb, and Jo Anne Adcock.

Wesley Foundation Guests at Banquet

The Wesley Foundation at Hinds Junior College held its annual Christmas banquet Monday at 5:15 p.m. at the Raymond Methodist Church annex.

After the banquet each guest received a small gift.

Rev. Clay F. Lee, Methodist pastor, was host to the group.

Hinds Choir Stages Christmas Story In Recent Concert

The college choir composed of 42 voices presented a concert of Christmas music Sunday night.

The program, in two parts, was titled The Messiah, and the Christmas Story.

Soloists for The Messiah were Mary Carolyn Hart, soprano; Jo Anne Rhodes and Gay Moon, altos; Robert Bloodworth, tenor; and Robert Wallace, bass.

For the Christmas Story, the choir was assisted by Rev. Clay Lee, reader; Marilyn Agent, Mary; Curtis Nix, Joseph; Elizabeth Herring, Angel; Rufus Hattaway, Hugh Flowers, and Billy Denson, Shepherds; and Dee Greathouse, Bill Perrett, and Louis Noble, Wise Men.

Prof. James L. Reeves, head of the music department, arranged and directed the program.

Miss Peggy Pennel, instructor of organ music, served as accompanist with the following music students; Margarita Morris, Betty Denton, and Dorothy Brock. Myrtie Moore, freshman, was the organist at intermission.

Also, Barbara Allen, Laura Allen, Joyce Bethune, Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Gay Moon, Donna Musil, Jo Anne Rhodes, Virnigia Ronkin, Patsy Wade, Eleanor Johnson;

James Morris, Robert Bloodworth, Edgar Bates, Glynn Russell;

James Bishop, James Holder, Joe Pace, Peter Sherlock, Bob Wallace, Ronald Beard, Josa La Rosa, Ed Morton, and Charles Mercier.

Vocational Staff, Students To Hold Christmas Party

Vocational students and staff members will be honored by a Christmas program in the music auditorium which will be presented through the English group of the Vocational department tomorrow at 11:00 a.m.

Mr. Charles McWilliams, president of the vocational division will preside at the program. J. B. Allen, from the Electrical Motor Department will give the reading, "Christmas Lesson." Frank Houser, from the office machines department will offer a prayer.

Guests on the program will be Mrs. Leslie Reeves of the College Music Department, who will render a solo, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," and Carolyn Barton, a college sophomore, who will give an interpretative reading of "The Meaning of Christmas." There will be congregational singing of Christmas carols. Willis Carmichael will give the closing prayer.

Mr. Grady Sheffield, manager of the local frozen food locker plant, and several of the employees at the Hinds plant.

LOCKER PLANT USHERS IN ERA WITH COPTERS

The Hinds Junior College Locker Plant, located on the campus of Hinds Junior College, is as modern as tomorrow and so are its patrons. Captain John O'Keefe of the Mississippi National Guard is helping to usher in a new era in transportation by coming to the plant in a helicopter to bring instructions on how he wants his meat cut and processed. Later, he flies back to pick up his packages. Captain O'Keefe has made several trips to the locker plant.

The Hinds Junior College Locker Plant is serving its second generation of Hinds Countains. Since the plant's beginnings in 1939, its facilities have been considerably expanded. Among the services rendered to patrons now is a complete processing service for pork which includes slaughtering, smoking, wrapping and freezing; an up-to-date processing unit for beef which includes slaughtering, wrapping and freezing, and an ultra modern freezing service.

The locker plant, according to G. L. Sheffield, manager, in 1956, processed 803 thousand pounds of meat. The management sees prospects for another banner year in 1958.

Mobile X-Ray Unit To Visit At Hinds

The State Health Department will be on the Hinds Junior College campus January 27 to take chest X-rays of Hinds students and faculty.

According to Mrs. Rachel Robinson, college nurse, all students, faculty, and employees are required to get X-rays. The mobile unit will be located in front of the college gymnasium.

Day students will be scheduled for X-rays from 8 to 12 a.m. and from 1 to 4 p.m.

Night students can get the X-rays from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

10 Easy Ways To Get Through College

By CAROLYN BARTON

In the Tennessee Tech Oracle, ten ways were given to get through College without even trying. Two suggestions: Bring the professor newspaper clippings dealing with his subject. If you don't find clippings dealing with his subject, bring in clippings at random. He thinks everything deals with his subject. Secondly, sit in front, near him. (applies only if you intend to stay awake).

What is a leader? The Goldenrod, newspaper at Nebraska State Teachers College, says important traits are cooperativeness, aggressiveness, confidence, dependability, initiative and drive.

The Emory Wheel from Emory University, Ga., included this short-short in its "Humor Panel" column:

"But I'm a college graduate."

5 People Handle Tickets For Dance To Be Thursday

Five persons have been named to handle ticket sales for Hinds' Christmas ball, featuring Duke Huddleston and his orchestra, which is slated for Thursday night, December 19, from 8:00 to 12:00 in the school's recreation hall.

Those from which the ducats, priced at 75 cents and $1.50, may be purchased include Bobby Sheffield, Dee Greathouse, Jo Ann Rhodes, Jogene Hand, and Doris Toles.

Games will be provided for those who do not dance.

The committee in charge of decorations will meet Thursday at 6:15. Members of this group are the following: Doris Toles, Billy Swilley Beverly Brown, Margarita Morris, Docie Joyner, Joyce Bethune, Reba Gail Pierce, Virginia Owen, Jimmy Sheppard, Jogene Hand, Buddy Miles, Peggy Fugate, Wimpy Martin, Don Srefffield, Adolphus Moore, George Edwards, Charles Causey, George Irl Stockstill, and Sara Webb.

SCALING THE CLEF*Christmas To Be Merry One

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Dear Friends,

"We Wish You a Merry Christmas"

Yes, we wish you a "Sleigh Ride" in a "White Christmas" scene, and Nosed Reindeer" fill your home with "CHRISTMAS."

BUDDY

But, may you not forget that "Silent Night, Holy Night" in the "Little Town of Bethlehem" where "Away in a Manger" a Saviour was born, while "Angels From the Realms of Glory" proclaimed "The First Noel."

May the thought of this "O Holy Night" remind you to "Count Your Blessings", for you probably won't have a "Blue Christmas" like some people who'll be getting "Nuttin' for Christmas."

May "Jolly Old Saint Nicholas" leave you a "Winter Wonderland" of gifts "All Around the Christmas" and may your Christmas feelings show "Joy to the World."

Yes, "We Wish You a Merry Christmas!"

Sincerely yours,

Lendon Players Hold Annual Meet Of Holiday Season

The Lendon Players held their Christmas meeting in the music auditorium Thursday evening at 6:30.

The program was centered on the Christmas season. After a short business session the program was introduced with a reading by Mary Tolar, Peter Marshall's sermon, "Let's Keep Christmas". The remainder of the program was in the form of a radio skit given by 13 students. This was the classical Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens.

The Lendon Players now have a membership of 27 active members.

All incoming students entering the college division as academic freshmen will meet Tuesday, January 14 at 9 a.m. in Prof. A. L. Denton's office for freshman orientation tests.

Guidance director Denton will be assisted by members of the Phi Theta Kappa, Hinds' honorary society. The Phi Theta Kappa members will also show the new students over the campus and to their respective classes.

All incoming freshman are required to take the orientation tests.

Birthday Of King To Be Celebrated On Christmas Day*Editor's Note:

For our Christmas meditation we publish a clipping from our files from an unknown author.

We hope this may be treasured in the files of many hearts in this season of celebration of the birthday of the King.

ONE SOLITARY LIFE

He is a man who was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in another obscure village. He worked in a carpenter shop until He was thirty, and then for three years He was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office.

He never owned a home. He never set foot inside a big city. He never travelled two hundred miles from the place where He was born. He had no credentials but Himself.

He had nothing to do with this world except the naked power of His divine manhood. While still a young man, the tide of popular opinion turned against Him. His friends ran away. One of them denied Him. He was turned over to His enemies. He went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed upon a cross between two thieves.

His executioners gambled for the only piece of property He had on earth while He was dying—and that was His coat. When He was dead He was taken down and laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.

Nineteen wide centuries have come and gone and today He is the centerpiece of the human race and the leader of progress. I am far within the mark when I say that all the armies that ever marched, and all the navies that ever were built, and all the parliaments that ever sat, and all the kings that ever reigned, put together have not affected the life of man upon this earth as powerfully as that One Solitary Life.

Music Department Stages Recital In Hinds Auditorium

A musical recital was presented by the Music Department of Hinds Junior College in the College Auditorium last night.

Billie Jean Bridges, first on the program, sang "Nelcor piu mi senta" by Paisiello. Myrtie Moore, pianist, played the first movement of Clementi's "Sonatina in G". Patsy Wade, pianist, played "Gigue" from the "B Partita" by Bach. Betty Denton, organist, then played "Les Petites Cloches" by Purvis.

A duo-piano selection, "Praeludium" by Jarnefelt, was next on the program, played by Carol Benton and Patsy Wade.

Mary Carolyn Hart, soprano, sang "Vergin, Tutta Amor" by Durante and "Lasciateli Moriri" by Monteverde. The program was concluded as Barbara Speight, pianist, played "Sonata in D Minor" by Scarlatti and "Hopak" by Moussorgsky.

Home Economics Department Stages Open House With Style Show Monday

Miss Fleta Whitaker, head of the Hinds Home Economics Department, was hostess at the Christmas Open House and style show in the home economics building Monday.

In a Christmas setting the living room and dining area was the background for three different style shows, one in the morning, and two in the afternoon.

High School girls who modeled their garments made in the fall term were Brannan Robbins, Fayrene Andrews, Betty Thornton, Katie Lee Huston, Virginia Owen, Lynn Pennebaker, Ella Agnes Grantham, Alice Herin, Lou Ann Carter, Janet Davis, Ethel Rumbavage, Shirley Dubois, Joan Ray, and Jimmie Stingley.

3 Sophomores To Graduate At Hinds In Mid January

Three Hinds Junior sophomores will graduate at the end of first semester.

They are Margaret Adcock, Raymond; Ann Boyd, Raymond; and Elizabeth Herring, Winona.

Others who plan to transfer or seek employment are Marie Allen, Mendenhall; Homer Boyd, Raymond; Jimmy Stubbs, Jackson, Bennie Hawkins, Memphis, Tenn.; C. J. Alexander, Doddsdale, La.; Elmer Stringer, Houma, La.; Wimpy Martin, Forest Hill.

College girls who modeled their clothes made this semester were Sharrott McClurg, Anne Taylor, Elizabeth Waldrop, Sylvia Smith, Betty Milling, Margaret Adcock, Patsy Malone, Elaine McDaniel, Velma Ruth Hand, Lillie Lynch, Joyce Bethune, Sherry Carson, Thelma Huff, and Barbara Clifford.

After each show, guests were served refreshments and conducted on a tour through the home economics building.

In addition to student and faculty guests from the campus, five Edwards patrons. These were Mrs. C. F. Robbins, Mrs. Ola Williams, Mrs. T. L. Owen, Miss Kate Ballard, and Mrs. Minnie Wood.

Varied types of clothing were made and modeled by the groups. Among these were skirts, jumpers, blouses, pajamas, suits, coats, and evening dress.

Y-TEENS TO HOLD ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY FRIDAY MORNING ON CAMPUS

The Hinds High Y-Teens will hold the club's annual Christmas party at activity Friday in the Music Building, according to Nancy Ruth Chapman, club president.

A Christmas program is scheduled with a party to conclude the meeting.

Mrs. Jack Combs, member of the music department, is sponsor of the club.

HEAD INSTRUCTOR and chief whisker-cutter Mr. C. M. Burleson at Hinds Junior College gives Mr. R. I. Miller, executive secretary of the Mississippi State Board of Barber Examiners, a haircut. Mr. Burleson is the school-master and director of Mississippi's only approved barbershop school. A part of the vocational division, the barbershop school is one of the many specialized fields of training at Hinds Junior College.

TROTTER'S STABLES

Just What Is Christmas-time?

By WAYNE TROTTER

"What's Christmas-time to you but a time for paying bills without money; a time for finding yourself a year older, but not an hour richer; a time for balancing your books and having every item in 'em through a round dozen of months presented dead against you?" . . . Ebenezer Scrooge

Just what is Christmas-time?

Well, Christmas is a wonderful occasion — it is the magic of a choir humming lowly in the distance, the wonder of a star hanging brightly in the heavens, and the music of creation as interpreted by the pre-dawn beating of tiny feet. It means sales to the businessman, charity to the unfortunate, and salvation to the Christian. It embodies within its borders dolls, cowboys, and Bing Crosby. It includes the glitter of a chattered ball, the glimmer of tinsel, and the perfect beauty of a frozen brook. It inspires concerts, cooking and poetry; it endures fireworks, firearms, and liquor. It manages to increase tenfold any love or thought put into it and returns same in measures of good feeling. It has inherited from the past Santa Claus, presents, and a Child. It has become many things, but still it basically remains only a memory — a memory 1,957 years young.

* * *

We hate to bring the subject up during this full swing of Christmas cheer, but the attendance and reaction at our first few basketball games were appalling. No later than last season we've seen this same gym packed to capacity for the district six B-BB high school tournament. These people drove for miles — from such widely scattered places as Byram, Harperville, Pelahatchie, Utica, and Puckett — to witness some mighty good ball and to yell their heads off. Is there any reason why some of us couldn't walk across the street and make just a little noise?

* * *

And now we begin a belated introduction to a belated column with a general explanation of policy. This is a personal deal, a one-man thing, so to speak, and although the pronoun we is to be used instead of I, the reference made in stating opinions will be only to the first person singular. What is said here may closely parallel, but will not be, official editorial action.

* * *

A note to those who would criticize modern-day rock and roll music, especially those in the industry. Music is the mirror in which our nation grooms itself. During an essentially happy time we produce essentially happy music, and during a sad time, sad music. Before a musical cycle plays itself out, it usually contributes five to ten really good and one or two really great works to posterity. Even though this present era of happy music has left few songs that might be tabbed as halfway good, the beat that rock and roll embodies will someday be utilized to greater advantage than at present. Already young gentlemen such as Pat Boone are blazing the new trails to greatness.

Technician Shortage Retards State's Industrialization Development Program

A shortage of technicians is retarding the industrialization of Mississippi, and the junior colleges of Mississippi can do a great deal to educate and train the technicians needed.

This opinion was expressed repeatedly at a two-day meeting of junior college officials and industrialists and educational leaders held at Mississippi State College last week. Sponsored by State's Industrial Education Department, it was the sixth such conference to be held there since the first was held at Hinds Junior College in '52.

"Mississippi industry needs at least five technicians for every engineer," said Richard Schoeffner, chief engineer for the Ingalls Shipbuilding Corporation, Pascagoula. "Technicians may be found as industrial workers between the creative level of engineers and the craftsmen level of skilled workers."

Several speakers gave examples of technicians as draftsmen, maintenance men, navigators, and mechanics.

Charles Yeager of Jackson, manager of Vickers, Inc., said, "Technicians are needed in standards, process design, and tool control, in Vickers' manufacture of hydraulic parts for planes and missiles."

He pointed out that if technicians are imported from other states, they are likely to prove temporary, and to send employees or prospective employees to other states for training as technicians is too expensive.

A number of speakers agreed on the following points: (1) Technicians need good preparation in such fundamentals as mathematics, chemistry, physics, spelling, composition, and citizenship. (2) High school and college graduates are often deficient in these fundamentals. (3) To remedy these deficiencies would brighten the prospects for the individuals concerned and would speed up the industrialization of Mississippi.

Eddie Khayat, member of the Jackson County Board of Supervisors, said that technicians are well paid, and that this should prove an incentive for youths to prepare themselves for this semi-professional work. He gave as an example the captain of a fishing boat in the Gulf, who, he estimated, normally cleared about $10,000 for six months work. He estimated the income of the ship's engineer at about five thousand, and of the net supervisor at about four thousand.

Dr. Don B. Roark, personnel director of the Mississippi Chemical Corporation, Yazoo City, cited the example of high pressure welders as well paid technicians. He said that they often clear about $150 a week.

He also said that the idea of factory work being undesirable should be discarded.

On behalf of the junior colleges, W. A. Vincent, president of East Central Junior College and of the Junior College Association, thanked Professor Eugene F. Mitchell, head of State's Industrial Education Department, and all those who had contributed to the success of the conference.

O'Connor Recalls Moments Of Joy

By BUCK O'CONNOR

Remebering the days of yesterday can sometimes be quite sad. When all the moments of tears and joy are recalled, there remains that desire to recapture and live again the days of youth which are gon forever. For in those times when hearts were light and empty of care and worry, it was a world of fantasy rather than fact.

Each new day was a period of life later to become a page in the many chapters written in a lifetime. Little could one know that every new encounter, every small achievement, was some day to be recognized as a turning point—a milestone for the future.

A snapshot of a lost love will give visions of tender passion, so important then, hardly a trivial today. To see an old friend may bring to mind many reckless adventures and at the same time a regret, for nothing can ever enable those thrills to be relived.

This world of youth has passed; forgotten by some, completely erased from the minds of others. These memories of an era gone by are like the dust; once blowing wild in the breeze of youth, then scattered by the winds of maturity, and finally dissolved by the rain of time.

Westside Holds Open House On Wednesday Eve

Westside Dormitory opened its doors to the students and teachers on the campus this afternoon.

Guests were greeted and entertained with Christmas Carols upon arrival.

Punch and cookies were served to all.

Miss Lurline Stewart, head of the mathematics department, was in charge of the social. Those assisting her from Westside were Docie Joyner, Joyce Bethune, Jimmie Sheppard, Mildred Dowdy, Florence Hearn, Polly Harrington, and Regina Godley.

Boyd's Team Wins Place In Women's Hardwood League

By REGINA GODLEY

In the playoff for second place, Boyd's team won the honors by defeating Easley's girls 44-31 last Thursday night.

The game was neck and neck the first half with one team scoring then the other. At the end of the first half the score was tied 22-22. Boyd's forwards began racking up points the second half to get ahead and keep the lead throughout the game.

Phyllis Dungan was high scorer for the winners with 21 points, followed by Iris McKay, who tallied 17 points.

Leading the winners' defensive attack were Ann Boyd, Selma Earnest, Dot Ann Pickett, and Robinette Riddle.

Top scorer for the losers was Nancy Pharr with 27 markers.

Dot Grimes and Shirley Du-Bose led the defensive attack for Easley's crew.

This concludes the league basketball games, but there will be other games among the dormitories.

Local Cagers Fall To Itawamba Five For Initial Loss

The Eagles lost their first game of the season to Itawamba Indians last Friday night at Fulton.

The Indians were on the warpath as they hit better than sixty percent of their shots and held a 29 point lead at half-time. The Eagles fought back in the last half and got within striking distance of the Indians, but lost their scalps as time ran out.

The final horn sounded with Hinds holding the short end of a 92-84 score.

Johnny Gray, flashy Eagle playmaker, poured in 29 points.

Bill Castilaw, Louisiana State's gift, stuffed in 29 markers in Hinds defeat of Northeast, defending State Champions. Carl Harris, Larry Pennington, and Castilaw paved the way for the Eagles as they took a quick lead that was never relinquished.

finished in the top ten.

C. T. Thornton played good defensive ball along with teammate, Johnny Gray.

Pennington got 20 points, Harris 14, and Gray 12.

The Eagles will travel to Summit for tournament play Thursday night.

CAGE CONFERENCE — Jackson's contribution to Hinds Junior College basketball team are shown discussing plays with Coach Troy Ricks. The four Jackson players are forward Gerald Lee, forward Larry Pennington, guard Bucky Whiffen, Coach Ricks, and center John Shirley.

Sen. Kefauver Dislikes Chief

By BUCK O'CONNOR

While Ike is over making amends with the French, a Democrat from Tennessee is making plans to find a legal way to remove a president from office. Sen. Kefauver said he is working on a proposal under which a commission could act to determine when a president is unable to carry on his duties.

A new political hopeful from Marshall County, who was a strong factor in the new marriage law in Mississippi, says he thinks the next most deserving project might be to raise the salaries of teachers. Our hats are off to Rep. John Kennedy, the young man who might be the answer to the problem of shortage of teachers in the state.

Christmas Party At Raymond Lake Lodge

The vocational staff and their wives enjoyed a family night Saturday night at the lodge.

Chicken and pie were the main dishes served. Mr. Gibbs, vocational co-ordinator said "There was more food than could be eaten in a month, but we all stuffed and enjoyed every bit."

There were 47 people present and the main idea of the party was centered around Christmas.

Hinds High Basketball Squads Clobber Brandon Hardwood Teams In 2 Battles

With Winnie Lou Smith leading the offensive attack and Jimmie Stingley the defensive, the Baby Eagle lassies plastered the Brandon girls 47-26 Monday night in the college gymnasium.

Action in opening minutes was fast and scrappy, but scoring infrequent as the first period ended 9-5 Hinds. The scoring increased in the second stanza and the Hinds High sextet held the long end of a 25-12 score.

Smith scored over half the points as she netted 25 points in the winning effort. Stingley was all over her end of the court stealing the ball and snatching off rebounds.

Carol Sue Worsham took top honors for Brandon with 16.

The three "Bills", Birdsong, Forgey, and Ferguson spearheaded the Baby Eagles first quarter attack as the Hinds quintet took a quick 9-1 lead. Neither team was hitting consistently as the half ended with the Baby Birds in front 21-10.

In the third and fourth periods Hinds added more points to their lead with fast breaks and a display of good defensive ball. Donnie Sheffield, Ferguson, Forgey, Birdsong, and Dalton Thaines accounted for six points apiece; while David Mason was high man with eight. The contest was hard fought right down to its 48-35 finish.

Charles Sheppard and Robert Reazeale scrapped up 11 apiece for the Bulldogs.

Boteler's Biddies Rap Redwood in Finale

"Skin" Boteler's fighting biddies knocked off the chicks from Redwood in the final round to win the Port Gibson Invitational Tournament. Led by Nancy Ruth Chapman with 23 points, the baby birds spilled Culkin in the first game, and Jett High bowed in second.

Lou Ann Carter and Jimmie Lou Stingley took all-tournament honors in the affair.

State Looking Good

Towering Bailey Howell, six foot seven junior, has led the Mississippi State cagers to six straight games this season. The shooting and rebounding ace is easily a candidate for All-SEC honors and may be on his way to the coveted All-American polls.

Shellie Bailey, Jr., senior guard from Forest Hill, has been showing up well in State's winning efforts also. He received an injury Saturday night and had to leave the game. If it's not too serious, he'll be back in action shortly.

Basketeers Lose Number One

The Eagle cagers lost their first game Friday night, Dec. 12, to Itawamba. The Eagles, behind 30 points at the half, pulled up to within eight of the Indians as time ran out.

CURTIS

Johnny Gray sacked 29 points in the losing effort.

Lions Bop Bears

The professional Detroit Lions staged a second-half comeback to defeat the Chicago Bears and stay in contention for the western division title Sunday. The Lions, behind 10-0, tallied three times to take the hard fought contest 21-13. Chicago, western division champs last year, finished a disappointing season.

Donkey Basketball

Everyone that saw it seemed to have enjoyed the donkey basketball game. As a participant, I can say that it was really a lot of fun. The backs beat the linemen in the hilarious affair. Jerry Foster, emerged as high scorer with four points.

Hinds Rips Clarke Cagers For Fifth Hardwood Win

The Hinds Eagles mauled the visiting Clarke Cagers last Tuesday night 87-60.

With Bill Castilaw, Johnny Gray, Larry Pennington, and Carl Harris tallying most of the points, the Eagles had little trouble in winning number five.

The first period was rather close with Hinds taking the lead to start the second quarter 19-14. Gray sacked four field goals in the initial period to spark the Eagles lead. The second quarter was wild with no holds barred, and Hinds quickly took advantage of the opportunity. At one time Clarke was straggling along behind 46-26. The score stood 48-31 at halftime.

John Shirley, Don Johns, Bucky Whiffen, C. T. Thornton, and Tommy Thompson did an excellent job in reserve. They played the entire third quarter and stretched Hinds' lead to 69-45 to start the final period.

Halfway of the fourth stanza the starting team returned to the wars and at one time was in front of the Clarke five by 32 points.

Castilaw was high point man with 21. Gray had 17, Pennington 14, and Harris 10. Castilaw and Pennington turned in fine performances in the rebounding department as well as did Whiffen and Thornton. Ed Graves topped Clarke's best with 24.

The Eagles take on Co-Lin Thursday night in the Southwest Invitational Tournament at Summit.

Hinds High Scores Twin Bill Victory Against Bentonia

Displaying a strong defensive attack, Coach Louis Boteler's Hinds High Eaglettes won the Port Gibson Invitational Tournament Saturday night by topping the Redwood lassies 31-24.

Guards Lou Ann Carter and Jimmie Lou Stingley were named to the All Tournament team.

The Hinds High aggregation defeated Culkin Academy 37-27 in the quarter-finals and the Eaglettes downed the Jett sextette 43-25 in the semi-finals.

Nancy Ruth Chapman led the winners in the championship battle with 23 points.

The Hinds High Eagles lost the first game to Culkin Academy 61-56.

The Baby Eagles took on Bentonia the last night, and the visiting Hinds teams captured decisive wins. The girls won 44-31 with Nancy Chapman getting 22 points, followed closely by Winnie Smith with 18.

The boys had less trouble than did the girls. They tripped hosting Bentonia 66-45. Bill Forgey sparked the Baby Eagles with 21 points.

HINDS POWERFUL EAGLES — Hinds Junior College versatile cagers were host to the Clarke basketball team from Newton last night. The Eagles have one of the strongest teams in the State junior college circuit. They are, kneeling, left to right, Wilbur Luker, Pensacola, Fla.; Bill Castilaw, Baton Rouge, La.; Tommy Thompson, Winnsboro, La.; Larry Pennington, Jackson; Gerald Lee, Jackson; and John Shirley, Forest Hill.

Hinds Junior To Host College Play Day In February

On Saturday, February 1st, a number of junior and senior college girls will gather at the Hinds Junior College gym for an all day basketball Play Day.

This is the first all junior, all senior college play day held on the campus.

The play day will begin at 9 a.m. ending at 4 p.m. with a banquet in the college cafeteria at noon.

There will be six girls representing the various colleges in Mississippi.

Nine schools have indicated that they will attend, but more are expected. Those schools that are coming are Holmes, Mississippi Southern, Delta State, Southwest, Perkinston, East Central, All-Saints, William Carey and Jones.

Mrs. Gookin, director of girls' physical education, will be directing this play day.

Local Students On TV's Teen Tempos

Hinds High School will be featured on Teen Tempos television WLBT at 5 p.m. Saturday.

Teen Tempos is an hour long musical show featuring high schools throughout the state.

Master of ceremonies for the program each week is Hagan Thompson, a former Hinds student, and vocalist Harriet McClure.

The Hinds High senior class will participate in the program under the direction of Coach Louis Boteler, high school coach, and Mrs. Alon Bee, Hi-Stepper instructor.

Circus, Theatrical Family To Perform In Assembly

A Los Angeles, Calif. circus and theatrical family will present a professional acrobat show in the college auditorium on Wednesday morning January 15 at activity period.

It will be a program of acrobatic juggling and unicycle balancing. The educational entertainment show will consist of razor-sharp Roman battle axes juggled dangerously with lady between flashing blades.

The Coriells are three members of the Coriell troupe, whose name is famous throughout the circus and theatrical world. Unlike many circus and theatrical families, the Coriells were born and bred in the United States. Their father was a professional all-around acrobat who taught them their various feats of acrobatics, balancing and juggling, which they now present as a potpourri of physical education and unique entertainment.

Vernell, Dottie, and Earl, although youthful in years, are long on experience. Their father, Vern Coriell, introduced each of them to an audience as part of the act just as soon as they were able to walk. Although primarily a family of head-balancers, the senior Coriell instructed each of them in tumbling, maintaining that by knowing how to handle their bodies in tumbling routines they would gain complete control of their bodies and could then master almost any acrobatic and balancing feat with practice.

And such proved to be the case—for not only are the Coriells accomplished tumblers and acrobats, but they are versatile in balancing and juggling as well, performing head balancing, hand balancing, unicycling, roly-poly, and various forms of juggling.

Vern Coriell, the father and trainer of the Coriells, was the originator of the high wire head-slide, and the first man ever to walk up a 45 degree angle wire. He combined these unusual feats by performing an act in which he walked up the 45 degree angle wire, seventy-five feet in length, to the top of a pole 35 feet high and then, inverting himself, he would slide down the wire while balanced on top of his head.

He performed this trick while serving as a double for Lon Chaney in the motion picture "Laugh Clown, Laugh". The senior Coriell also worked in the first high rigging act and was the first man ever to do a free head-balance on a sway pole 110 feet high. Vernel carries on with the high wire head slide, while another brother, Everett, is the only man in the world who can jump up and down steps while balanced on his head. Both stunts have been featured on television's You Asked For It program as well as circus and theatrical productions.

Everett recently doubled in a Bob Hope film, Here Come The Girls, in which he was seen sliding down a wire balanced on one foot. The youngest brother, Earl, is also an accomplished head-balancing trapeze artist. Three members of this troupe have joined forces, and by putting their heads together, they present a well paced and unique program of acrobatics, juggling and balancing.

Guidance Director Tells Test Schedule For All New Freshman Students

All incoming students entering the college division as academic freshmen will meet Tuesday, January 14 at 9 a.m. in Prof. A. L. Denton's office for freshman orientation tests.

Guidance director Denton will be assisted by members of the Phi Theta Kappa, Hinds' honorary society. The Phi Theta Kappa members will also show the new students over the campus and to their respective classes.

All incoming freshmen are required to take the orientation tests.

Foreign Sites To Be Visualized From Films At Language Club

Films and pictures on France and Spain are scheduled to highlight Friday's Modern Language Club meeting on the campus.

The Modern Language group will meet in the visual aids room in the academic building.

Miss Hilda Davis, language instructor, is sponsor of the group.

Give Dimes: 'Survival Is Not Enough'

Having won a great victory in the battle to place polio on the list of preventable diseases, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is fast moving into the long-neglected field of post-polio rehabilitation. The National Foundation feels that at least one-third, or 100,000 of the Americans once afflicted with this blight might benefit by modern treatment.

criminals owe a debt to society, society owes a debt to polio victims. We don't give charity: we give a chance—to those less fortunate than ourselves to become more independent, and to some day shoulder a larger portion of the world's responsibilities, thus following the dictates of their own deepest desires.

So, this year, give. Give as if you knew that the next person to fall prey to the dreaded crippler would be your best friend, your roommate, or a member of your family. Give as your heart demands.

With enough dimes marching, we can have cripples walking.

Eliminate Apostrophe; Accept 'Ain't'

During an Educational Institute meeting recently held in Glasgow, the Scots lived up to their reputation by launching an economy move directed at, of all things, the English language.

A Mr. J. H. Meehan proposed, much to the delight of his Scottish audience, that the apostrophe be eliminated from the language entirely. Claiming that discovering the nature of a spoken noun, whether singular, possessive, or plural, presented no problem, he denounced the offender as "useless."

Now, it's o. k. with us if the apostrophe gets the boot, but we'd like to join our Scottish friend and live up to a few good old Southern reputations.

As long as they're at it anyway, why don't they break down and accept ain't—pardon us, we mean aint—into the official English language?

Maybe there'll be a compromise, if anyone can find any opponents to the move, that is, keeping the apostrophe around to plug the holes in contractions.

And, gosh, we'd give all the Cracker-Jax in Baltimore to see ain't accepted.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Learned Athlete, Who's Who Winner Receives Well Deserved Honor Spot

By CURTIS NIX

Elected "Best Boy Athlete" in the recent Who's Who Contest, Homer Boyd has proved his worthiness in many ways. His friendly smile, well-rounded personality, and athletic ability combine to make this 20-year-old wavy red-haired gridiron ace a popular fellow.

Homer is from Learned and played his high school ball for Louis Boteler and the Baby Eagles. He was a feared fullback and end in the Capitol Athletic Conference and deservedly received all conference and all-state honors. His ability on the cinder paths takes him all the way to the state track meet where he placed second in the half mile and third in the shotput. Homer received several scholarship offers, but decided to stay close to home and take his chances with the Hinds Eagles.

As a freshman he lettered at end in football and as a quarter-miler and relay man in track. This past football season he was a hustling stalwart in the Eagle line.

At end he stopped all end runs and many times nailed opposing quarterbacks for long losses. The 190 pounds he packs on his six foot frame is "all wool and a yard wide." As a pass receiver he ranks superior, and as a blocker he ranks even higher.

All season he kept defensive backs terrorized by his bruising downfield blocks.

Homer's best game was probably the 33-7 win over the Sunflower Trojans. He caught two touchdowns passes and was the defensive stick-out of the night.

The highlight of his bright Junior College career was his being chosen All-State and All-American.

As to his future college plans, he plans to play ball but is undecided as to where. But you can bet wherever he is he'll be hustling, blocking, and tackling with all his heart.

We salute you, Homer Boyd, as the truly deserving Sophomore of the Week.

Hollywood, School System, Sputnik, Retmain Points Of Campus Interest

By CAROLYN BARTON

University of Southern California's assistant professor of cinema,

Dr. Richard D. MacCann gave some impressions of Hollywood personalities he has known. In a speech report in the Daily Trojan, Dr. MacCann told about interviewing the stars for his weekly Christian Science Monitor column on Hollywood.

"I found," he said, "that most of the cliches one hears about Hollywood simply don't apply." A few actors live exciting lives and are erratic in their work, but the majority are fine people, he said.

ments on reorganization of schools are: "Our school systems need some radical changes, both in curriculum and size. School reorganization is a step in the right direction, but it is a step that should have been taken long ago. Let's not wait 'till the Russians settle Mars before we make a move to revamp our schools."

Looking for an "intellectual revolt" on its campus, the Denisonian at Denison University, Granville, Ohio suggests that required majors be eliminated. One reason given was that the student is mature enough to determine his own values and should be entrusted to choose the courses wisely to fit individual needs and interests. Dr. Robert Seager, associate professor of history, was quoted as saying that college is our "first and last chance to revolt intellectually."

SCALIN' THE CLEF*Hinds Student In Jackson Symphony

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Ah, Ha!

It seems that Irvita Kelly, better known as Sam, has been holding out on us! We did not know until seeing a write up in the Jackson State Times last week that "Sam" is one of the few teenagers who has attained the honor of playing in the Jackson Symphony Orchestra.

Irvita is one of the fine clarinet players of the Hinds Band, but she plays bassoon in the Symphony.

Hinds is actually represented by three members in the Symphony, the others are Mr. Al Rowan, band director, and Miss Majorie McCord, piano instructor.

Although the U. S. aircraft carrier Saratoga is the world's largest ship, it was not quite large enough for the Hinds Hi-Steppers. The next time the Hi-steppers come aboard, the Admiral promised to enlarge the ship. The Navy liked the show, . . . barring no obstructions.

From ACP comes this little anecdote.

Lamenting the passing of television is University of Toledo CAMPUS COLLEGIAN editor Leo J. Puccetti, Jr.

"No longer can my evenings be filled with gay music and good drama," says he. "Now it's all commercials, and every product seems to have a certain magic ingredient to combat the Asiatic flu."

He also predicts a new useful deodorant. You put the stuff on and after a while you disappear and then everybody wonders where the smell's coming from."

On thinking of television, we are asking ourselves what to do with all the fine talent that is floating around Hinds Junior College unused? Our suggestion is a minstrel, musical comedy, or TV show to let people know Hinds has brains and talent, and that it knows how to mix these characteristics.

Myrna Loy Stuart is currently singing with the Bobby Peters orchestra; Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Jo Ann Rhodes, Joe Pace, Betty Denton, Sara Margaret Smith, Barbara Clifford, and Don Willis are just singing! (Willis singing????)

Information recovered from among the many pages of the Billboard is that Raunchy rang out the old year and blew in the new year as the number one song across the nation. To prove it's still popular, look at this week's top tunes.

1. April Love
2. Raunchy
3. You Send Me

GIRLS RECEIVE WAA AWARDS; TELL ALL-STARS

In assembly today the Women's Athletic Association presented awards to the girls earning 50 or more points during their freshman and sophomore years.

Regina Godley, vice president of the W.A. A. received her pin for earning 100 points. This is the highest award given to a sophomore girl for participating in the sports activities. She also received awards for basketball and council membership.

Those who received their letter for earning 50 points were Peggy Fugate, who received awards for track and speed ball; Florence Hearn, sophomore council representative, receiving awards in speedball and for council membership; Virginia Ronkin and Joyce Bethune, the newly elected sophomore council representative.

Special mention was given to Regina Godley's basketball team for winning the interclass title. Members of the team were forwards Faye Rollins, Docie Joyner, Nancy Lee, Reba Gail Pierce, Delores Ray, Gay Moon, and Dorothy Butler; the guards were Anna Summers, Mary C. Hart, and Regina Godley.

Iris McKay, president of the WAA got special recognition for being the highest individual basketball scorer with 85 points.

Special recognition was given to the girls who showed the best sportsmanship on each of the basketball teams. On Easley's team—Barbara Pope, Roxie Easley; Phyllis Dungan and Jean Gill from—Regina Godley and Delores Ray.

Mrs. Gookin, director of girls' physical education at Hinds, introduced the girls All-Star basketball team. These girls were selected by all the girls who participated in the basketball league. The girls that were selected are forwards Nancy Pharr, Barbara Pope, Phyllis Dungan, Iris McKay, Peggy Fugate, and Faye Rollins. The guards are Dot Grimes, Sharrott McClurg, Ann Boyd, Florence Hearn, Regina Godley, and Anna Summers. These girls will participate in the YWCA tournament in February and will play some exhibition games in the near future.

Mobile X-Ray Unit To Visit At Hinds College In January

The State Health Department will be on the Hinds Junior College campus January 27 to take chest X-rays of Hinds students and faculty.

According to Mrs. Rachel Robinson, college nurse, all students, faculty, and employees are required to get X-rays. The mobile unit will be located in front of the college gymnasium.

Day students will be scheduled for X-rays from 8 to 12 a.m. and from 1 to 4 p.m.

Night students can get the X-rays from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Hinds Hi-Steppers, Band Wow Florida Group; Enjoy Florida's Hospitality

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Three chartered Trailway buses, carrying Hinds Junior College's Band and Hi-Steppers, arrived in Jacksonville, Fla., the home of the Gator Bowl, at 6 a. m. on December 27, after 18 hours traveling time.

After a rehearsal Friday afternoon at the Naval Air Station, the Band and Hi-Steppers participated in a gay twilight parade which officially kicked off activities preceding the Gator Bowl classic.

Fireworks Aplenty

Hinds' classy dance unit took part in the Gatorama following the parade at the Gator Bowl stadium. The highlight of the Gatorama was a gigantic display of fireworks by the American Fireworks Company.

Personnel of the USS Saratoga, United States largest aircraft carrier, was host to the Hinds group Saturday morning. After performing for the Gator Bowl court, 3500 crewmen of the Saratoga, plus other dignitaries, the group was served lunch on the ship.

An overflow crowd at the Gator Bowl warmly received the 102 members of the Hi-Steppers and the Eagle Band during halftime and post game show. Newspaper publicity was very complimentary. TV announcers spoke favorably of the show.

Silver Springs, Fla., found itself engulfed with visitors from Mississippi when the group stopped there Sunday on its way home. The scenic spot proved to be a refreshing change for weary Hindsonians.

The travelers arrived at the Hinds campus at 8 a. m., thanks to the expert driving of Mr. Bill Conlee, Mr. Richard Calhoun, and Mr. Jack Sykes.

Lucrative Rights

Over 43,000 fans jammed the Gator Bowl for the Tennessee-Texas A. & M. classic and the half-time show. The Gator Bowl ranks third — only behind the Rose Bowl and Cotton Bowl — in the size of its television audience, and it has a lucrative contract for television rights.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Rowan, Mrs. Terry Carter, Mr. Bill Oakes, and Jo Ann and Irl Dean Rhodes were chaperones on the trip.

Buddy Calhoun, Forest Hill, and Delores Stevenson, Pearl, were the featured twirlers for the show. Rebecca Murphy, Brandon, led the Eagle Band.

Mrs. Alon Bee, Hi-Stepper instructor, made the trip by plane on Thursday, December 26.

Prop boys were Jerry Bridges, Amos Jack Gray, Ben Roy Kirby, Tommy Lynch, Bill Norlander, Bill Ruff, Stuart Spann, and Wayne York.

47 Band Members

Band director Rowan had 47 band members to make the trip. They were: Marvin Baker, Royce Baker, Clarence Ballard, Ronald Beard, George Bennett, Wayne Boyd, James Burt, Nancy Chapman, Barbara Clifford, Edward Coleman, Roxie Easley, Frank Easterwood, Jimmie Dale Eichelberger, Jake Freshour.

Russell Gray, Mickey Grove, Mary Guion, Jerry Hardin, Buck Harris, Bill Joe Henry, Milton Hodo, Katie Lee Houston, Jim Hudson, Irvita Kelley, Dick Liggett, Charles McCormick, Jimmy McMillan, Bill Magers, Charles Mercier, James Moore, Jimmy Morris, Ed Morton, Jerry Pabst, Joe Pace, Bill Perret, Johnnie Richardson.

Josephine Roby, Ethel Rumbavage, Pete Sherlock, George Stockstill, Billy Swilley, Nancy Turnage, Petie Weems, Charles Wicker, Dan Wilkinson, Don Willis, and Morris Willis.

The 51 Hi-Steppers to participate in the Gator Bowl activities were: Jo Ann Adock, Jean Ainsworth, Barbara Ann Allen, Laura Nan Allen, Fayrene Andrews, Hazel Bayens, Sue Boozer, Elizabeth Brasfield, Beverly Brown, Joan Byrne, Sherry Carson, Lou Ann Carter.

Nancy Carter, Norma Jean Carter, Shirley Catledge, Barbara Chamblee, Betty Joe Clement, Carolyn Curtis, Betty Denton, Alice Eskridge, Shirley Gardner, Patsy Grantham, Nancy Hall, Linda Herrington, Zula Harris, Alice Herron, Margaret Hill, Nancy Hutchins, Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Maxine Jones, Virginia Lee, Pat McIntyre, Flora May, Kathryn May.

Becky Monroe, Patricia Moore, Patricia Mulligan, Jane Noble, Virginia Owens, Addie Pearson, Lynn Pennebaker, Billie Jo Pettis, Sue Pittman, Patsy Ratcliff, Brannan Robbins, Sara Selman, Sara Margaret Smith, Peggy Stevens, Betty Thornton, Doris Toles, Virginia Vaughn, Sara Webb.

Registration Starts For Night Classes

Registrations for second semester courses in the evening school are now underway according to Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar.

Regular work in these classes will begin on the night of January 20.

The following is the schedule of offerings in the second semester of the evening school. Each course carries three semester hours of credit.

The cost is five dollars for matriculation, payable only one time during any one year, and fifteen dollars per semester course. Schedule:

Tuesday night (6:30-9:00), English 50, freshman composition (1st sem.); English 51, freshman composition (2nd sem.); English 101, English Literature.

Wednesday night (6:30-9:00), education 107, general psychology, accounting 51, principles.

Thursday night (6:30-9:00), education 101, principles; history 101, U. S. since 1865.

Friday night (6:30-9:00) science 71, physical science survey; office machines 101.

NIX'S SCRAPPIN'S*Band, Hi-Steppers Look Sharp

By CURTIS NIX

Look Sharp — Be Sharp

The Hi-Steppers looked sharp and the band sounded sharp as they performed during halftime at the Gator Bowl. Those long, long endless hours of practice paid off, for everyone did a fine job in playing his part.

Bowl Games

The clash in the Gator Bowl saw second-nationally ranked Texas A & M bow to the Tennessee Volunteers 3-0. Bobby Gordon, the Volunteers' triple-threat who spearheaded the Tennessee attack, ran the Aggies ragged.

Action New Year's Day saw Ole Miss plaster Texas 39-7, Navy dump Rice 20-7, Ohio State squeeze by Oregon 10-7, Oklahoma splatter Duke 48-21, and East Texas State ease past Mississippi Southern 10-9.

In the Sugar Bowl Ray Brown paved the way for the Rebels. He was chosen "Most Outstanding Player" of the game.

Rice lost its first bowl game in five starts as Tom Forrestal, Ned Oldham, and Harry Hurst guided Navy to a 27-7 victory in the Cotton Bowl.

The Rose Bowl was the best and most exciting of the major bowl games. The Ohio State Buckeyes were probably happy to get that lucky 10-7 win over the fired-up Oregon Ducks. The Webfoots led in first downs and total yardage gained and almost pulled an upset over the three-touchdown-favorite Buckeyes. Oregon's Ron Stover and Ohio's Bob White, sophomore fullback, (both definitely All-American material) led their respective teams. Stover caught 10 passes for 135 yards.

Oklahoma's sophomore halfback Jakie Sandifer and fullback Dave Baker played outstanding ball in the Sooners 48-21 tromping of the Duke Blue Devils in the Orange Bowl classic.

In the Tangerine Bowl an outclassed East Texas State team outplayed Mississippi Southern to gain a 10-9 win. A field goal won it for the Texas team.

In the unheralded Holiday Bowl Pittsburgh College from Kansas eked out a 27-26 victory over Hillsdale. The loss ended Hillday's 34-game win streak, longest in the country. This game proved to be the most thrilling of all bowl games.

The Prairie View Bowl Game in Houston matched colored teams, Prairie View A & M and Texas Southern. Southern scored a safety in each of the last three quarters to tie A & M 6-6, a rarity indeed.

Texas Teams Left Holding Bag

Texas prestige suffered slightly as the Texas teams lost three of four bowl games: Ole Miss over Texas U., Tennessee over Texas A & M, Navy over Rice; and the lone win saw E. Texas State graze Mississippi Southern.

Lions Batter Browns

The Detroit Lions became the

CURTIS

world champion professionals by soundly stomping the Cleveland Browns 59-14. Quarterback Tobin Rote and fullback John Henry Johnson were mainstays in Detroit's success. Rookie Jim Brown looked good in defeat.

ONLY 350 SHOPPING DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS*Boteler's Lassies Rate Top Position In Hinds Tourney

Coach Louis Boteler's high-flying Eaglettes are preparing to meet the winner of the Utica-Raymond Consolidated school game in the Hinds county tournament at Byram this week.

The Eaglettes, the top-seeded team in the tourney, have compiled an unmarked record of 10 consecutive wins this season. The Hinds High lassies have totaled 356 points and their total opposition 271.

Included in the team's wins is the Port Gibson Tournament championship. Boteler's team has topped Jett 28-26; 42-24; 43-25; Culkin 35-30; 37-27; Flora 40-28; Redwood 31-24; Brandon 47-26; and Bentonia 44-31.

Winnie Lou Smith, the team's top point maker, leads the Eaglettes sextette with 166 points, Smith's cohort, Nancy Ruth Chapman tallied 137.

Other scorers on the team are Jeanette Davis 36; Mary Bess Beard 24; Lynn Pennebaker 5; Becky Dawson, four, and Katie Lee Houston, three.

Team captains are Chapman and Jimmie Lou Stingley. Stingley and Lou Ann Carter were named to the all tournament team in the Port Gibson cage classic.

The Hinds High Eagles enter the tournament with an even 5-5 record. The Eagles encounter the St. Joseph Rebels of Jackson.

Boteler's quintet has defeated Mississippi School for the Deaf 40-19; Flora 61-23; Jett 39-36; Brandon 48-35, and Bentonia 66-45. The Eagle cagers have fallen victims to Jett 52-40; Culkin 58-54; 61-56; Murrah 50-39; and Central 56-40.

The Eagle cagers have chalked up 483 points, while their opponents have garnered 435.

Hinds Sophomore To Serve Athletic Group As Member

Virginia Ronken sophomore from Jackson, was recently elected to the Women's Athletic Association Council.

She will take the place of Ann Boyd, secretary of the council, who will graduate at the end of the semester, next week.

Tomorrow night at 6:30 the Main lassies and the Westside lovelies will clash for the first time on the hardwood court. The captains for the teams will be Faye Rollins and Jean Gill from Main, and Barbara Pope and Sharrott McClurg from Westside.

Eagles Blast Copiah-Lincoln Quintet To Remain In Top Conference Rating

By CURTIS NIX

The Hinds Eagles opened the gates wide Tuesday night to a hungry pack of snarling wolves from Co-Lin and after a close first half moved out in front and won going away 83-66.

Hinds will host the Northeast Tigers of Booneville and the Itawamba Indians of Fulton Saturday night.

In the first half the lead changed hands three times and the score was tied eight times with the half time score standing at 31-all, while action in the last half was fast and scoring terrific.

The Eagles unleashed full artillery to start the second half, and with 45 seconds gone had a 37-31 lead. Hinds stacked away points and sported a 22 point lead with seven minutes left. At this point the Wolves staged an all-court press.

The Eagles lead was slowly whittled down as the press paid off and with four minutes left Hinds was ahead by 11.

The Eagles took the edge in field goals and free throws. Hinds accounted for 33 from the floor and 17 from the free throw line, while Co-Lin scraped up 26 two-pointers and 14 free tosses.

Personal fouls amounted to a whopping 51 with Co-Lin taking the lead in that department 28-23.

The contest proved, as usual, to be a battle under the baskets. The fight for rebounds was terrific with Hinds' Larry Pennington taking the spotlight. He emerged as top scorer and top rebounder.

In scoring tabulations Pennington netted 19, Tommy Thompson bagged 17, Bill Castilaw crammed 16, and Johnny Gray snagged 12 for the Eagles, while Co-Lin's high point man was Denton Ducker with 17.

Athletic Director Attends National College Meeting

Joe Renfroe, head coach and athletic director of Hinds Junior College, is attending the National College Athletic Association convention in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania this week.

Renfroe coached his 1957 Eagles to an undisputed state Junior College championship with a record of 10 consecutive wins. The 1957 addition of the Eagles was the second ranked team in the nation.

An eleven year veteran coach at Hinds, Renfroe has compiled one of the best junior college football records in the nation during the past decade. He holds the honor of being the only Mississippi coach to win the Junior Rose Bowl classic.

Speakers Address Science Students

Dr. Samuel F. Clark, chairman of the department of Chemistry at the University of Mississippi, visited yesterday the new science building here which will soon house all the college science departments.

Dr. T. I. Bieber, also of the Ole Miss Chemistry Department, accompanied Dr. Clark to the campus, and held individual conferences with students.

College Enrolls 76 New Students For 2nd Term

Five different states have contributed to the enrollment of 76 new students at Hinds Junior College this semester.

Of the new enrollees, 71 are men, and five are women, according to names released from the registrar's office yesterday.

The following are the new students who have begun their work for the second semester:

Dale Addington, Yazoo City; Marion Akin, New Orleans; Bobby Alford, Forest; Lewis Alford, Jackson; William D. Allen, Plaquemine, La.; Benton R. Alliston, Florence; W. L. Anderson, Raymond; Chester Andrews, Jackson; Randall Baker, Vicksburg; Ernest Barnett, Jackson; Idell Bean, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Joyce Bell, Jackson; Leroy Bledsoe; Thad Boyd, McComb; Jimmie Boykin, Hattiesburg; Joel Butler, Jackson; Glenn Byrd, Jackson; Harold Calloway, Jackson; John Carroll, Jackson; Fred Cathy, Jackson; Richard Chatham, Jackson; James Cleveland, Jackson; James Conerly, Jackson; Charles Craft, Vicksburg.

New Assistant To Be In Charge Of Shangri-La Dorm

Mr. Clyde Benton, former Morton high school football coach, has been named assistant dean of men in charge of Shangri-La dormitory according to President George McLendon.

A graduate of Mississippi Southern College at Hattiesburg, Benton has had seven years experience as a high school football coach.

Benton who has been employed by May and Jackson as a sporting goods salesman will also teach a history course in the high school department.

HINDS' IRC MEMBERS — International Relations Club members at Hinds Junior College have a chance to participate in special projects with foreign students. Through affiliation and contacts with clubs of such nature on other college campuses and with the Carnegie Foundation for International Peace, the Hinds IRC is playing a part in helping create world

Opera, Baseball Compete As Pastimes

Mr. Robert Sarnoff, the president of NBC, has recently gone out on a long limb and predicted that in twenty years Americans will be spending more money on operas than they will on baseball games.

Personally, we think that while Mr. Sarnoff may be a very sensible fella normally, he is just a little off base here. Opera may be fine, but baseball, we say, is just to little finer. To quote Mr. Sarnoff:

"Its (opera's) aim is to make every performance a creditable drama, and not . . . some kind of musical pageant or simply a concert in fancy dress."

Now, it is our considered belief that the average American desires baseball more than opera. Baseball is truly American. It supplies ample drama, along with some interesting sidekicks (where else but in baseball do you find the confusion supplied by three men landing in the same spot?). Opera, on the other hand, is also entertaining, educational, and supplies much drama, but the average Joe likes baseball much better.

Anyway, we do. Let's hope that Mr. Sarnoff's limb will become kindlin' before too long.

Students' Hobbies Can Bring Rewards

We hope to make a survey of hobbies on the campus. What is yours? Or what are yours?

A hobby is called an engrossing plan or interest pursued in spare time. A hobby, to be a hobby, must be voluntarily undertaken, or voluntarily pursued.

Some of the hobbies we have noticed about the campus are collecting coins, phonograph records, postcards, old and unusual letters, stamps, etc.

To some people music, painting, building, and the like become hobbies. And some hobbies grow into professions, and some bring wealth.

We have read that a soldier was offered $3000 in 1954 for one $1 bill, a rare one, of course. And in 1956 $20,000 was paid for a stamp that sold in 1851 for five cents.

We can all expect rewards of friendships and knowledge if we pursue an interesting hobby.

Watch for our list of hobbies soon after we make a campus survey.

Green Light On New Semester's Work

Were you there?

In the long lines standing at the door of the registrar's office Monday and Tuesday, there were a number of first semester students along with new students who had come to arrange schedules for the new semester, or maybe to change a course, or simply to swap a section.

Why were you there?

In the 10th issue of the Hindsonian on December 4, 1957 students were urged to arrange for their second semester schedules. The registrar insisted as follows: "All students are urged to arrange schedules ahead of time and avoid the last minute rush."

Well, we were not quite ready, either. But now, with the green light on our semester schedules, let's make full speed ahead. May 23, semester end and end of the school year, will be here all too soon, and it will write finis to all our plans for 57-58.

Photography Club Organization Begins

Are you interested in photography? Would you like to join a photography club?

Plans are underway for organizing a club under the sponsorship of a professional photographer. If enough people are interested the club may become a possibility within the next week or two. If organized it will probably meet on Monday nights.

Those who would like to join should register with Irl Dean Rhodes in the publicity office.

derhanded way—behind her back.

The brown-haired, brown-eyed lass is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hearn and sister of Hermanell, former honor graduate of Hinds.

Florence was born in Phoenix, Miss. on July 3, 1938, but moved to Redwood in 1946 and graduated from Redwood High School with honors—receiving the salutatorian award. She was President of the Future Homemakers of America; business manager of the annual staff; lettered in basketball three years, and was chosen Most Athletic Girl.

Upon entering Hinds Junior College in 1956, she chose business education as her major. Florence began using her talented fingers as a typist in the Hindsonian office. This takes up most of her time, but she never complains for she declares she likes to type. She works faithfully five days a week.

Even though most of her time is taken up working, she finds time for other activities. As a freshman Florence was an active member of the International Relations Club, serving as the vice president, the Baptist Student Union, the YWCA, and the Women's Athletic Association.

This year the distinguished sophomore is President of IRC, vice president of Wesley Foundation, treasurer of the YWCA, sophomore representative of the WAA, copy editor for the Hindsonian staff, and reporter of Phi Theta Kappa. She was captain of one of the intramural basketball teams sponsored by the WAA and a member of the All-Star Basketball Team.

Florence likes popular music. She said any song sung by Pat Boone was her favorite, but her song is Silhouettes. Florence likes to eat and she claims that shrimp and hamburgers are her favorite foods.

After graduation, her plans are to work as a secretary in a good looking executive's office.

We are sure that whatever Florence wants to do she will accomplish her mission and do an excellent job with it for she has the wit, personality, disposition, and ability to succeed. At least I think so, she's my roommate.

Teens Consume Enormous Speed Diet

In the January 19 edition of the State Times there was an article written by some scribe from New York (who naturally omitted his name) on the "Beat Generation."

According to him, the members of the "Beat Generation" are teenagers who consume an enormous diet of speed, rock and roll, drugs, tobacco, and often death as they seek "The faith that is at the end of the road."

He further states that these misled kids with their hunger for recognition and their thirst for new experiences, trespass upon most legal and moral boundaries.

He failed to point out, however, that the primary reason that these teenagers commit such awful crimes is that they are not furnished with adequate wholesome entertainment.

If the "Beat Generation" were provided with places to go where they could have good, wholesome fun, the temptations of acquiring bad habits and committing immoral deeds would not be so great.

In short, if these psychologists are worried about the evil deeds of the "Beat Generation," why don't they provide it with something good to do?

Teenagers have to do something for entertainment, and it could be good just as easily as bad, if opportunity were provided.

Infirmary Enjoys Fifth Birthday On Hinds Campus

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

September marked the fifth birthday of the Hinds Junior College Infirmary. The Infirmary, a fourteen-bed hospital, is under the supervision of a registered nurse, Mrs. Rachael M. Robinson.

Mrs. Robinson has been the school's registered nurse ever since the Infirmary has been in use. She has two married daughters and four grandchildren.

With the help of local physicians, who are called in when their services are needed, Mrs. Robinson takes care of the illnesses of students. Cuts from shop work or a sprained ankle from physical education can be dressed or taped.

Approximately 10 students a day visit the school hospital. Two or three people are usually occupants of the Infirmary at all times. During epidemics, such as the recent flu epidemic, the Infirmary is filled to capacity and some students must be sent home.

Typhoid and polio shots, and smallpox vaccinations are given to any student who desires the inoculation against any of these diseases.

Located directly in front of the new science building, the Hinds Junior College Infirmary is fully equipped to meet the needs of any student who is not too seriously ill.

HJC 4-H Members Stage Club Meet On College Campus

The Hinds Junior College 4-H Club met January 9th in Mrs. Mary McKenzie's room of the Library Building.

President Sara Margaret Smith presided over the meeting. After all old and new business was discussed Carolyn Butts gave a demonstration on "How to Make a Ribbon Pillow".

The next meeting will be January 21 in the home of Mrs. McKenzie where Carolyn Butts and Barbara Greer will prepare a meal for the members of the club.

CANTON SOPHOMORE TO HEAD HINDS EAGLE BAND AS NEW CLUB PRESIDENT

Petie Weems, Canton, was chosen president of Hinds Band when its 46 members elected officers on Friday, January 10.

Other officers are George Stockstill, Brandon, vice president; Barbara Clifford, Morton, secretary; Irvita "Sam" Kelley, Jackson, treasurer; and Buddy Calhoun, Forest Hill, reporter.

The band is currently working on music to be used in upcoming concerts.

MODERN CLUB OF LANGUAGE MEETS FRIDAY

The Modern Language Club will meet Friday, January 24 at the activity period, according to Melinda Ambrose, president, and Miss Hilda Davis, sponsor.

Ben Morgan, vice president and program chairman, announces that the program will feature articles on the people of Paris, their manners and morals, and on the world's most famous fashion designer, the late Christian Dior.

Other officers in the club are Donald Oakes, secretary-treasurer, and Sharrott McClurg, reporter.

All students taking courses in French or Spanish are urged to attend the meeting which will be held in room 12 of the Administration Building.

Drama Club Holds Regular Meeting With Large Group

The Lendon Players held their regular meeting recently with approximately 30 members present.

The business meeting was presided over by President Dee Greathouse. The program chairman, Virginia Ronken, was in charge of the program which consisted of theatrical games. The contestant who won a medal, a penny, was Larry Craft.

After the conclusion of the program, the social committee composed of Sara Margaret Smith, Barbara Clifford, and Jo Ann Adcock, served punch and cookies for refreshments.

A comedy The Late Christopher Bean is being considered for the spring play production which will be on April 18, 1958.

CIRCLE K MEMBERS HOST DEPOSIT GUARANTY BANK VICE PRESIDENT HINES

The Circle K Club was honored at its last meeting by the presence of Mr. Herman Hines, vice-president of the Deposit Guaranty Bank and Trust Company in Jackson.

Mr. Hines presented a talk on the opportunities of commercial banking.

The prospect of those members who will have had two semesters of French going to Paris to work during the summer was also discussed.

The next meeting will be on Thursday, January 23, at 5:30 p.m. in the private dining hall. All members will be expected to pay their monthly dues at this time.

Marine Corps Procurement Officer Representatives To Visit Campus Next Month

Representatives from the Marine Corps Officer Procurement Office in New Orleans, Louisiana will visit the Hinds Junior College campus on 26 and 27 February, 1958.

During this visit they will be available to furnish interested students information about the different programs leading to a commission in the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve.

Reporters Review Top Stories First Semester With Outstanding Activities

By BARBARA SPEIGHT AND BOBBY SHEFFIELD

It is the policy of the Hindsonian each semester to take out a few moments time to review the top news stories on the campus. Although space doesn't permit the publication to bring to you all of this year's outstanding events, a few of the top stories are listed below.

The years activities began September 5 with entertainment for the students at various church parties.

On September 26, Ray Tomlinson, Jackson, was elected president of the sophomore class over Charles Wall, Utica, and Steve Cook, Vicksburg. Other officers elected included Lamar Knight, Jackson, Vice President, Jimmie Sheppard, Brandon, secretary, and Doris Toles Jackson, treasurer.

The Hinds students observed Religious Emphasis Week, September 30-October 4.

HJC sophomores receiving revenge aplenty as they put the freshmen through the hazing activities of Freshman Day.

Hinds Junior College Homecoming ceremonies were held for the first time in two years on Saturday night October 26. Margarita Morris, Yazoo City, was crowned Homecoming Queen during the half-time festivities.

Wayne Trotter, Byram freshman, was named Editor-in-Chief of the Hindsonian.

The election of Freshman officers saw Bobby Sheffield, Raymond, elected president over Robert O'Conner, Vicksburg. M. J. Harrison, Forest Hill, won the vice president's post; Mary Tolar, Sandy Hook, and Pat Sanford, Jackson, were elected secretary and treasurer respectively.

The Penny Fair King and Queen contest was won by the vocational-technical school contestants, Shirley Ferguson and Alfred W. Williams, Jr.

Lavender and Old Lace, the Lendon Players' fall production, was presented in the college auditorium on Nov. 14.

Then teach it to the Ku Klux Klan.

The mighty Hinds Eagles enjoyed one of their best seasons as they were untied and undefeated in 10 games.

Ray Tomlinson, Jackson, and Florence Hearn, Vicksburg, were given the highest honors that their college mates could award them when they were elected Mr. and Miss HJC. Other campus celebrities were also announced.

To everyone's delight, Christmas holidays were observed Dec. 19-Jan. 6.

The much publicized Hinds Hi-Steppers performed during the half-time activities at the annual Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla., on December 28, 1957.

Semester exams ended the first half of the years activities.

Livestock Meeting To Be Held Here Friday Afternoon

Hinds County farmers and livestock producers will stage an important beef cattle meeting in the Hinds Junior College auditorium at 2 p.m. Friday, January 24.

Some of the state's top livestock buyers and producers will speak at the meeting. The different methods of producing beef will be the main theme of the meeting along with the practices that make for successful cattle production.

H. G. Forbes, associate county agent in charge of livestock in Hinds County, will discuss the beef cattle outlook and trends. Gene Morrison, Superintendent of the Oakley Experiment Station, will talk on winter grazing.

Kendall Quinn, Union Stock Yards in Jackson, will speak on the steer program, and Ray Means, who is superintendent of the cattle division of Delta Pineland Company, will discuss cow and calf production.

Jack Treloar of the Hinds Junior College agricultural department will serve as master of ceremonies of the program.

Sponsored jointly by Hinds Junior College and the Hinds County Coordinating Council, all farmers and livestock producers in the Hinds area are urged to attend the meeting.

VESPER SERVICES TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY NITE IN COLLEGE AUDITORIUM

Vesper services are held in the college auditorium each Wednesday night at 6:15.

The worship programs are conducted by the various religious groups on the campus. They are the Baptist Student Union, Newman Club, Wesley, Westminster, and the Young Women's Christian Association.

Every student and teacher on the campus is invited to come and worship for a few moments.

Ford Tops Chevrolet In 1957 Sales

On Integration

Heap big trouble over in Maxton, N. C., as Indians from Robeson County traded bows and arrows for shotguns in a war on the Ku Klux Klan. The redmen took up arms against the Klansmen after two cross burnings directed at Indian integration attempts.

Overheard from Gov. Marvin Griffin of Georgia: "Paratroopers will march back and forth before empty buildings if they ever come to Georgia. There can be no integration where there are no schools."

In a few years this little ditty could very well be heard from a bright youngster: "So what? I remember the three-cent stamp."

A very small wish. But a very big job for little arms that do not respond to wishes. They've been crippled by polio.

Today, this youngster builds dream castles.

Tomorrow, he may use those hands, not only for play, but to work, to build for himself a future supported by his own efforts, his own self-sufficiency.

This is the goal of modern rehabilitation, supported by your MARCH OF DIMES. No longer is it enough to have cheated death. Lives must be given purpose and meaning. The dignity of human life must be restored, with freedom from total dependence upon others for the smallest of efforts.

Of some 300,000 survivors of crippling polio alive today in the United States, one in three could still benefit from new concepts developed through the MARCH OF DIMES. For them, the Salk vaccine came too late. They will need help for years to come. Help them NOW.

People With Cameras, Get Up And Go Find Photography Profitable Sideline

The odds are the next young man who rings your doorbell and tells you he's working his way through college will be taking photographs rather than selling magazines.

More and more people with cameras and get-up-and-go are finding photography a profitable sideline.

There is plenty of profit for the bright beginner who, for example, takes shots of a building in various stages of construction, then sells this dramatic visual record to the builder and owner after it's too late to hire anyone else for the job.

More than a hundred such money-making ideas and tips are featured in the current issue of Popular Photography.

There's one rule to follow: Go after people!

Many would like to have picture records of such things as lodge meetings, children, homes, and pets. But they never get around to hiring a pro.

Many times the shutterbug has to invest his own time and film without an order. But the percentage of sales he will make once the reluctant subject sees the finished product is well worth the small investment.

With the inexpensive equipment available today and unlimited markets for pictures, photography can be an exciting part-time vocation.

And most enthusiasts can quickly become good enough with their equipment to take salable pictures. The trick is in figuring out where to make the sale.

One interesting example in Popular Photography comes from a writer-photographer who never sold a story as an author and was no more successful as a cameraman.

But when he combined the two he found himself an instantaneous success. The reason was simple enough. He had figured out how to beat his opposition by making himself into an economical package for editors in an area where there was little competition.

The working - your-way-through-college routine is possible and is done every day by thousands of youngsters. The secret here is not in figuring out unusual things to shoot, but in snapping the everyday things that nobody bothers to have photographed.

Any serviceman who was the only guy in his outfit with a camera found out how easy it can be to make money quickly if he could beat the higher prices of local commercial lensmen.

But the financial rewards don't usually go to the fellow who waits to be hired. They remain for the photographer who shoots first and asks later.

The Hi-Steppers and Band have been busy the last few weeks. Recent performances have included the March of Dimes parade down Capital Street in freezing weather, and appearances at the Mississippi Hotel Association and other groups at the Heidelberg Victory Room. The parade was on the 7th; the convention show was on the 15th.

AROUND THE CIRCUIT*Southern Names Four Students To Receive High Post

By CAROLYN BARTON

On the Mississippi Southern Campus recently the laurels were presented to the four most outstanding seniors as the 1958 Hall of Fame. The students were selected on the basis of achievement, character, scholarship, and contributions to campus life and activities.

The United States is leading the world in the number of students from foreign countries with a total of 36,494. France, USSR, the United Kingdom, the German Federal Republic, Austria, Egypt, Japan and Australia follow with their totals.

In the last five years fishing has gained 17 per cent in popularity among young people. It is now the most popular of all sports. This is from the Radionian.

Hinds Cagers Spill Booneville; Ripped In Two Big Games

Last Friday the Eagle Basketeters bounced the Northeast Tigers from Booneville 82-59.

The following night the Itawamba Indians blasted the Eagles 91-76, taking scalps and all. The Eags were ahead only once, being in front 5-4 in opening seconds of play. Pennington was high point man for Hinds with 20, while Gray netted 18, Castilaw stuffed in 17, and Gerald Lee scraped up 12.

A week ago Tuesday, the Birds lost their second game in as many tries, this one being to the Pearl River Wildcats. The Eagles were ahead for the first seven minutes, but the powerful 'Cats over-ran the Hinds crew and slowly stacked away points. Castilaw crammed in 28 big points, with Harris netting 20, and Pennington 14.

NEW SCIENCE STRUCTURE TO OPEN SOON

Representing an investment of a quarter of a million dollars, the new science building at Hinds Junior College is rapidly approaching its opening date.

This morning a joint meeting of the administrative and science staffs was held to perfect plans for the final transfer of equipment, and for setting up classes with their lecture and laboratory programs.

A faculty committee is now planning programs for the formal opening and dedication of this most recent and most imposing addition to the campus.

The science staff at present is composed of Mr. T. T. Beemon, biology; Mr. Robert Ringer, physical science survey courses and chemistry; Miss Genevieve Williams, chemistry; Mr. Frank Stephenson, physics; and Mr. B. D. Sprayberry, high school physics.

Date for the formal opening of the building will be announced soon.

VICKSBURG FRESHMAN LEADS NOON DEVOTION

Each day at 1:30, Hinds Junior College's Music Auditorium is the setting for Noonday, a moment of devotion, prayer, and song dedicated to God.

The programs, which last only a few minutes, will be presided over next week by Eleanor Johnson, Vicksburg freshman.

Student Christian Clubs To Convene Near Morton

The annual spring conference of the Mississippi YM-YW-SCA will be held this year at Roosevelt State Park near Morton, beginning March 28.

The theme of the conference is "Our Faith in a Contemporary World".

Formerly held at Camp Godfrey, Castalian Springs, the assembly will convene for its first time at Roosevelt Park.

Approximately 100 Mississippi junior and senior college students are expected at this year's meeting.

Faculty Club Hears Reports From Two Members On Recent Meetings

The Hinds Junior College Faculty Club members in their semi-monthly meeting recently heard reports from Mr. Walter Gibbs, coordinator of the vocational-technical school; and from Mr. Warren Fortenberry, director of the campus reading program.

Mr. Gibbs, having attended a meeting at which leaders in Mississippi industry spoke to the leaders of technical education in the state, emphasized the need for broader education in the liberal arts field by those students who are training for places in the rapidly growing industrial fields in Mississippi or elsewhere.

Mr. Fortenberry reported to the faculty from his experience of participating in a conference of reading experts meeting recently in Dallas. Some of the findings listed by the group were new treatments of reading problems concerning rapid as well as slow readers. One theory set forth by the specialists is that in some cases retarded reading is due to a body chemical deficiency, not to an intellectual limitation. If a chemical deficiency, certain chemicals may easily remedy the difficulty.

Mrs. Jim El Harris, president of the faculty club, presented the speakers.

Other club officers are Mr. Marvin Riggs, vice-president; Miss Christine Berry, secretary; and Mr. J. R. Harris, treasurer.

Westside Wins As Guards Hold Main Without Score For Entire Quarter

Westside defeated Main in the annual basketball contest last semester by the score of 22-13.

Guards Joyce Bethune, Florence Hearn, and Regina Godley held their rivals scoreless the first quarter.

The high scorer for the winners was Peggy Fugate with seven points, close behind was Phyllis Dungan with six.

Leading the scoring for the losers were Joanne Carpenter and Faye Rollins with four each.

Captains for Main were Faye Rollins and Jean Gill, for Westside the captains were Barbara Pope and Sharrott McClurg.

Team Players: Main Forwards — Delores Ray, Myrtle Moore, Jean Gill, Joanne Carpenter, and Faye Rollins. Guards Dot Grimes, Selma Earnest, Ann Williams, and Sue Pope.

Westside players — Forwards Phyllis Dungan, Polly Harrington, Peggy Fugate, Barbara Pope, Nancy Pharr, Iris McKay, and Sidney Comfort. Guards Regina Godley, Patsy Grantham, Florence Hearn, Sharrott McClurg, Joyce Bethune, and Anna Summers.

Ace Center Signs Football Contract In Wyoming State

Hinds Junior College's ace center, Glynn Russell, will join the University of Wyoming football squad next month, it was learned this week.

Russell, one of the leading members of Hinds' unbeaten State Championship squad, mailed his contract to head coach Bob Devaney at the University of Laramie, Wyo. The 200-pound star has been captain of the Hinds eleven for the past two seasons. He has been a member of the squad for three years.

Russell was the seventh member of Joe Renfroe's powerful Eagles, the nation's No. 2 ranked junior college team, to sign a senior college football team contract.

Fullback C. J. Alexander, Donaldsonville, La., and tackle Elmer Stringer, Homer, La., signed with Southeastern Louisiana College in Hammond. The injury kept him out of action for the first two games, but he came back to play outstanding ball, making All-State and All-American. After leaving he will probably recuperate at his home at Forest Hill before reporting to McNeese. If we know Wimpy, he'll be up and ready to go before long.

Hinds To Be Host To State Women For JC Play Day

Hinds Junior College will host the State Junior-Senior College basketball Play Day for girls on Saturday, February 1.

Representing 12 colleges in the state, over 80 girls will participate in the tournament of cage games. Six girls will be represented from each of the following colleges: Mississippi College of Clinton, East Central of Decatur, Mississippi Southern of Hattiesburg, Belhaven of Jackson, All Saints of Vicksburg, William Carey of Hattiesburg, Jones of Ellisville, Holmes of Goodman, Perkinston of Perkinston, Southwest of Summit, Northeast of Booneville, and Hinds of Raymond.

The Play Day activities will get underway at 9 a.m. and will be climaxed with the basketball finals at 4 p.m. A luncheon will be served for the participants in the college cafeteria at noon.

Participation rather than competition is being stressed in the tourney. Every girl from each school will play on a different team. The tourney has been arranged so that two girls from the same school will not play on the same team.

Eaglettes Lose To Highway Patrol 6 In 35-26 Decision

Hinds Junior College Eaglettes lost their first encounter to the Mississippi Highway Patrol last Tuesday night by the score of 35-26.

Hinds got off to a slow start, but by the last quarter they came to life and moved up within nine points.

Cain was top scorer for the winners with 15 markers, while Peggy Fugate tallied nine points to be the high scorer for Hinds.

Sharrott McClurg, Regina Godley, Dott Grimes, and Florence Hearn played fine defensive ball for the losers.

The Eaglettes will play in the YWCA tournament in Jackson, February 10.

Hinds' team is made up of the All-Star girls. They are forwards, Phyllis Dungan, Delores Ray, Iris McKay, Polly Harrington, Nancy Pharr, Barbara Pope, Jean Gill, and Peggy Fugate; Guards, Faye Rollins, Sharrott McClurg, Regina Godley, Anna Summers, Dott Grimes, Selma Earnest, and Florence Hearn.

BULLETIN

It was learned early this morning that Homer Boyd, Eagle gridironer who had previously signed to play for McNeese State, will enter Mississippi Southern next week. Homer visited the Southerner's campus last weekend, and decided to render his football services for the next two years.

Hinds Player Gets Top Award In Loop On All Star Squad

Fullback C. J. Alexander, one of the top junior college backs in the state, has been recently named to the second team of the All American Grid Index All Star team.

Alexander was the only Mississippi player on the top two teams. The leading ground gainer in the conference this season, he will receive an award from the Los Angeles Times.

Hinds had three other players to receive honorable mention. They are halfback Raymond Abruzzese, tackle Wimpy Martin, and end Homer Boyd.

Outstanding Students Win Quality Point Honors

Forty-nine students were awarded quality point honors for the first semester according to the roll released from the registrar's office earlier this week.

Fourteen college, and four high school seniors won "special" honors by making a quality point average of 2.6 or above.

Thirty-one other students were named to "honors" by winning a grade point average not lower than 2.2.

Quality points given in academic subjects on semester averages are determined as follows: grade A, three quality points per semester hour; grade B, two points; grade C, one point.

A minimum of sixty quality points is required of college students for graduation.

Students winning "special" honors are the following: college — Carol Jean Benton, Jackson, 2.8; James Coley, Vicksburg, 2.6; Dick Gabriel, Jackson, 2.8; Warren Garrett, Crystal Springs, 2.7; Elizabeth Herring, Winona, 2.7; Jeannine McGuire, McComb, 2.6; Don Patterson, Jackson, 2.8; Delores Ray, Sharron, 2.6; Evelyn Sorrels, Pattison, 2.8; William Thomas, Jackson, 2.6; Mary Tolar, Sandy Hook, 2.8; Nancy Turnage, Jackson, 2.6; and Ann Williams, Utica, 2.6.

High school — John Armstrong, Edwards, 2.7; Mary Bess Beard, Bolton, 2.6; Mary Lenda Herrington, Raymond, 2.7; and Donald Sheffield, Raymond, 2.7.

"Honors" were awarded these: college — Douglas Barnes, Jackson, 2.2; Joanne Carpenter, Forest, 2.4; Dorothy Davis, Utica, 2.2; Donna Fay Dunlap, Terry, 2.2; Selma Earnest, Slate Springs, 2.3; Warren Fortner, Glen Allan, 2.5; Alma Lee Grantham, Jackson, 2.2; Jimmie Hawkins, Bruce, 2.2; Florence Hearn, Redwood, 2.4; Thomas Hicks, Vicksburg, 2.2; Jose LaRose, Peru, 2.2; Gayle Lee, Mendenhall,

Hinds To Host Basketball Play Day Meet Saturday

By REGINA GODLEY

Hinds Junior College will host an all-day Mississippi Junior-Senior College Basketball Play Day for girls Saturday, February 1, from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Girls from the junior and senior colleges of Mississippi will be participants. They will register at 9 a.m. in the Hinds Junior College gym. Six girls will represent the following colleges: Mississippi College of Clinton, East Central of Decatur, Mississippi Southern of Hattiesburg, Belhaven of Jackson, All Saints of Vicksburg, William Carey of Hattiesburg, Jones of Ellisville, Holmes of Goodman, Perkins of Perkinston, Southwest of Summit, Northeast of Booneville, and Hinds of Raymond. There will be approximately 120 attending, including physical education instructors.

The girls will be divided into 12 teams, composed of six girls from different colleges plus a

Teachers, Students Enter Heart Drive Via Basketball

It'll be the students vs. the faculty in two cage games carded Thursday night in the college gym.

To help fight the dreaded heart disease an admission of 10c will be charged to the basketball games between the teachers and students which will be held at the college gym starting at 7 p.m.

The first game will be the women teachers vs. the dormitory girls. The teachers to play are Miss Genevieve Williams, Miss Peggy Pennell, Mrs. Anne Gookin, Mrs. McNair, Miss Majorie McCord, Miss Mildred Herrin, and Mrs. Margaret Kimball.

At 8 p.m. the boys will take on the men teachers. The men's team is composed of Mr. Bill Oakes, Mr. A. L. Denton, Coach Jobie Harris, Coach Lewis Boteler, Coach Frank Young, and Coach Durwood Graham.

Hinds girl who will serve as the manager and play as a sub, if needed. No two girls from the same school will be on the same team.

Six teams will play at the Hinds gym and six teams will play at the Raymond Consolidated gym. Each team plays six games. There will be 18 games in each gym—36 basketball games in all.

Florence Hearn and Polly Harrington are the Playday co-chairmen. They will arrange the teams and schedules, and post scores of all the games.

There will be 12 girls from Hinds to serve as managers. They are Iris McKay, Dott Grimes, Reba Gail Pierce Maxine Jones, Margaret Hill, Beverly Brown, Mary Nell McGowen, Myrtle Moore, Carolyn Butts, and Marilyn Phillips.

Roxie Easley, Margaret White, Sidney Comfort, Virginia Ronken, Shirley Gardner, Shirley Ferguson, Evelyn Tinsley, and Linnie Parman will be the timers and scorers.

The girls that will represent Hinds by playing are Anna Summers, Phyllis Dungan, Barbara Pope, Joanne Carpenter, Selma Ernest, and Jean Gill.

The physical education majors from the various colleges will officiate at the games. Mississippi College will furnish three. Girls from Hinds to officiate are Regina Godley, Peggy Fugate, Faye Rollins, and Nancy Pharr.

Thelma Huff and Anne Taylor, freshmen and W. A. A. council members, will serve as messengers.

Faye Rollins, freshman from Forest Hill and a member of the All-Star basketball team is in charge of the art work. Iris McKay, Anne Taylor, and Thelma Huff are also on the art committee. Regina Godley is in charge of publicity.

A luncheon will be held in the college cafeteria at 12:30 under the direction of Mrs. Marion Welch, dietian. President G. M. McLendon will give the welcoming address.

Science Structure Begins Operations With Modern Labs

As The Hindsonian goes to press, the new science building begins to function.

Early this week the installation of major equipment was completed, and laboratory classes finished moving their individual laboratory supplies from the old science building to the new.

A tour of the new building revealed spacious well-lighted lecture rooms equipped with student desk chairs on raised platform levels, facilities for visual aids, and demonstrations. Offices for individual professors, rather than for departments, represent an improvement over plans in other modern science buildings. The central heating and air-conditioning equipment together with the control panel for the new electrical installations occupy the west side of the building.

The east section is reserved for the physics department. New DC-AC electrical panel is in operation here controlling voltage. This department includes physics labs, classrooms, storage rooms, and professor's offices.

Chemistry is housed in the north section where adequate lecture rooms, laboratories with hoods between, and a central storeroom for chemicals and apparatus, are now in use. The glass cabinet adjoining appears, it is said, attractive enough for any modern living-room.

The south end of the building is assigned to the biology department comprehending lecture rooms, laboratory, office, cabinets, and work space adequate for the large classes of students in this department.

Classes now meeting in this newest building on the campus are biology with Mr. T. T. Beemon as instructor; physical science survey courses, and chemistry, Mr. Robert Ringer; chemistry, Miss Genevieve Williams; physics, Mr. Frank Stephenson; and high school physics, Mr. B. D. Sprayberry.

Clubs' Presidents Hold First Council With College Head

A council of president, or the President's Council, convened last Thursday in what may be a significant meeting for the interest of Hinds Junior College.

At the call of President G. M. McLendon those presidents of classes and clubs who were not in scheduled classes at the 2A period met to select a time when all campus presidents could come together for a discussion and planning conference looking toward promotion of more advantageous use of college facilities, and an enlarged program of student activities.

Those who met at the Thursday session were the following: Bob Wallace, Circle K; Regina Godley, YWCA; Alma Lee Grantham, FBLA, Florence Hearn, IRC; Melinda Ambrose, Modern Language Club; Lillie Meadows, Westminster Fellowship; Jimmie Sheppard, college choir; M. J. Harrison and Mary Tolar, freshman class.

Time and place and agenda for the next meeting of campus officials will be announced.

Students To Direct Musical Program

"Down in the Valley," a musical production composed by Curt Weill, will be presented on the Hinds campus in the latter part of February.

This workshop production will be directed by students. Mr. Leslie Reeves, chairman of the music department, has announced that Mary Carolyn Hart and Robert Bloodworth have been chosen to fill this position.

The cast, incomplete at this time, will include Bob Wallace as the Leader, Edgar Bates as Brack Weaver, and Myrna Loy Stuart as Jeanne Parsons. The remainder of the cast will be announced at a later date.

COLLEGE OFFICIALS ATTEND STOCK SHOW IN LONE STAR STATE

President G. M. McLendon and Mr. Jack Treloar of the agricultural department returned today from the Southwest American Livestock Show at Fort Worth, Texas.

Mr. Magee Goodwin of Gaddis Motor Company, Raymond, accompanied the college officials.

Queen Contest Helps Heart Drive

Almost 4,900 Mississippians died of heart disease in 1956, constituting almost half of the lives lost in the state. This is four times as many people as die from cancer, 16 times as many people who succumb to pneumonia, and 47 times as many as die of TB. Every day, 25 more Mississippi people are added to the ranks of those victimized by this dreaded killer.

These facts are astounding, but true. Yet funds for heart research are so low that only $38 a year is invested in each of the heart disease deaths, and a meager three dollars in every heart case.

Surely we can do better than that. We have our chance, you know.

One of these chances is the Queen of Hearts contest now going on, not only on our campus, but all over the state as well. This method of collecting funds brings a spirit of competition into the picture; every class on our campus has a candidate in the running.

So vote by giving your pennies, dimes, quarters, and what-have-you, to the heart fund in care of your favorite queen candidate.

That way everybody'll be happy.

Study Schedule Makes For Success

Every facet of college life will leave its later imprint in the gold-dust of salaries, or so says Dr. Richard W. Husband, of Florida State University.

In an article, reprinted by permission of Fortune, Time, Inc., appearing in the Mississippi Educational Advance, Dr. Husband shows how grades, participation in extra-curricular activities, even athletics, will later pay off in hard, cold cash. His survey shows that in 30 years a "B" made today will probably be worth some $10,000 a year more than a "D." Those that showed no participation in extra-curricular activities came up with an average $13,800 a year while those gentlemen who went gung-ho with the rah-rah stuff netted some 20,000 bucks yearly.

All this only points up the importance of having a well-prepared study schedule, as our teachers and leaders have long urged. One could, by successful time budgeting, not only make good grades, but also reap the benefits wrought through having enough time left over to participate in the activities of his choice. All areas of life, scholastic, spiritual, recreational, physical, and eventually financial, would thus prosper.

Think it over; a few hours today—$10,000 tomorrow.

Union Says Work Law Against Labor

Hey, did we just hear another union claim that a right-to-work law was against labor?

It seems to us that a right-to-work law is all for labor—labor as represented by the individual worker, the real laborer of the land—and any organization lined up against such a law, such as the one upcoming in California, is, in reality, against labor. Sure, and against freedom, too.

Labor unions are a necessity for the protection of the workers, but they don't have to try to run our nation's political life. A card-holding unionist should be just another American, free to do as he chooses, and not bossed from higher up. If he wants to join an organization dedicated to political power, let him do so. Let's not draft him into one.

Hinds Extends Condolences To Perk

We would like to speak for Hinds' entire student body in extending our sincere condolences to the students and staff of Perkinson Junior College on the loss of their cafeteria by fire.

We hope that everything at Perk will soon be in smooth running order again; we know that our friends to the south will meet the challenge caused by the inconvenience in the best traditions of Mississippi JC's.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Ben Morgan Supplements Numerous Awards With Hindsonian's Top Honor

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

A future chemist takes his place in the Hindsonian's hall of fame this week.

Benjamin Carl Morgan from Braxton, Mississippi, well deserves this honor.

Ben is the son of Mrs. Mary Morgan. Graduating from Mendenhall

BEN MORGAN

High School as valedictorian, Ben was also business manager of the Shere Khan, secretary-treasurer of the senior class, and a member of the glee club. He was selected Most Intellectual Boy both in his junior and senior years, and he traveled to Washington, D. C., on the senior trip.

As a freshman the chemistry major was a member of the Baptist Student Union, the Modern Language Club and the Phi Theta Kappa. He was one of the Phi Theta Kappa members who went to the convention in Lawton, Oklahoma.

This year Ben is president of the Gamma Lambda Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, vice president of the Modern Language Club, secretary-treasurer of the Circle K Club, a member of the Baptist Student Union and a prospective member of the newly organized Science and Engineering Club. This outstanding student was elected Most Intellectual Boy in this year's Who's Who contest. He is lab assistant in the Chemistry Department.

Ben's future plans are to attend the University of Mississippi and to become a chemist for a large company.

Dramatic movies are Ben's favorite type of movies. Addie Carolyn Pearson was his grammar school sweetheart during his school days at Star.

The best of luck to you, Ben Morgan, and may you find only the finest things that life affords.

Congratulations again, Ben, upon being Sophomore of the Week.

TROTTER'S STABLES

Boone Sounds Like Milk-Filled Ball

By WAYNE TROTTER

We're sitting here listening to Pat Boone sing "Begin The Beguine" via the TV set . . . Can't help but wonder at this lad's amazing ability . . . Perry Como had best watch his policy concerning letting gentlemen as talented as Pat appear on his show . . . Seems to us Perry kinda grinds out on the high notes; Pat always sounds as full and wholesome as a milk-filled basketball.

* * *

Congratulations to high school coach "Skin" Boteler for landing the Capitol Conference Basketball tourney in Hinds' gym. If Brother Nix will pardon us, we'll go right ahead and tab Hinds High's Eaglettes to repeat as CAC champs . . . Their competition will probably come from Byram, the team that nosed the Hinds gals out in the county tourney . . . Utica's boys should be tough, but it would take a better prognosticator than we are to dare give the Gold Wave the go-ahead nod . . . Puckett, conference newcomer, Byram, perennial powerhouse, St. Joe, powered by a couple of deadly basket-rippers named Luckett, and thrice-beaten Madison-Ridgeland will be around to make it interesting . . . Watch Utica's David Glasgow, Byram's Nielsen Cochran, and Puckett's Russell Purvis as sure takers of all-CAC honors.

Gosh, but we were glad to hear of the President's Council that was set up last Thursday. This new organization will serve as a sounding-board, so that all student suggestions of merit can be placed before the powers-that-be for consideration. One of the first things this group did was to establish itself as a continuing body, to meet regularly . . . The need was there and Hinds' administration moved to fill it, for which action we'd like to utter a sincere "thank you," hoping, of course, that this echoes the sentiments of the entire student body.

* * *

The door on the western side of the Academic Building has the stability of a weak stone wall, but please don't fix it . . . This is the kind of thing memories are made of . . . Someday we hope to come back to Hinds . . . We'll stop in front of that door and brace ourselves for the battle ahead . . . It'll be an awful disappointment if that door swings open easily . . . After such an experience Hinds will seem to have left us behind; we may not feel like a part of the institution, anymore . . . And if it opens easily we'll probably fall flat on our honorable face, or charge through the hall into an impromptu re-introduction to Mrs. Furness, or pull some stunt of that ilk.

The Eagle Names Grantham Editor For Year's Work

Pictures of teachers, students, clubs, Who's Who winners, and athletics of Hinds Junior College make up the contents between the covers of The Eagle, Hinds yearbook now in the process of being completed.

A shipment of 50 pages has already been sent to the publisher, and a second shipment will go off Friday. The final shipment is due February 20.

The yearbook is published to give the students a pictorial record of the year's activities of the college. The Eagle, this year, will contain 135 pages. The Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Tex. is publisher of the annual.

Alma Lee Grantham, sophomore of Jackson, is editor-in-chief of this year's annual. Gerald Miles, Jackson, is business manager, Regina Godley, Vicksburg, is head of the sports section, and Ella Agnes Grantham, Jackson, is the high school editor. Other appointments will be made later.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Beemon, of the biology and math departments respectively are the sponsors of The Eagle.

All pictures used in the yearbook have been made, developed, and printed on the campus. Michie Hill of Jackson, assisted Mr. Beemon with photography.

State Executive To Address Hinds Engineering Club

The Engineering Club, composed of all pre-engineering students, math majors, science majors, and technical students will meet Monday, Feb. 3 at 10:20 a.m. in the college auditorium.

The guest speaker for this meeting is Mr. William E. Barksdale, one of the executives of the Mississippi Chemical Company. He will address the group Monday on job opportunities for engineers and trained technicians in Mississippi, and point out training necessary for these opportunities.

Claude Roberts, Utica, is president of the campus organization, and Miss Lurline Stewart and Mr. Wallace Wall are the faculty sponsors.

MAGIC AND TALENT SHOW TO BE STAGED MONDAY NIGHT IN AUDITORIUM

Monday at 7 p.m. in the college auditorium the students and faculty will see the unusual performed—a magic and a talent show combined.

The magic show will be conducted by James Cook, freshman.

Along with the magic show there will be a talent show. The girls trio—Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Myrna Loy Stuart, and Gay Moon; Patsy Wade, Polly Harrington, Mr. Fred Brooks, and the boys' ensemble will perform.

Admission to the double feature will be 10c.

Hinds Group Hears Pianist In Concert On Tuesday Night

The concert in Jackson last night by Leon Fleisher, pianist, was the third in the Jackson Music Association series that Hinds students and faculty members have attended.

Mr. Fleisher's appearance in Jackson followed almost a year abroad where he performed at the Berlin International Festival, the Salzburg Festival, and with a number of major orchestras. He has been chosen to represent this country next summer at the World's Fair in Brussels.

Students and faculty members privileged to attend the concert last night were these:

Sidney Comfort, Mary Carolyn Hart, Jimmy Holder, Bob Wallace, Jimmie Shepherd, Gay Moon, Carol Benton, Myrna Stuart, Pete Sherlock, Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Ed Morton, Wayne Boyd, Patsy Wade, Billie Bridges, Petie Weems, Margarita Morris, Nancy Turnage, Irvita Kelly, Janice Jolly, Jean Searcy, Sara Margaret Smith, Donna Musil, Myrtle Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Reeves, Miss Marjorie McCord, Miss Peggy Pennel, Miss Gertrude Davis, Mrs. A. L. Denton, and Mrs. Mary McKenzie.

Active Phi Theta Kappa Members In National Magazine

Pictures of Ben Fulton, Hinds alumnus, Ray Tomlinson, president of the sophomore class, and recent initiates of the Gamma Lambda chapter, Phi Theta Kappa, are featured in the January number of The Golden Key, national magazine of Phi Theta Kappa.

Ben Fulton, member of the Phi Theta Kappa, is now a senior at the University of Mississippi, and the new head of the national fraternity for men in commerce and business administration, the Delta Sigma Pi.

Ray Tomlinson and other campus initiates are pictured in formal dress on the occasion of their recent initiation into Phi Theta Kappa.

In addition to Tomlinson these are those pictured in The Golden Key:

Elizabeth Herring, Warren Fortner, Florence Hearn, Selma Earnest, Ray Tomlinson, Ben Morgan, Claude Roberts, Carol Jean Benton, James Coley, Pansy Jue, and Sarah Selman.

Local Dramatics Organization To Stage Party At Raymond Lodge For All Club Members

The Lendon Players, Hinds Junior College dramatic organization, will stage a social outing at the Raymond Lodge on Friday, January 31 from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m.

All Lendon Players members are invited to attend, and all additional students attending will pay a fee of $.50.

According to Fred L. Brooks, sponsor of the group, hot dogs and cold drinks will be served. A dance is also being planned in connection with the event.

FORTENBERRY INSTRUCTS

Reading Course Reveals Interesting Mechanical Methods of Improvement

By BETTY FURNESS

One of the most interesting, and certainly most rewarding, courses offered at Hinds is the reading class. Mr. Warren D. Fortenberry, the instructor, has only recently joined the staff.

Last year he received his Master of Arts degree from Mississippi Southern College and is presently studying toward a Doctorate degree, with a major in the field of Psychology of Reading.

Mr. Fortenberry describes reading as a very highly complex skill. Developmental reading is the purpose of the class, with wider comprehension, flexibility, rapidity, and enlargement of vocabulary as aims.

Various mechanical methods are employed to achieve these improvements. To name a few of these, there are the accelerator, the tachistoscope, and a hand and eye machine, all of which are used to develop the student's reading skills and overcome his bad habits. For materials the instructor chooses from a wide variety of reading matter.

Selections from textbooks, magazines, and fiction each have a place in the reading instructor's purpose. A student is encouraged to improve his reading in all fields.

Individual instruction is stressed. Copious notes are taken on every person in the class, and each is diagnosed as to his own particular abilities and needs. Mr. Fortenberry feels that one is affected in his reading by his interests.

To cultivate a wide range of interests in subject matter, and to increase the vocabulary are goals of the department.

To those students who will profit most by the course it is offered. This does not, however, restrict others who might be interested in improving their reading skill from voluntarily entering the class. It is the opinion of the instructor that anyone could gain by correcting bad reading habits.

Mr. Fortenberry explains that a large number of the class members is composed of those interested in various phases of the course—such as increasing vocabulary, or gaining a faster rate of speed — those who have requested to be placed in the class.

PRESIDENT McLENDON, MISS HERRIN TO VISIT CANTON SCHOOL THURS.

President G. M. McLendon and Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar, will represent Hinds Junior College at University and College Day at Canton tomorrow.

President McLendon and Miss Herrin will speak to students who are interested in attending Hinds. They will, also, hold individual conferences with the students.

Morton Girl, New York Girl To Serve As New Officers Of Home Economics Organization

Betty Milling, Morton, and Anne Taylor, Flushing, N. Y., were elected vice president and secretary of the Lamplighter's Club at the regular meeting last Friday.

Other officers in the club are Sharlot McClurg, Vicksburg, president; and Barbara Clifford, Morton, publicity chairman.

Rev. Cook Speaks To Hinds Students In Assembly Today

Rev. John Cook, chairman of the education committee of the Mississippi Methodist Conference, was the guest speaker at the college assembly this morning.

Mr. Cook spoke on the topic, Religion and the Day's Work, and emphasized the thought that religion, true religion, can not be separated from life.

With references to history, literature, and his recent experiences of travel abroad, the speaker re-interpreted the term vocation as a calling, or a mission, pointing out the thought from Browning that all service ranks the same with God.

He listed the statistics showing the world's need for church and social workers, but emphasized the fact that the need for Christian workers in vocational and technical fields is equally as great, and pleaded for dedication of one's mind, heart, and will to the high quality of life.

Perkinson Chills Ricks' Eagle Quint With Tough Attack

The visiting Perkinson Bulldogs clipped the Eagle basketeers 88-79 last Friday night.

The Eagles led for the entire first half with the half-time score standing at 40-38. At one time in the initial period Hinds held a 10 point margin, 36-26.

Diminutive Bulldog guard Joe Pinson dumped in 35 points to pace the Perk quint, getting 17 free throws in 18 attempts.

The Bulldogs caught the Eagles within minutes of the second half and continued to lengthen their lead. With one and a half minutes remaining Perk sported a 13 point advantage, 88-75.

Larry Pennington topped Eagle scorers with 18 points. Johnny Gray got 17, and Bill Castilaw, 14.

PINE-SOL QUEENS CLEAN HINDS EAGLE SEXTETTE IN 32-21 EASY VICTORY

The Hinds Junior College Eaglettes lost to the Pine-Sol Queens of the Jackson "Y" League 32-21 Monday night.

Top scorer for the winners was Myrt Jones with 10 points. Delores Ray, with 12 markers, was the high scorer for Hinds.

Hinds guards were the defensive standouts of the game. They were Dott Grimes, Sharrott McClurg, Regina Godley, Florence Hearn, Selma Earnest, and Ann Summers.

The Eaglettes travel to Millsaps to play Belhaven next Wednesday night at 7:00.

Sheffield Goes To State Association Meet In Jackson

Mr. Grady Sheffield, manager of the Hinds Junior College Frozen Locker Plant, attended a meeting of the officers and directors of the Mississippi Frozen Food Locker Association in Jackson at the Robert E. Lee Hotel last week.

Members of the Extension staff at State College met with the group to assist in planning a program for the annual convention to be held at the Buena Vista Hotel in Biloxi, August 3, 4, and 5.

A legislative committee was set up for the association. Appointed on the committee were Grady Sheffield, Raymond; Bob Rogers, Jackson; and O. F. Still, Vicksburg.

Mr. Sheffield is secretary of the association.

Deposit Guaranty Bank Speaker To Address Leaders

A speaker from the Deposit Guaranty Bank will address the Future Business Leaders of America on Friday, February 7, at their regular meeting.

Marilyn Phillips, Carthage, was elected as the new secretary of the FBLA at the meeting of Friday, January 10.

Other officers of the club are Alma Lee Grantham, Jackson, president; Lillie Meadows, Magee, vice president; Anna Summers, Clinton, treasurer; Willie House, Houston, reporter; and Lamar Knight, Jackson, social chairman.

FM, Television Instructor Of Vocational Department Recovers From Operation

Mr. H. M. Cook, FM and Television Instructor of the Vocational-Technical Department at Hinds Junior College, underwent surgery at the Baptist Hospital this week.

Mr. Cook is in need of two or three pints of blood, according to Mr. Walter Gibbes, vocational coordinator.

Mr. Bob Bullard is replacing Mr. Cook in his absence.

To the moon through the air,
The Russians will form our welcoming party;
If we by chance should get there.

Tornadic Winds Sweep Mechanics To Greater Knowledge Of Carburetors

By WAYNE TROTTER & BOBBY SHEFFIELD

A cyclone boasting winds up to 450 miles per hour ripped through the campus of Hinds Junior College last night and carried some half-hundred area mechanics and farmers home never to return — until the next time the roll is call-up yonder in the vocational department, anyway.

The victims of this horrendous blow weren't entirely ignorant of their danger, however, for the wind was stirred up inside the venturi of the carburetor on their individual cars, and they were well aware that such a disturbance is created each and every time an automobile is started. You see, they were among the almost half-hundred mechanics and farmers that had just left a new specialized class in carburetion being held by Hinds' Vocational-Technical division from now until February 14.

These men, representing at least six local new car dealers and a number of other organizations, are learning their ABC's of carburetors from the ground up in order to better understand its relation to the rest of the car. They have to know just how to handle an instrument so vital that it cuts the 100 gallons of gasoline that a fuel pump is capable of supplying in an hour down to the three gallons that an engine consumes, an instrument that can destroy the effectiveness of a vehicle by not performing its vaporization duties adequately, an instrument that can ruin lubrication by washing the cylinder walls clean of oil.

Mr. Douglas Shannon, instructor of the course, has brought the State Vocational Board's display of more than 200 carburetors along with him for use during this class.

Such well established firms as Robinson Brothers, Gaddis Ford, Hubbard Chevrolet, and Hubbard DeSoto-Plymouth have men in attendance. Fowler Buick of Jackson has no less than eight of their personnel taking the course. Towns represented in this class include Utica, Jackson, Edwards, Bolton, Clinton, and Raymond.

Prior to the opening of this particular course, Hinds students were allowed to take a similar one, and 43 local scholars carried away certificates certifying that they had met the requirements of this course.

Mr. Walter Gibbes, vocational-technical coordinator, has said that another carburetion course will be offered starting next month.

SCALING THE CLEF

Rare Music Student Receives Honor

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Magic in Music?

Yes, that's what I'd call the accomplishments of Miss Nancy Turnage, sophomore majoring in music. For, you see, Nancy has accomplished afeat worthy of acclaim in the music world. She is not only a violinist in the Jackson Junior Symphony, she is also a trombone player in the Jackson Symphony. We understand that Nancy is one of the two persons ever to accomplish this magic in music.

Congratulations to Hinds High School on its interesting entertaining Teen Tempos show. We thought the show was one of the best ever to grace the Teen Tempos show. Some of those participating in the show were Dorothy Brock, Lou Ann Carter, Betty Denton, Nancy Ruth Chapman, Sarah Margaret Smith, Jerry Bridges and many more. Sarah Margaret and Jerry won the dance contest and are still in the running for championship dance honors.

You can help Sarah and Jerry by sending in a vote for them before Thursday night.

The freshman class is planning an extravaganza to raise money for its queen, Miss Flora May, one of Pearl's gifts to Hinds. Make plans now to attend this show; it will feature some of the top talent in Mississippi.

How did you like the new dance band composed of Hinds' band members? We thought it really rocked. The dixie-jazz-bop group was composed of Ed Morton, Petie Weems, George Stockstill, Jim Hudson, Royce Baker, and Billy Fox Swilley. Oh, yeah, let's not forget the unforgettable Floyd Hodo.

What ever happened to those good old songs like "Heartbreak Hotel", "After School", "Blueberry Hill", and "Too Much Monkey Business." We surely do miss those soothing old ballads.

The choir will be having a "jolly romp" (as some little brilliant person whom I cannot remember describes social functions) next Saturday. Great loads of Hinds talent will be featured.

In Arlington, Virginia, some time ago, the owners of a missing mongrel dog offered a reward of $500 for the return of the pup missing for months. Local police, newspaper advertising, and radio time so far had failed to locate the dog named Irene. The owners stated that their regard for the dog was "something many people can't understand."

EAGLETTE CO-CAPTAINS — One of the main reasons Coach Louis "Skin" Boteler's Hinds High Eaglettes have boasted one of the best records in District Six this season is directly reflected in two performers — Co-captains Nancy Ruth Chapman, left, and Jimmie Stingley. Chapman, a forward, is one of the leading scorers of the team, while Stingley has made the All-Star team in two tournaments this season.

DOGOMATIC OUTLOOK

Hinds Junior Quintet Faces Tough Battles In Long Basketball Stand

Coach Troy Ricks of the Hinds Junior College Eagles faces his roughest assignment of the season thus far in the next two weeks.

Ricks will leave the Hinds campus Thursday morning for six consecutive games on the road. Although it will make or break the Eagles in conference play, the Hinds tutor possesses a cheerful outlook about the road engagements.

A 4-3 record would grace most any junior college cage arena on the current trips; however, Ricks is taking a dogmatic attitude and saying, "We can win them all from here on out."

The Eagles will carry a 9-4 conference record on the trip this week. The gigantic task ahead could be a stepping stone to the State junior college basketball championship, or it could rip the team's record in every respect.

The conference record of regular season games will determine the placing the Eagles will receive in the south Mississippi tournament next month. Hinds must make a clean sweep in order to get a top seeding in tourney play.

Perkinston, one of the top teams in the state, trimmed the Eagles 88-79 Friday night for one of the four conference losses. The remaining setbacks have been at the hands of the Pearl River Wildcats on one occasion and the Itawamba Indians twice.

Plans Being Made For Heart Contest On Local Campus

Posters are going up over the campus for the Queen of Hearts candidates, Jimmie Sheppard, sophomore class; Flora May, freshman class; and Lou Ann Carter, high school representative.

Heart fund banks are being placed in strategic spots for anyone who wishes to contribute to the heart fund and elect a favorite candidate at the same time. Cookies are being sold to make money for the sophomore candidate. Most of the plans for the three separate campaigns are not yet in full motion, although the candidates are willing to do their part toward becoming the Queen of Hearts from Hinds Junior College.

INTRA-MURAL ENCOUNTER SCHEDULED AS CENTRAL PREPS FOR ROUGH TEST

Two intra-mural basketball games will be played tonight in the college gym starting at 6:45 p.m., reports Mr. Bill Oakes, recreational director.

The second floor of Shangri-La will clash with the football team in the lid opener. The second floor of Central meets the first floor of Eastside at 7:45.

Tuesday night games included matches with the first floor of Shangri-La and the football team and second floor of Central with first floor.

Hinds has marked up victories over Sunflower, Holmes, and Southwest. The Eagles have registered two wins over Copiah-Lincoln, Northeast, and Clarke.

Jones' Bobcats of Ellisville will host the Eagles Thursday night, and a Hinds-Perkinston squabble will be settled Friday night.

Ricks will unload his flying crew at Summit to tangle with the Southwest Bears, runners-up in the state overall tournament last season, on Tuesday night, February 4. A splash through North Mississippi and across to the Delta will complete the year's road battles.

Hinds will journey to Goodman to clash with Holmes Bulldogs on Thursday, February 6, and the East Mississippi Lions at Scooba will make room for the Eagle aggregation on the following night. The final road contest will pit the Eagles against the Sunflower Trojans of Moorehead on Tuesday, February 11.

Two home games will complete the schedule of conference encounters the same week.

Eagle Six Top-Seeded In Meet

By CURTIS NIX

Monday night play in the Capitol Athletic Conference tournament gets underway on the Hinds campus.

There will be 15 different schools wrestling for top honors in the week long affair. Coach Boteler's Hinds High sextet is the top seeded girls team and should, we think, come through as the number one team. Winnie Lou Smith and Nancy Chapman team to make up Boteler's 1-2 scoring punch, while Jimmie Stingley and Lou Ann Carter highlight the "clean-up backboard combo". Led by these four girls, the Baby Eaglettes will be hard to beat.

Volleyball Heads Sports Activities In Women's League

Volleyball heads the sports activities this month, sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association.

There are three teams in the league. The captains are Anne Taylor, Polly Harrington, and Virginia Ronken.

Last Wednesday night Taylor's team defeated Harrington's crew by the score of 26-24. The game was very close with the score changing hands several times.

The second game saw the losers, Harrington's team, play Ronken's girls. Harrington's team lost to Ronken by the score of 41-29.

Other games will be announced at a later date.

Girls on the volleyball teams are: Taylor's team—Faye Rollins, Shirley Gardner, Anna Summers, Robinette Riddle, Selma Ernest, Myrtie Moore and Jimmie Sheppard.

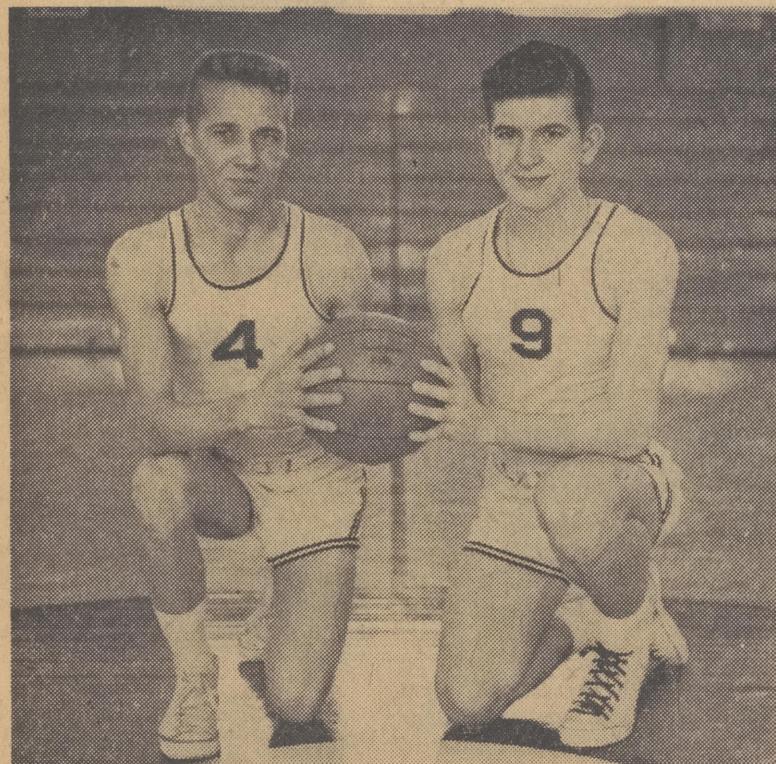

Harrington's Team: Dot Grimes, Sharrott McClure, Joyce Bethune, Irvita Kelly, Jo Roby, Joanne Carpenter, and Roxie Easley.

Ronken's Team: Florence Hearn, Regina Godley, Lillie Meadows, Virginia Vaughn, Marilyn Phillips, Dot Ann Pickett, Barbara Chamblee, and Jean Gill.

Monday, Feb. 10—Championship final, 7.

Renfroe To Hand Out 1957 Letters; 23 Grid Members To Receive Jackets

Joe Renfroe, athletic director and head coach at Hinds Junior College, lettered a total of 23 football players (the entire squad) on the 1957 State championship team this week.

The players will receive maroon and white leather jackets as soon as the shipment arrives. Each jacket will have a football emblem with "State Champs 1957" on the back in maroon lettering.

Renfroe and his assistants, Frank Young, and Durwood Graham, listed 10 sophomores, and 13 freshmen, to receive the awards.

The sophomores are: Wimpy Martin of Forest Hill and Elmer Stringer, Houma, La.; guards Bennie Hawkins of Memphis, Tenn.; Jimmy Stubbs of Jackson, and Don Brady

Pearl River Drops Hinds Eagle Quint In Loop Setback

The Eagles of Hinds Junior College invaded the Pearl River Wildcats at Popularville last night and were defeated 80-72 in a rough and tumble contest.

The Eagles dropped behind in the opening minutes, but pulled to within three points of the 'Cats by halftime. At intermission the score stood at 36-33 Pearl River.

The final half was a replay of the first. Hinds cut the lead to within 10 points in the final minutes of play.

Johnny Gray popped in 29 points and Carl Harris neeted 18 to top Eagle scorers. Dennis Devrow got 22 for Pearl River.

of Clinton, La.; end Homer Boyd of Raymond; center Glynn Russell of Monticello; quarterback Hal Battle of Byram; halfback Pruitt Blalock of Edwards; and fullback C. J. Alexander of Donaldsonville, La.

Freshman players to receive letters are: ends Bobby Howell of Jackson, Jerome Cherry of Dothan, Ala. and Wendall Campbell of Pensacola, Fla.; tackles Donald Oakes of Redwood and Tommy Furlow of Jackson; guard Eddie Garver of Brandon; center Curtis Nix of Forest Hill; quarterbacks Melvin Champagne of Houma, La. and M. J. Harrison of Forest Hill; and halfbacks Raymond Abruzzese of Philadelphia, Pa., Jerry Foster of Jackson, and Levi Barber of Jacksonville, Fla., the leading scorer in the conference this season.

It was the second Hinds gridiron letter for Champagne, Battle, Hawkins, Stubbs, Boyd, Stringer, Russell, and Martin.

According to Renfroe, Hinds always letters the entire squad when the Eagles win the State championship.

The Eagles compiled a 10-0 record this season and were ranked second in the nation's two JC rating systems.

Senior Class Wins Hinds Heart Fund 'On Local Campus

Lou Ann Carter, high school senior, took the annual 'Queen of Hearts' contest held on Hinds' campus over two other candidates by gathering more than sixty-six dollars for the heart fund.

Jimmie Sheppard, college sophomore representative, placed a close second by presenting sixty-four dollars and Flora May, backed by the large Freshman class, boosted the entire campus total to $112.

Miss Carter was crowned in a ceremony held this morning in assembly, thus terminating two weeks of campaigning. The actual crowning was performed by Sara Margaret Smith, also a senior, who was in charge of the local contest.

The next stop for Hinds' representative will be the county contest, where she will be backed by all the money collected on this campus, and the county winner will proceed to the state affair, supported by the funds from the local contest.

On Valentine's Day, February 14, Governor J. P. Coleman will present the State Queen with her crown and will then entertain her with an afternoon tea to be held in the Governor's Mansion. The four state runners-up will serve as tea girls.

President George M. McLendon To Attend Convention

President George M. McLendon will attend the National Convention of the American Association of Junior Colleges in Grand Rapids, Mich. on March 4-8, it was learned today.

The five-day event will be held in the Pantlind Hotel. "Diversification and Cooperation in Higher Education" is the theme of the annual conference.

President McLendon, who is a member of the committee of administration, will assist with the organization and administration of the Junior Colleges. The Hinds president's term runs through 1960.

Almost every phase of the junior college system will be discussed. It will be the largest convention in the history of the American Association.

PROSE, POETRY COLUMN TO START IN PAPER NEXT WEEK BY STAFF WRITER

As a contribution to the literary growth of the readers, a new column is being initiated next week reserved for talents in the field of prose and poetry. Any person, amateur or otherwise, wishing to contribute material for publication, should contact Buck O'Connor or any staff member.

Hinds Opens Doors To CAC Students

The gym at Hinds Junior College, ever becoming more and more popular as the showplace of district six, is hosting the annual basketball tourney of the 15-member Capitol Athletic Conference this week. It is to those high-school students attending this week-long gathering that this editorial is addressed. With the exception of one member the entire CAC lies within Hinds' district.

We'd like to assume, in view of the present lack of men with higher education, that most of you are going on to college. Many of you, we know, are all mixed up — you can't decide what to do. Should you join the Armed Forces? That man on TV makes it sound awfully alluring. Or you could get a job; gosh, but that money would feel good, wouldn't it? And then there's college — Yes, there's college.

What about college? Is it too hard? Is there too much work involved? Are the people there snooty? Will I be left out because I come from such a small town? Well, fella, you can just allay all those fears — Yes, it's hard (but not too hard); there's work involved, all right (but you still have the best time of your life); Nobody's snooty (they couldn't be; they're all too friendly); and no one feels left out (we know; we're from one of the smallest CAC schools).

So how about taking a little advice from a fellow high school senior (one-year removed) and coming to college — this college. Hinds offers everything. Things like good study surroundings, well planned social activities, and good neighbors make college worth living. Each and every day Hinds runs free buses to the nearby population centers. Tuition is only $15 for an 18 week semester. The quality of the school is equal to anybody's. Take a tour while you're over here and see.

We'd surely like to see a lot of those CAC jackets over here next year.

Mr. Citizen Prefers To See Free TV

Now, tell me, buddy, just what is all this mess we hear about pay TV.

As near as we can tell it's all rotten. If the system of spectator payment were the natural thing, it would have grown up during the days of radio. The principle is the same. Why didn't we have to pay then?

Proponents of the move claim that the end result will be better entertainment without the added distraction of commercials. The only hitch to this is that Mr. Citizen won't like it. If he wants to see high quality material without any interruptions he'll go to the movies. The fact that so many Americans prefer the small screen to the large only indicates that the average Joe prefers a free see.

And we don't know if the quality of the shows would be any higher. They're good right now and the three major networks are doing a fine job of making them even better.

The entire thing sounds like a con-man's nightmare.

Hinds WAA Plays Host On Play Day

Hinds Junior College had the high honor of playing host to the most lovely of the nation's lovelies — a group of gals from Mississippi's colleges and universities — last Saturday.

The event was the State Junior-Senior College Basketball Play Day, pulled off by the local Women's Athletic Association, and the outcome was a happy and satisfied 100 girls, not to mention the outright glee expressed by a number of boys.

Seriously, though, we'd like to commend heartily these lassies from Perk, Booneville, Mississippi College, Belhaven, Southern, William Carey, Jones, All-Saints, and ECJC for the sportsmanship, character, and all-around good-naturedness that they displayed during this one-day event. They were the perfect guests; Mrs. Gookin's ladies were the perfect hosts.

It's times like these that make Hinds want to shout a hearty "come again." Please do, for this pleasure was all ours.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

State FBLA President, Hi-Stepper Addie Pearson Captures Honor Spot

By CAROLYN BARTON

Take a pair of dark brown eyes; add dark brown hair, 115 pounds, five feet four inches, and a vivacious, yet strikingly serious minded personality and what do you have? Addie Carolyn Pearson, Hinds sophomore, who likes horseback riding, dancing and, who says, "Ooo,

ADDIE PEARSON

I'm so flustered!"

If some unsuspecting newcomer to Hinds should happen to amble into the Academic Building on Friday between 10:20 and 11:00 a.m., he might be scattered to the three ends of the hall when a pint-size tornado "flusters" from here to there.

Don't be surprised stranger, and don't wonder—that's Addie "minding her business", for you see, business is Addie's major and Future Business Leaders of America is her main interest.

Did I say FBLA is Addie's main interest? Correction! It's one of her main interests. The other is writing letters while listening to "You Send Me." Get the connection?

The place is the University of Mississippi; the time is April, 1957; the what is the spring convention of FBLA. It is here that Addie received one of the greatest honors of her life. In receiving this honor, Addie's thrill, feeling of responsibility, and near-to-tears emotion are expressed in the joyful exclamation, "Mrs. Furness!" Addie had just been elected state president of the Future Business Leaders of America for 1957-58, winning over candidates from the junior colleges, colleges, and universities of the State of Mississippi!

A post-glory of this office occurred this summer when Addie attended the 1957 National Convention of FBLA in Dallas, Texas, June 18-21, where she met and learned from officers from all over the nation. Demonstrating her serious-mindedness, Addie says that the trip's main influence to her was "inspirational."

With her attending classes, FBLA, Wesley and Hi-Steppers, Addie's weekly schedule is full, but on the weekend you will find her at home in Star, Miss., riding horses and indulging in her favorite foods, shrimp and apple pie à la mode.

When, 15 years from now, we hear a prominent leader in the business world advocate furthering FBLA in colleges, I'll be able to say "I knew Addie when . . ." when she brought credit to Hinds Junior College ("The only Junior College in Mississippi" in her book) by her initiative, leadership and charming personality.

As for now, we can say, Addie, good luck to you always, and we of Hinds salute you as the Sophomore of the Week.

LOBO Solves Problems Of The Heart

By CAROLYN BARTON

Editor Danny Zeff of the University of New Mexico Lobo said "Love might make the world go around, but gold and silver are the lubrication that eliminates the squeaks." This comment concerned the paying of salaries to student officials when the student council turned down a proposal to pay the student body vice-president $30 monthly.

CAROLYN

"You may waste some time and money on students with poor chance of success in college," he said, "but you also reduce the risk of screening out students with good college potential who somehow didn't prove themselves in high school."

Speech Students To Participate In Gulf-States Meet

The Department of Speech and Drama will participate in five events this semester.

During the month of February alone, students from this department will participate in two speech festivals. First festival will be the Gulf-States Speech Festival at Mississippi Southern College on February 7. Students participating in this event will be Melinda Ambrose, Carolyn Barton, Joanne Adcock, Charles Wall, Jimmy Morris, and Ray Terry.

On February 15 a group will journey to Jones Junior College for the South Mississippi Junior College Speech Festival. Students participating in the festival will be the same as the aforementioned with the addition of Herbert Wilkerson.

This department will be host for a high school one act play contest on February 28, which is sponsored by the Mississippi Speech Association.

The senior class play of Hinds High School will be directed this year by two college sophomore students, who are speech majors, Charles Wall, and Carolyn Barton. The title of this play is "Judy Pulls the Curtain." It will be presented on March 18.

This year the Department of Speech and Drama has offered four different speech courses, and has more students enrolled at present than in any of the past four semesters. Courses now offered are Fundamentals of Speech, Voice and Diction, Oral Interpretation, and Fundamentals of Drama.

Hinds Choir Holds Party At Lodge Saturday Night

"I had a marvelous time. I thought it was great;" were the words used by Miss Sidney Comfort in describing her enjoyment of the choir's banquet and dance held in the evening of February 1.

Excellent entertainment greeted choir members and their dates at Raymond Lodge. This entertainment included the girls' trio, Myrna Loy Stuart, Gay Moon, and Jimmie Ruth Hawkins who sang "Sugartime" and "My Life, My Love, My Happiness"; Patsy Wade sang "Pet Me, Pappa" and "I Can't Say No" from the Broadway and Hollywood hit show Oklahoma. Joan Byrne, Miss Clinton of 1957, favored the group with a toe dance. Serving as master of ceremonies for the program was Bob Bloodworth.

Banquet foods included ham, baked potatoes, lima beans, French rolls, and coffee or coke.

The Keynotes from Hinds played for the dance which immediately followed the banquet.

Much hard work went into preparing for this entertainment, and the choir would like to express thanks to those who helped make the event a success.

Barksdale Speaks Monday To Hinds Engineering Club

William E. Barksdale, executive of the Mississippi Chemical Company, Monday morning told the Hinds Junior College Engineering Club of the job opportunities for engineers and trained technicians in Mississippi.

Barksdale also pointed out the training necessary for the job opportunities.

Claude Roberts, president of the Engineering Club, composed of all pre-engineering students, math majors, science majors, and technical students, presided over the meeting.

Miss Lurline Stewart, head of the math department at Hinds, introduced the guest speaker to the group.

He is now serving as chairman of the drama division of the Mississippi Speech Association, immediate past president of the South Mississippi Junior College Speech Festival Association, a sustaining member of the Southern Speech Association, and a voting member of the Speech Association of America.

BUCK'S BULLETIN BOARD

Satellite Launching Gets Reactions

By BUCK O'CONNOR

Reactions set off with the launching of the first U. S. satellite were varied. Here are a few digested reports as gathered from various personalities and departments.

BUCK

From Ike: "quite proud," "an American achievement . . . a scientific achievement." Ike got the word down at Augusta where he was getting in a few rounds of golf over the weekend. His first reaction — "That's wonderful."

Dr. Werner von Braun, chief of the launching team, felt that while the satellite was a success, Russian advancements were still "shocking."

The Navy sent a brief message to the Army's "missile men." Some of the old soldiers probably supplied the seamen with ketch-up — to make the hats go down a little easier.

Mississippi legislators felt that the morale of the western world has been elevated. Rep. Arthur Winstead of Philadelphia said, ". . . the Army could have got it up earlier."

A general's son was bragging on his father's job in Washington, D. C. when his water was cut off

Sophomore Class Sponsors Talent Show On Campus

The Sophomore Class sponsored a talent show Monday night in the College Auditorium to support their candidate, Jimmie Sheppard, in the Queen of Hearts contest. The proceeds from the show will go to the Heart Fund.

First on the program was Polly Harrington, who played a piano solo, "Flight of the Bumblebee." Myrna Loy Stuart, next on the show, sang "That Old Feeling" and "If I Loved You."

The Blue Notes, a trio composed of Myrna Loy Stuart, Gay Moon, and Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, then sang "Sugartime," "Feeling Mighty Fine," "Richochet," and "Have You Talked to the Man Upstairs."

"Our Mr. Brooks," disguised as "Skinny Sam," gave a pantomime to the record "Dinah."

Patsy Wade brought her version of "Pet Me, Pappa," "I Can't Say No," and "If N".

Gay Moon then sang "Wild Cherry," "Country Mile", and "You Don't Have to Be a Baby to Cry".

The last attraction on the show was a magic show by James Cook. He was assisted by Billy Lee, Beverly Brown, and Hazel Baynes.

by the son of a private. "So what, my Dad works down at Cape Canaveral."

* * *

Considering the vast importance of this historic event, the "Board" has been taken up this week with news of our first "baby moon." While such things as segregation and other developments are certainly newsworthy, it is the opinion of this writer that the progress the U. S. has made — in the eyes of people all over the world, and in an attempt to keep pace with Soviet Russia — is beyond the parallel of any other news event.

California Paper Discusses 1920's

On comparing the much-criticized youth of today with those of the roaring twenties, the Fresno, California Junior College RAMPAGE has this to say: During the 1920's and 30's college campuses in this country saw . . . communist groups . . . bathtub gin parties . . . and swallowing goldfish. While it may be good that the college student of today has become far less explosive in his mannerisms, the aura of conformity he has assumed may be considered lethal. They receive information from their teachers and texts as if they were in a vacuum. No attempt is made to question an authority, information is accepted as completely factual and beyond memorizing it, no further thought is given to it. The end result of this situation is that all college graduates are college trained but very few are truly educated. This situation may be considered far more dangerous than a riotous student outbreak over the outcome of a football game.

Mississippi College Presents Musical Program In Chapel

Mississippi College students presented a musical variety show in assembly program today.

Directed by Ellis Elsey, the choir and trio performed some of the current popular numbers.

MAN OF THE YEAR — Jack C. Treloar, Jr., head of the agriculture department at Hinds Junior College has been named "Agricultural Man of the Year" for 1957 by the Hinds County Farm Bureau. Here Treloar views only a few of many awards his students have won in agriculture and stock judging contests.

Play Group To Hear Dean of Women

At the regular meeting of the Lendon Players tomorrow evening the guest speaker will be Miss Gertrude Davis, dean of women, who will speak on the topic, a Midsummer Night in Rome.

Miss Davis will share with the group some of her experiences of the past summer at European opera and theater.

The business meeting will be presided over by Dee Greathouse.

The refreshment hour will consist of valentine refreshments. In charge of food will be Sara Margaret Smith, Joanne Adcock, and Mr. Fred Brooks.

All members are urged to attend.

UNPAID MANAGER—Joe Carter, Hinds county farmer, left, called Jack Treloar, Jr., the county's "Agricultural Man of the Year," my "unpaid farm manager." As vocational agriculture teacher at Hinds Junior College, Treloar has spent a large part of his time advising county farmers and even vaccinating their stock.

Hinds county's "Agricultural Man of the Year" doesn't have much time to work on his own farm.

He's too busy helping other farmers.

Jack C. Treloar, Jr., vocational agriculture teacher at Hinds Junior College and part-time farmer, this week was presented a trophy as the county's "Agricultural Man of the Year."

The presentation was made at the monthly meeting of officers and directors of the Hinds County Farm Bureau by Bureau President Sam Tupper, Jr.

Water Valley Native

A native of Water Valley, Treloar has taught vocational agriculture at Hinds since his release from the Army in 1946.

In his teachings he has visited over 100 farms in 200 square miles situated in the Raymond school district, offering advice and help to both students and farmers.

His work, until this year, had been carried on entirely with high school students at the junior college. Now, however, with the high school becoming a separate institution at Raymond, his work will be shifted to junior college agriculture students.

Difference

"Vocational agriculture is different from formal agriculture classes," Mr. Treloar explained.

"In vocational agriculture, we teach farm boys how to operate their own farms and how to make money through improved farm practices. They carry out special projects on their farms and I visit them to check their projects, and to supervise their work."

"In agriculture classes it's different. College agriculture students at Hinds stress laboratory and classroom work."

Vocational agriculture classes taught by the Mississippi State College graduate take in all phases of farm operation.

Knows 'Em All

"Projects carried out by my students have helped me to meet practically every farmer in the Raymond school area," Treloar said.

A project carried out in his first year at the school was largely responsible for Treloar's popularity in the county.

"We decided to try a livestock insect control program about 1947," the award winner said. "I had been at Hinds half a year, hadn't met anyone much, and my family was living at Taylor," where he taught school before entering the army.

"I had decided to leave here at Christmas, but the school bought a power sprayer for use in the spring and I stayed to help with the project. We sprayed every head of stock in our area, and before we finished I knew everyone around here. So I decided to stay."

Better Farms

Other projects carried out by his students and which have become common practice throughout the area have resulted in increased corn production, better use of land, and limited feed production for winter feeding.

"The thing that surprised me most about Hinds county when I came here," he commented, "was the large amount of land that was idle."

"I began teaching my boys how to use the idle land for pastures and all that idle land has been put to work now."

One project Treloar's students and Hinds farmers have carried on the past two years has been experiments in production of winter feeding crops for stock.

"It's a pretty expensive operation to produce silage for winter feeding," Treloar admitted. "But we've had some farmers try it on a limited scale and make money."

The principal project in Hinds county now, however, is control of calving dates.

Shrewd Planning

"A calf born in January is worth two born in summer," Treloar pointed out. "A calf born in winter can get full benefit from the spring grass."

Hinds county, according to the "man of the year," is in good shape agriculturally.

We would have had a bad year like everyone else if we had been depending on cotton in 1957," Treloar remarked, "We concentrated on livestock and enjoyed one of our best years."

"Our farmers broke even or lost a little on their crops," he declared, "but income from cattle made up the loss and helped Hinds farmers to realize a profit."

There's no better area in the United States than Hinds county for raising cattle," he continued. "In fact, a good many farmers in the county depend entirely on stock."

Compliment

One Hinds farmer, Joe Carter, called the agriculture department head "my unpaid farm manager." Carter said the teacher has advised me about operation on my farm and even helped me vaccinate my stock."

Father of two daughters, Treloar attended Holmes Junior College at Goodman for two years, received his bachelor's degree in agriculture from Mississippi State in 1938 and his master's degree from State College in 1951.

Mrs. Treloar is a member of the faculty at Forest Hill. Since coming to Hinds, Treloar has served as secretary-treasurer of the Mississippi Agricultural Teachers Association three years, has been a director of the Hinds County Farm Bureau and is a past president of the Raymond Lions Club. He is a member of the Presbyterian church.

The teacher's selection as Hinds county's "Agricultural Man of the Year" is the first annual recognition to be given by the Farm Bureau.

Keynotes To Play In Brandon Friday Nite For Program

The Keynotes, a newly-organized dance band at Hinds composed of George Stockstill on trumpet, Floyd Hodo on tenor sax, Ed Coleman on t-bone, Colbert Irby on piano, Jim Hudson on bass, and Billy Swilley on drums, will play for the March of Dimes benefit in Brandon next Friday night.

The annual event is sponsored by the Jaycees and is held in the old gymnasium.

The public is invited to attend. The fun will start at 8 p. m. and last until midnight.

DYNAMIC CAGE PACK*Eagles Take Off For Final Road Trips In Current Basketball Year

A dynamic and power-packed basketball team at Hinds Junior College roared to the road again this week in three road squabbles.

A nifty pack of Hinds cagers has set its sites in three different corners of the state for this week's upcoming classics. The Eagles, although taking a brief rest this week end, will be completing the final half of a successful road campaign this week.

Sparkling with plenty of vigor, Troy Ricks' Hinds quintet pulled out from Raymond last week with a 9-4 conference record. Only one of the losses was suffered on the road. It was a 92-84 victory for Itawamba Indians of Fulton.

Pearl River, Itawamba, and Perkinston have trimmed Hinds in home squabbles, and Jack Gallagher's Wildcats fired the works again last week for a 80-72 margin over the Eagles.

Ricks, chief engineer of the Eagles, has tutored Hinds back to the offensive road this week. A fired-up crew of Eagle performers turned the tables on the Jones Bobcats Thursday night, and on the Perkinston Bulldogs Friday night. It was the initial loss of the season for the Perkinston aggregation.

Friday night's victory gave the Eagles a 11-5 conference record this season. And the only team to defeat Hinds in the southern division twice is the Pearl River five.

A roaring spree through North Mississippi and across to the Delta will complete the year's road battles.

An engagement with the Holmes Bulldogs is on the agenda Thursday night at Goodman. The East Mississippi Lions of Scooba will host the Eagles Friday night.

The final road contest will put the Eagles against the Sunflower Trojans of Morehead Tuesday night week.

A two-game home stand will complete the regular schedule for the Eagles the same week.

Play Day Draws Girls From All Over State For Unique Basketball Event

By REGINA GODLEY

Approximately 100 students assembled in the Hinds Junior College gym last Saturday for the all day basketball Play Day for girls from the junior and senior colleges of Mississippi.

Ten colleges of Mississippi participated. They were Perkinston, Perkinston; Northeast, Booneville; Mississippi College, Clinton; Belhaven, Jackson; Mississippi Southern, Hattiesburg; William Carey, Hattiesburg; Jones, Ellisville; All-Saints, Vicksburg; East Central, Decatur; and Hinds, Raymond.

After the girls registered and changed into their attire for the day (Jamaicas, Bermudas, blue jeans, shorts, peddle pushers, shirts, and tennis shoes) they were divided into teams, with no two girls from the same school on the same team. Participation rather than competition was stressed in the play day.

Five teams played in the Hinds gym, and five teams played in the consolidated school gym.

Florence Hearn, Hinds, was in charge of the consolidated school and Polly Harrington, Hinds, was in charge of the college gym. They arranged the teams and schedules and posted scores of the games.

At 12:30 a banquet was given in the college cafeteria. Iris McKay, president of the Women's Athletic Association at Hinds welcomed the girls and told briefly about the local W. A. A. President G. M. McLendon gave the welcoming address. The group enjoyed fried chicken, green salad, English peas, creamed potatoes, or potato salad, cherry pie, and iced tea, which was prepared by Mrs. Marion Welch, dietitian.

Play resumed at 1:30 and ended at 4:30 p.m. There was a final game in the college gym between the winners of the Hinds gym vs. the winners of the consolidated gym.

The Black team, composed of Judy Burrowes, Mississippi College; Ramona Roger, Jones; Sylvia Williams, Southern; Mary Olson, Belhaven; Betty Hardy, Northeast; Karen Yarbrough, Perkinston; and Selma Earnest of Hinds, manager, played the Brown team, composed of Frances Steele, Perkinston; Adair Coco, All-Saints; Linda Mayfield, Mississippi College; Madge Bullock, Jones; Shirley Jones, East Central; Betty Potts, Northeast; and Joanne Carpenter of Hinds, manager.

Carpenter's team won the game by the score of 25-24 and were the champions of the day.

Regina Godley, Hinds; Gwen Post White, Mississippi College; Sylvia Howell, Belhaven; Virginia Ball, Southern; and Jeryl Denson, Mississippi College, were the officials.

Dott Grimes, Reba Gail Pierce, Margaret Hill, Beverly Brown, Carolyn Butts, Marilyn Phillips, Selma Earnest, Joanne Carpenter, Roxie Easley, and Anna Summers, all of Hinds, were the manager-hos-tess of each team.

Players from Hinds were Faye Rollins, Barbara Pope, Jean Gill, Iris McKay, Phyllis Dungan, and Johnnie Catherine Ledbetter.

The timers and scorers, girls from Hinds, were Evelyn Tinsley, Sharrott McClurg, Margaret White, Virginia Ronken, Sidney Comfort, and Linnie Parman.

Mrs. Anne Gookin, director of girls' physical education at Hinds, was in charge of the play day.

Capitol Athletic Tourney On Campus Cards 4 More Battles Wednesday Nite

Four battles are catalogued here tonight in the third night of the annual Capitol Athletic Conference basketball tournament.

The initial two nights saw 10 teams fall by the wayside.

The tourney got underway Monday night with Raymond, Puckett, Jett, Byram, and Anding taking victories.

The Raymond Rangetettes bounded Madison-Ridgeland 37-9 in a duel that saw Rangerette guards box in the Madison girls and hold them scoreless until 30 seconds before halftime. Puckett girls clipped Culkin, and in the other feminine affair, Jett dropped Flora.

The Byram Bulldogs outscored the Madison quint, and Anding High stomped Terry 54-24.

Tuesday night the Raymond Rangers knocked off MSD 37-33 with Byrle Kynerd pacing Raymond; Port Gibson won a pair from MSD and Jett; Redwood lassies mopped up Anding 54-34; and in the finale, the Hinds High Eagles captured the long end of 49-47 score over the St. Joseph Rebels.

Eagle Troupe Tops Jones, Perkinson In Cage Battles

The Jones quintet from Ellsville opened wide their doors to the victory-hungry Hinds Eagles Thursday night and retreated with heads bowed.

The Eagles came from behind to take the measure of the Bobcats 74-68 with Johnny Gray leading the charge with 29 big points.

Gerald Lee popped in 16 more, and Bill Castilaw tacked on 15 to round out Eagle scoring.

The following night the fighting Eagles clipped the stubborn Perkinson Bulldogs 79-74.

Castilaw's 22 points led Hinds in scoring, while Lee canned 17, and Larry Pennington bucketed 12.

The Eagles came from behind midway of the first half and overran the 'Dogs. They maintained a lead for the rest of the game.

Joe Rossetti was Perk's best with 25 markers.

The game was tight all the way.

Donnie Sheffield, David Mason, Bill Forney, Bill Ferguson, and Dickie Osborne played outstanding ball in the winning cause.

Hinds High Eaglettes, who drew a bye from action in opening tourney play, meet Raymond Consolidated and the Eagles play Culkin.

The tournament pairings left on the agenda with playing times:

BOYS DIVISION

Wednesday, Feb. 5—Flora vs. Puckett, 7; Utica vs. Redwood, 9.

Thursday, Feb. 6—Culkin vs. St. Joseph-Hinds winner, 7; Byram-Madison winner vs. Terry-Bentonia winner, 9.

Friday, Feb. 7—Port Gibson-Jett winner vs. Raymond Consolidated-MSD winner, 7; Utica-Redwood winner vs. Flora-Puckett winner, 9.

Saturday, Feb. 8—Semi-finals, 7 and 9.

Monday, Feb. 10—Championship final, 8.

GIRLS DIVISION

Wednesday, Feb. 5—Byram vs. St. Joseph, 6; Terry vs. Utica, 8.

Thursday, Feb. 6—Raymond Hinds vs. Raymond Consolidated-Madison winner, 6; Jett-Flora winner vs. Puckett-Culkin' winner, 8.

Friday, Feb. 7—Byram-St. Joseph winner vs. Terry-Utica winner, Redwood-Bentonia winner vs. Port Gibson-MSD winner, 8.

Saturday, Feb. 8—Semi-finals, 6 and 8.

Monday, Feb. 10—Championship final, 7.

Southwest Bears Nip Hinds Eagles In Rough Contest

The Southwest Bears came from behind in the second half to down the Eagle Cagers 66-64. Hinds led the entire first half, but dropped behind early in the third period.

The Eags moved out in front and midway of the first half maintained a 16-12 advantage. As the half ended Hinds had stretched their score to 34-25.

For Hinds Bill Castilaw and Johnny Gray had 19 points apiece, while Dutch Nichols topped the Bears with 13.

Hinds Coaches Reach For Over-Sized Crying Towel

Coach Joe Renfroe, athletic director and head coach at Hinds Junior College, slipped out of football heaven this week.

And the 1957 State junior college football champion became a reality. The sweet and pleasant dream has long since been climaxed.

Renfroe opens spring gridiron drills Monday for one of the greatest rebuilding jobs in his 11-year tenure at Hinds. The '57 edition of the Eagles zipped past 10 opponents for an undefeated season in one of the most lop-sided championship titles in the history of the State junior college circuit.

As Renfroe surveys the football prospects for the spring work-outs, he reaches for a giant-sized crying towel. And the tears have already started flowing.

Minus 12 of the 23-man squad including eight starters, Hinds lost its entire line from end to end. So maybe Renfroe's tears are justified.

The gridders who pulled initial duty in the line this past season and must be replaced are: Homer Boyd, left end; Elmer Stringer, left

The big blow in the backfield will be the replacement of fullback C. J. Alexander, the top ground gainer in the state.

Alexander, Hawkins, Russell, Boyd, and Martin were on the all-state team, while Alexander, Stubbs, Hawkins, Russell, Boyd, and Martin played in the All-American All-Star game in Jackson.

Other players missing who saw ample duty last season are Don Brady, guard; Pruitt Blalock, half-back; Hal Battle, quarterback; and Fred Griffin, tackle.

Frank Young, head line coach, and Durwood Graham, assistant line coach, have plenty headaches as they prepare to locate the replacements.

Renfroe has requested all boys interested in trying out for the team to report to the college gymnasium Monday afternoon at 3:30.

NIX'S SCRAPPIN'S

Harris, Lee Outstanding Cage Players

By CURTIS NIX

Murrah Mustang Gerald Lee hit the Hinds campus glowing. Handsome Mr. Lee hustled his way into the starting line-up for the Eagle basketeers and is doing a very fine job. Gerald was a big factor in the two Hinds victories last week. His 17 and 16 points for the two encounters marked him as a fine shooter besides being a hustling team

CURTIS man. His versatility is proved by his ability to play guard, forward, or the pivot post.

Five foot eleven inch sophomore guard Carl "Scutt" Harris, former center for the Pelahatchie quintet, has been a mainstay for Coach Ricks for the entire season. His hustling, shooting, scrapping, and all-around play means much to Eagle patrons. Carl plays either guard or forward and is a standout performer at either.

All you "Slammin' Sammies" get out those rusty clubs and oil the irons and polish the woods, for Hinds' new golf course is nearing completion. The course will offer plenty of recreation for golfing enthusiasts and will probably be ready by spring-time.

The time is almost here when the gridders don pads and war bonnets, take to the football field, and for six weeks football hopefuls will do battle in the pigskin wars. Spring training was put back one week because of the CAC Tournament which is being held here this week. Coaches Renfroe, Young, and Graham's major job will be rebuilding the 1957 championship team.

* * *

Aside from sports, here's a note that merits notation. Speaking for this writer and roommate Mr. Life-of-the-Party Levi Barber, we really had a swell time at the choir social held at the Lodge Saturday night.

Eaglettes To Play Belhaven Sextette Wednesday Night

The Hinds Junior College Eaglettes play Belhaven at Millsaps tonight in a preliminary game at 7 p.m.

Hinds' Eaglettes will be trying for their first victory of the season tonight.

Team members are forwards Faye Rollins, Phyllis Dungan, Iris McKay, Barbara Pope, Delores Ray, Nancy Pharr, Peggy Fugate, and Polly Harrington. Guards are Florence Hearn, Regina Godley, Dott Grimes, Selma Ernest, Anna Summers, and Sharrott McClurg.

Mrs. Anne Gookin, girls' physical education instructor, is coach of the Eaglettes.

MISS HERRIN ATTENDS UNIVERSITY-COLLEGE DAY AT CANTON THURSDAY

Miss Mildred Herrin, college registrar, represented Hinds Junior College at Canton High School's University and College Day in Canton last Thursday.

Miss Herrin spoke to students who were interested in attending Hinds. She also held individual conferences with seniors interested in enrolling here this fall.

HINDS' CAMPUS was covered with snow, ice, sleet, and all other assorted freaks of the weather last Monday morning, as this picture of the Library Building shows. Two inches of snow, the first such material to fall in Raymond in nearly seven years, greeted students as they arose.

Speech Meet To Be Held At Jones All Day Saturday

Ten Hinds Junior College students will accompany three members of the faculty to the annual Festival of the Mississippi Speech Association, Southern Division, to be held at Jones Junior College, Ellisville, next Saturday.

Carolyn Barton, interpretive reader; Jo Anne Adcock, after dinner speaker; Melinda Ambrose, extemporaneous speaker; Jimmy Morris, original speaker; Charles Wall, dramatic monologist; Herbert Wilkerson, impromptu speaker; and Buddy Calhoun, Delores Ray, Paul Measels, and James Robertson, all debaters, are the students who will make the trip.

Miss Belle Lindsey, Mr. J. B. Patrick, and Mr. Fred Brooks will accompany the group.

The four debaters will debate on the subject of the legality of right-to-work laws.

The program will begin Saturday morning and terminate with an awards banquet that night.

Other schools slated to attend the affair include Southwest of Summit, Clark Memorial of Newton, Jones of Ellisville, Perkinson of Perkinson, Pearl River of Poplarville, and Co-Lin of Wesson.

Hinds Dean Speaks To Drama Group On Local Campus

Miss Gertrude Davis, Dean of Women at Hinds, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Lendon Players last Thursday night.

Virginia Ronken, vice president, introduced Miss Davis, who spent two months in Europe last summer, and told of attending summer opera in Rome, a performance of William Tell. She also described the outdoor theater and its historic setting.

SNOW COVERS HINDS CAMPUS IN RARE SIGHT

"A campus under the snow" was the rare sight that greeted Hinds students Monday morning.

Falling before daybreak, the snow measured over two inches at six o'clock Monday morning, and at present remains largely unmelted due to some freezing rain and continuous below freezing temperatures.

The usual business of school, though perhaps not business as usual, proceeded on time on and about the campus, Paul Harvey notwithstanding. This noted commentator chuckled over the comment that schools in Mississippi closed because of the snow.

Some absences from classes were recorded, as college students who commuted from Vicksburg, Jackson, and other nearby points, were snow bound, or bus bound, in their homes. Some buses did not run on Monday.

A variety of costumes, ski socks, red mittens, and gay scarfs brightened campus and classrooms throughout the day.

Lou Ann Carter Vies For Statewide Heart Fund Queen

The State Queen of Hearts will be crowned Friday, February 14, by Governor J. P. Coleman at a tea in the Governor's Mansion, and she will be in the receiving line at that function.

Lou Ann Carter, Hinds High Senior from Raymond, will represent the college in the county contest and if she wins there, will proceed to the State contest.

If she is one of the four runners-up, the Queen of Hearts will be honored with her as a maid. The four maids will serve as tea-girls after the crowning ceremony.

Phi Theta Kappa Chapter To Initiate New Members

Eleven new members will be initiated into the Phi Theta Kappa, national junior college honorary society, next week at Hinds Junior College.

Members to be initiated are Gayle Lee, Mendenhall; Nancy Turnage, Jackson; Dick Gabriel, Jackson; Larry Pennington, Jackson; Don Patterson, Jackson; Warren Garrett, Crystal Springs; Delores Ray, Sharron; Fay Rollins, Forest Hill; Evelyn Sorrells, Port Gibson; Mary Tolar, Columbia; and Ann Williams, Utica.

The formal initiation ceremony will be held Tuesday night, February 18, at 6:45 o'clock in the college auditorium. The public, as well as relatives, teachers, and friends of the initiates, is cordially invited to attend this, the annual second semester initiation service of the

Belles To Audition For Godfrey Show Thursday Evening

The Belles, Hinds Junior College trio, will audition for the Arthur Godfrey Talent Scout program in New Orleans Thursday, February 13, at 5:30 p.m.

The trio is composed of Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Myrna Loy Stuart, and Gay Moon. Jo Ann Rhodes is the pianist.

Preliminary auditions will be held in the studios of WWL Radio. The group will perform selections to determine whether or not they will be flown to New York for an appearance on Godfrey's national television show.

Television WJTV in Jackson was the first audition for the New Orleans debut and a letter was sent to St. Louis, Mo., recommending the Hinds trio. They received a letter this week inviting them to audition in New Orleans.

College Speakers Enter Contest On Southern Campus

Hinds Junior College representatives entered three divisions at the Gulf States Speech Festival Friday at Mississippi Southern.

Charles Wall and Carolyn Barton entered the interpretative reading contest.

Melinda Ambrose and Jimmy Morris gave original serious pieces in that division.

Jo Anne Adcock and Ray Terry entered the after dinner humorous speech contest.

Mr. Fred Brooks, speech director who accompanied the students to the festival, says as yet standings of various entries have not been announced.

Hinds representatives competed with senior college, university, and junior college students from Florida, Louisiana, Texas, Alabama, as well as from Mississippi.

By making "special honors" or a quality point average of 2.6 on the first semester of college work and by approval of active members and a faculty committee, nine freshmen became eligible for membership in the fraternity. These are: Dick Gabriel, Larry Pennington, and Don Patterson, all from Jackson Provine, who entered Hinds to begin their work for an engineering degree; Warren Garrett, a married student, majoring in industrial management and training at Hinds under a veteran's training program; Delores Ray, a graduate of Farmhaven High School, who plans to complete her work at the Medical Center, Jackson, for a degree in medical technology; Fay Rollins planning to take a degree in commercial art from Mississippi Southern; Evelyn Sorrells, a secretarial science major; Mary Tolar, a graduate of Columbia High School in line for a science major and degree from Mississippi Southern; and Ann Williams, a chemistry major.

Gayle Lee, sophomore, plans to major in religious education; and Nancy Turnage, sophomore, is interested in a music major.

Officers and active members who will be in charge of the initiation ceremony are: Ben Morgan, president; Carol Jean Benton, vice-president; Selma Ernest, secretary-treasurer; Florence Hearn, reporter; Sarah Selman, Pansy Jue, James Coley, Warren Fortner, Claude Roberts, and Ray Tomlinson.

Among chapter plans now underway are arrangements for sponsoring a faculty talent show in March, and for representation at the National Phi Theta Kappa Convention at Brevard, North Carolina, in April.

Miss Mildren Herrin is faculty sponsor of the campus chapter of Phi Theta Kappa.

Hindsonian Edito Adds 4 Reporters, Changes Staffers

Four new members were added to the second semester Hindsonian staff and several other changes appear on the new masthead as released by Editor Wayne Trotter, today.

Betty Furness, Billy Ruff, Jo Ellen Cunningham, and Joanne Carpenter were the newcomers while Barbara Clifford and Barbara Speight were promoted from reporters to the positions of make-up editor and club editor, respectively, to highlight the changes.

Other changes include Regina Godley, who skipped from club editor to news editor; Carolyn Barton, who moved from columnist to feature editor; and Buck O'Connor, who stepped from news editor to columnist.

For further details see the revised masthead on page two.

Count Your Blessings On Campus Fees

Take time out today and count your blessings — about $1,235 worth.

That, plus the piddlin' fifteen bucks that we have to shell out to go here, equals the recently-announced cost of tuition at Harvard. This price, of course, tops the nation. A corresponding rise in prof's salaries pushes the amount of moola a full professor pulls in a year to $15,000.

The teachers need it, all right, but we'd like to ask how many students can afford to go to school at that rate?

Mississippi, along with the rest of the South, is rapidly industrializing, and the well-trained talent that is being turned out by state schools that operate on tax money plus a token tuition will, in a few years, push this state, as well as this region, to the nation's economic forefront.

Our duty, in these dire times, lies first with our country, then with our state, and, as much as we hate to say this, then with our teachers.

The facts are cold, hard, but true.

Better Parking Solution For College

Remember when you rode your faithful old Schwinn to school and were lucky if you got there early enough to find a space left in that long rack reserved for the two-wheeled vehicles?

Well, today you might have to look twice to see whether those bicycles are parked in front of Tom Jones Elementary School or some higher institution, for Brooklyn College, showing that all areas of higher learning (not only us) lack parking space, has ordained that such sace be provided for bicycles and scooters. This space would be sold at two dollars and four dollars, according to which form of transportation you were using, for the entire four year period.

This is fine for Brooklyn C., of course, but it is just a slight bit impractical for Hinds; maybe we could reserve space for roller-skates, horse-drawn surreys, tricycles, and helicopters.

Or better yet, we could observe the existing regulations and eliminate the problem.

Editor Looms As Postman's Friend

Gee whiz, Jimminy Crickett, and Donald Duck's green pajamas, but why don't some of you write us a letter to the editor?

A quick check of our files has shown that not one, not one, mind you, has been printed in ye ole Hindsonian. Some of you have opinions, we know, and any opinion is worth printing.

The most interesting mail we've received to date concerning sending a copy of our paper to William Carey in Hattiesburg. No correspondence has come from Raymond.

If you do desire to drop us a line be sure to sign your name, or we won't be able to print it.

And, naturally, it makes no difference if you happen to take issue with us, for although love makes the world go round, disagreement makes it interesting.

If things keep up like this, we're gonna, in the words of that immortal somebody, "sit right down and write ourselves a letter."

Why should physical education be taught, is a good question to ask the girl in the Hindsonian place of honor this week. Carolie Regina Godley can give you plenty of good answers to this question.

Regina, as she is known on the campus, was born in Vicksburg,

REGINA GODLEY

Miss., on July 30, 1938. She is the daughter of Mrs. Carolie Godley of 1205 Prospect St., Vicksburg.

The brown-haired, brown-eyed, 5'5", physical education major, was elected most athletic girl at Hinds this year.

In high school Regina was president of the Y-Teens, program chairman of the Future Homemakers Association, sports editor of the annual in 1956, and in 1955 she was photographer of the annual. She received the Future Homemakers award.

Regina attended Gloster High School her last three years. She was very active in sports and lettered in basketball for two of those years.

Although Regina was a student worker in the cafeteria last year, she took time to participate in many of the activities on the campus. She was a member of the Future Teachers of America, assistant news editor of the Hindsonian, reporter of Women's Athletic Association, assistant sports editor of the annual, a member of Y.M.C.A., a member of B.S.U. and assistant director of "The Happiest Years," the spring Lendon Players production last year.

This year, Regina is assistant to Mrs. Anne Gookin, girls' physical education instructor, but leaves time in her busy schedule for many activities. She is president of Y.W.C.A., a member of B.S.U., vice-president of W.A.A., news editor of the Hindsonian, sports editor for the annual, and a member of the Lendon Players.

For the past two years Regina has been captain of an intramural basketball team, and her team has been the champion both years.

Regina's favorite pastimes are participating in and watching sports events, and playing Rook. Keeping her scrapbook is her favorite hobby. Her favorite foods are shrimp, home made ice cream, steak, and french fries. The music she likes best is rock and roll.

After leaving Hinds, Regina plans to continue her education at M.S.C.W., after which she hopes to teach P. E. and coach girls' basketball.

I have a little secret about her that many people don't know. She could probably be a psychologist, because of her ability to try to get her roommates straightened out. This I know because I happen to be one of her roommates.

Because of her wonderful personality and ability, we are sure she will be a success and we are with her all the way. May God bless you in all your undertakings, Regina.

TROTTER'S STABLES

Writer Terms Snow As Sloppy Mess

By WAYNE TROTTER

We've come to the conclusion that it would take a real nature-lover to appreciate the slop now (Monday) existing around the campus . . . It's beautiful — but what a mess—snow, that is.

* * *

Some statistics garnered from ACP indicate that the students at the University of Minnesota don't have much sense . . . This is their opinion and they're entitled to it; of course, but when only 76 percent of the students polled there indicate that they would not date interracially, they show a lack of respect for both themselves and their race . . . Don't misunderstand us, the remaining 24 percent are the culprits . . . That first figure is still appallingly low.

* * *

Other numbers taken from the same poll, which was conducted by the Minnesota Daily, show that 66 percent would share their dormitory room with a Negro and that 91 percent would eat food that came from a Negro home.

* * *

Seemingly by way of justification of what must seem a high figure to them, the Daily went on to say that the 76 percent that objected to dating Negroes undoubtedly included some married students who would answer "no" to any question concerning dating.

* * *

"Nuts."

* * *

Tomorrow night in the Consolidated school gym across the way, one of District Six's rough B-BB sub-districts gets under way, and the finalists from this tourney will shift back to Hinds' gym for the district.

SCALING THE CLEF*Trio Shoots For Godfrey TV Show

By BUDDY CALHOUN

"The Wheel of Fortune goes spinning around"

That old wheel which has turned so many times and has made so many persons happy and sad, now is spinning for Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Myrna Loy Stuart, and Gay Moon, Hinds BUDDY Trio, and Jo Ann Rhodes, the trio's accompanist. The girls are to audition tomorrow in New Orleans for a prized spot on the Arthur Godfrey "Talent Scouts" show. If the girls win the audition, they will be flown to New York on some future date to appear on the show.

May the Wheel of Fortune stop on the magical spot which says fame and fortune for these four talented performers!

Another Hinds lassie who we think is very talented is Patsy Wade of Pearl. Miss Wade is not only a fine vocalist but also a fine composer. Having written quite a few songs, which we really liked, Patsy seems to be one of the most promising young song writers in the country.

We were impressed, as were the members of the New Orleans' Mardi Gras' Krewe of Carrollton, with the fine performances of the Hi-Steppers, the Band, Delores Stevenson, and Maureen Eichelberger. After a tiring day of parading nine miles, these Hinds' Students still thrilled the Carrollton Krewe's crowd.

The Boys Ensemble, coached by Mr. Leslie Reeves, sang for the First Presbyterian Church of Jackson last night. We understood the boys were "really good."

Billboard says the following are this week's top tunes.

1. At The Hop.
2. Sugartime.
3. Get A Job.
4. Peggy Sue.

College Sextette Battles Pine-Sol Tomorrow Night

The Hinds Junior College Eaglettes enter the YWCA tournament this week.

They drew a bye the first round because of the Belhaven team dropping out of the tournament.

They will play the Pine-Sol Queens tomorrow night at 7:00 in Jackson.

This will be a double elimination tournament. The Eaglettes who have fallen by the wayside in the previous games, will be out to make a good showing in this tournament.

Coach of the Eaglettes is Mrs. Anne Gookin, director of girls physical education at Hinds.

Band, Hi-Steppers Play At Mardi Gras In Crescent City

Hinds Junior College's Hi-Steppers and Band pep up New Orleans' 1958 debut Mardi Gras parade as they performed for the Krewe of Carrollton last Sunday, February 9.

Marching in front of the rest of the parade, the two aggregations from Hinds led the festivities in fine style.

That night, following the parade, the combined groups presented some nine numbers in the Carrollton Ball, as the Hi-Steppers danced their way through five numbers, and the three twirlers, Buddy Calhoun, Delores Stevenson, and Maureen Eichelberger, entertained during the remaining four.

The outfits left Raymond Saturday afternoon and arrived in New Orleans, where they were housed at Camp Leroy Johnson, that night. They arrived back at the Hinds Campus on Monday, February 10.

Engineering Group To Visit Vicksburg Plant Next Tour

The engineering club held its February meeting last Monday. Mr. Bill Barksdale, director of the Mississippi Chemical Corporation and the First Mississippi Corporation, was guest speaker. He gave a very enlightening talk on industrial development in Mississippi. He also said that Mississippi trained men and women were much in demand.

On Friday, the officers and board of directors of the club met to plan coming programs. Plans are being made to visit the Experiment Station in Vicksburg and the Spencer Chemical Corporation. The next meeting is scheduled for March 7 when the physics department is expected to present a very interesting program.

Large Number Of Hinds Students Get Work Scholarships On Local Campus

By REGINA GODLEY

Finance is no excuse for not going to college. There are plenty of jobs that anyone can do, if he really wants to go to school.

Here at Hinds Junior College, there is an opportunity for students who are willing to sacrifice some of their time to work. Because Hinds' tuition is so low there are only two kinds of scholarships offered. They are athletic and work scholarships.

According to Miss Lola Allen, secretary and bookkeeper at Hinds Junior College for many years, approximately 100 students are on work scholarships.

There are five students who work in the summer as well as in the fall and by that way they are able to pay all of their expense. Four bus drivers earn all of their board also.

Five other students on the campus have the opportunity to pay all of their tuition by working.

Twenty-one of the work students earn a greater part of their monthly expenses. The other fifty-five remaining students who work, earn about one-half or more toward their tuition.

These figures do not include the four workers in the grill, because they are paid by the grill. Mrs. Margaret Kimble, grill manager, said that she considers the grill the most important job; not because they make any more money than the others, but that the people who work in the grill must be honest, dependable, have good character, and be well-liked because they handle the money and are left in charge of the stock in the grill. They also deal with many different kinds of people everyday.

Job opportunities offered at Hinds include, dining hall work, janitorial, feeding livestock, mail carrier, and assistant to teachers.

One may think that he would not like to work because it would take too much of his time. But while he is helping his parents with the expense he can also help himself by the experience he is gaining by working. Take for example, if a person wanted to be an English teacher and he had a job working in the English department he would get the experience and training that will be helpful to him as he goes on with his profession.

Approximately $1,800 is earned by all the work students on the Hinds Junior College campus in one month.

So never feel that you can't go to college because you are not financially able, because where there's a will, there's a way.

NIX'S SCRAPPIN'S

Hinds Teams Look Good In Tourney

By CURTIS NIX

Coach "Skin" Boteler's pair of roundball squads turned in creditable performances last week in CAC tournament play.

CURTIS

The Eagles came through to win over St. Joseph 49-47 and highly favored Culkin by the same score. Culkin, the number one-seeded team in the tourney, led practically the entire game until the last 35 seconds of play when Bill Ferguson's lay-up made the score 49-47. The play was set up by Bill Birdsong who stole the ball. Fifteen seconds previous Birdsong's steal and two free tosses had tied the score at 47 apiece. In the semi-finals the Eagles stayed even with Byram up until halftime; in the last half the Bulldogs ran away with the scoring. Neilsen Cochran hit 16 of 20 field goal attempts and wound up with 38 points. Supposing that Culkin had nosed out the Eagles, neither could they have gotten by Byram.

The girls had plenty of trouble with the Raymond Rangerettes. The smaller and less experienced sextette led the Eaglettes by several points for three full quarters. The Eaglettes had to come from behind in the last quarter to take the win.

Raymond's guards Annette Gibbes, Marie Bacot, and Mary Goode, stand out as the best defensive combo seen in tournament action. Besides holding Eaglette forwards

Valleyball Activity To Resume Action With Three Teams

The Women's Athletic Association will resume its volleyball games this week.

There are three teams in the league. Virginia Ronkin, Polly Harrington, and Anne Taylor are the captains of the teams.

Team members are Ronken's team — Florence Hearn, Regina Godley, Lillie Meadows, Virginia Vaughan, Marilyn Phillips, Dot Anne Pickett, Barbara Chamblee, and Jean Gill.

Harrington's team — Dott Grimes, Sharrott McClurg, Joyce Bethune, Irvita Kelly, Jo Roby, Joanne Car-

Taylor's team — Faye Rollins, Shirley Gardner, Anna Summers, Robinette Riddle, Selma Ernest, Myrtle Moore, and Jimmie Shepard.

Ronken's team and Taylor's team will tangle first, and Harrington's crew will play the losers.

There will be six more games played in the league with a final game played between the girls of Westside and the lassies of Main.

Any girls who are not on a team and would like to play should contact Mrs. Anne Gookin.

for better than three periods, they boxed in Madison-Ridgeland shooters and (imagine this) held them completely scoreless until 30 seconds before the first half ended.

The Eaglettes are to be commended on their winning the CAC championship for their third time. They got revenge for an earlier season defeat at the hands of the Byram girls.

Here's a congratulatory note to Coach Boteler for his fine work in bringing the girls through. It is becoming habitual for Boteler to come up with a good pair of teams.

The sudden snowfall Sunday night confined spring training to the indoors in the early part of this week. Players and coaches should take to the field as soon as the weather permits.

Levi Barber, Raymond Abruzzese, and Buck Kraus, Lifeguards???? Yes, they just may be. These lads are taking life saving courses being held at the YWCA in Jackson as of now. If they pass, they will probably be guards at the lake next summer.

Eagles Rock Home Standing Trojans With Cage Victory

By MITCHELL HILL

Outstanding play by Larry Pennington, who poured in 26 points and captured 18 rebounds, Bill Castilaw, who sacked 21 points and gamered 30 rebounds, put the Hinds Eagles past the Sunflower Trojans at Moorhead last night 83-79.

The first few minutes of the game was spent getting an eye for the net, and then both teams went into action. Throughout the first half the teams battled neck and neck with the Eagles taking a 39-38 halftime advantage.

After intermission the Trojans came on the court to take the lead. Twice in the last half thy managed a one point lead over the Eagles.

Side by side the teams battled until with three minutes left, the Eagles took the lead role. The Hinds crew managed a four point lead and maintained it until the buzzer went off.

Hinds had complete control of both backboards throughout the game. Sunflower out hit the Eagles from the floor 36-33, but the Eagles compensated from the free throw line.

For Hinds in scoring Pennington had 26, Castilaw 21, and Johnny Gray 17.

The Eagles will host the Jones Bobcats Thursday night, and the East Mississippi Lions Friday night for their last regular scheduled games of the season.

Final Home Contests On Card With Jones, Scooba

Jones and East Mississippi loom as Hinds Junior College's final two opponents of the season this week.

Coach Troy Ricks' Eagles will host Jones' Bobcats Thursday night and the East Mississippi Lions Friday night. Tip-off time is slated for 8 p.m.

This week's battles will conclude the season for the Hinds quintet with the exception of the State junior college tournament. The South Mississippi tournament will be held on the campus of Perkinson Junior College next weekend. However, Hinds' opponent has not been decided.

Return Engagements

Ricks' troupe has topped Jones at Ellisville earlier this season, although East Mississippi stopped the Eagles at Scooba. The return engagements are expected to be rough and tumble affairs.

Five Hinds performers will be completing their junior college eligibility in this week's action. Center Bill Castilaw and guards Johnny Gray, Carl Harris, C. T. Thornton, and Don Jones will be playing their last regular scheduled games.

Castilaw, a transfer from Louisiana State University, is a native of

Boteler's Baby Birdies Bop Byram; Puckett Wolves Top Bulldogs In CAC

By CURTIS NIX

Hindsonian Sports Editor

Coach Boteler will surely be running for mayor of Raymond next election. His Eaglettes captured their third straight Capitol Athletic Conference championship by plastering the Byram Bulldogs 40-31 in the finals of tournament.

The Byram girls inflicted the Eaglettes only defeat in 20 tries, that being in the finals of the Hinds County Tournament. Fiery forward Winnie Lou Smith poured in 20 big points, while Mary Bess Beard and Nancy Chapman got 10 apiece. Lou Ann Carter and Jimmie Stingley took care of the defensive side and turned in swell performances.

Byram enjoyed the lead role only once, that being early in the first quarter. With 2:30 gone the Eaglettes moved out front 5-4 and at the end of the period were ahead 8-7. In th second period the Hinds High crew didn't let up. Eaglette forwards continued their hot scoring pace, and the guards held Byram forwards to a mere five points. The halftime score stood at 20-12.

The Byram sextette chopped away at the Hinds High lead and narrowed the margin to 25-23 late in the third period, but within 30 seconds after the fourth period began the Eaglettes upped the tab to 29-23. In the stretch the Eag-

Baton Rouge. The 6'5" ace has been one of the "big" factors in the team's success this year. Castilaw, an expert at the pivot slot, is averaging over 20 points per game.

Pelahatchie Trio

Gray, Harris, and Johns are a trio of sharp shooters from Pelahatchie. The threesome has given depth and experience to Ricks' five this season at the guard slot. Gray and Harris were two of the big guns last year, although Johns saw limited action.

Sporting over 20 points per encounter, Gray has been the play-maker of the quint. He has been the spark in making th Eagles click this season.

Harris is the most improved player on the team. He has been an aggressive floor man all season. Johns has alternated at guard for the past two seasons.

Edwards' gift to the 1957-58 edition is C. T. Thornton. He has been a tremendous aid to the Eagles at guard. Thornton is one of the most alert performers on the squad.

Hinds' line-up will consist of Gerald Lee and Larry Pennington, forwards; Bill Castilaw, center; and Johnny Gray and Carl Harris, guards.

ettes held to their offensive advantage and as the final horn sounded were increasing their lead.

Puckett handed Byram their second loss of the night by taking top honors in the boys division.

In the semi-finals the Hinds High Eagles were nosed out by Byram. The halftime score stood at 16-apiece, but in the last half the Bulldogs ran away with the scoring. Donnie Sheffield was the Eagles' stand out getting 20 points for the night. Donnie also made the all-tournament team.

After the games trophies and all star selections were handed out. Trophies were presented to the winners, Hinds High and Puckett, and to the runner-ups, the Byram teams.

All-tournament selections are as follows:

Nancy Chapman, Winnie Smith, Lou Ann Carter, and Jimmie Stingley, Hinds High; Orlane Huff, Eva Huff, and Jean Bounds, Byram; Barbara Hinston, Redwood; Carol Mc-Nair and Mary Goode, Raymond; MaryB Lair, Jett; and Bonnie Loper, St. Joseph.

Donnie Sheffield, Hinds High, Tommy Akin, Culkin; David Glasgow, Utica; Russell Purvis, Puckett; Jimmy Greer, Port Gibson; Billy Irwin, Redwood; Dickie Townsend, Flora; Byrle Kynerd, Raymond; Neilsen Cochran, Byram; and Buck Smith, Jett.

College President To Participate In National Meeting

President George M. McLendon will attend the largest convention in the history of the American Association of Junior Colleges in Grand Rapids, Michigan, on March 4-8.

As a member of the committee of administration, President McLendon will assist with the plans for organization and administration of the junior colleges at this national convention.

The theme of the five-day event to be held in the Pantlind Hotel will be "Diversification and Co-operation in Higher Education."

delegates participated in the South Mississippi Festival at Jones Junior College, along with delegations from Pearl River Junior College, Clark Jr. College, Perkinson Jr. College, and Jones Junior College. Joanne Adcock entered the after-dinner speech competition; Melinda Ambrose gave an extemporaneous speech; Carolyn Barton gave an interpretative reading; Jimmy Morris gave an original speech; Ray Terry impromptu speech and Patsy Wade, dramatic monologue. Jimmy Morris and Patsy Wade received first-place medals; Joanne Adcock and Carolyn Barton placed third.

Mr. Fred L. Brooks, college speech professor, accompanied the students to the Gulf States Festival, and to the South Mississippi Festival.

Denton, Patrick To Attend Meeting In Chicago In March

Two Hinds Junior College instructors will attend the 13th annual National Conference on Higher Education on March 2-5, in Chicago.

Mr. A. L. Denton, head of the guidance department, and Mr. J. B. Patrick, college history professor, will attend this annual conference along with approximately 1,000 other leading educators from the teaching and administrative staffs of all types of both publicly and privately controlled institutions.

Phi Theta Kappa Initiates Ten Newcomers Tuesday

10 High Scholars Join Select Group As Officers Lead

Ten new members were initiated into Phi Theta Kappa, the national junior college honorary society, last night in the college auditorium.

The second semester initiation of students included two sophomores, Gayle Lee, Mendenhall, and Nancy Turnage, Jackson.

Four girls and four boys from the freshman class were inducted into the chapter. All are special honor students of the first semester, with a quality point average of 2.6 or above.

Freshman Girls

The freshman girls are Delores Ray, Sharon; Fay Rollins, Forest Hill; Mary Tolar, Columbus; and Ann Williams, Utica.

The freshman boys initiated are Dick Gabriel, Larry Pennington, and Don Patterson, all of Jackson, and Warren Garrett, Crystal Springs.

Ben Morgan, Gamma Lambda president, Pansy Jue, vice president, and Selma Earnest, secretary, were in charge of the ceremony which was open to the public.

Hearn Leads

The initiates were led in formations of the Greek letters, Phi, Theta, and Kappa, signifying aspiration, purity, and wisdom, by Florence Hearn, reporter.

The service was closed by the official song of the fraternity sung as a solo by Carol Jean Benton, treasurer of the chapter, with organ accompaniment.

An informal reception sponsored by Main Dormitory girls followed the initiation ceremonies.

Application To Be For High School, College Diplomas

According to Miss Mildred Herin, registrar, students who expect to receive diplomas from either the High School or College departments on May 23 should make their application by Monday, March 3.

To make application for a diploma one must check requirements for graduation in the registrar's office and deposit a graduating fee of seven dollars in the business office. Orders for diplomas will be made on that day, March 3.

Students actually taking their diplomas on May 23 will be eligible for exemption from final examinations at the end of school provided they do not have any grade below B for each of the six-weeks averages in the second semester. Students graduating with a quality point average of 2.2-2.5 will be graduated with honors; those with 2.6 and above will receive special honors.

HINDS PRESIDENT G. M. McLendon will attend the largest convention in the history of the American Association of Junior Colleges in Grand Rapids, Mich., on March 4-8. He is a member of the committee on administration of the junior colleges. The theme of the five-day event to be held at Grand Rapids' Pantlind Hotel will be "Diversification and Co-operation in Higher Education."

NOTICE

All Hindsonian staff members will meet at 10:15 Friday at activity period in the newspaper office in the Administration Building for an important meeting. All staff members are urged to be present.

Brooks, Students Deserve Praise

Honor was brought again to the campus of Hinds Junior College last week as six Hinds students, accompanied by speech professor Fred L. Brooks, returned triumphant from the South Mississippi Speech Festival held last week at Jones Junior College in, Ellisville.

The delegation from this campus tied with the one representing the host institution from the speech division as our local troupe picked two first place medals and two third place laurels. Hinds did not have a debate team at the tournament.

The six students, Joanne Adcock, Melinda Ambrose Carolyn Barton, Jimmy Morris, Ray Terry, and Patsy Wade, really did Hinds proud, as did their very capable instructor, Mr. Brooks.

This is the kind of activity that we'd like to see more of on the local campus. The rewards offered are many and are counted in terms of self-confidence, self-betterment, and development of personal talent.

Thanks for the honors, folks, you've really done Hinds proud this time.

Television Offers Mass-Education

Watch out, students! Mass-education is on the way to your dormitories. Educational TV is being used more and more every day. The University of Virginia is now even experimenting with televised library-work.

Is the age of no-work really here? These statements seem to indicate so, and still others back it up.

A student ceases to be student the moment TV starts "teaching" him. Our colleges may hire the best teachers on the market for ETV, but still the end result would be an ignorant audience.

The true ability of any teacher lies not only in his or her ability to explain the subject well, but in the ability to be patient with those who do not understand on the first go-round.

To be practical, educational TV would require a superior audience, not a top-notch professor.

Now, where can one find that kind of audience?

Hinds Honors Engineers This Week

This week, in case you didn't know, has been designated by the Mississippi Society of Professional Engineers as Engineers' Week throughout the state of Mississippi.

This should be of interest to many of our students, for there are quite a number of engineering majors on Hinds' campus.

The quality of the pre-engineering students turned out by Hinds Junior College must be described, even in the most conservative terms, as excellent.

All of our engineering students are to be commended for their efforts to enter a profession that will do so much to help keep America up with the rest of the world.

And, certainly, our instructors are to be congratulated on doing such a fine job of teaching.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Education Major, Virginia Ronken Receives Hindsonian's Weekly Award

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

Virginia Louise Ronken, a native of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, is spotlighted as she receives the Hindsonian's place of honor.

Born in Minneapolis, Minn., on September 20, 1938, Virginia grew up in Sioux Falls, and graduated from that city's Washington High School, where she was a member of the Future Teachers of America, Y-T eens, International Relations Club, Quill and Scroll, and the Warrior staff.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noel M. Ronken of Jackson, Miss., this versatile young lady entered Hinds as a freshman in the fall of 1956. During the school year that followed Virginia was secretary of the Lendon Players and a member of the Women's Athletic Association and the choir.

This year the attractive young lady is vice president of the Lendon Players, secretary of the Choir, a newly elected sophomore council member of the Women's Athletic Association, a member of Wesley and the annual staff. She also works in the office of the Music Department.

An elementary education major, Virginia plans to attend either Mississippi State College for Women or Mississippi Southern College next year.

Volleyball, badminton, swimming, and sewing are favorite activities of this future teacher. Her pet peeve is seeing someone wear jewelry with slacks. Some of her girl friends have nicknamed her "Ginny Lou," a name which seems to fit her.

Best wishes for a long and profitable future, Virginia.

 While our campus groups may be classed as just great;
 Some pupils over-participate;
 They never try new groups; they don't rack their brain;
 The music they cherish seems not to be sane;
 And although they seem to do little that's right;
 They're right at the top in the popular sight;
 But we're not too worried 'cause the truth is, we know;
 Only four of the jokers made the last honor-roll!

Instructor Speaks To Hinds Faculty Club Wednesday

Mrs. Anne Gookin, director of women's physical education at Hinds Junior College, was the featured speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the college faculty this morning.

On the eve of letting the contract for a new building on the campus for health and physical education of women, President McLendon stated that it was timely for all staff members to understand more fully the objectives of the total physical education program.

Mrs. Gookin, in her fourth year on the campus as physical education instructor, spoke of the organized program, and the by-products of physical education in developing constructive activities and resulting disciplines. She emphasized the needs for recreational outlets for all ages to relieve the tensions of living in these times.

The meeting was closed by the showing of a film put out by the American Association of Health and Physical Education.

Vocational Class Holds Program On First President

Tribute to George Washington will be paid Friday by English 2 of the vocational school at 12:30 p.m.

Charles McWilliams, Elton Robinson, and Kenneth Rowell will speak on various phases of Washington's life and career.

Following the speeches a round table discussion on the first cabinet of the United States' government will be held.

"This program is a part of the regular oral classwork in the vocational school," commented Miss Belle Lindsey, English instructor.

Hinds Sets Forth Facilities To Train Future Engineers And Technicians

As a salute to "Engineers' Week," Feb. 17-22, Hinds Junior College sets forth some facts and figures concerning its personnel, course offerings, activities, and buildings now engaged in training future engineers and engineering technicians.

At present 122 students are enrolled in courses leading toward majors in engineering. Of these 42 are sophomores, and 80 are freshmen. In addition to these, 75 students are in training in the vocational-technical school for engineering technicians, and 200 more are in training as craftsmen. Seven instructors in science and mathematics and 16 instructors in the vocational-technical school are devoting full time to class and laboratory instructions.

Basic courses designed for students who plan to complete degrees in engineering schools offered in the college curriculum are these: freshman English composition, algebra for engineers, trigonometry, analytics, differential and integral calculus, physics, chemistry, engineering drawing, descriptive geometry, slide rule, and machine tool and shop practice. The social sciences, also the required and the recommended electives in the various fields of engineering are offered. For students who enter with mathematics deficiencies the second year of high school algebra, and plane geometry are offered.

In the vocational-technical school, where three areas of training are outlined for craftsmen, technicians, and engineers, course offerings include: radio and television theory, repair and code, engineering drafting, machine shop, automotive mechanics, body and fender repairs, refrigeration and air conditioning, electric motor repairs, general electricity and wiring, office machines repair, and airplane engine mechanics.

The engineering club is one of the most active organizations on the campus.

Through the close coordination of the departments in the college division, the campus guidance center, and the vocational counselors it

Wesley's Members Journey To State MSM Conference

"The Campus Is My Parish", was the theme of the annual Methodist Student Movement conference held at Mississippi State College last week-end.

A group of nine college students from Hinds attended the conference. They left Friday afternoon and returned to the campus Sunday afternoon.

Those who attended the conference from Hinds were Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Donna Musil, Betty Smith, Ted White, James Brantly, Eric Corley, Buddy Railey, John Donalds, and Mr. W. M. McKenzie, college agriculture professor.

The students enjoyed discussion groups, a guest speaker, and parties Friday and Saturday nights.

is possible for students to discover their main fields of interest and to secure training best suited to their needs. A large number of students change their objectives after entering at Hinds and finding expanding opportunities for training.

The majority of engineering students upon graduation at Hinds transfer to senior colleges within the state to complete their work for degrees.

The new science building which was opened this semester represents an investment of a quarter of a million dollars. It is used daily by a large majority of engineering students who work in the up-to-date laboratories and class rooms.

The vocational-technical school comprehends four buildings.

DISTRICT TOURNEY*Raymond, Madison-Ridgeland, Cross Roads, St. Francis Teams Grab Wins

Four quarter-final battles are catalogued for Hinds Junior College's gym in the District Six B-BB tournament tonight.

Hinds High's Eaglettes lock horns with the Pisgah lassies at 5 p.m. and Byram's Bulldogs clash with the Puckett Wolves at 6:15. The final two matches of the evening pit the Redwood Rockettes against the Lake sextette in the girls' division and the Utica Gold Waves encounter the Sebastopol quintet in the boys' division.

The Raymond Consolidated and Madison-Ridgeland boys took initial round victories Tuesday night along with the Cross Roads and St. Francis girls.

Four games are carded each night through Friday, and the finals will be staged Saturday night.

The two top teams in each division will advance to the South Mississippi tournament next week.

The Hinds Eagles travel to Perkinston for battle in the South Division of State. The Eags have a very good chance of coming through on top.

Larry Pennington, high scoring forward and ace rebounder for the Eagles, entered the "Hall of the Intellectuals", the Phi Theta Kappa, at the semester. His 2.8 quality point average placed him among the highest. Congratulations, Larry!

Six foot six inch Elgin Baylor, Seattle University All-American, stands atop scorers in national ratings. Baylor, a Negro, is averaging 34.42 points per game.

Mississippi State's Bailey Howell, also six six, is currently the fourth ranked scorer in the nation. Aside from that he is among the top in the SEC in rebounds, free throw percentage, field goal percentage, and point average.

The Hinds Junior College Eaglettes dropped the first game of the double elimination tournament at the YWCA in Jackson last Thursday night to the Pine-Sol Queens by the score of 39-31.

Guards Regina Godley, Florence Hearn, and Dott Grimes played an outstanding defensive game.

Phyllis Dungan, freshman forward of the Eaglettes, was high scorer with 11 points. Iris McKay and Delores Ray tallied eight points each. Faye Rollins accounted for the other six points.

St. Louis Hawks' Bob Petit can be called the greatest all-around performer in pro basketball. In his first year in the NBA he was chosen "Rookie of the Year"; as a sophomore he raked in "Most Valuable Player in the NBA" honors; last year, his third, he broke his wrist and played with a cast on his arm. With this tremendous handicap, he received runner-up honors for MVP. Now in his fourth season, and a seasoned veteran, still wearing tape on his wrist, Petit is leading the Hawks who now lead the pack in their division.

Gray's Final Shot Wins Last Classic In Regular Season

The Eagles completed their '57-'58 schedule by trimming the East Mississippi Lions 80-79 on Johnny Gray's jump shot.

Hinds took a scant advantage in opening minutes and held the long end of a 40-37 halftime score. In the last half the Eagles began to increase their lead, and midway of the round sported a 69-59 margin. At this point the Lions hit the comeback trail and with four minutes of playing time remaining knotted the tab at 75-all.

Ahead 77-76 with 1:15 left, the Lions froze the ball. With 20 seconds left, Gray stole the ball and sacked a lay up to put Hinds ahead 78-77.

Scant seconds later Gerald Lee fouled the Lions' Otho Brown who calmly cashed in on two charity chunks. With four seconds left, Bill Castilaw put the ball in play, fired to Don Johns who relayed to Gray.

Johnny wasted no time in getting off his shot which connected at the sound of the game-ending buzzer.

She would appreciate any information leading to the whereabouts of the glasses.

Eagles To Meet Co-Lin In State JC Cage Slate

Troy A. Ricks of Hinds Junior College will carry his troupe of Eagles to Perkinston Friday night to engage in the South Mississippi basketball derby.

Ricks, one of the top players Mississippi has ever produced, faces a rugged task. The season's efforts represent a record of 14 wins and eight losses, one of the best records a Hinds cage team has posted in recent years.

Hinds' roundball artist has high hopes that the 14-8 record will have a profound effect on the championship. The Eagles lock horns with the Co-Lin Wolves Friday night at 8:30 in their initial battle of the tournament. Co-Lin is tutored by Alton Ricks, cousin of the Hinds mentor. When the smoke is cleared from the family squabble, the winner will clash in the semi-finals Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. with the winner of the Jones-Southwest game.

Hinds has rocked Jones twice and Southwest once record-wise; hence, the Eagles will be favored to reach the finals.

Center Bill Castilaw and guard Johnny Gray will enter the tournament averaging over 18 points per encounter. Gray, the team's playmaker, has poured in 391 points in 21 games for an average of 18.6 per squabble. Castilaw, towering center, has pumped in 398 markers in 22 battles for a 18.1 showing each game.

Freshman Larry Pennington has contributed 327 points for 14.9 points per game. Accounting for 241 points for a 12.7 average is guard Carl Harris. The only other performer in the three figures is forward Gerald Lee.

Other top scorers were Thompson 83, Don Johns 49, Bucky Whiffen 38, John Shirley 20, and C. T. Thornton 19.

Gray's best effort was a 29 point showing in three games. Registering the identical number of points on two occasions was Castilaw.

Drawing Co-Lin as an opening opponent was to Ricks' delight. He recalls with sweet memories that he had plastered the Wolves on two occasions this season. It's a long row to hoe, but Ricks thinks he has the team to do the job.

Jones Quint Falls To Powerful Hinds Junior Cage Squad

Larry Pennington's 26 points topped scorers as the Eagle roundballers skinned the Jones Bobcats 78-61 here last Thursday night.

Bill Castilaw crammed in 18 points, and Johnny Gray and Carl Harris sacked 14 apiece to round out Hinds scoring.

Castilaw and Pennington were big men under the baskets and scraped off most of the rebounds.

The Eagles mustered a very slim lead early in the contest and gradually stretched it to 42-32 by half-time. In the last half the Eags continued their hot pace and had no interference from the Kittens.

Jones' Earl Long accounted for 17.

HIGHWAY PATROL SIX CLOBBERS EAGLETTE SQUAD MONDAY NIGHT

The Highway Patrol defeated the Hinds Junior College Eaglettes in a hard fought battle by the score of 35-25 Monday night.

Guards Dott Grimes, Regina Godley, and Florence Hearn were a tough trio for the Highway lassies, but they managed to squeeze enough points for a victory.

Business Leaders To Stage College Commerce Rally

"Commerce Day" has been set for March 25 by the Hinds Future Business Leaders organization.

Committees from the chapter were named last week to begin working on preparations for Commerce Day. Hinds is host to high school business students on the annual business day.

Representatives from business machine companies display on the campus the latest business equipment on Commerce Day.

Officers of the Hinds F.B.L.A. are Alma Lee Grantham, president; Lillie Meadows, vice president; Anna Summers, treasurer; Marilyn Phillips, secretary; Nancy Carter, corresponding secretary; Lanelle McDonald, program chairman; Lamar Knight, recreational chairman; and Willie House, reporter.

Mrs. Maybelle Furness and Mrs. Neva Spraberry are the sponsors of the organization.

Three Act Farce To Be Presented By Hinds Seniors

The Senior Class of Hinds High will present a three act comedy entitled "Judy Pulls The Curtain," by Donald Elser on March 18.

The play will be directed by college sophomores Charles Wall and Carolyn Barton as well as high school senior Nancy Ruth Chapman. The overall direction is under Mr. Fred L. Brooks, speech instructor of Hinds Junior College.

The cast includes five men and seven women, consisting of Ethel Rumbavage, Dot Brock, Lou Ann Carter, Dick Osborne, Charles Phillips, Jerry Bridges, Margaret Peyton, Robert Seawright, Becky Dawson, and Sara Smith.

COLLEGE HEADS ATTEND CONFAB ON EDUCATION

President G. M. McLendon and Coordinator Walter Gibbes left Saturday night on the Panama Limited to attend a pre-conference at Flint, Mich., March 3, and 4, on Teaching Education. This conference is related to the convention of the American Association of Junior Colleges.

Today they traveled to Grand Rapids, Mich., to attend one of the largest conventions in the history of the American Association of Junior Colleges.

President McLendon, one of the members of the committee of administration, will assist with the plans for organization and administration of the junior colleges at this national convention.

The theme of the five-day event to be held in the Pantlind Hotel is "Diversification and Co-operation in Higher Education."

College Freshman Enters Cover Girl Magazine Contest

Peggy Sanderford, Hinds Junior College freshman, has become the school's second annual entry in the Times-Picayune-New Orleans States' Dixie Roto cover girl contest.

Miss Sanderford, who had earlier taken top honors in the Hinds contest to choose the campus' most beautiful girl, will compete with other girls from all over Louisiana and Mississippi, and, regardless of the outcome of the contest, will be pictured in the Sunday supplement at least once.

The winner of the overall contest will pose for a full color picture to be used on the cover of Dixie Roto later during the year.

All colleges in the two-state area, except the previous year's winner, are invited to enter.

Patty Carter, former Hinds student who was elected to the position of most beautiful girl two consecutive years, represented the local institution in last year's contest.

Hinds To Host State JC Choral Festival March 29

Hinds Junior College will be host to the State Junior College Choral Festival Saturday, March 29.

Dr. Gene L. Hemmle, head of the music department at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Tex., will be the guest director for the festival, according to Prof. J. Leslie Reeves, chairman of Hinds' music department. Reeves is in charge of the statewide junior college choral activities.

A graduate of Arlington High School, Arlington, Texas, Dr. Hemmle received his Bachelor of Music degree from Southern Methodist University and his Master's and Doctor's of Education degrees from Columbia University. He sang with the Robert Shaw Chorale in 1945-46.

Dr. Hemmle has served in teaching posts at the Institution of Normal Methods, Boston, Mass., and Stanford University. He has directed state high school choral festivals in Texas, Colorado, Indiana, Tennessee, and Mississippi. He will direct the District Six High School Festival in Vicksburg this spring.

Duo-Piano Recital To Be Presented At HJC March 13

A duo-piano recital will be presented by two Hinds Junior College music instructors in the Hinds auditorium on Thursday night, March 13 at 8:15 p.m.

Miss Peggy Pennel and Miss Marjorie McCord are organ and theory instructor and piano instructor respectively at Hinds.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

will be represented at the festival. Musicians from Itawamba, Northeast, Northwest, East Central, Copiah-Lincoln, Pearl River, Perkinston, Hinds, Southwest, East Mississippi, Sunflower, and Holmes, will assemble on the Hinds campus at 8:30 a.m. for registration on March 29.

Rehearsal activity will begin at 9 a.m. The public is invited to attend any of the activities of the day and especially the concert at 8 p.m. which will climax the day's program.

Each junior college choir will present a 15-minute program during the day.

The concert program includes:

Let Not Your Song End—Pullot-Cain

Dream—Mercer-Ades

Matona, Lovely Maiden—Lassus

De Blin' Man Stood On De Road

An' Cried—Burleigh-Vene

Hallelujah (from "Hit the Deck")

History Professor Returns Thursday From Windy City

Mr. J. B. Patrick, history professor at Hinds Junior College, is currently attending the 13th annual National Conference on Higher Education now being held in Chicago, Illinois.

Approximately 1,000 other educators from all walks of the educational field are now jamming the Windy City for the four day meet.

Mr. Patrick is expected to arrive back in Raymond tomorrow morning following the termination of the conference on Wednesday night.

Freshman Show Gets High Praise

It isn't often that we choose to invade editorially one of those subjects covered so capably by one of our staff members, but we feel the need for an exception—and quickly!

The subject is local entertainment, and the staff member from whom we are so unscrupulously usurping, is of course, columnist Niles Franklin Calhoun, better known on this campus, and everywhere for that matter, as Buddy. Buddy is obviously in no position to commend without limit the quality of the Freshman Talent Show staged for the benefit of the March of Dimes in the auditorium last Thursday night, for, as most of you already know, this performance was more or less strictly Buddy's "baby."

Other than to Buddy, our thanks for an enjoyable evening must go in all directions—skipping around to make sure that each and every one of the many entertainers, resting in their various abodes, receives our congratulations; zigzagging all over Raymond to catch up with our ever-busy freshman class president, Bobby Sheffield, wherever he may be; and flying on these wings of paper for an audience with that best of emcees, "Farmer" Jim Neal, who is bound to be hard at work up on top of that "bald-headed" hill.

As for the talent show itself—it was just wonderful.

Southern Group Stops Statehood

Once more the question of statehood for our two isolated possessions, Hawaii and Alaska, is beginning to raise its not-too-beautiful head, causing apprehension in some quarters, but really not shaking us up too badly.

Hawaii, which really seems to be the major culprit, has about as much business joining beside the other forty-eight as has Hinds County. Hawaii is some 2,000 miles across the salty water from the USA, thus giving her the same kind of insight into national problems as Yankees seem to have into Southern problems—none. The islands are a hotbed for communists, who find them easy to enter, and easy to feed their provocative line to. In short, Hawaii is not American.

Alaska, on the other hand, more nearly meets the requirements for statehood, but still is separated from the rest of the United States. The population of this territory, while increasing at a rapid rate, is still somewhat on the shy side, though.

These two territories had best not be getting their hopes up too high, however, for both statehood bills are normally thrown into the waste can at the outset, due to strong Southern opposition.

This year will be no exception.

Eisenhower, Mamie Enjoy Vacation

Dwight D. Eisenhower, our esteemed president, has apparently come up with a new way of acquiring a little peace and quiet—by sending your wife to Phoenix at your employer's expense.

This was the latest of his vacationistic stunts, he may have pulled others since we went to press.

If all Mr. Eisenhower has to do is jog around from Gettysburg to Augusta to Phoenix like a seven-year old with a new toy plane, then we'd better see about adding a new department to the government—The Official Government Travel Bureau, otherwise known as the "freight department."

Maybe the modern method of editorial-writing behoves us to always say something good about a fella if we say anything at all. If so, here goes: During the last two weeks Eisenhower has made only one mistake—and that was because he was holding his road map upside down.

Southern Buys Newspaper Press

By CAROLYN BARTON

September will find Mississippi Southern College's Student Printz

being printed on the campus! President W. D. McCain this week authorized the publication to spend $6,000 in purchasing newspaper equipment, $3,000 of which are profits from the paper, and the remaining in the form of a loan from the school to the newspaper. This on-the-campus printing will save the school about $100 per month, and create two or three work scholarships for students with mechanical experience to run the machines. This step gives Mississippi Southern the honor of being the only institution in the state to print its own campus newspaper.

"Ain't it pretty!" was the expression of the staff of the Mississippi College Collegian when they viewed the full color picture that adorned their front page last week. The heading of a column about the photo said "We got there fustest with the mostest!" That color picture was the first full-color to be printed in a Mississippi senior college newspaper! It pictured a handsome scene from the opening of Carousel. Mississippi College is second to Hinds in color printing. Remember the pretty girls pictured in the April 3rd issue last year?

The age of specialization is rapidly increasing. The University of Denver's Clarion carries a column you can't guess why.

From our interview with Shirley, and from what we could hear from eavesdropping, this is the opinion that she has of Hinds Junior: "Hinds is a great school."

She was asked what she thought about the boys and this is what she had to say, "Boys are all the same, conceited characters." All of them, Shirley?

Shirley has indeed been a busy girl since she has been at "Dear Ole Hinds." She has participated in the Future Teachers of America, the Young Women's Christian Association, the Women's Athletic Association, Lendon Players, and many, many more activities.

In addition to these activities she works part-time in the cafeteria. This year she was honored by being voted Queen of the Penny Fair.

Shirley says that she is going to further her major of Business Education at Delta State, but others say that matrimony looms for Shirley.

Poet's Corner

Neighbor, what is a tree?
Bark, trunk, leaves, and roots
That filter soil for its life;
From the mire the seedling shoots.

Father, what of the tree
Which falls, feeds, rots, and goes?

Just a chunk of wood in your great plan
Its final end no mortal knows.
Fortune, life without trees—
No shade, color, red or green—
Hot and burning the desert glows
Heat piercing blade is thin and keen.

Merchants, what price this log
Now still, stout, trim, and spent—

A market value on its life
Destroyed the song a bright sun sent.

Friend, let's draw a tree
With line, mass, tone, and space.
Don't draw the leaves, use the shape

With light and shade to set the pace.

Neighbor, now see my tree
The wind, grass, sky, passive blue—

Though not as fine as God creates,

I have tried, my eyes were true.

McComb Hi Wins Drama Meet Held On Local Campus

McComb High School students won the first annual state one-act Drama Festival for high schools on the campus of Hinds Junior College last Friday.

Sponsored by the Mississippi Speech Association, Miss Olive Hay, speech instructor at McComb, received the silver trophy cup.

McComb scored 274 points out of a possible 300, Yazoo City was second with 249 points, and Jackson Provine was third with 233.

"You Don't Belong To Me" was the title of the one-act production presented by the dramatic class from McComb. Members of the cast were Faith Hunter, Emily Alford, Penny Dunaway, Carmen Kotz, Brock Pope, and Lonnie Frazier.

Yazoo City students, directed by Mrs. Warren Smith, presented a play entitled "Echo," while Provine directed by Miss Sue Longest, presented "Overtones."

Judges for the drama festival were Charles Wall, Utica; Regina Godley, Vicksburg; and Patsy Wade, Jackson.

Mr. Fred L. Brooks, Jr., who is drama chairman for the speech association and professor of speech at Hinds Junior College, was in charge of arrangements for the speech activity. Brooks was assisted by Larry Craft of Utica.

The purpose of the event was to help foster better and more dramatics in the schools of the state.

HINDS GIRLS GO TO TEACH TOTS HOW TO BE FIT

A new service initiated this week by Hinds Junior College's Physical Education Department is helping serve a two-fold purpose — teaching youngsters how to best develop their physical person and giving education majors an opportunity to show their stuff.

The program, which is under the direction of Mrs. Anne Gookin, Director of Women's Physical Education at Hinds, is being carried out at Raymond Consolidated High School. Certain students from the college are making the trek across the road and conducting physical ed classes for Raymond's elementary gentry.

Instructors coming from Hinds' campus include Dorothy Davis, Peggy Fugate, Connie Newman, and Charlotte McClurg, all teaching the first grade; Maureen Eichelburger, Mary Carol Hart and Virginia Ronken, supervising the second grade's activities; Gayle Lee, Mary Byrnes, Sidney Comfort, and Irvita Kelly, instructing the third grade; Reba Gail Pierce, Polly Harrington, Jean Gill, and Dorothy Butler, watching the performances of the fourth grade; Nancy Pharr, Linda Roberts, Roxie Easley, and Janyce Wisniewski, tutoring the fifth grade; and Iris McKay, Regina Godley, Dott Grimes, and Beverly Brown, all coaching the sixth grade.

Wednesday, March 19 Marks First Day Of Holidays

Spring holidays, the last holidays of this semester, will be observed this year on March 20 and 21, allowing Hinds Junior College students to leave the campus at 3:30 on the afternoon of Wednesday, March 19.

During this long week-end, the faculty members of all Mississippi educational institutions will be gathered in Jackson for the annual meeting of the Mississippi Educational Association.

Miss Mildred Herrin, Hinds registrar, will serve in her position as secretary-treasurer of the Mississippi Association of Colleges, meeting in conjunction with the MEA. This year marks the ninth consecutive time for Miss Herrin to hold this post.

Former Instructor To Speak At BSU Fete On Campus

Dr. Bob Simmons of Oak Forest Baptist Church, Jackson, will be the speaker at the annual BSU banquet which will be held April 11, at Raymond Lake Lodge.

Plans for the banquet got underway last week when the executive council appointed committee heads.

The committee chairmen appointed are the following: program — Jimmie Shepperd, Eleanor Johnson, and Selma Earnest; decorations — Joanne Carpenter, and Lennie Parman; invitations — Nancy Pharr and Barbara Speight; tickets and programs — Bobby Sheffield and Billy Denson; place cards — Sharlott McClurg and Myrtle Moore; foods — Mary Tolar and Selma Earnest.

As BSU social chairman, Bobby Sheffield will be official head and co-ordinator of the occasion.

The program, decorations and menu will feature the theme, "Esponola Fiesta."

Summer Program To Offer Regular Courses Of Work

Hinds Junior College will once again offer a full schedule for the summer session, which will begin June 9, 1957.

Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar, announced that the courses, which will all be held in the air-conditioned comfort of the Administration Building, will be carried dependent upon request, and that the regular summer schedule will be announced May 1.

College students may earn up to 12 semester hours, and High School students will be allowed to take either 1½ credits of new courses or 2 credits of review work.

A full recreation program will be available during the entire session.

Piano Recital Set Thursday

Don't miss:

Miss McCord and Miss Pennell's recital to be given here March 13.

The Senior Class play, "Judy pulls the Curtain" which will take the spotlight on March 18.

"Down in the Valley", the upcoming musical production scheduled for the latter part of this month.

* * *

Thanks to all the people who helped make the March of Dimes talent show a success. We hope you got a dime's worth of entertainment out of the show.

* * *

The Hi-Steppers and Eagle Band recently wowed a group of members of school boards of Mississippi at the Robert E. Lee Hotel.

Upcoming date for the band and dance unit is the Youth Carnival at Clinton, Miss.

* * *

We hear that the recital of Miss McCord's pupils was very good. This fact makes us think that all music students deserve a commendation for the fine work they do in helping to uphold Hinds Jr. College's reputation for versatility.

Females At Hinds Possess Top Spot To Catch A Man

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

If, as is sometimes stated by those who know, a large majority of girls come to college to grab a husband, then Hinds Junior College should be an excellent place for a young lady to attend. The local institution offers not only first-rate mate-material but top notch home economics training as well.

The Hinds Junior College Home Economics Department, housed in an L-shaped building located adjacent to both girls' dormitories, is well equipped to teach the lovelies of this campus how to handle a husband. Within its walls are housed two classrooms complete with modern folding doors (to teach young wives-to-be that even folding doors squeak on occasion), a clothing laboratory, a fitting room, a foods laboratory bedecked with six unit kitchens, a living room, a dining room, a bedroom, and a bathroom. These areas approximate those found in the modern home, and all are useful in the overall home-ec picture.

On occasion this building has been used to host meetings, programs, showers, and receptions of various types, and this same edifice is sometimes used to sleep overnight and weekend guests.

Miss Fleta Whitaker, the only teacher for home economics now on Hinds Campus, offers her most capable services through some three courses—nutrition, clothing and household furnishings, and marriage and family life—with another course, home nursing, sitting this year out for lack of interested students.

Any interested female student is eligible for membership in the Lamplighters Club, local home economics club for college girls. This club is affiliated with both the state and the national bodies.

Jackson Speaker Talks To Circle K On Engineering

Mr. Clyde Maxwell of Clyde Maxwell and Associates Engineering Company in Jackson was guest speaker at the Circle K Club meeting last week.

Rev. Roy Rulan, pastor of the First Christian Church of Jackson, introduced Mr. Maxwell, who presented an informative talk on the advantages and disadvantages of civil engineering. Several members of the Circle K Club expect to enter the civil engineering field.

Twelve new members were welcomed into the club of 30. Circle K pins were presented to each member by Bob Wallace, president.

The next meeting will be on Thursday, March 6, in the private dining hall.

ior College lake, 35-acre body of water, in the background; and at right is hay being baled at the rate of 2,000 bales each year. Supervised by Mr. Jack Treloar, the farm practices the latest farm methods available in its experimental set-up.

IN STOCKMAN-FARMER MAGAZINE

Statistics, Descriptions, Photos Tell Facts About Farm With Best Facilities On Campus Of Hinds Junior College

(Editor's Note) In the current issue of the Mississippi Stockman-Farmer, there is an excellent article on the farming and cattle raising on the Hinds Junior College farm.

Reinforced by statistics, descriptions, and pictures, the article tells of the threefold purpose of the farm, the personnel, and the practices that result in the College.

The article appears below. The complete article is well worth the reading and study of anyone interested in modern farming, or in the progress of Hinds Junior outstanding success of the college farming program which includes the operation of the beef and dairy herds, hog raising, poultry farm, and cold storage plant.

The largest junior college farm in the nation with the finest and most modern facilities spreads its 1298 acres of land in Hinds County, a vital segment of Hinds Junior College.

Hinds' diversified farming operation has a three fold purpose:

1. To demonstrate the latest methods and practices available to college students and farm groups.
2. To provide food for Hinds Junior College students.
3. To provide work opportunity for college students.

The improved practices carried out by the college are having a profound effect on students, farmers, and livestock producers in the Hinds Junior College area, according to agricultural experts.

Owned and operated entirely by the college, 900 of the 1298 acres

PUBLIC ADDRESS UNIT AT HINDS TO BE ONE OF BEST IN STATE

Hinds Junior College is currently installing one of the most complete public address systems in the South.

According to Mr. Robert L. Bullock, radio and television instructor in the vocational department, the new sound system, in addition to its normal function, will have facilities with a feeding line to a radio station hook-up for recording purposes.

are actually in farm use.

Treloar in Charge

Supervised by Mr. Jack Treloar, head of the agricultural department at Hinds, the farm unit stresses quality rather than quantity. Farm director Treloar has recently been selected the "Man of the Year" in Hinds County agriculture by the Hinds County Farm Bureau. He is in his 12th year at Hinds.

Mr. W. M. McKenzie, college agriculture instructor, is in charge of the soils and crops program of the farm.

The Hinds JC cold storage plant, managed by Mr. Grady Sheffield, processes food for the college. The frozen locker plant is also used to demonstrate the proper slaughtering and curing procedures, to supply jobs for college students, and to serve farmers and livestock producers in the Hinds district.

Actual Practice

Swine, dairy cattle, beef cattle, chicken, hay, clovers, oats, peas, corn, silage, grasses, and soils from the major part of the college's experiment farm.

All animals on the farm are of registered grades that are popular

Yazoo Man Takes Top Hog Carcass Honors On Campus

A Yazoo County farmer took top honor in the first annual Hog Carcass Show on the campus of Hinds Junior College last Friday.

Mr. A. C. Karpe of the Holly Bluff community was presented a silver trophy and a check for $35 by Mr. Jack Treloar, agriculture instructor at Hinds.

Mr. George Crawford of Madison won second place honors, Mr. J. W. Downer of Holly Bluff took third place, and Mike Smith of Florence rated fourth.

Mr. Karpe, who owns over 150 hogs, credited most of his success to W. C. Robertson, vocational-agricultural teacher at Holly Bluff.

Hinds Junior College Cold Storage plant manager, Mr. Grady Sheffield, termed the show as very successful.

in Mississippi.

Make Money

Although an experiment unit, the farm breaks even or makes money every year with its modern and diversified practices.

The plant provides all the milk pasteurized and bottled, and all the broilers and eggs the college uses each year.

Over 160 hogs are marketed and used by the college each year. The operation includes 15 brood sows and one boar on hand the year around in breeds of durocs, hampshires, and yorkshires. Hinds students consume over 10,000 pounds of pork every 12 months.

Pig Parlor

A farrowing house has increased the number per litter and a pig parlor was built on the parlor was built on the farm last summer.

All of the beef cattle are registered Herefords composed of 50 cows, two bulls, 17 yearling heifers, and 25 steers. Over 50,000 pounds of beef is used in the college cafeteria each year.

The 40 dairy cows, jerseys and holsteins, are bred to rotate about 30 milkers at all times. More than 22 replacement heifers graze the 50 acres of wild winter peas, white dutch clover, crimson clover, oats, and rye grass.

Irrigation Used

Irrigation is used on temporary pastures for dairy cattle.

The college chicken unit has 900 laying leghorn hens and 12,000 crossbred broilers. Over 12,000 broilers are consumed by the students in the college cafeteria each year.

Grain is combined from the 150 acres of oats which amounts to over 5,000 bushels.

Silage for all cattle is placed in silos at the rate of 350 tons each season. Oats and grass hay are baled on the Hinds farm to the tune of 2,000 bales per year.

Forward Look

The Hinds Junior College farming program has the forward look. Great strides are being made with the modern methods of diversified farming.

TROTTER'S STABLES

Can Kohler Tragedies Be Averted?

BY WAYNE TROTTER

On April 5, 1954, many residents of the busy Wisconsin town of Sheboygan, arose from their customary sleep into a worse nightmare than any of them could possibly have been having the previous night.

They were the victims of a cruel turn of fate; they lived on the proving grounds from which organized labor planned to launch its attack upon the most defiant bastion of industrial might, that area of business which, without unionistic ogling, had always given its employees a better-than-fair shake. They were right in the center of the now-infamous Kohler strike.

From the days dating to way back when, in the days of Walter Kohler, Sr., the Kohler Company built an up-to-date (for 1912) model town for the workers, right up until April 4, 1954, the eve of the strike, when the average Kohler employee was gathering roughly 15 per cent more pay than his average contemporary in other parts of the industry, the Kohler Company has always had a good-to-the-working-man policy.

During the depression, this conscientious industry even stockpiled unsalable bathtubs, one million dollars worth per year, to keep long-faithful employees from going hungry. Then, in 1952, Kohler employees voted to accept the United Auto Workers as their official representative.

Strike Weapon

Perhaps Walter Reuther and his UAW are too used to dealing in the highly-competitive proper of the automobile industry, where they rarely have to resort to a strike, for they used little tact and even less common sense in their handling of this particular situation.

Methods which would have seemed more at home in an Edward G. script than in Sheboygan soon prevailed. The union shipped a number of hired organizers to spur things along; women strikers, either through instinct or lesson, supposedly learned how to deal with women nonstrikers in short order.

Kohler sat tight, ultimately attributing some 800 acts of violence to the striking element, but unable to prove any of them. Finally, in May, the management took legal steps, and those who wanted to work were allowed to do so.

What had the union wanted of Kohler? First off, they asked a union shop, which might have been arranged, a different pension plan from that already existing, which might have been arbitrated to a satisfactory conclusion, and a twenty cent and hour increase in wages, which was definitely subject to compromise. They also asked for a change in the company's system of choosing the order of those to be laid-off, for, charged the union, the present system would enable Kohler to give the boot to any union leader at any desired time. Also wanted by the UAW was a veto-power over Kohler sub-contracting.

Kohler Machines

Although the Kohler machinery seems to work just as well with non-union labor at the helm, the UAW is still continuing its strike with no apparent end in sight. Last week the Senate commenced to investigate the whys and wherefores of this longest of recent walkouts.

Today, March 5, 1958, is nearly four years after the original outbreak at the Kohler plant. The issues over which the quarrel first started seem lost, negligent — as indeed they are. A successful agreement could probably been struck years ago, had company been willing for the waters to subside.

It is fighting for a principal — the principal that says that a business has the right to run itself. For many years now this right has been neglected, while, with the passing of every two or so years, unions have eaten further into management rights.

Kohler is the bedrock; it will not erode.

COLLEGE FRESHMAN TO ENTER SPEECH CONTEST IN JACKSON THIS MONTH

Jimmy Morris, Vicksburg Freshman, has been invited to appear during the annual speech contest sponsored by the Mississippi Oratorical Society in Jackson on Thursday, October 20.

This event, to be held at the Robert E. Lee Hotel, will be the second for young Mr. Morris in the course of a month. He also participated in the South Mississippi Junior College Speech Festival held at Jones Junior College in February.

Eagles To Play 10 Games; Ricks Defends 9-1 Record

Hinds Junior College will play a 10-game baseball schedule this season, Joe Renfroe, athletic director, announced yesterday.

All 10 of the diamond battles are carded with junior colleges from the southern half of the state. Perkinston, Southwest, Pearl River, Clark, and Jones appear on the slate twice this season.

Troy Ricks, head basketball coach, will be in charge of the Eagles for the second straight year. Ricks will defend his record of nine wins and one loss compiled last year.

Hinds' only loss last season was a 10 inning setback by the Southwest Bears. The nine victories included wins over Jones, Pearl River, and Perkinston twice, and one decision over Southwest.

The schedule calls for a clash with the Southwest Bears at Summit for the initial debut of the season on April 1. Hinds' diamond nine will complete regular season play on May 1 with the Jones Bobcats, Ellisville.

The team from the southern half of the State with the highest percentage at the end of the campaign will encounter the top team from the northern half of the state to determine the overall State junior college champ.

The Eagle Schedule:
 April 1-Southwest at Summit
 April 3-Clarke at Newton
 April 5-Perkinston at Raymond
 April 8-Southwest at Raymond
 April 12-Perkinston at Perkinston
 April 15-Jones at Raymond
 April 19-Pearl River at Raymond
 April 22-Clarke at Raymond
 April 25-Pearl River at Poplarville
 May 1-Jones at Ellisville

Carroll Family To Present Assembly Show Wednesday

The Carrolls, a family of professional entertainers, will present a program of humor, music, dancing, and impersonations at assembly on Wednesday, March 12.

Fred and Ann Carroll have drawn from the Ancient Orient a program of intrigue. They are not two-faced. They have many faces! Masks are their hobby, their art, and their skill.

Starting with brief remarks on the use of masks in the Orient and Near East of centuries ago, the Carrolls show the audience, by demonstration and explanation, how masks are made, ending up with the finished product.

In their collection of life-like masks are many personalities any audience will recognize and appreciate, especially when the masks are donned. Movie stars come alive through the satires of Fred and Ann Carroll.

Included in the program is a humorous skit in which members of the audience are the actors. Wearing masks, and walking through their parts, as a record plays their speeches result in a fun session for the audience.

Fred and Ann Carroll also use music for background to their dance satires of Hollywood stars.

The program is expected to be of varied and unexpected content.

Eaglettes To Lock Horns With Pine Grove Sextet

By JAMES CLEVELAND

Hinds High's impressive Eaglettes will wage war for the State B-BB girls' basketball crown Thursday afternoon at Pearl gym.

The Hinds sextette, No. 2 in the South, tangles with Pine Grove, the third seeded team from the North, at 3:30 p. m.

The playoffs officially get underway at 12:00 when Agricola and Algoma tip-off. Other battles slated for Thursday afternoon's opening rounds are Shannon and West Lincoln, and Ingomar and Dexter.

The Eaglettes nabbed two victories in the south division cage contests at Tylertown this past weekend to gain runners-up laurels and assure themselves a berth in the play-offs.

Coach Boteler's high-powered sextette tripped Center Hill 40-27 in the tourney opener. Winnie Lou Smith dunked 23 points for scoring honors while Nancy Chapman and Mary Bess Beard netted 16 and 11 respectively.

The Hinds lassies edged highly regarded West Lincoln 48-47 in the semi-finals in a super-thriller. The Eaglettes outscored the opposition 13-7 in the fourth period to notch the come-from-behind decision. Winnie Lou poured in 29 markers to pace the attack.

The local girls fell victim to red-hot Agricola in the South Division finals, losing a 62-48 decision. Nancy Chapman was the game's high scorer with 28 points.

NIX'S SCRAPPIN'S

Boteler Possesses Top Record

By CURTIS NIX

Coach Louis Boteler, better known as "Skin" among friends, is writing the concluding pages of his sparkling career at the helm of the Hinds High Eagles and Eaglettes, and the State tournament this weekend will complete the final chapter.

Coach Boteler, an alumnus of Hinds, is loved by his associates and feared by his opponents. A studious student of the game, his knowledge of basketball and his ability to coach it has placed him among the best of state B-BB coaches. His hearty laughter, good naturedness, sternness, and quick wit will long be remembered by players and patrons alike.

In his years as high school coach, Boteler has put out more than his share of standout teams. Turning back through pages that are now history, we see that every year he has had a winning girls' team, and this year's team probably tops them all. Narrowly missing the South Mississippi or the State tourney on several occasions, Boteler climaxed the season by taking the runner-up spot in South Mississippi and gained the right to compete in the coveted State tournament.

Sporting a 25-3 record to date, the 1957-58 edition of the Eaglettes nipped the rugged Sebastopol sextet for their South Mississippi berth and bolted themselves into the State tourney by nudging Center Hill.

As the State tourney gets underway this weekend, we'll have our fingers crossed for Coach Boteler and his Eaglettes.

***

At this time we would like to extend our congratulations to Eagle guard Johnny Gray for his being named to the all-state junior college tournament team. Johnny has been a key man in the Eagles' efforts for the past two years, and has come through many times when the chips were down.

CURTIS

***

Homer Boyd, ex-Eagle gridiron ace who recently cast his lot with the Mississippi Southern footballers, is living up to expectations. Upon arrival at Southern, Homer was placed on the 6th team, and within two weeks had worked his way to the number two team.

Spring training was brought to a climax with the playing of an intra-squad game. Homer played for the Golds who downed the Blacks 32-7.

This writer did not see the game but talked to a good friend who has a son at Southern. When asked how Boyd showed up in the contest, he remarked, "That boy was all over the field. Every play, he put someone on the ground. In my book he's a good bet for varsity laurels next fall."

You just can't keep his kind off the starting team.

Badminton Action Starts On Local Campus By WAA

The Women's Athletic Association began its annual badminton tournament last Tuesday night.

Mary Kathryn Gates and Iris McKay defeated Jo Roby and Shirley DuBois, Florence Hearn and Regina Godley defeated Dot Ann Pickett and Virginia Vaughn, and Nancy Pharr and Reba Gail Pierce defeated Anna Summers and Shari McClurg.

Badminton games, singles and doubles, will go on at the same time as the volleyball games.

Roxie Easley, Mary Kathryn Gates, and Regina Godley are the defending winners.

Copiah-Lincoln Wolf Pack Eliminates Hinds Quintet In South Tournament

The Hinds Eagles were eliminated in the first game of South Mississippi Junior College tournament play to the determined Co-Lin Wolves twice this season, the Eagles just couldn't pull their forces into a unified fighting machine.

The duel was highlighted by the battle under the baskets. Both teams were evenly matched in height, but Co-Lin had the edge in rebounds with Bob Knight and Willia McGee paving the way. The advantage in backboard control was the determining factor in victory.

For the Eagles, Johnny Gray connected for 16 points, getting most of them in the last half; Larry Pennington collected 15, and Carl Harris added 14. These three, along with Gerald Lee, contributed to the defensive cause.

Co-Lin led practically the entire contest and staved off all attempted Eagle rallies in closing minutes.

Wolf-pack scoring was well rounded with Knight getting 20, McGee 18, Ducker 15, and Newsome 13.

Don Clinton sacked two free throws after the game was officially over that give the Pearl River Wildcats a 77-76 State Championship victory over the Itawamba Indians in a close and exciting battle.

Itawamba had a 76-75 lead with one second of playing time remaining when Indian brave Bob Jackson fouled Clinton sending the latter to the free throw line. At this point near riot broke out among Itawamba fans who protested that the foul was committed after the final horn had blown.

Indian coach Bob Davis said that he planned to file a statement of protest on the decision.

Guard Johnny Gray was Hinds' only contribution to the All-State Tournament selections.

Itawamba was the only team to place more than one player on the team.

Hinds High Quint Completes Season With 10-10 Mark

Coach Louis "Skin" Boteler's Hinds High Eagles have completed the season with a 10-10 cage record, although a large majority of the setbacks were by A-AA teams.

The Eagles were victims of Jackson Murrah, Jackson Central, Canton, and Brandon in the A-AA bracket.

Hinds High was also dropped by Jett, Culkin Academy, St. Joseph, and Byram in the B-BB class.

Boteler's quintet topped every B-BB school it encountered at least once this season with the exception of the Byram Bulldogs.

Teams contributing to the 10 wins were Jett, Culkin Academy, Mississippi School for the Deaf, Flora, Benton, Brandon, and Terry.

With the consolidation of Hinds High School with Raymond Consolidated this fall, all of the Hinds High players are graduating seniors this year.

Donald Sheffield was the big gun with 253 points for the season's total. David Mason has 155 markers and Billy Forgey contributed 147.

Other scorers were Bill Birdsong with 88, Charles Banes 71, Dickie Osborn 70, Dalton Thames 67, Bill Birdsong 59, Jack Armstrong 44, Bill Grogan 24, Dan Hodge 20, and Robert Moody two.

College Commerce Day Program Set For March 25th

Hinds Junior College's Future Business Leaders of America organization is currently laying plans for the club's annual Commerce Day to be held this year on Hinds' campus on March 25.

Already several committees have been appointed to start making preparations for the day-long event which will see a number of high school business students from the neighboring areas taking part.

Representatives from business machine companies will display their latest wares in the academic building.

After each delegate to the event has been greeted and supplied with identification cards, the visitors will be shown to the auditorium and will be welcomed by Hinds, president, G. M. McLendon.

After the opening address the students will be escorted around the campus by Members of the FBLA.

Mrs. Maybelle Furness and Mrs. Neva Spraberry are the sponsors of the campus organization.

a seventeen year old with a burning yen to become an actress.

The production also features two other characters interested in the stage, Lucy Martin and Ann Travis, played by Ethel Rumbavage and Dorothy Brock, respectively. Miss Martin has acting aspirations while Miss Travis yearns for the life of a playwright.

The male comedy lead, Joe Sydne, a rough, uncouth, forty-two year old man, is played by Jerry Bridges.

Other characters include Jack Travis, twin to Ann, who is played by Dick Osborne; Johnny Blair, a devil-may-care boy played by Dalton Thames; and Miss Sloan, a newspaper reporter played by Becky Dawson. Martha and Sue Cook are to be played by Sara Margaret Smith and Betty Denton.

Mrs. Travis and her husband, Professor Travis, will be portrayed by Margaret Lynn Peyton and Bobby Seawright.

MRS. G. M. MCLENDON

President's Wife Attends National YWCA Convention

Mrs. G. M. McLendon, wife of Hinds Junior College president G. M. McLendon, left Wednesday morning to attend the National Young Women's Christian Association convention in St. Louis, Mo. from March 13-19.

Mrs. McLendon, who is the secretary to the board of directors of the Mississippi division of the YWCA, made the trip by car with Miss Mary Haynes, executive director of the Mississippi YWCA; Mrs. T. A. Middleton, Jackson; and Mrs. Hunt, Starkville.

The Mississippi delegation will return Thursday, March 20.

Deportation Scheme Not Practical

With the approach of the poppy-cock season, otherwise known as the legislative doldrum time, we find ourselves not too anxiously awaiting the cry of those well-intentioned, but misguided, individuals who are forever taking up the "Deport the Negro" shout.

To follow this advice would, in our opinion, have to be ranked among the most serious mistakes imaginable.

To deport any American on the taxpayer's money, whether the deportation is voluntary, as this would be, or not, would gain us friction at home.

As Americans we would finally realize the benefits that some say we now enjoy abroad — benefits all counted in the terms of dislike.

As Southerners we would lose some of our best Negroes to Africa. The trouble-makers would remain with us, giving us a higher percentage of the lawless element among our colored brethren.

As Segregationists, we would gain ill will and a Negro population that would even more easily conform to the form laid by the NAACP.

The plan is not practical.

Its motives are excellent; its meaning fuzzy.

Reading Proves Foundation For Life

Reading, as someone once said, is the foundation of all education.

During the week of March 16-22 — next week — our nation will be observing National Library Week. Editors throughout America will blanket editorial pages with "let's read" propaganda and most libraries will be decked out with all their book-power in recognition of the event.

These displays will show how leisure reading benefits. They will be designed to inform students that much can be gained by sacrificing a few good times to reading.

If the reading habit is once formed, it will never be broken. A day without literature will seem like a lost day — a day without food.

Any time is reading time, especially now.

Join The Band Wagon For Studying

As most of you already know, and many of you are destined to discover, we have just passed the two-thirds mark for the entire scholastic year.

With this in mind, and with those little yellow slips in hand, maybe many of us here at Hinds Junior will be pushed to greater heights next term. There is usually a little room for improvement, and normally a great deal of room.

We don't know, nor do we care, what you made on your individual report—that's your personal business.

We do know, and we do care, that altogether too many students at this institution failed to come up to their potential. As a whole Hinds students aren't studying as they should.

How about joining us on the "more-study" bandwagon this term?

You'll be a better person for it.

Circle K Performs Campus Service

We'd like to take time out from the daily grind of editorial writing and offer our congratulations to the Circle-K club for getting down to work and realizing an old dream of the Hindsonian's — a sign to tell all concerned the what, why, and where of Hinds Junior College.

Mr. Jack Treloar and his group have really tackled a project that will bring local fame to their organization this time. A sign to identify this campus with Hinds Junior College has been long needed.

As a news story elsewhere in this issue will inform you, this new sign is to be placed between Boteler's service station and the entrance to the football field.

We're counting the days until it appears.

Thanks, Circle-K'ers!

Vicksburg Home Economics Major Adds Another Honor To Long List

By WAYNE TROTTER

She was born to be thankful.

She was born to be thankful for the fine Vicksburg home from which she sprang; she was destined to give thanks because this household was further blessed with five other children, of which she was the second; she has lived to offer thanks to the Almighty for her upbringing in an atmosphere of Christian living.

SHARLOTT McCLURG

She was meant to draw praise.

She was meant to draw praise for her schoolwork, which was of such quality that she finished right on top of her Jett High senior class, for her basketball prowess, which won her a letter four years and placed her on the Warren County All-Star team on the fourth year, and for her winning personality, that prompted her school-mates to elect her president of her class four times during her tenure at Jett.

So, perhaps it was more than coincidence when, in 1938, little Sharrott McClurg chose to miss the ordinary days surrounding her birthday, and entered this world on a day filled with hope, a day full of the presence of the Master, November 22—Thanksgiving Day.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McClurg, must have been very proud on that chilly Thanksgiving Day in Kilmichael, but how much prouder they are today of their five foot nine and one-half inch daughter who has gone down the road of life attracting awards much in the same manner that the ordinary traveler attracts dust.

During her years at Jett, Sharrott was running a monopoly on this entire honors business. Other than those already mentioned, she held down two presidencies, FHA and Y-Teens, was first soprano with the Glee Club, and was head student librarian. The honors gathered by this tireless ball of energy, discounting the already mentioned valdiedictorian laurels, included the American Legion Honor Medal and the Kiwanis Honor Medal.

Gosh! Fellows, if we've built this little girl up too highly, let's backtrack a little, for our gal Sharrott has contracted a bad habit somewhere along the way. If any of you are almost on the brink of proposal, stop and consider the consequences when she starts throwing, morning, noon, and night, her favorite food—stuffed crab—on the dining table.

If any of you are still with us, we will resume our narrative of the assorted honors collected by this likable lass while still in her educational years. During her freshman year at Hinds, she participated in WAA, the Girl's Ensemble, the College Choir and the YWCA. She was feature editor of the (pardon us, we have to turn our Sophomore-of-the-Week cheat-sheet over) Eagle, copy editor of the Hindsonian, a member of the Modern Language Club, and the secretary of the Baptist Student Union.

Her sophomore year saw her drop the two editorships and add her duties as student librarian and her position as a member of the college All-Star girls' basketball team, while retaining her other affiliations.

Sharrott, whose blue-grey-green (you pays your money, you takes your pick) eyes clash to the perfect degree with her brown hair, is a home economics major. Her pet peeves are short boys. Her hobbies are sports, sewing, and reading. She is still making up her mind on her choice of a school at which to further her education, but MSCW and Baylor lead the field now.

Maybe she wasn't born to be thankful; it could have been that she was the thanks that the day was destined to bring.

Hinds Twirler Thrills Groups With Fire Acts

By ANN FLAUTT

State Times Staff Writer

A Mississippi student who once thrilled a crowd by setting himself on fire is featured in the 1958 edition of "Who's Who in Baton Twirling."

Buddy Calhoun, 18-year-old freshman at Hinds Junior College, has been twirling batons since he was in the third grade.

He is feature twirler with the Hinds Junior College Band.

He graduated last year from Forest Hill High School, where he was also featured twirler with the band. He received a "superior" award in the state twirling contest here while a Forest Hill student.

Buddy has put on exhibitions for talent and stage shows all over the South, including the South Mississippi Rodeo at Purvis and the State Horse Show in Jackson.

Buddy is the only man in the world who actively twirls three fire batons at one time. In one of his acts at the State Horse Show, he set his clothes on fire with gasoline while twirling fire batons. He said one woman screamed and nearly fainted.

"Actually it doesn't hurt; gasoline burns quickly," Buddy explained.

Buddy is a math major at Hinds Junior College and said he is thinking about going into professional twirling for a career.

He teaches twirling lessons. He also participates in the activities of the Baptist Student Union.

The National Baton Twirling Association in Janesville, Wisconsin, in conjunction with the editors of the Drum Major magazine, select twirlers across the nation to appear in "Who's Who in Baton Twirling."

The book is being distributed to leading public and school libraries across the country.

Texas Instructor To Direct State Choral Festival

The State Junior College Choral Festival, to be held on the Hinds Junior College campus on March 29, will have as guest conductor Dr. Gene Hemmle, head of the music department of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas.

Dr. Hemmle will direct the concert of the massed choirs which will follow the concert of individual numbers to be given by each participating choral group.

At some time during the day, each of the musical organizations representing Mississippi's twelve junior colleges will present a fifteen minute program.

Mr. Leslie Reeves, head of Hinds music department, cordially invites the public to attend the evening concert, where there will be heard six varied selections presented by the massed choir.

TO STATE CONVENTION — Future Teachers of America at Hinds Junior College are making plans to attend the State Future Teachers convention in Jackson next weekend. Officers and sponsors scheduled to participate in the conference are seated, Thelma Huff, Pelahatchie, secretary; Barbara Speight, president, Jackson; Rebecca Murphy, Brandon, vice president and program chairman; standing, Mr. A. L. Denton, sponsor; Patricia Moore, treasurer, Jackson; Nancy Pharr, Vicksburg, reporter; and Mr. M. F. Herring, sponsor.

Speech Instructor Releases Cast For Spring Production, 'The Proud Age'

by Jo Ann Adcock.

James Brantley will present the part of the bellhop; Patsy Wade will play the part of Louise Ramsey; Dee Greathouse will portray Leopold Morse; and Charles Wall will be set to play the part of Jimmy Roark.

Mrs. Strauss will be portrayed by Carolyn Barton; Mr. Strauss will find interpretation through Robert Seawright; and Mme. Vandinetti will be played by Margaret White.

The remaining parts, those of Dot Morse and Mattie Roark, will be played by Margarita Morris and Iris McKay, respectively.

Mr. Fred L. Brooks, Jr., head of the speech and dramatics department, will direct the production.

Faculty Members To Appear On 3 MEA Programs

Among Hinds Junior College instructors who will appear on the program of the Mississippi Education Association convention in Jackson next weekend will be three officers.

They are Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar; Miss Lurline Stewart, head of the mathematics department; and Mr. Fred L. Brooks, head of the speech department.

Miss Herrin is in her ninth consecutive year as secretary-treasurer of the Mississippi Association of Colleges.

Miss Stewart is the vice president of the state mathematics group.

Mr. Brooks is the chairman of the drama section of the Mississippi Speech Association.

MR. FRED L. BROOKS

tries to retain the impression of great beauty.

Other students who took places in the play, which has been described by critics as "an intelligent comedy", include Dott Grimes, who will play the part of Victoria Blake, the traveling companion of Miss Street, and Sylvia Harris, played

Reading Instructor Speaks To Faculty Group Wednesday

Mr. Warren Fortenberry, reading instructor at Hinds, was the featured speaker at the Faculty club meeting this morning.

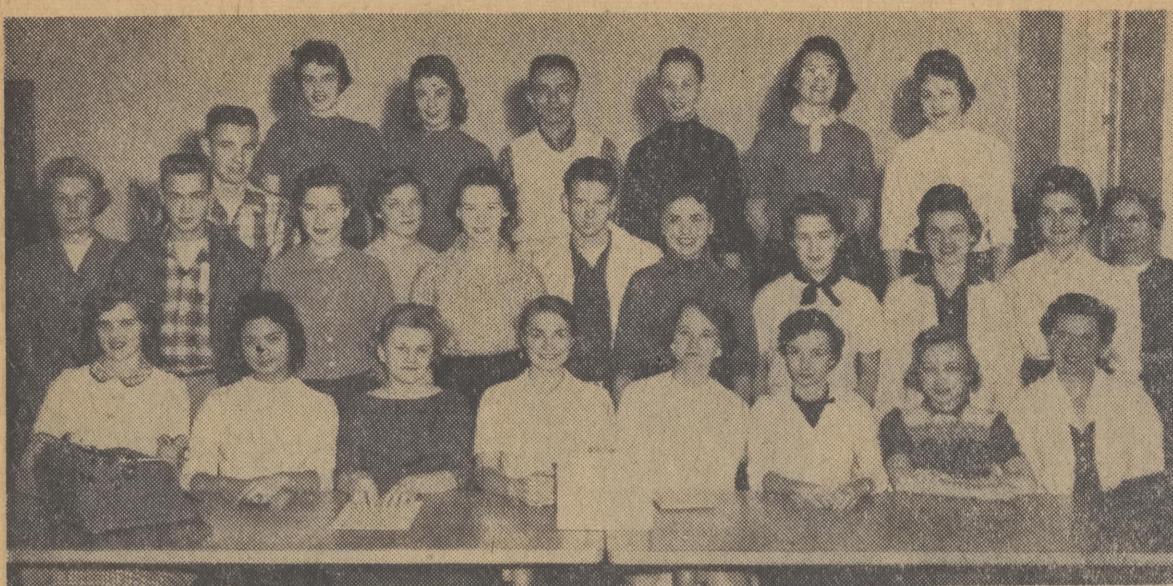

Mr. Fortenberry described the developmental reading program at Hinds with emphasis on wider comprehension, word rate per minute, flexibility, rapidity, and enlargement of vocabulary. He also pointed out the various mechanical methods employed to achieve the improved reading skill.

The speaker discussed some of the problems confronting the reading department and answered questions about the department from the faculty.

Mrs. J. R. Harris, president of the Faculty Club, introduced the speaker.

TO HOST COMMERCE DAY—Hinds Junior College's active Future Business Leaders of America Chapter stands posed ready to host the institution's annual Commerce Day on the 25th of March. On the first row, reading from left to right, are Jimmie Hawkins, Pansy Jue, Elizabeth Herring, Alma Lee Grantham, Lillie Meadows, Anna Summers, Evelyn Sorrels, and Lanell McDonald. The second

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Clicking Of Typewriters, Roar Of Machines Make Familiar Sounds

By BETTY FURNESS

The clicking of typewriters and the roar of office machines are familiar sounds in the business education department at Hinds Junior College. These noises, however, represent but a few of the courses offered by the business department.

Located in the Academic Building, the department educates students in such varied courses as typewriting, shorthand, accounting, office machines, business law, advertising, filing, business communications, and secretarial procedures.

Students majoring in almost any field will, at some time, find it profitable to enroll in a class in the business department. Those who major in business will have nearly all of their classes in the business department. There is even a special course offered for those who are interested in qualifying for secretarial and clerical positions in less time than the normal two years required for junior college graduation.

In this intensive secretarial science program students have classes only in the business education department and are awarded a certificate which enables them to find positions at the end of a nine-month period.

One of the most interesting and practical organizations on the campus, the Future Business Leaders of America, is sponsored by the business department. The members are given an opportunity to take numerous field trips to businesses in Jackson, where they become acquainted with the business world which they will soon enter. Social functions have their place in the club's program also.

Business Paper

An informative newspaper, "Tabs" is published quarterly by the FBLA. Mrs. Maybelle Furness, who sponsors the FBLA, and the members feel that this news bulletin is instrumental in informing others of the activities of the organization and, in general, of the business department.

Mr. L. K. Clark, who is head of the business education department, has been at Hinds over twenty years. In 1933 he received his Master's degree from the University of Iowa.

Aside from teaching, Mr. Clark enjoys gardening and fishing. Two sons, Charles and Bob, occupy part of his time.

The organizer and sponsor of the FBLA and "Tabs" is Mrs. Maybelle Furness. Her formal education includes work at Millsaps College, from which she received a B.A. degree, and study at the University of Mississippi, from which she graduated with a M.B.E. degree.

Hinds Registrar

Miss Mildred Herrin is not only a business instructor but also the registrar at Hinds. Miss Herrin is a graduate of Hinds and of the College of Commerce at Bowling Green, Kentucky. In 1946 she received her Master's degree from the University of Denver.

The most recent addition to the business education staff is Mrs. B. D. Spraberry. She received higher education at Mississippi College and the University of Mississippi. From the latter she received a M.B.E. degree. For "extra curricular" activities Mrs. Spraberry enjoys reading and traveling.

The business education department enjoys the honor of being one of the most popular departments at Hinds, with more than 150 enrolled in one or more of the courses offered. Perhaps this may be attributed to its modern facilities, excellent staff, and progressive ideas.

CARROLL ACT SHOWN FOR HINDS GROUP

The Carrolls, a family of professional entertainers, presented a program of humor, music, dancing, and impersonations at assembly this morning.

Starting with brief remarks on the use of masks in the Orient and Near East of centuries ago, the Carrolls showed the audience, by demonstration and explanation, how masks are made, ending up with the finished product.

Included in the program was a humorous skit in which members of the audience were the actors. Wearing masks, and walking through their parts, as a record played their speeches resulted in a fun session for the audience.

Fred and Ann Carroll also used music for background to their dance satires of Hollywood stars.

Holidays Set For Thursday, Friday On March 20, 21

Next week, March 20 and 21, Hinds Junior College will observe Spring holidays, which will begin at 3:30 on Wednesday, March 19.

While the students are taking this holiday, Hinds teachers will be gathered in Jackson to attend the annual meeting of the Mississippi Educational Association. Other teachers from all over the state will converge on the capital city for the same meet.

In conjunction with the MEA meeting, the Mississippi Association of Colleges will hold their annual gathering in the same city. Miss Mildred Herrin, Hinds registrar, will resume her duties as secretary-treasurer of this organization for the ninth consecutive year. Other Hinds Junior College Teachers will participate in business meetings of a wide variety of groups, committees, and sections of the M.E.A. They will have a part in breakfasts, luncheons, dinners, and general meetings of the Mississippi's state-wide educational organization.

Students and faculty alike will return to the campus on Monday, March 24.

2 STUDENTS WIN BLUE RIBBONS AT LIVESTOCK EXHIBITS IN EDWARDS

Two Hinds Junior College students took first place honors in the baby beef division at the Hinds County Livestock Show at Edwards this week.

David Barton, freshman, and Eugene Osborn, high school senior, won blue ribbons with baby beef calves.

Hinds Junior College's entry of three fat steers received a red ribbon for second place in the show.

MISS MILDRED HERRIN, right, Hinds Junior College registrar, will have plenty of activities next weekend at the 37th annual meeting of the Mississippi Association of Colleges in Jackson. Miss Herrin, who is in her ninth consecutive year as secretary-treasurer of the Mississippi Association of Colleges, is shown planning the convention with Mr. Charles P. Hogarth, president of Mississippi State College for Women.

Industrial Leaders Offer Favorable Comments About Vocational Program

By WAYNE TROTTER

Believe it or not, but Mr. Walter Gibbes and his busy cohorts do more than run around from place to place publicizing something called the vocational department at Hinds Junior College—they actually have a department to run.

And it's a very well run department, too, producing some of the best trained vocational talent in the entire Southland.

In fact, the vocational department of Hinds Junior College turns out such good men that some of the highest authorities in this area have thrown nothing but praise upon the division.

Said one: "Hinds students have good basic training and knowledge. They are skilled in every respect. The technically trained students have a thorough knowledge of automobile mechanics and body and fender work. Men from Hinds have proved to be top-notch mechanics in our department."

Another authority, Mr. John E. Gregg, the executive vice president of Mississippi Manufacturers Association, had this to say concerning Hinds' students: "It has been my privilege to be in contact with technically trained students of Hinds Junior College. Industrialists have the highest praise for the technical program and its employees at Hinds. It's my conclusive opinion that Hinds is contributing a great benefit to industry in this area. The school is also contributing toward the fulfillment of the highly skilled labor force that is so vital and essential to our industrial economy."

Although many influential leaders have expounded the equivalent of reams of paper on the department, no expert can speak louder than success. And the success enjoyed by vocational-technical graduates is outstanding.

MR. WALTER H. GIBBES

Of the large number of students trained by Hinds in the past few years, 80 per cent have secured employment in the Jackson area.

Recently a new course was added to the curriculum at HJC. Spurred on by the American Society of Civil Engineers (Jackson Branch), the division decided to add a course in drafting. This course has proved very popular to the more than one-hundred students now receiving instruction.

MSCW DANCE TEAM TO PERFORM ON HINDS CAMPUS THIS MONTH

The Mississippi State College for Women dancing team will highlight Hinds Junior College's chapel program on the morning of Wednesday, March 26.

This group from MSCW will arrive on the Hinds campus on March 25, and will be overnight guests on the local scene.

While on Hinds campus they will be housed in Westside dormitory.

ONE OF THE MANY vocational courses offered by Hinds Junior College's vocational-technical division is the refrigeration class, shown above. This class and others like it, are helping to supply Mississippi with top-notch technical talent. The vocational department trains over 150 technical students each year and 80 per cent of that group is employed in the Jackson area.

SCALING THE CLEF

Mississippi Stars Rank Very High

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Mississippi is not last in everything

With singers like Cliff Thomas, Lou Ann Pepper, Warner Mack, Andy Anderson of the Rolling Stones, and Elvis Presley being from Mississippi, this state ranks very high in the number of dollars garnered from the sale of popular records. While mentioning E P we might say that all his fans are young people.

In fact there's one lady, aged 70, from somewhere up North who has collected all of Elvis' records, and she just loves the way he sings.

With the Junior College Choral Festival coming up soon on the Hinds campus, it is no wonder that all the choir members are running around singing to themselves.

"Down In The Valley," musical production to be presented on campus April 12, lists the following as the cast: Myrna Loy Stuart as Jenny Parson, Edgar Bates as Brack Weaver, Jimmy Holder as Jenny's father, Jimmy Bishop as Thomas Bouche, Bob Wallace as the Leader, Joe Pace as the Guard, Ranie Beard as Peter. The directors for this show will be Bob Bloodworth and Mary Carolyn Hart. Betty Denton will serve as pianist for the musicale. Make plans now to attend this production.

The Belles, Myra Loy Stuart, Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Gay Moon, and Jo Ann Rhodes, have really been hopping over the scenic routes of Magnolia Land lately. They sang in Jeff Davis community at Warren County Monday night; they ventured up to State College Thursday night for a performance.

Members of the Band and Hi-Steppers may be singing "California, Here I Come", if rumors we have heard come true.

Miss Pennell and Miss McCord must be planning to put Liberace and Brother George out of business. This pair of Hinds music teachers has already given a concert at Corinth, Miss. and will give concerts at Hinds and in Covington, Tenn. The Hinds concert is tomorrow night. Don't miss it.

Last night, the choir presented a program, variety style, at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Jackson. Both the boys' and the girls' ensembles took part in the presentation.

DATES TO REMEMBER:

March 13, Recital by Miss McCord and Miss Pennell

March 27, Mary Carolyn Hart's Recital

March 29, State Junior College Choral Festival

April 10, the Recital of Sidney Comfort and Margarita Morris

April 12, "Down In The Valley".

International Club Re-Elects Hearn To Top Position

Florence Hearn, Redwood sophomore and Miss Hinds Junior College, was re-elected president of the International Relations Club at Hinds this week.

Other officers named were Joe Scarborough, Magee, vice-president; Joanne Carpenter, Forest, secretary-treasurer; James Miller, Anguilla, program chairman; and Jack Hemphill, Braxton, social chairman.

Miss Lula Mae Fowler and Mr. Jobie Harris, social science instructors, are sponsors of the IRC.

HINDS REPRESENTATIVES TO SPEAK AT UTICA SCHOOL CAREER RALLY

Mr. Walter Gibbes, vocational coordinator, and Irl Dean Rhodes of the public relations office will represent Hinds Junior College at the Utica High School Career Day Wednesday, March 19.

Mr. Gibbes will speak to students interested in vocational technical fields and Irl Dean will discuss journalism as a career.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Weather Man Troubles Navy Crew

By JOANNE CARPENTER

All this sun and rain, rain and sun and so forth, reminds us of a little poem that was in the March issue of Reader's Digest. The poem went something like this:

Through poets long have told us brightly,
That spring on dancing feet
comes lightly,
It seems to us she really sloshes
Along in roomy old goloshes.
Weather seems to have come into the satellite picture too. Whether it be excuse or not, the Navy blames its last feeble attempt at Cape Canaveral on bad weather. It seems as though the competitors have dropped from the picture a little too. Maybe the Russians are just busy putting a "modernized sputnik" together.

* * *

The Millsaps situation has made one thing clear. All lecturers these days should have an "okay card" from the local Citizen's Council. Maybe this would save a little confusion, and perhaps, one of the biggest problems the nation has ever faced could stay buried awhile longer.

* * *

It seems that our Honorable Governor intends to remain in politics for quite awhile yet. He has now announced his intentions to run for representative of Choctaw County.

* * *

Just how significant can a business recession be? It seems that this country may have the opportunity to find out. Of course, yours truly has been accused of being a pessimist, but things look a little bumpy from here.

Circle 'K' Club To Provide New Sign On Local Campus

The Circle "K" Club, under the direction of Mr. Jack Treloar, has selected as its chief project for the year to place a sign on the campus front for identification purposes.

Up until a few years ago, Highway 18 was paved only to Utica, and most of the people traveling by the Hinds Junior College campus lived in the vicinity. Thus, an identification sign was not necessary.

But with the paving of the highway to Port Gibson, it became widely used by travelers from Jackson to Port Gibson, many of whom were out-of-staters, and didn't know Hinds Junior College from Utica Institute.

The type of sign to be used has not been definitely decided, but it will be either a steel and wooden industrial one or a neon sign so night-travelers as well will be able to see it.

The sign will be placed between Boteler's service station and the East entrance to the football field.

The committee in charge of the placement of the sign consists of Jimmy Holder, chairman, Ray Tomlinson, and Willie House. They are to work with Bob Wallace, president of the Circle "K", and Ben Morgan, secretary.

The committee plans to have the sign completed by the middle of May.

Jackson Freshman To Serve College Honorary Society

Dick Gabriel of Jackson was elected president of Gamma Lambda chapter of Phi Theta Kappa on Hinds' campus for the 1958-1959 school year. Four other members were named to top positions in the honorary society's election Monday.

These were Faye Rollins, Forest Hill, vice president; Ann Williams, Utica, secretary; Don Patterson, Jackson, treasurer; and Delores Ray, Sharon, reporter.

Gabriel will be the voting delegate and member of the Grand Council at the fraternity's national convention in Brevard, North Carolina, in April.

NEW STRUTTER—Maureen Eichelberger of Morton has returned to Hinds after almost two year's absence. Maureen gained ample attention with her exhibitions of twirling and acrobatics as a strutter in front of the Eagle Band in 1955. She is an added attraction to the group this spring.

Engineering Group's First Year Shows Big Success At Hinds Junior College

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

The Engineering Club, organized this past fall at Hinds Junior College, is made up of about 125 members. Miss Lurline Stewart and Mr. Wallace M. Wall are the sponsors of the club, which is open to membership for engineering students, technical students, science majors, and mathematics majors.

Outstanding speakers in the field of industry and student demonstrators enliven the programs of this club. Trips to nearby spots of interest sometimes take the place of the regular monthly meetings.

For the first meeting of the year, the Engineering Club toured Vickers plant. A speaker from the Mississippi Chemical Company in Yazoo City entertained the group at another meeting.

Last Friday morning at activity period Robert Woodman gave an interesting demonstration and lecture on some of the principles of electricity and magnetism. He first explained the action of a photoelectric cell worked off of light radiation.

The second part of the lecture concerned the principle of the induction coil. He explained the work of the electric light meter, which uses the principle of the induction coil. Robert also explained the principle of the Tesla coil and demonstrated high voltage generation by use of secondary and primary coils.

The third part of the program was on the lighter side. Robert delighted his audience with several ingenuous tricks, such as suspending an aluminum ring in the air and seemingly lighting an electric light bulb with a match.

HI-STEPPER INSTRUCTOR SPEAKS TO MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE ORGANIZATION

Mrs. Alon Bee, Hinds Junior College Hi-Stepper director, spoke to the Mississippi College Tribesman Club last night on modeling.

She discussed the modeling and style show subject in detail, calling upon her experience in this field as reference.

MRS. ALON BEE

PRIZE WINNER—Mr. Jack Treloar, head of the agriculture department at Hinds and in charge of the farm, exhibits one of Hinds Junior College's entrants in the Hinds County Livestock Show at Edwards yesterday. Hinds' group of fat steers received second place.

Poet's Corner

O GLORIOUS DEATH

As I gaze from my window in the chill of a long dreary night, My thoughts like a star-filled sky are flung.

And though the earth is dark and drear, my mind beholds an imperial sight.

There in the dimness of the swamp, I see a land which long has been sung.

Majestic steeples guard its golden streets with care, And the hills about it echo the songs of Angels. Before a high star-studded throne a congregation is knelt in prayer. Their halos have the glitter of a million golden spangles.

Over the place an air of peacefulness reigns.

No hostility abides in that strange oasis.

Large hosts of white clad figures shout and sing but they all look the same.

Then my lowly heart near burst with wonder when I see a glimpse of their faces.

Such a look of contentment makes me gasp in joy, And their happiness thrills my soul. Each has the unadulterated look of a small child with a brand new toy.

No, this story has never, never been told.

Then from the surrounding darkness a trumpet call comes loud and clear,

And a loud and happy shout rides the wind.

There around the curve He comes each step bringing Him near, And each angel and creature before Him do bend.

Out of the darkness and across the murky swamps He glides, Always holding extended and poised his right hand.

On His face is a smile like the happiness of summer skies. And He walks amidst an enormous angelic band.

Onward He comes, never glancing to left or right.

Each step brings Him nearer my land,

Until He stands there before me in the darkness of the night,

And I am clasping His strong and mighty hand.

Shouting and singing, I leave my worn bed, And with Him I start down that long lane.

And as if from a very distant place I seem to hear the Doctor say "He's dead."

Yes, he's dead, but he died with no pain."

Women's Group To Select New Heads Wednesday Night

Mary Tolar, Sandy Hook; and Polly Harrington, Aberdeen; were nominated for the office of president of the campus YWCA, Monday night, at the weekly meeting of the YWCA cabinet.

Other nominations for the 1958-1959 positions made were for vice president: Polly Harrington, Patsy Wade, Pearl; and Mary Tolar; for secretary: Judy Day, Brookhaven; Linnie Parman, Port Gibson; and Jo Anne Carpenter, Forest; for treasurer: Linnie Parman, Myrtle Moore, Calhoun City; and Ella Agnes Grantham, Jackson.

LIBRARIES SET TO CELEBRATE LIBRARY WEEK

Hinds Junior College's library will be among the hundreds of book-lending institutions celebrating National Library Week, March 16-22.

This week, sponsored by the National Book Committee, Inc., in conjunction with the American Library Association, will be designed to promote wider and wiser use of books.

During the observance, civic and social leaders on the community level hope to foster reading in schools, churches, businesses and civic centers.

SARA MARGARET SMITH SERVES AS MAID FOR HINDS LIVESTOCK SHOW

Sara Margaret Smith, Hinds High Senior, was one of the maids at the annual Hinds County Livestock Show that was held in Edwards.

Miss Smith is one of the famed Hi-Steppers at Hinds and has over an eight-year honor record as a 4-H member.

All our teachers seem to be loafing;

They'll be in Jackson next week; So while they're killin' our class-time;

Let's sit around and sleep!

TRACK STAR—Melvin Champagne, one of Hinds' top thinclad performers in the 1957 season, is already preparing for relays and track meets this spring. Champagne, although not officially in track training, is making preparations to break his first place in the State high jump division.

NIX'S . . .

Scrappin's

By CURTIS NIX

With all due respect to Mississippi coaches, referees, sports writers, and athletic administrators, Scrappin's thinks that the present method of choosing high school all-state players is inefficient. By the present means, only players whose teams are good enough to enter the State tournament are chosen. It is only logical that these teams are the best in the state, but all-state players may not necessarily be the cream of the crop.

The preceding statement isn't true in all cases, for many all-state players could not be any more deserving.

We have in mind a more efficient way of selecting all-state team members that will include all possible all-state material. For instance, a certain team is eliminated in the near finals of district or divisional play. This team has a player that is outstanding in every phase and is definitely among the best cagers in the state, and yet because his team was eliminated and could not participate in the state tourney, this player has no chance whatever of being chosen to the all-state squad. The preceding example is only one of many such instances over the state.

All-state basketeers should definitely come from other sources than the state tourney entries.

Virginia Ronken's Squad Grabs 3rd Straight Victory

Ronken's team won their third straight game last Tuesday night when they nipped Harrington's crew 27-24.

The game was another thriller with the score changing hands several times during the game. In the crucial moments Ronken's team got several points in the lead and managed to push over another win.

Florence Hearn, Virginia Ronken, Nancy Pharr, and Regina Godley were standouts for the winners; Sharrott McClurg, Mary Katherine Gates, Iris McKay, and Joanne Carpenter were outstanding players on Harrington's team.

Thursday night Harrington's team won their second game by a landslide. They defeated Taylor's girls by the score of 56-26.

The battle was one-sided all the way with Harrington's girls taking the lead early in the game.

Top players for the losers were Faye Rollins, Anna Summers, and Selma Earnest.

66-55 and the Tornadoes flattened the Raleigh bunch 76-68 to gain top spots in their respective divisions.

Displaying a terrific scoring wallop all season, Philadelphia continued its hot pace in the state tourney by averaging a whopping 93 points per game.

Coffeeville, defending over-all champs, will be out to keep the number one spot. With more height, Coffeeville has the advantage under the baskets, but putting the ball through the hoop is really what counts. With this in mind Scrappin's is picking Philadelphia over Coffeeville in a close contest.

Ingomar's high flying sextette claimants to the B-BB crown in the girls' division, will take the overall championship Saturday night by beating the girlies from Sumrall. Their inconceivable scoring punch and defensive unit combined to put Ingomar past every opponent in 53 tries this season.

This highly-touted six bounced Algoma 45-37 for the championship, this being the eighth time this season Ingomar has beaten Algoma.

Yes, this perfect record should remain intact after the finals.

The Southeastern Conference's "Most Valuable Player," Mississippi State's own Bailey Howell, was recently named to the coveted All-American line-up.

Howell was among the top in every department in playing tabulations. He bucketed 695 points and had a 27.5 average per game. He collected 226 field goals and connected for a .515 percentage in field goal attempts. He scraped off the most rebounds, 406, but was second in rebound average with 16.3 following Tennessee's Tormableen with 16.6. Howell attempted 315 free throws and made good on 243 of them, but was sixth in free throw percentage with a respectable .771.

Congratulations are due Hinds High's ace pivot guard Lou Ann Carter. Lou Ann turned in excellent performances in the South Mississippi and State tournaments as well as regular season play to receive the highest honor that Mississippi can bestow upon native cagers.

* * *

We extend all our sympathy to the Cleveland Indians' "tough luck boy" Herb Score. A speed ball artist, who led the major leagues in strike outs as a rookie two years ago, Score suffered a sprained ankle Saturday at the Indians' training camp in Tucson, Arizona and will be out of action for a couple of weeks. He was working out in the YMCA gymnasium.

Score's big league career was almost ended when he was hit by a line drive off the bat of the Yankee's Gil McDougald last May. The accident cost him the rest of the season and almost cost him half of his eyesight.

Cagers Win 4th In State; Carter Makes All-State

By JAMES CLEVELAND

Hinds High's gallant, but outgunned, girls may not have won the state B-BB basketball championship but nevertheless, they placed Raymond on the basketball map during the '58 season.

The Eaglettes compiled a brilliant 25-5 season record, won the district's No. 2 position, captured runner-up laurels in the South division tournament, stood fourth in the State B-BB tourney, and placed Lou Ann Carter, a fine pivot guard, on the All-State team.

Not only was Lou Ann a miser at awarding enemy baskets, but the scrappy Hinds senior was quite effective as a rebounder and ball hawk as well.

The Eaglettes broke loose a tight ball game with a fourth period spurt to down the Pine Grove sextette in the State tourney opener. Winnie Lou Smith scored a boisterous 32 points and Nancy Chapman netted 19 in the 53-48 win.

Powerful Ingomar, who went on to take the State crown, victimized Hinds in the semi-finals with their 52nd consecutive victory. Chapman topped the outmanned local lassies with a 25 point performance in the 70-51 loss.

Hinds ran out of gas in the second half in the consolation game for third place. Shannon broke away and won 44-35. Smith and Chapman scored 14 and 12 respectively.

It has been a banner season for Coach Boteler's Eaglettes. History has been made. And it has been thrilling history for the Hinds team.

For the first time in history a Hinds High team reached the State tournament.

McKay, Summers, Gates Pace College Badminton Meet

Badminton, single and doubles, goes into its third week of play as Iris McKay, Mary Katherine Gates, and Anna Summers lead in the doubles and singles respectively.

Last Tuesday night Mary Tolar and Virginia Ronken defeated Jimmie Sheppard and Joyce Bethune and Anna Summers defeated Selma Ernest.

Thursday night Iris McKay and Mary Katherine Gates defeated Florence Hearn and Regina Godley; and Mary Tolar and Virginia Ronken defeated Sharrott McClurg and Anna Summers in the double competition. In the only singles game Marilyn Phillips defeated Nancy Pharr.

The double standings are: Iris McKay and Mary Katherine, Nancy Pharr and Reba Gail Pierce, Regina Godley and Florence Hearn, Mary Tolar and Virginia Ronken, Shirley DuBois and Jo Roby, Sharrott McClurg and Anna Summers, and Jimmie Sheppard and Joyce Bethune.

The single standings are: Anna Summers, Selma Ernest, Marilyn Phillips, and Nancy Pharr.

The squad of only seniors has been very successful. Winnie Smith, the diminutive ball hawk, has poured through 661 points this season for an average of 20.6 per game.

Nancy Chapman, pivot ace, pumped in 512 points for 16.5 average.

Other top scorers on the team were Mary Bess Beard with 179 points, Janet Davis 75, Katie Lee Houston 15, Becky Dawson six, and Lynn Pennebaker five.

Lou Ann Carter, Brannon Robbins, and Jimmy Stingley have worked the guard slots.

Although Chapman, Smith, Beard, Stingley, and Carter have been the main stays in many games this season, It was the bench depth that carried the Eaglettes through the South Mississippi tournament.

Brannon Robbins, Becky Dawson, Katie Houston, and Janet Davis were the girls chiefly responsible for the South Mississippi showing. Davis' free shots won the West Lincoln game.

Physical Test To Measure Fitness Of School Group

The Hinds Junior College education majors that are working at the Raymond Consolidated School have begun to give the Kraus-Weber Physical Fitness Test to the elementary children.

Each child at the Raymond Consolidated School will be ranked among fellow students and on the national level. For each of the six tests 10 points are given if the person can do it correctly, five if only half way, and zero if he can not do it at all.

Students giving these tests, under the direction of Mrs. Anne Gookin, women's physical education director at Hinds, are: Dorothy Davis, Maurine Eichelberger, Gayle Lee, Polly Harrington, Reba Gail Pierce, Nancy Pharr, Regina Godley, and Iris McKay.

These tests are also being given to the local college girls.

Net Squad Starts Practice With 12 Tennis Candidates

Four girls and eight boys have reported to the early practice sessions of Hinds Junior College's tennis team.

Girls striving for positions on the team include Mary Kathryn Gates, Maureen Eichelberger, Regina Godley and Nancy Pharr.

Boys interested in tennis are Kerry Irwin, Bob Wallace, Bill Thomas, Doug Barnes, Willard Bond, Gerald Miles, Buddy Howard, and Bobby Sheffield.

Any student interested in the sport should contact Mr. W. C. sport should contact Mr. W. G. Oakes.

necessarily be the cream of the crop.

The preceding statement isn't true in all cases, for many all-state players could not be any more deserving.

We have in mind a more efficient way of selecting all-state team members that will include all possible all-state material. For instance, a certain team is eliminated in the near finals of district or divisional play. This team has a player that is outstanding in every phase and is definitely among the best cagers in the state, and yet because his team was eliminated and could not participate in the state tourney, this player has no chance whatever of being chosen to the all-state squad. The preceding example is only one of many such instances over the state.

All-state basketeers should definitely come from other sources than the state tourney entries.

Virginia Ronken's Squad Grabs 3rd Straight Victory

Ronken's team won their third straight game last Tuesday night when they nipped Harrington's crew 27-24.

The game was another thriller with the score changing hands several times during the game. In the crucial moments Ronken's team got several points in the lead and managed to push over another win.

Florence Hearn, Virginia Ronken, Nancy Pharr, and Regina Godley were standouts for the winners; Sharrott McClurg, Mary Katherine Gates, Iris McKay, and Joanne Carpenter were outstanding players on Harrington's team.

Thursday night Harrington's team won their second game by a landslide. They defeated Taylor's girls by the score of 56-26.

Hinds To Host State Junior College Choral Festival

Variety Concert On Agenda At 8 Saturday Night

The Mississippi Junior College Choral Festival will sound off right after registration at 8:30 on Festival Day, March 29.

At 8:45, all the choir members will assemble in the college auditorium; those who will sing during the morning session will assemble in their robes.

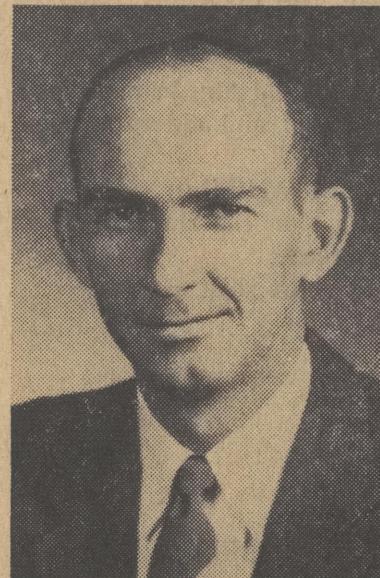

The first concert, to be presented by Northwest Junior College, is set to begin at 9:00. Various other choirs will follow Northwest at fifteen minute intervals until 10:30, when the first rehearsal of the massed choir will be held. Lunch at 12 o'clock will follow this rehearsal.

At 12:45, the choirs will assemble again, those who are to sing in the afternoon will assemble in robes.

Hinds is slated to be the first choir of the afternoon, performing at 1:00. The forty-three member Hinds group will present, under the direction of Mr. Leslie Reeves, the following songs: "The Creation" by Richter, "The Cloud-Cap'd Towers" by Williams, and "Wagon Wheels" by Rose.

The massed choir will rehearse again at 2:15.

The variety concert will begin at 8 o'clock and will be followed directly by the concert of the massed choir which will be directed by Dr. Gene Hemmle. The Hinds Girls' Ensemble will take part in the variety concert, and the whole choir will be a part of the massed choir.

CHORAL BIGWIGS — Dr. Gene L. Hemmle (left), head of the music department at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Tex., will be the guest director for State Junior College Choral Festival to be held on the campus of Hinds Junior College Saturday. Mr. Leslie Reeves, (right) chairman of Hinds' music department, is in charge of the statewide junior college choral program.

English Instructors Attend Confab On Composition, Communication In North

Mrs. J. R. Harris, chairman of the English Department, and Miss Bell Lindsey, teacher of freshman composition and shop English at the vocational-technical school, will attend the Conference on College Composition and Communication meeting in Philadelphia, Penn. tomorrow, Friday, and Saturday.

Presiding at general meetings will be Robert E. Tuttle of General Motors Institute, and Glenn Leggett, University of Washington.

Pearl Buck is to be the speaker at the annual luncheon Saturday.

Mrs. Harris is to participate in workshops on the topics, "Special Problems of the Course in Junior Colleges," "The Course Syllabus: Preparation, Content, Use," and "Articulation of Secondary School and College."

Miss Lindsey plans to join the workshop groups that will study "Theme Reading and Grading," "Teaching Students to Write for Business and Industry," and "Use of the Individual Conference."

TO HOST CHORAL—Hinds Junior College's choir, under the direction of Leslie Reeves, will be host to the State Junior College Choral Festival Saturday. Members of the group are, front row, Sidney Comfort, Lou Ann Bradshaw, Mary Tolar, Sara Margaret Smith, Sharrott McClurg, Myrna Loy Stuart, Betty Denton, Mary Carolyn Hart, Jean Searcy, Margarita Morris; second row, Virginia Ronken, Donna Musil, Carol Jean Benton, Laura

Dr. Gene Hemmle To Be Festival's Guest Director

The State Junior College Choral Festival will be held on the campus of Hinds Junior College Saturday.

Choirs and choral groups from all 12 of the state's junior colleges will be represented at the festival. Musicians from Itawamba, Northeast, East Central, Copiah-Lincoln, Pearl River, Perkinston, Hinds, Southwest, East Mississippi, Sunflower, and Holmes will participate in the day's activities.

Hemmle To Direct

Guest director for the festival will be Dr. Gene L. Hemmle, head of the music department at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas. J. Leslie Reeves, chairman of Hinds' music department, is in charge of the statewide junior college choral program.

A graduate of Arlington High School, Arlington, Texas, Dr. Hemmle received his Bachelor of Music degree from Southern Methodist University and his Master's and Doctor's of Education degrees from Columbia University. He sang with the Robert Shaw Chorale in 1945-46.

Dr. Hemmle has served in teaching posts at the Institution of Normal Methods, Boston, Mass., and Stanford University. He has directed state high school choral festivals in Texas, Colorado, Indiana, Tennessee, and Mississippi. He will direct the District Six High School Festival in Vicksburg this spring.

Rehearsal Activity

Delegations will assemble on the Hinds campus at 8:30 a.m. Saturday for registration. Rehearsal activity will begin at 9. The public is invited to attend any of the activities of the day and especially the concert at 8 p.m. which will climax the day's program.

Each junior college choir will present a 15-minute program during the day.

The concert program includes:
Let Not Your Song End—Pullet Cain.

Dream—Mercer-Ades.

Matona, Lovely Maiden—Lassus.
De Blin' Man Stood On De Road
An' Cried—Burleigh-Vene.

Hallelujah (from "Hit the Dock") —Youmans—Lawrence.

He, Watching Over Israel (from "Elijah")—Mendelssohn.

VICKSBURG FRESHMAN TAKES THIRD PLACE AT SPEECH MEETING

Jimmy Morris, freshman from Vicksburg, took third place honors in the Mississippi Oratorical Society's annual speech contest held in Jackson last Thursday.

The event, the second for Mr. Morris in less than a month, was held at the Robert E. Lee Hotel.

Campus Big Wheels Garner Ballad

A few weeks ago the editors of The Student Printz, Mississippi Southern student publication, penned a nonsensical, but cute, little speck of poetry on the status of the BMOC—Big Man On Campus.

While Southern may do very well with its big men, we here at Hinds are very abundantly blessed with the same character under a different name. Our version likes to call himself the "big wheel."

If the Southerners will pardon us, we'd like to make our own observations on the life of a big wheel, and add a few comments on his usual fate.

THE BALLAD OF A BIG WHEEL

When the wind flows free and doth blow the leaves,
And the snowflakes linger on the breeze;
And some Joe struts 'round in his short shirt sleeves,
We've found a Big Wheel in town.

When the campus lovelies need a ride,
To the bus station at Christmastide;
Guess who in his big Cad up does glide,
To prove He's the Biggest around.

When you see him struttin' through the grill,
With his pants-legs up and his pockets filled;
With a deck of cards and his dollar bills,
He knows Bigger Ones can't be found.

But the time has come for the reck'nin' day;
The semester tests have wound their way;
And when the ink has dried to stay,
Our Big Wheel can't be found.

For he's learned his lesson in grand accord;
All those classes skipped, all those nights he snored,
Will reduce his Caddy to a Ford;
When the final records sound.

Welcome Music Scholars, Directors

This Saturday, March 29, Hinds Junior College will let the gate down again and will be immediately besieged by all manner of musically-minded spirits—all of them nice.

For this is the date that the Junior Colleges of Mississippi have picked to stage their annual choral festival and the site at which they picked to hold it is Hinds Junior College.

Directing the program, as guest director, will be Dr. Gene L. Hemmle, Texas Tech's music department's head. Mississippi Junior Colleges are to be counted most fortunate for landing such a fine musical personality. Dr. Hemmle comes to Hinds with a wide background in choral direction, including state festivals in Texas, Colorado, Indiana, Tennessee, and our native Mississippi.

Our own J. Leslie Reeves will serve as overall chairman for the event.

We'd like to grasp this opportunity to welcome everyone to this festival; it's a great pleasure to have you.

AROUND THE CIRCUIT

French Amazed At American Girls

By CAROLYN BARTON

Something for the record: An Antioch college coed told the Record that during her six-months visit to France she surprised the French by working while being a student (and an American at that!) "I'm afraid I shook up some local housewives," the coed said. "They were amazed that an American girl knew how to wash clothes on a board."

CAROLYN

Those who say their goodnights in the women's dormitory at South Dakota State College will no longer have any trouble knowing when it's time to leave. The house mother, wondering why the fellows didn't go when the lights went out, took a survey one night and learned that everyone's eyes were shut so they could hardly tell when the room was darkened. Now she rings a little dinner bell at the evening's close.

For all daydreamers in the cafeteria line: From the University of Minnesota's Ivory Tower comes the story of the shattering of the formal atmosphere of the faculty dining club. Prof. X took his tray with his day's fare of chow mein, water, and coffee and walked to the sugar and cream table. He picked up the cream and poured a long

When Marilyn graduated from Carthage High School in 1956, she left behind a high academic record that she will long be remembered by. Included in this was active membership in the Future Home-makers of America club and the Y-Teens.

At Hinds, her freshman year included such activities as being a member of Wesley, WAA, being a member of the Hindsonian staff, and working in the cafeteria. As a sophomore, Marilyn is still an active member of the WAA and Wesley, as well as being the secretary of the FBLA, doing part-time work for Miss Belle Lindsey, and being feature editor of the Hindsonian.

This attractive, brown-eyed brunette is so busy that she doesn't have a lot of spare time to spend on hobbies, but the extra time she does have, she spends writing letters, reading, and talking to . . . well, you probably know already!

Marilyn's future plans may include furthering her studies in business at Delta State, but we know that whatever she decides to do she will be a success.

Good luck, Marilyn Phillips, for a happy and successful future to a truly deserving sophomore.

The lonely hours, the brooding worry;
The thousands and thousands of things

And to live the best way we can.

Jackson Student To Present Voice Recital Thursday

Miss Mary Carolyn Hart, Hinds Junior College soprano, will present her sophomore voice recital Thursday, March 27, at 8 p.m.

Miss Hart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll B. Hart of 1236 North Congress St., Jackson, formerly from Brookhaven.

Graduating from Brookhaven High School in 1956, Mary Carolyn attended Louisiana State University where she began her major in voice. She transferred to Hinds this year and became a member of the choir, ensemble, Women's Athletic Association, and director of the Children's Choir at the Raymond Methodist Church.

The recital will consist of selections from the early Italian period, French Art Songs, Mountain Ballads, Selections by American Composers, and the Aris, "Ah, fors' Lui," "Sempre Lebra," and "Addio, del Passato" from Verdi's Opera, La Traviata.

UNIVERSITY'S DIRECTOR OF NURSING TO BE AT HINDS TOMORROW

Miss Christine Oglevee, Director of Nursing at the University of Mississippi's School of Nursing will be in the conference room of Hinds Junior College's administration building tomorrow morning in order to speak to anyone interested in any phase of medicine.

She will arrive at 10 and will meet interested students for about an hour.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Thousands Over Nation Await Spring

By JOANNE CARPENTER

The merry sun brought spring dancing last Friday here in our own state, but states along the eastern seaboard were not quite so fortunate. A blustering storm piled 36 inches of snow on Pennsylvania, Virginia, Washington, and adjoining states.

Telephone lines fell, train and plane schedules were tangled, and 40 or more people were killed. So thousands still hopefully watch for spring to come lifting around the corner.

Faculty Members, Students Appear For Utica Group

Mr. Walter Gibbes, Hinds vocational-coordinator, headed up a six-man Hinds delegation to Utica High School's Career Day held last Wednesday in the Southwest Hinds County town.

Irl Dean Rhodes of the Public Relations Office and Mr. L. K. Clark, head of the business department, along with students Dot Ann Pickett, James Brodrick, and Alma Lee Grantham, also made the trip.

Mr. Gibbes addressed the student body in assembly and the remaining Hinds staffers conducted workshops for the benefit of the senior class at Utica.

Senior Production Earns Top Score Mark By Students

The senior class of Hinds High School presented its annual play Tuesday night, March 18, in the college auditorium.

The play was entitled, "Judy Pulls the Curtain."

From the comments heard after the play, it could be termed a resounding success. The profits from the play went into the fund for the senior class trip. After the play the members of the cast and the directors and others connected with the play attended a party which was held at the college lodge.

The senior class acknowledges the support given the play by students of Hinds Junior College, the families of the Hinds High students, and the many friends of Hinds High School.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION SPRING BANQUET SET FOR APRIL 11 AT LODGE

The Baptist Student Union of Hinds Junior College will have its spring banquet on Friday, April 11, at 8 p.m., at the Raymond Lodge.

Local Girls Take Part In Training At State Confab

Ten young ladies from Hinds Junior College will serve in positions of training at the Mississippi Conference of Social Work, scheduled for March 26 and 27 in Jackson.

Serving as group hostesses, pages, and door-keepers, the local girls will hear speakers from all parts of the nation.

Making the trip will be Mary Tolar, Linda Jones, Nancy Turnage, Joanne Carpenter, Selma Earnest, Jean Benton, Faye Rollins, Delores Ray, Ann Williams, and Sarah Selma.

State Conference Group To Meet At Roosevelt Park

The Young Women's Christian Association, Young Men's Christian Association, and Student Christian Association Conference will be held at Roosevelt Lake, near Morton, on March 28, 29, and 30.

The old cabinet members from the Hinds Junior College club who will attend the conference are Regina Godley, Vicksburg, president; Polly Harrington, Aberdeen, vice president. Other delegates who plan to attend this conference are Judy Day, Brookhaven; Mary Tolar, Sandy Hook; and Barbara Clifford, Morton.

The Hinds delegates will be in charge of the registration, which will begin at 3 p.m. Friday.

Mr. Aubrey K. Lucas, former reading instructor at Hinds Junior College, will be in charge of the recreation at the convention. He received his B.A. degree from Mississippi Southern College, where he is now director of admissions and an instructor in psychology.

SENIOR GROUP TO LEAVE FOR TRIP ON MAY 2

The senior class of '58 will embark on its senior trip to Florida May 2. The first stop on the agenda will be Tallahassee. Here the seniors will visit Wakulla Springs and the Florida State Circus.

On Sunday, the group will attend church in Panama City. Deep sea fishing is anticipated for Monday. On Tuesday, the seniors will be shown around the Eglin Air Force Base.

The group will invade Pensacola and inspect the county unit school system on Wednesday. Later, they will visit the Carter Craft Boat Company. The following day, Pappy Hollowell and his company will demonstrate the art of water skiing; then the seniors plan to try their hands at skiing.

On Friday, May 9, the senior class will head for home.

MRS. GENEVA REEVES

Voice Instructor Flies To Arkansas For Special Show

Mrs. Geneva Reeves of the voice department left today for Texarkana, Arkansas, where she will be guest soloist at the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Reeves will sing the solos in the Easter cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ" by Dubois.

She will make the trip by air, and return to the campus Thursday morning.

Mr. Dwight Phillips, minister of music of First Baptist, secured the services of Mrs. Reeves. He is her former classmate at the Fort Worth, Texas, Seminary.

College Freshman To Direct YWCA '58-59 Activities

Mary Tolar, Sandy Hook, freshman at Hinds Junior College, was elected president of the Young Women's Christian Association for the 1958-59 session last Monday night.

Polly Harrington, Aberdeen, was re-elected to the position of vice president and program chairman.

Other officers chosen in the student election are Joanne Carpenter, Forest, secretary; and Myrtie Moore, Calhoun City, treasurer.

The installation service for the new officers will be held following the state convention.

Outgoing officers are Regina Godley, Vicksburg, president; Virginia Ronken, Jackson, secretary; and Florence Hearn, Redwood, treasurer.

These and other campus delegates plan to attend the convention scheduled at Roosevelt State Park this weekend.

MSCW DANCING TEAM PERFORMS FOR HINDS CHAPEL THIS MORNING

The Mississippi State College for Women's dancing team performed before the students of Hinds Junior College in assembly this morning.

The group arrived on the local campus on March 25 and stayed overnight in Westside Dormitory.

High School Seniors Visit Campus For Annual 'Commerce Day' Program

High school seniors from all areas of this section of Mississippi toured the Hinds Junior College campus yesterday in observance of the institution's annual "Commerce Day."

During the event, which was sponsored by the Hinds chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America, the visitors toured the Hinds campus and were shown the advantages of an education here.

Featured in the day's agenda was the showing of business machines by Jackson companies. Representatives from several firms were on hand to display their latest wares.

The students from the neighboring schools were greeted upon their arrival with an address by Mr. G. M. McLendon, Hinds' president.

After the greeting, the visitors were shown around the campus by FBLA members and were fed in the local cafeteria.

Before returning home, the groups toured the various displays that were set up in the Academic Building.

Mrs. Neva Spraberry and Mrs. Maybelle Furness are the sponsors of the FBLA.

"Hear dem Bells?"

It seems as if a lot of people have been hearin' dem Belles, Hinds Junior College girls vocal group. This versatile foursome, Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Myrna Loy Stuart, Gay Moon, and Jo Ann Rhodes, has performed for the Bobby Peters Orchestra, First Baptist Church, Miss. State College, Jackson Rotary Club, and other groups lately.

BUDDY

The girls are looking forward to the upcoming final audition for the Arthur Godfrey "Talent Show".

Mary Carolyn Hart, voice major, was awarded a full scholarship to Mary Hardin Baylor College, Belton, Texas. During the holidays, Mary Carolyn, Mr. and Mrs. Reeves of the voice department at Hinds, Bob Wallace, and Sharrott McClurg, Mary Carolyn's roommate, ventured down into the land of tall tales and ten gallon hats so that Mary Carolyn could audition for J. Campbell Wray, assistant professor of Music at Mary Hardin Baylor.

We wonder if Mary Carolyn had to sing "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You" to win that scholarship?

Congratulations, Mary Carolyn Hart, on becoming a singing Texan!

STATE DEAN TO MEET STUDENTS INTERESTED IN ATTENDING SCHOOL

Dean Harry C. Simrall, head of the school of engineering at Mississippi State College will be on the Hinds campus on Wednesday, April 2, in the conference room to speak to any students interested in completing their education at Mississippi State.

Dean Simrall will talk to anyone who is thinking of furthering his education, no matter what his major may be.

Webb, one of Clinton's flowers, graces the Mississippi Gulf Coast ad. With Sara there in the magazine big as life (well, not quite as big) people will probably come rushing to the Gulf Coast.

TROTTER'S STABLES*Profits, Sales, Layoffs Look Bad

By WAYNE TROTTER

"Yip yip yip yip yip yip . . . BOOM BOOM BOOM BOOM . . . Get a Job!"

The rapidity with which the American economy is treading the road to depression is alarming. Each and every hour that passes brings new reports of falling profits, low sales, and more lay-offs. The government of our great nation is considering several "anti-recession" moves to combat this, the strange recession during which the cost-of-living index never ceases its steady rise — the time in which the individual dollar, which is being distributed in smaller quantities than before, is taking its holders, who are fewer in number than before, a shorter distance down the road to purchases than before.

The hardest hit industries during the current decline have been those firms that specialize in essential items.

The automobile business, perhaps the best example that we can name, is suffering tremendous losses over last year. Chrysler Corporation, whose "Forward Look" campaign brought a dying venture back to life, is selling cars at roughly half the rate of their banner year, 1957. Profits from '58 Chrysler sales are nil; in fact, the smallest of the "big three" may wind up the first quarter of the year in the red.

The other two major manufacturers, General Motors and Ford, are fairing somewhat better than Chrysler, but still are not sitting on a bed of roses. The flag-bearer of the GM line, Chevrolet, is the only auto made by a big three firm that is running close to its '57 pace.

Studebaker-Packard have come up with their usual bleak report, but American Motors, pushed by the economical Rambler (the only car that A. M. is now making en masse), has almost doubled last

DEAN M. F. HERRING'S DAUGHTER WINS HINDS COUNTY SPELLING BEE

Judy Herring, daughter of Mr. M. F. Herring, Hinds dean of instruction, has taken top honors at the Hinds County Spelling Bee held at Van Winkle School last week.

Miss Herring will now proceed to the tri-state meet to be held later this month in Memphis.

The son of Mr. C. C. Magers, Van, also participated in the event.

year's sale rate.

* * *

The more than five million persons who are out of work due to the economy's recessionary tendencies may be comforted to know that supposedly we are blessed with several "built in" depression fighters:

The government puts more out for crops that will not sell.

Unemployment checks help fill the holes in the unemployed's pockets.

Credit becomes easier to obtain as fewer people desire it.

The government puts more out than it takes in, thus putting more money into circulation but doing so at the price of a larger national debt.

* * *

What specific steps can the government take to combat recession?

Well the first thing that most people will say, and the first thing that the administration is willing to try, is a tax cut.

However, there are many other weapons of governmental use that can swing the pendulum of economy back to the happy side. The expenditures of the gents in Washington will be scheduled so that the wealth will be spread around. The government could launch a huge program of public works — there are always roads to be paved and buildings to be built, streets to be cleaned and trash to be burned.

* * *

Most economists look for our nation to experience a quick snap-back from its monetary ills, but it is our considered opinion that a tax-cut won't do it. It could be that we're wrong, but we think that the temporary relief offered by this method won't nearly counter-balance the permanent harm done to that impossible figure — the national debt.

About the job, the Silhouettes shouldn't feel bad — we couldn't find one either.

Volleyball Classic To Pit Battle Of All-Stars In Game

The all star volleyball game will be played tomorrow night at 6 p.m. between the girls dormitories.

The team from each dormitory was chosen from the girls that participated in the volleyball league.

The all stars from Main are Faye Rollins — captain, Virginia Ronken, Selma Earnest, Dot Ann Pickett, Ann Williams, Jo Roby, Joanne Carpenter, Jan Geddie, and Irvita Kelly.

Members of the Westside all stars include Florence Hearn, captain, Regina Godley, Sharrott McClurg, Dott Grimes, Anna Summers, Iris McKay, Roxie Easley, Polly Harrington, and Maureen Eichelberger.

This will be the final game of the season. The badminton tournament will continue for at least two more weeks.

An archery tournament will begin as soon as the playing ground is dry enough.

Ronken's Unbeaten Bombers Rack Up 5th Volleyball Win

Virginia Ronken's volleyball aces captured their fourth and fifth victories of the season last week.

The undefeated bombers chilled Harrington's crew 42-31 and knocked off Taylor's team 37-30.

The members of the banner winners are Florence Hearn, Regina Godley, Lillie Meadows, Virginia Vaughn, Marilyn Phillips, Dot Ann Pickett, Peggy Fugate, Nancy Pharr, Sidney Comfort, and captain, Virginia Ronken.

Tuesday night Harrington's second place girls edged Taylor's team 32-31 in a real thriller.

The league standings:

|                   |     |
|-------------------|-----|
| Ronken's team     | 5 0 |
| Harrington's team | 4 2 |
| Taylor's team     | 1 6 |

The beginners' drawings are Ann Williams vs. winner of Sidney Comfort vs. Joyce Bethune, Shirley Gardner vs. Mary Nell McGowen, Joanne Rhodes vs. winner of Shirley Gardner and Mary Nell McGowen, Shirley Ferguson vs. winner of Jo Anne Rhodes vs. Shirley Gardner vs. Mary Nell McGowen, Faye Rollins vs. Ruth Campbell, Nancy Lee vs. Polly Harrington, Dorothy Butler vs. Reba Gail Pierce, Janyce Wisniewski vs. Linnie Parmar, Iris McKay and Gina Godley and Jean Gill.

The losers' brackets will be posted at a later date.

SPORTS LANGUAGE GETS MORE WORDS TO READER

Many terms drawn from sports have entered into our speech and become so common that one is not always aware of their origin. From cockfighting come well-heeled, crestfallen, yellow-streak, and show the white feather. From archery, to hit the bull's eye, second string, and many other terms. From billiards, behind the eight ball. From boxing, to throw in the towel, hitting below the belt, and so on. From horseracing, to have the whip hand, the inside track, neck and neck, dark horse, and so on. From baseball, to throw a curve, to catch off base, windup, two strikes against him, etc. Thousands of words have come into the language from sports, and where they have come naturally and filled a need, they have enriched our speech.

LONELINESS

By BILL MOORE &

JEANNINE McGuIRE

Loneliness is an all encompassing thing.

Its blueness settles over you
Like shadows covering the night,
Like the tide creeping in at dark,
And the lonely sound of surf
Pounding shore.

The feeling of a deep dark forest,
Of a flute heard far away,
Of a steady crescendo which suddenly
Bursts into a slow melodic line,

Of a happiness you don't deserve.

The understanding smile of a friend,
The hollow laughter of an idiot,
A black, starless and still night,
Trees etched on a gray morning sky,

Sadness which clutches you tightly,
A catch in your throat,
A tightness in your breast.
Your fight, you protest—in vain—
Sadness, blue, blinding — inescapable.

NIX'S SCRAPIN'*Oakes Provides Hinds' Recreation

By CURTIS NIX

Every weekend Mr. William C. Oakes, recreational director of Hinds, provides means of recreation for campus students.

Friday night activities for student participation include ping pong, volleyball, basketball, badminton, square dancing, and others. On Saturday nights Mr. Oakes usually takes a bus load of students to Jackson to the movies.

CURTIS

A graduate of Mississippi Southern who has been making good use of his recreational leadership major here at Hinds for several years, he does a swell job of seeing that these activities are well organized and, at times, takes part himself.

These activities bring the students into good fellowship and make lasting friendships.

Scrapin's sends its regards and sympathy to the citizens of Philadelphia concerning the fire that destroyed the high school there Saturday.

Incidentally, the huge trophy received for winning the state championship was saved.

As Scrapin's predicted in the last edition of the Hindsonian, the Ingomar lassies tripped Sumrall, and Philadelphia edged Coffeeville in a close contest to take the state over-all titles.

Ingomar captured its 54th win without a loss this season, while Coffeeville dropped its first in 50 starts.

Brains or Brawn — Which Is*More Handy?

Ever hear someone say, "Football players are naturally dumb?"

At one time in the history of the pigskin that theory was supported, but modern football is just the reverse. It takes brains to play the game today. By that we don't mean a person has to have an IQ of 130, but certainly average intelligence.

Now we approach the question that has been "kicked about" in conversational circles for many years: "Which is better? — a slow big man or a fast little man?"

Today, with the signals, call blocks, splits, checkoffs, etc., the thinking man is the only one who can fill the bill. As to the much debated question "Which has to be the smarter—linemen or backs" no one can say. A lineman has to figure out which way to block an opponent, and the back has to read the lineman's mind.

Many of you may have heard the tale of the football player who honestly didn't have all that was coming to him.

A broad hunk of the best football material in the country, he was the star of the team. But in his condition, he had troubles—grades.

His coach went to the professor of English and asked him to pass the player. He told the professor that if the star failed, he would be ineligible, the team would be a flop, the crowds would drop off, hence the money would not be there, etc.

After much debating and discussion the two finally reached an agreement. The professor said, "All right, if he can spell one letter out of one word correctly, I'll pass him."

MR. BILL OAKES

The player was brought into the English office, and the professor said, "Spell coffee." The burly broad-shouldered star bellowed, "K-A-U-P-H-Y — coffee!"

Be sure to be watching again next week, folks, when Station NIX brings you Scrapin's, the stories behind the stories.

Gray Sparks Eags With Year's Cage Scoring Records

Diminutive Eagle playmaker, Johnny Gray, recently chosen All-State, emerged with high point average honors for the 1957-58 season with an excellent 18.6 per game showing, nosing out center Bill Castilaw with an 18.1 point average.

Gray attempted the most field goals, 428, dumping in 157 of them, but his point total of 391 was second to that of Castilaw who gathered in a total of 398. Castilaw collected 145 field goals, but sacked 108 charity tosses to 77 for Gray.

On the defensive, Castilaw scraped off the most rebounds, topping Larry Pennington's 220 total, and an average of 10 per game with 330 and a 15 per game average. Gerald Lee pulled down 136, and Carl Harris and Gray mustered 88 and 64 to round out the first five. In reserve Tommy Thompson, Bucky Whiffen, and C. T. Thornton were outstanding rebounders.

Pennington finished with a respectable 14.9 point average; Harris had a 12.7 average, and Lee 7.9.

Following Castilaw and Gray in total points were Pennington with 327, Harris 241, Lee 174, Thompson 83, Don Johns 49, Whiffen 38, John Shirley 20, and Thornton 19.

College Thinclad Squad Prepares For 1st Meet

Three seasoned returnees, Melvin Champagne, Levi Barber, and Tommy Lynch, head the list of nineteen prospective cindermen now in training for Hinds first track meet of the season, set tentatively for next week.

In addition to the returning trio, Robert Pullen, Ed Hendry, Curtis Nix, Lamar Gates, Charles Phillips, Kenneth Guilbeaux, Gerald Lee, Jim Simmons, Richard Hecox, Donald Oakes, Morris Ward, M. J. Harrison, Ronald Melancon, John Daniel, Miles Goode, and Willie Worrel are on the squad recently released by track coach Frank Young.

The team will complete with other junior colleges from Mississippi to be held at Hinds on May 3.

HINDS JUNIOR COLLEGE'S ALL-TIME TRACK TEAM

These are the best records that could be found from the files of Hinds Junior College on track performances. Only records that are in print have been used to make up this all time track team.

This, by no means, is the best that Hinds Junior College thinclad participants have accomplished in all track meets, but it is the best that can be found on record.

Gates And McKay Ride Out Front In Badminton Action

Mary Katherine Gates and Iris McKay are still atop the badminton league in the double action.

Regina Godley and Florence Hearn are in second place in doubles.

In the singles action Anna Summers remains at the top. Faye Rollins is in second place.

Last week Florence Hearn and Regina Godley defeated Mary Tolar and Virginia Ronken; and Iris McKay and Mary Katherine defeated Sharrott McClurg in the doubles contest.

Faye Rollins defeated Selma Ernest in the singles competition.

The standings in doubles are Iris McKay and Mary Katherine Gates, Regina Godley and Florence Hearn, Mary Tolar and Virginia Ronken, Sharrott McClurg and Anna Summers, Marilyn Phillips and Linda Jones, Nancy Pharr and Reba Gail Pierce, Shirley DuBoise and Jo Roby, and Joyce Bethune.

Single standings are Anna Summers, Faye Rollins, Marilyn Phillips, Nancy Pharr, and Selma Ernest.

STATE CHAIRMAN — Coach Louis Boteler of the Hinds High School was named state chairman of the All-Star basketball game last weekend at the coaches meeting in Jackson to be played at the Jackson City Auditorium on August 8.

Easter Season Brings Joy, Thought

"When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it."

Next Sunday the Christian world will celebrate the greatest holiday known to mankind—Easter.

Easter is the most appropriately celebrated of all modern holidays. The evils that sometimes overtake and ruin a holiday have never been introduced into the Easter picture—few big drunks are thrown; nothing is too over-commercialized; and little emphasis is placed on over-decoration.

It has often been said that the human race is guilty of "crucifying Jesus anew" at every daily turn. Can it be that we are much more guilty of following the example of Pilate in regard to our thoughts and actions toward Christ? Do we stand by and watch others hinder the work, mutilate the spirit, and, in reality, do our crucifying for us?

When we stand contentedly and let others take the Lord's name in vain, we have become as Pilate.

When we, knowing full-well that a friend is unsaved, raise not one finger in behalf of his salvation, we have become as Pilate.

The Easter season is upon us, let's celebrate it in the best way — the way that is better than our former method.

Male Candidates Need To Get On Ball

Run for your lives, fellow men, the dam is breaking fast!

Yes, the five bachelors upon whom we have come to depend have turned on us; that quintet of minds supposedly composed of unbreakable rock has broken; those ten eyes that we thought could be counted on to look the other way have failed to look — in short, our unmarried instructors have started to turn on us.

When Mr. Fortenberry first began to get a little whoozy, we attributed it to spring, good feelings, and too much television, but now we know the horrid truth, for Mr. Fred Brooks has crossed the bridge.

Yep, our trusted speech teacher has finally broken. His mind has begun to run in the ditch of feminine propaganda — you know, home-cooking, contentment, and all that other bosh.

You other bachelor-teachers had better move fast in order to head Mr. Fred off before he reaches the altar. If he marries, there will be only four of you left.

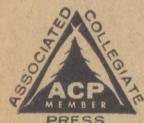

We all know the old saying about what happens "When the supply gets down to four . . ."

Faculty Show To Be Entertaining

There's gonna be a "hot time in the old town" next Tuesday night when all our friends and foes on the faculty staff gather in the auditorium in order to furnish us students with about a hour of good, solid, old fashioned entertainment. They're puttin' on a talent show.

Top rated performers on the agenda include Coach Joe Renfroe, dancer deluxe; Mr. A. L. Denton, harpist el magnifique; Mr. Warren Fortenberry, artist de ballet, and Miss Genievive Williams, opera singer from back yonder.

So let's all go to the talent show; we'll be there, will you?

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

College Honoree Praises Hinds, Boys; Plans To Attend Southern College

By WILLIE RUFF

Lillie Meadows, this week's Sophomore of the Week, says that as far as she is concerned, Hinds is the only junior college in the state of Mississippi. By her participation in school activities most people believe she really means it.

Lillie, a brown-haired, brown-eyed, 5'6", 125 pound business major from Magee, Miss., plans to attend Mississippi Southern after graduating from Hinds. After she graduates from Southern, Lillie hopes to work for a while then marry and keep house for her husband.

LILLIE MEADOWS

Lillie enjoys writing letters, listening to the radio or to a record by Nat King Cole, riding horses, and going to the movies. Her favorite foods include shrimp, ham, and coconut cake.

Lillie had this to say about boys, "Boys are the best things that happened to this good old world." Who knows? Maybe she's right.

As a freshman, Lillie was a member of Westminster Fellowship, WAA and vice-president of FBLA.

This year she is president of Westminster Fellowship, a member of WAA and vice-president of FBLA. In addition to this, Lillie carries on some extra activities in WAA at night.

Before coming to Hinds, Lillie attended Canton High School, Carthage High School, and Batesville High School from which she graduated in 1956 with honors. Although Lillie did a lot of moving, she was still able to be on the annual staff and participate in F.H.A. and Y-Teens.

The Hindsonian would like to take this opportunity to extend to you, Lillie Meadows, its sincere wishes for a bright and happy future. Congratulations on being picked as this week's Sophomore of the Week!

Southern Prints Large Paper

By CAROLYN BARTON

The Student Printz, Mississippi Southern newspaper, has recently set a new record. The paper printed its first 16 page edition last week. The publication says it remains the "Pace-maker of Southern Journalism."

CAROLYN The Canton High School newspaper gave ten things we should take time for. These are:

1. Take time to worship—it is the highway of reverence which cleanses and restores the soul.

2. Take time to work—it is the price of success.

3. Take time to think—it is the source of power.

4. Take time to read—it is the foundation of knowledge.

5. Take time to help and enjoy friends—it is the source of happiness.

6. Take time to play—it is the secret of youth.

7. Take time to love—it is the one sacrament.

8. Take time to dream—it hitches the soul to the stars.

9. Take time to laugh—it is the singing that helps with life's loans.

10. Take time to plan—it is the secret of being able to have time to take time for the first nine things.

started a series of ads in college newspapers to keep Mississippi students in Mississippi. We think this is a very good idea.

Poet's Corner

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

How spiffy, how spaffy,

How completely daffy,

Is this feeling of gaiety,

And thrilling contentment.

I know not what will happen next;

Nor where I'll be the next moment,

But why care, why worry

Nothing horrible has happened yet.

If I had the wings of a bird,
And the beauty of a lilac,
The dance of a daffodil,
And the happiness of a butterfly—

Things would become as new
And gay as the lovely spring,
Or the lovely wonderful summer summer.

I've dreamed and I've dreamed,
And I've worried and worried.
But why should I fear.
I know my dreams can't all come true,

But some of them will.
They must! They must! They must!

'Espanola Fiesta' Plans Underway By Baptist Group

Plans for the "Fiesta Espanola" of the Baptist Student Union are underway.

The Fiesta, which is the theme this year for the annual BSU banquet, will be held at the Raymond Lake Lodge on April 11, at 8:00 p.m.

BSU'ers and their dates will come dressed in Spanish dress. The girls will wear colored skirts and blouses. The boys will wear dark trousers and white or colored shirts. The girls and boys will be presented a flower and a cumber-land at the Lodge door.

The Lodge will be decorated in the old Spanish theme.

The menu will also come from old Spain. Guests will enjoy Spanish spaghetti, rolls, tossed salad and tea.

After dinner a varied program will be presented. Two of the Spanish boys on the campus will sing Spanish songs and entertain the party. Joanne Adcock of the speech department will bring a Spanish reading. Guest missionaries from Spain and students from Mississippi College will be on the program.

Tickets are on sale for $.50. These may be purchased from Bobby Sheffield. Everyone who plans to attend should make reservations as soon as possible.

Circle K Members To Erect Marker On Local Campus

The Circle K Club is at work completing plans for the erection of a sign identifying Hinds Junior College.

Jimmy Holder, chairman of the project committee, submitted a new design made of aluminum with scotchlite lettering. He presented signs for each side of the highway. The type signs were decided upon in preference to a neon sign which would be more expensive and require greater maintenance.

Paul Measells presented suggestions at the club's weekly meeting for a club social to be held at the lodge. The dance will be informal and will be followed by a hayride.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, April 3, in the private dining hall.

Women's Athletic Group To Sponsor Campus Sock Hop

Tomorrow night the Women's Athletic Association will sponsor a sock hop in the recreation hall from 6 until 7:30.

Committees working on the sock hop are: music—Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Thelma Huff, and Virginia Ronken; business managers—Phyllis Dungan and Polly Harrington; ticket takers—Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Ann Taylor, and Roxie Easley; decorations—Iris McKay; and publicity—Regina Godley and Florence Hearn.

DOROTHY BROCK

Dorothy Brock To Present Recital Thursday Evening

Dorothy Brock, Hinds High senior, will present her senior recital on Thursday evening, April 3, at 8:30 p.m.

Although Dorothy's main interest is music, she finds time for other activities. She is an active member of the Beta Club and the Y-Teens. In the senior play, she played the part of Ann Travis. To further her musical interests, Dorothy accompanies the girls ensemble.

Dorothy is a student of Miss Marjorie McCord.

The program for Dorothy's recital will include:

Prelude and Fugue in D Major, W.T.C. Bk. I — Bach
Nocturne in E flat Major, Opus 9 No. 2 — Chopin
La cathedrale engloutie — Debussy
Pastourelle — Poulenc
Concerto in A Minor, 1st movement — Schumann

Parents Entertain Senior Class With Social At Lodge

The members of the senior class were entertained by their parents Friday evening with a spring dance at the Raymond lake lodge.

The dance carried the theme of an old-fashioned garden party. The tea table, which was covered with a linen cut-work tablecloth, was centered with an arrangement of white gladiolas and carnations. A bowl of green punch bubbling high with carbonation was accompanied by a platter of finger sandwiches and mints.

A trellis enclosed juke box supplied the music. Opposite the juke box was a garden scene consisting of evergreen trees, a plum tree in bloom, and white lace garden furniture. The scene was lighted by a red Japanese lantern. In an opposite corner another scene was created by Oriental wind chimes on a flowering tree. Around the tree was a small white fence twined with ivy, and on the windows above climbed a yellow rose vine.

Mrs. James Chapman, Mrs. W. A. Rumbavage, Mrs. T. C. Brock, Mrs. C. E. Osborn, Mrs. Terry Carter, Mrs. Liston Peyton, and Mrs. Alfred Smith welcomed the guests.

Vocational Students Rate Near Top When Time Comes To Hunt Position

By WAYNE TROTTER

Confucius may have never said that "He who wishes to bask in the sunshine of Spring first has to suffer the rigors of winter," but according to Hinds vocational coordinator Walter Gibbes, he might as well have.

For, in this modern financial world, at least, that's just what has to happen. In order to be among the quickest to wallow in the green pastures of currency, you almost have to take a course in general refrigeration at Hinds' vocational division.

Take Mr. James R. Thompson, April, 1957, Hinds grad, for example. Since his refrigeration days under instructor A. G. Liss, he has entered the working world, secured a job at Swift and Co. paying $500 for the month's 160-plus working hours, and has been elected Mississippi president of the National Association of Practical Refrigeration Engineers. Pretty good, huh?

NEWS IN BRIEF

Good Weather Causes Air Accident

By JOANNE CARPENTER

Strange things are happening everyday. Investigators of an aerial collision in Bridgeport, Texas said the accident might never have occurred if the weather had been worse. Since visibility was good, both planes were flying without instruments. They collided head on.

JOANNE

Across the nation storms and tornadoes have been the cause of several plane crashes.

Famous rock'n roll king Elvis Presley, got the usual G-I treatment when he arrived in Ft. Hood, Texas late last Friday. He went through the customary Army routines but not without a little excitement. Girls still screamed when he walked by, and military police had to direct traffic outside his quarters.

In a Jefferson-Jackson Day speech in Little Rock, Ark., North Carolina Democrat, Sen. Sam Ervin, blasted the Eisenhower administration. Ervin condemned the tactics the President used in the recent Little Rock school integration problem. About a recession he said, "A recession is hardly news to the farmers of this nation. They have become well acquainted with it during the five years of Republican control."

The Mississippi Legislature has been busy passing bills and making amendments. The Legislature has been in session for 11 weeks and it is expected that it will adjourn in about three more weeks. More than who recently purchased a 130-acre farm near Terry. This young gentleman is carrying home some $450 smackers a month, also from Swift.

And cohort Dick Sanders is another Hindsonian taking Swift for $450.

How about this? Harlan Wade, graduate of '57, gets $425 per month plus $200 expenses, plus a furnished car, all for reporting daily to Westinghouse.

Billy Mims, working at Ingalls Shipyard in Pascagoula, is making $425 a month, but didn't graduate until May of last year.

Top Pay Scale

Hugh Grimes, a last year grad, draws roughly $500 from Palmer Air Conditioning Company of Jackson.

And John Owens, 1956 refrigeration graduate, makes more than $400 per month with Lane-Moke Pontiac of Jackson.

Hold on there, don't everybody run at once. The vocational box-office doesn't open until nine and there's a darned good chance that somebody else will be there ahead of you—maybe he's been there since this article was written.

NEWS IN BRIEF

40 appropriations were sent to the House last week and about 25 more were passed in the Senate. One of the appropriations was for the new VA Hospital in Jackson.

* * *

The House and the Senate both passed the bill that would permit direct contributions to the Citizens' Council. The only obstacle left is a possible veto by Gov. J. P. Coleman.

Hinds Engineering Members To Tour Plants Tomorrow

Ninety Hinds Junior College students will accompany four faculty members on the Engineering Club's jaunt to Vicksburg tomorrow.

One section of the group, accompanied by Mr. M. F. Herring and Miss Lurline Stewart, will tour the facilities of Spencer Chemical, while the remaining segment of the organization will go with Mr. Wallace Wall and Mr. Frank Stephenson to the waterways experiment station, run by the U.S. Corps of Engineers there.

The buses are scheduled to depart at 12 noon Thursday.

CITIZENS COUNCIL LADY TO TALK TO FACULTY MEMBERS ON APRIL 8

A representative of the Mississippi Citizens Council, Mrs. Sara McCorkle, will be on the Hinds campus April 8.

Any faculty member or any members of the student body interested in the Citizens' Council may talk with Mrs. McCorkle in the Music Auditorium at 2 p.m.

Hindsonian Staff Ready To Travel To Press Meet

Ten Hinds Junior College students plan to accompany Hindsonian editor Wayne Trotter and Irl Dean Rhodes of the publicity office to the Mississippi Junior College Press Association spring meeting to be held on the 2 and 3 of May at Northwest Junior College in Senatobia.

A highlight of the convention will be the appearance of the judges, Mr. Reese Wells, education editor of the Commercial Appeal, Dr. Herbert L. Williams, head of the Journalism department at Memphis State University, and Dr. Dick Straub, sports editor of the Memphis State Tiger Rag, who will announce the name of the Mississippi Junior College publication that will reign as best in state for next year.

Among the staff members tentatively to go are Wayne Trotter, Florence Hearn, Regina Godley, Bobby Sheffield, Marilyn Phillips, Carolyn Barton, Buddy Calhoun, Barbara Speight, James Cleveland, Barbara Clifford, and Betty Furness.

Bobby Sheffield, Hindsonian news editor, is the vice president of the group.

STUDENTS APPLY . . .

Rebecca Dawson, Betty Denton, Alice Eskridge, William Ferguson.

William Forgey, John Gardner, L'Tene Gray, William Grogan, Alice Herrin, Lenda Herrington, Dan Hodge, Maurice Holliday, Katie Lee Houston, James Jackson, Thomas Jones, Jean Kelly, Chris Lewis, David Mason.

William Mitchell, Robert Moody, David Morris, Wade Morrison, Kenneth Myers, Martha Oberhousen, Eugene Osborn, Virginia Ann Owen, Lynn Penebaker, Margaret Lynn Peyton, Alice Ruth Rather, Joan Ray, Robert Reynolds, Bran-nan Robbins, Ethel Rumbavage.

VAN WINKLE PASTOR TO ADDRESS BAPTIST GROUP ON HINDS JUNIOR CAMPUS

The Rev. H. A. Milner, pastor of the Van Winkle Baptist Church of Jackson, will be the featured speaker at B.S.U. on Monday, April 14.

The Rev. Milner will present his slides which were made on his trip to the Holy Land and the Near East and will give a talk to accompany the pictures.

Every person, whether he is a Baptist or not, is cordially invited to attend this feature.

SPECIAL EASTER SUPPER BULLETIN

Easter Supper, at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening in the college cafeteria, is announced by Mrs. Marian J. Welch, dietitian.

Special hostesses for this occasion will be the new YWCA cabinet.

Speech Students Visit Television Station WLBT

Hinds' voice and diction class in the speech department toured WJTV television station and WSLI radio station last Thursday.

They visited two live programs at the television station, and one at the radio station. Mrs. Ronken's show, "Market Basket," and Bob Nebblett's news were viewed by the group.

The news and announcing was explained by Mr. Nebblett. Departments that the class toured were props, art, engineering, announcing, and studio.

Mr. Fred Brooks, head of the speech department, said that he felt the trip was worthwhile because the class listened to the voices of the people on the programs.

Students making the trip were Jimmy Morris, Charles Wall, Maurice Oakes, who works at station WJTV, Kenneth Brown, Betty Smith, Virginia Lee, Ed Coleman, and Mr. Fred Brooks.

Faye Rollins, Jean Searcy, and Charles Murphy, other members of the class, were unable to make the trip.

STUDENTS FROM AREA HIGH SCHOOLS APPLY FOR ADMISSION HERE

According to Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar, at the present time 18 high schools over the state and two from out of state are represented in the new applications for the fall term this year.

The state schools represented are: Provine, Murrah, and Central of Jackson, Puckett, Byram, Crossroads, Slate Springs, Clinton, Brandon, Port Gibson, Carr Central of Vicksburg, Crosby, Korea, Natchez, Forest, Canton, Hazlehurst, and Utica. The two out of state schools are Lebanon of Castle Heights, Tenn., and Delhi, La.

Polly Harrington, Judy Day To Serve State YWCA, YMCA, SCA As Officers

Judy Day, Brookhaven, and Polly Harrington, Aberdeen, were elected state YWCA officers at the YM-YW-SCA conference held at Roosevelt State Park, Morton, last weekend.

Elected to head the college YWCA of the state is Marilyn Bur-

YWCA To Install '58-'59 Officers Wednesday Night

The YWCA Cabinet for the new year will be installed at the Vesper hour, Wednesday, April 9, in the college auditorium.

These officers to head the campus organization for the 1958-59 session are the following: Mary Tolar, president; Polly Harrington, vice president; Joanne Carpenter, secretary; Myrtle Moore, treasurer; Judy Day, worship chairman; World Relatedness, Rebecca Murphy; Donna Musil, membership; Jan Geddie, social chairman; Nancy Pharr, campus and personal programs; Linnie Parman, publicity; and Barbara Speight, music.

Regina Godley, outgoing president will conduct the traditional candlelight ceremony and install the new officers.

Other retiring officers who will participate in the service are Virginia Ronkin, secretary; Florence Hearn, treasurer; Roxie Easley, social chairman; Alma Lee Grantham, World Relatedness; Jimmy Shepard, campus and personal programs; Sharrott McClurg, membership; Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, music; and Naomi Herrin, publicity.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend this annual program, scheduled at 6:15 p.m., April 9.

nett, MSCW; Yvonne Calhoun of Copiah-Lincoln was elected first vice president.

Registration for the conference was conducted by the Hinds delegation.

The conference was addressed by Anne Guthrie, leader of the women's international work, an experienced worker in the Far East, and South America; and by John Coffey, University of Alabama.

Workshops were held Saturday on different phases of Y work. "The Use of Religious Drama in Worship" directed by Mr. Richard Landress, speech professor at Copiah-Lincoln, was attended by Regina Godley. Judy Day attended the group directed by Truitt Ginn, past YMCA president, on the topic, "The Student Movement." The workshop on "Planning the Program," led by Mrs. McCain of the University of Mississippi, was attended by Polly Harrington. Mary Tolar, president-elect of Hinds YWCA, participated in the workshop, "Planning Study Groups," led by Gene Etheridge of Mississippi State.

After an address Sunday morning, the installation of state officers for the coming year concluded the conference.

Accompanying the Hinds students to the weekend conference was Miss Mildred Herrin, college registrar.

Nutchuk, Eskimo To Perform In Chapel Wednesday

Nutchuk, an Eskimo, will be in charge of the chapel program in assembly on Wednesday, April 9.

This native Alaskan, who has traveled over the nation and world performing, will tell folk stories and sing folk songs.

County Thinclads To Stage Cinder Meet On Campus

Hinds Junior College will be the host for the annual Hinds County track meet on April 15 at 7 p.m.

Mississippi School for the Deaf, Byram, Utica, Raymond Consolidated and Hinds High will make up the B-BB teams.

Frank Young, head track coach at Hinds, is in charge of the meet. Young will run off the running events and Joe Renfroe, athletic director and head football coach, will be in charge of the field events.

All A-AA and B-BB girls will compete in the same class.

Baseballers To Entertain Perk Team Saturday In Initial Home Encounter

Hinds Junior College baseballers will host the Perkinson Bulldogs Saturday morning for the first home game of the season.

Although with less than a week's practice, over 20 eager and battlin' youngsters are working out for the summer sport.

Fine Veterans

Experienced performers on hand are Lamon Echols, Flora; Johnny Gray, Pelhatchie; C. T. Thornton, Edwards; Pruitt Blalock, Edwards; and W. C. Alderman, Redwood.

Echols, one of the top pitchers in the circuit last season, will also be used as an outfielder. Gray, an all-around utility man, will serve duties on the mound, in the infield, and the outfield.

Netters To Host Perkinson Tennis Teams Saturday

The Hinds Junior College tennis teams, under the direction of Coach Bill Oakes, are now in full swing activity.

The Eagles and Eaglettes will be host to Perkinson at 10 a.m. on Saturday in their second encounter of the season.

A total of 15 candidates, six girls and nine boys, are still competing for positions on the team. The group lists four returnees on the girls roster, Mary Kathryn Gates, Regina Godley, Peggy Fugate, and Anna Summers.

Bob Wallace is the lone holdover in the boys' division.

The two newcomers to the Eaglettes' lineup are Phyllis Dungan and Jo Ann Rhodes. Jimmy Burt, Bobby Sheffield, Doug Barnes, Jon Irwin, Willard Bond, Buddy Howard, Gerald Miles, and Bill Thomas complete the list of Eagles.

Miss Gates, a highly promising racket batter, will likely enter the singles on Saturday. The remaining starters are still unannounced.

The Hinds netters will also entertain Southwest on April 8, Pearl River on April 19, and the state tennis meet on May 3. Road games on the still incomplete schedule include Perkinson on April 12, and Pearl River April 25.

High School Cinder Aggregation Prepares For Thinclad Meetings

By JAMES CLEVELAND

Hinds High's track teams, pointing toward an April 9 encounter at Clinton, are now in feverish preparation for the '58 season.

Coach Louis Boteler will again guide the cinder teams with Coaches Frank Young and Joe Renfroe working at the meet.

In the boys' division, the candidates are Dalton Thames, Dan Hodge, Jimmy Jackson, Bill Ferguson, Donald Sheffield, Eugene Osborn, Bill Grogan, Chris Lewis, Bill Forney, Charles Banes, Bill Birdsong, Jack Armstrong, and Robert

Top Hitter

Hal Battle, who was not able to participate last year, is a good boy. I'll possibly use him in the outfield. Johnny Gray hit over .600 last year and we are counting on his strength at the plate again this season."

Benton Alliston, Florence, will be used on the mound, and Jimmy Nobles, Pearl is expected to give Blalock ample competition for the assignment behind the plate.

First Base Boys

Aubrey Russell and Jimmy Long are prospects for first base duties. Hal Battle and Seth Anderson are vying for the keystone sack.

Making Alderman hustle for the 3rd base position is Jimmy Bishop.

Shortstop is in good hands with Crocker in charge.

Outfielders in workouts are Carl Dukes, Buddy Raley, Billy Benson, Glenn Patterson, and C. T. Thornton.

College To Host Keyboard Crew

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Interesting notes:
The District Six Piano Festival for high school students will be held on the Hinds campus April 14.

Maybe the reason why Hinds is asked to be the host school for this event is that seven thousand dollar, nine-foot long piano in the auditorium!

ACKERMAN FFA JUDGING TEAM WINS TOP PLACE IN CONTEST ON CAMPUS

A team of three from Ackerman won the state meat judging contest which was held here Saturday.

Coached by E. L. Adams, vo-ag teacher at Ackerman, the team of champions include Eugene McClure, Garner Maddox and Jerry Gatlin.

The Carmichael team, under the direction of vo-ag teacher J. S. Amacker, placed second in the state contest.

The state championship team will compete in the National Meat Judging Contest to be held in Kansas City next October.

Mr. Jack Treloar, Hinds instructor, was host for the FFA contest.

Hinds Department Of Art Displays Work In Jackson

Paintings exhibited recently by Bobby Tickell and Mike Ferris at Open House at the Patio Book Shop, Jackson, received much favorable commendation, according to reports received by their art instructor here, Mrs. A. L. Denton.

Furnished by special request from the book shop authorities, the five pictures remained on exhibition through Thursday of the teachers' convention.

Though they have not decided to sell, as yet, the two young artists have received a number of requests for sale of their paintings displayed. Some requests have come from members of the Mississippi Legislature now in session.

If you really want to see a show, don't miss the event being presented by the teachers on April 8. Miss Herrin and Mr. Beemon are securing theme and talent for the show, which is to be sponsored by the Phi Theta Kappa. It is to be a rare treat.

The choir, under the direction of Mr. Reeves, will present a concert for the Crawford Street Methodist Church in Vicksburg on April 13.

Everyone seems to agree that Mary Carolyn Hart's recital was one of her best performances since she has been at Hinds.

The Hi-Steppers and Eagle Band have been invited to perform for the Alabama Association of Manufacturers at the Buena Vista Hotel in Biloxi, later this month. Following the Gulf show, these groups, directed by Mrs. Alon Bee and Mr. Al Rowan, will rock over to Clinton for the Youth Carnival there.

Tomorrow night, Dorothy Brock, a piano student of Miss McCord will present her senior recital in the college auditorium. The time is 8:15 p.m., so be there on the dot if you like keyboard entertainment. It will be excellent.

Mrs. Combs, piano teacher, announces the group recital of Jimmy Holder, Bob Bloodworth, Katie Lee Houston, Mary Bess Beard, Charles Craft, and Jean Gill, to be held on April 11, in the Music Auditorium.

NIX'S SCRAPIN'*Golf Tourney To Get Underway

By CURTIS NIX

The Masters Tournament, called the "greatest of them all," begins Thursday at Augusta, Ga. Approximately 100 golfing aces will be banging away as the tourney gets underway.

To compete in the Masters, one has to receive an invitation. Of the approximate 100, 14 are former Masters champions. Also included in the group are more foreigners than ever before.

Played on one of the hardest courses in the world, the 1958 edition of the Masters should prove to be one of the finest in its 22 year history. From this delegation comes the champion of champions.

The course, designed by Bobby Jones, will be in good shape despite heavy rains and cold weather.

Last year's winner was Doug Ford with a 5-under-par card. The Masters record score is 14 strokes under par 274, set by Ben Hogan in 1953 when he won his second title.

* * *

The Azalea Open, held last week at Wilmington, N.C., was just a warm-up for the Masters contenders. A field of 32 closed out the tourney Saturday on the wind-swept, rain-drenched course.

Howie Johnson took first prize money of $2,000. Ford, the defending Masters champ, finished eighth with a score of 288 for the 72 round meet. Big Mike Souchak, "Mr. Muscles" of the golfing world, wound up with 294. Billy Casper, who has been appearing for the past few weeks on All-Star Golf, a weekly television program, grabbed third place honors.

* * *

Golfers from Jackson and surrounding territory have a chance to whack their respective ways around the newly-constructed Brookwood Country Club course for free. The front nine holes are open, but the back nine haven't been completed as of yet. The free offer expires April 19. After that date green fees will run at $1.10 per nine.

To all of you golfing readers, here's a chance to get some good free golf.

* * *

Hinds new course will be ready for use in a couple of months. This will offer plenty of extra-curricular activity for Hinds golfers.

* * *

Mrs. Ann Gookin, Hinds' own Pro, is among the top women golfers in the state and neighboring states. She will compete in several tournaments during the month of April, and tonight she will demonstrate golf on Woody Assaf's TV Sports cast.

* * *

Yes, golf is surely the fastest rising sport today. More people are now taking part than ever before. Very exciting and interesting, it is also very healthful.

* * *

CURTIS

Aside from golf, in the basketball world, eyes are on the championship play off between the St. Louis Hawks and the Boston Celtics.

The same two teams played for the championship last year with the Celtics coming out on top.

Oakes' Net Teams Grab 5 Top Place Honors Over SW

Coach Bill Oakes' tennis team racked up their first victory of the season Tuesday with five wins and three losses.

Hinds dominated the singles and doubles action in the girls division by winning all four of the matches. Southwest won three out of four in the boys division.

The Results:

GIRLS SINGLES

Mary K. Gates (H) defeated Ora Simmons (S) 6-1; 6-3.

Regina Godley (H) defeated Martha Smith (S) 6-1; 6-2.

GIRLS DOUBLES

Peggy Fugate and Nancy Pharr (H) defeated Lavonne Hutson and Janice Packwood (S) 6-2; 5-7; 5-7.

Mary K. Gates and Regina Godley (H) defeated Ora Simmons and Virginia Bennett (S) 6-0; 6-1.

BOYS SINGLES

Chester Dickey (S) defeated Robert Wallace (H) 6-1; 7-5.

Gerald Miles (H) defeated Billy Fowler (S) 6-1; 6-1.

BOYS DOUBLES

Bill Osburn and Wayne Williams (S) defeated William Thomas and Doug Barnes (H) 6-3; 6-1.

Charlie Rush and James Martin (S) defeated Willard Bond and Buddy Howard (H) 6-4; 6-4.

McKAY, GATES GODLEY SPARK MINTON MEET

Iris McKay and Mary Katherine Gates, doubles, and Regina Godley, singles, led the badminton tourney this week.

Last week Marilyn Phillips defeated Linda Jones, and Regina Godley defeated Anna Summers in the singles division. In doubles Marilyn Phillips and Linda Jones defeated Dot Ann Pickett and Virginia Vaughan; Reba Gail Pierce and Nancy Pharr defeated Myrtie Moore and Joanne Carpenter; and Iris McKay and Mary Katherine Gates defeated Florence Hearn and Regina Godley.

The standings are, singles: Regina Godley, Faye Rollins, Marilyn Phillips, Nancy Pharr, Selma Ernest, Anna Summers, and Linda Jones; doubles: Iris McKay and Mary Katherine Gates; Regina Godley and Florence Hearn; Mary Tolar and Virginia Ronken; Sharrott McClurg and Anna Summers; Marilyn Phillips and Linda Jones; Nancy Pharr and Reba Gail Pierce; Dot Ann Pickett and Virginia Vaughan; Myrtie Moore and Joanne Carpenter; Shirley DuBoise and Jo Roby; and Jimmie Sheppard and Joyce Bethune.

Hinds Diamond Crew Rips Southwest In Opener, 7-2

By WAYNE TROTTER

The 1958 edition of Hinds Junior College's Eagle baseballers, fresh from a 7-2 win over Southwest in a nine-inning strikathon held at Summit, return home Saturday afternoon to face the Cats of Perkins-ton.

Tuesday in the Southwest encounter, the Eagles, suffering from lack of practice, coasted through on the big two-hit shoulders of ace right-hander Lamon Echols, but were whiffed 22 times by Bear hurling combo Curtis Crenshaw and Ed Patrick. Echols posted 11 strikeouts to halve his opponent's mark.

LAMON ECHOLS

Southwest got the pot boiling early in the initial stanza, after Hinds had been retired via the strikeout route. Lamar Bradley, Summit shortstop, smashed a low liner that skirted the interior of Eagle shortstop Marvin Crocker's widespread legs, depositing the ball in left field and Bradley on first. After stealing both second and third, Bradley charged home only moments later as center-fielder Phillip Perjeance singled.

With one man out in the second inning, the men of Coach Troy Ricks begin to show that they, too, know how to use a bat. Mittsman Jimmy Nobles beat out a grounder that was bobbled by the shortstop. He was followed to the plate by C. T. Thornton, center-fielder, and John Spencer, left fielder, who both jogged down to first after

Westside Dumps Main In Volleyball Contest, 39-36

Westside dumped Main 39-36 in the all star volleyball game Thursday night.

The game was close throughout with Main taking the lead in the first half. Westside came back the second half to take the lead and maintain it throughout the remainder of the game.

Faye Rollins, captain of the Main lassies, was the losers' standout along with Jan Geddie, Virginia Ronken, and Selma Ernest.

being struck by starting pitcher Curtis Crenshaw's fast ball, setting the stage for second-baseman Hal Battle to drive a ringing single, the first of Hinds' five hits, into right field, scoring the two lead runners. Crenshaw bore down and retired the side on strikes.

In the fourth, after Nobles had singled and stolen second, Thornton rolled a slow grounder towards first baseman Bobby Sanders, who chose to throw to third where third-sacker Devon Guy tagged the oncoming Nobles out. Thornton stole second and later came home behind Marvin Crocker's solid grounder into left. Crenshaw once again stopped Hinds through strikeouts.

In the top of the seventh, pitcher Lamon Echols also got into the scoring act. He walked, reached second on reserve first-base-man Jimmy Long's little roller to the mound, stole third, and came home as Nobles also dribbled back to the pitcher.

Summit picked up their second run in the seventh also. Lamar Bradley drilled a long drive to left field where Don Brady, successor to the struck Spencer, recovered the ball and fired it to Shortstop Crocker, who wasted little time in relaying it to third. Bradley was pronounced safe, a call that was questioned by players and spectators alike, and came home when Patrick hit to Jimmy Long, who had substituted for Aubrey Russell at first.

The top of the ninth found Hinds eager and hungry for insurance runs. W. C. Alderman opened the stanza by singling to right, was pushed to second when Echols walked, reached third by cooperating with Echols on a double steal, and scored along with Echols as Don Johns, who saw action in Jimmy Bishop's place, knocked a slow roller to shortstop Lamar Bradley, who overthrew first base. Johns took second on the play and scored a few minutes later when C. T. Thornton singled to center. Don Brady was robbed of a hit when left-fielder Bobby Nelson came up with a brilliant diving catch to end the inning.

Southwest threatened in the bottom half of the ninth, but, with two on and two out, Echols caught opposing pitcher Ed Patrick looking at a fast ball to end the game.

Instructor Fires Low Gross In Meridian Meet

Mrs. Anne Gookin, director of girls' physical education at Hinds Junior College, won the low gross honors in an inter-city tourney at the Northwood Country Club in Meridian last Tuesday.

The former city-wide golf champ of Jackson, Mrs. Gookin put together a 39-43 to capture the win. She was competing with performers Mal Wilkerson of Vicksburg and Leta Mae White of Jackson.

Dedication Of New Science Building Plans Underway On Campus For May 1

A three-part program, May 1, will mark the dedication exercises of the new science building.

At two o'clock in the afternoon, continuous until 8 p.m., open house at the new building will be held. At this time, tours composed of students, faculty members, and community visitors will be conducted through the building to visit lecture rooms and laboratories and see students in science classes in routine activities. Visitors will be registered and served refreshments.

An invitational banquet will be held in the college cafeteria honoring the visiting speakers, board of trustees, and the county school boards and supervisors of the zoned counties—Hinds, Warren, Yazoo, Rankin, and Madison.

The dedication program is scheduled at 8 p.m. At this time greetings will be brought by representatives of the junior and senior colleges of Mississippi, and the principal address will be given by a member of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

The following are some of the committees appointed to go forward with plans for the dedication program: Program—Mr. M. F. Herring, Mr. T. T. Beemon, Mr. Frank Stephenson, and Miss Genevieve Williams; Invitations—Mrs. B. D. Spraberry; Greeting—Miss Lurline Stewart, Mr. Wallace Wall, and members of the engineering club; Tours—Mr. Robert Ringer and members of the science classes;

Any freshman girl who is interested in being a cheerleader for the 1958-59 season should meet Mrs. Anne Gookin in the physical education office Monday, activity period.

COLOR PHOTOS ADD NEW FACE TO HINDSONIAN

By Wayne Trotter

The Hindsonian pioneer in Mississippi collegiate color printing, continues to blaze the trail to bigger and better things in the junior college journalistic world.

For, as the eyes can plainly see, the front page of this week's edition is beautifully adorned with a three-column color campus scene.

Eighteen separate shades, ranging from blue to red, from black to white, appear on this page. All of these are formed from three primary colors—red, blue, and yellow.

The Hindsonian received the fullest cooperation of both the Mississippi Engraving Company, of Jackson, and Keith Press, of Raymond. Both of these forward-looking firms, despite the inconvenience, showed a great deal of patience and took a great deal of time with this production.

This is, indeed, a noteworthy accomplishment, but even this is only a forerunner of the advancements to stem from future Hindsonians—advancements that will come from the desire of each staff member to produce the best junior college newspaper that Mississippi has ever known.

Commencement To Be Held At Hinds

Commencement dates for the 1957-58 session have been scheduled for May 18, 23.

Sunday, May 18, at 11 o'clock in the morning the Commencement sermon will be delivered by Rev. Aubrey Smith, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Yazoo City.

Friday, May 23, at 10:30 a.m., Dr. Edmund J. Gleazer, executive—secretary of the American Association of Junior Colleges will address the graduates.

Honorary Society Members Attend National Meeting

Headed for the three-day national convention at Brevard, N. C., two car loads of Hinds Phi Theta Kappa representatives left the campus early yesterday.

Composing the delegates are—sophomores: Ben Morgan, Ray Tomlinson, Florence Hearn, Pansy Jue, and Dick Gabriel.

Miss Mildred Herrin, PTK faculty sponsor, and Mrs. Gertrude Rowzee, librarian, are accompanying the student delegates.

Dick Gabriel, president-elect of the local chapter is the voting delegate of the group, and he will serve as member of the Grand Council at the convention.

The travelers plan to spend tonight at Chattanooga, and tomorrow night Fontana Village in the Smokies. They will return to the campus Sunday.

Summer Program To Offer Regular Courses Of Work

Hinds Junior College will once again offer a full schedule for the summer session, which will begin June 9, 1958.

Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar, announced that the courses, which will be held in the air-conditioned comfort of the Administration Building, will be carried dependent upon request.

College students may earn up to 12 semester hours, and high school students will be allowed to take either 1½ credits of new courses or 2 credits of review work.

College courses offered will be: Accounting, Agriculture, Art, Zoology, Botany, Business Law, General and Organic Chemistry, Leather Crafts, Economics, General Psychology, Introduction to Education.

English Composition, English Literature, Elementary French, Survey of Western Civilization, U. S. History, Home Economics, Hygiene, Introductory Algebra, College Algebra, Trigonometry, Mathematics of Finance, Analytic Geometry, Differential Calculus, Integral Calculus.

Office Machines, Physics, Political Science, Physical Science Survey, Secretarial Procedure, Elementary and Advanced Shorthand, Introduction to Sociology, Family Life, Social Problems, Elementary Spanish, Speech, and Beginning, Intermediate, and Advanced Typing.

New summer school bulletins off the press recently may be secured from the offices of the registrar and deans.

Pre-registration for summer school will start May 1.

Pay Rates Second Place In Education

Recently the editors of the New Mexico Lobo said: "Love might make the world go around, but gold and silver are the lubrication that eliminates the squeaks."

Even more recently the editors of the Gonzaga University Bulletin took out their heavy artillery and blasted away at the same rock composed of what, at first, seems to be pure injustice, saying:

"Granted the student receives invaluable experience heading multi-functioning organizations, but he usually reaches a point where practical experience ends and drudgery begins.

It is here that material gain is desired."

Makes a pretty convincing argument, doesn't it?

But maybe the whole story wasn't told; at any rate, we beg to differ.

The sole purpose for which a person comes to college is to learn. Any other motive must be regarded as secondary, or the student will surely not be counted among those garnering an education for long. If the college thinks that a campus leader merits a scholarship, its actions will speak louder than any editor's words; if such is not the case, let the student pick up an hour or two in the toughest college of all — experience.

Of course, the situation will differ with every campus, but the overall solution will never be to pay a person for getting his own education. When a student reaches the point that material gain is desired, he is ready for the world of fact—not the world of books.

And this truth should be kept in view at all times.

All Students Need To Concentrate

Several weeks ago we promised you, our readers, that we were on the "more-study" bandwagon. We did, indeed, study more, but our grades continued on a downward trend. We put ourselves on a more strict study schedule; the downward trend was slowed, but only slowed.

The trouble was concentration. Concentration is necessary to study; without it nothing is accomplished.

Quiet is necessary to concentration — radios, television, fist fights, and what-have-you just don't result in a good report card.

Another thing that conflicts with concentration is a dirty, messy room. Articles out of place are distracting to your study — that is, they work on your conscience.

So now we're inaugurating a new bandwagon, the "more-concentration" bandwagon.

Meet us at the christening, won't you?

College Absences Create Trouble

Absences are getting to be a problem around this campus.

The college regulations, set up so that no innocent person might run the risk of an unwarranted unexcused absence, are being taken advantage of by some of our so-called scholars.

Regulations are made to protect, not hinder. Right now, Hinds' absentee rules protect all concerned—the school, the taxpayer, and the student.

If anyone is scheduled to lose his protection, you know who it will be—the fella who abused his privilege.

Sow the wind today; next year's students will surely reap the whirlwind.

Startling, Frightening Views Given

By CAROLYN BARTON

"The Unsilent Generation," the essays of 11 Princeton students on their beliefs and ambitions, were the object of some recent editorials. "If their views are indicative of even a small minority of our generation, they are startling.

CAROLYN If they truly speak for a greater segment, they are frightening . . . The writers have been given on sound standard of values and in the process of seeking one they have become lost to an extent that is truly dangerous . . .

The CHICAGO MAROON said that today's student is more cautious and conservative than the student of ten years ago. Toward much of the world around him, and to international relations, he is apathetic. He can envision the future non-work side of his life with greater detail and enthusiasm than he can the career side.

A student at the University of Cincinnati saw "This Ford was made in Texas by Texans" on cars there. This was topped by a Volkswagen in Cincinnati with the notice: "This Volkswagen was made in the Black Forest by red elves."

Perhaps a more optimistic view on the degeneration of college students is this student comment about a taproom serving beer in the Uni-music, skating, and fishing.

Carol says she likes all kinds of music, but she says her favorite piece of music is a composition by Liszt, "Les Preludes."

This attractive young lady plans to enter Mississippi College following her graduation from Hinds. After finishing school, she hopes to teach public school music or piano, and raise a couple of children.

This talented lass has as her favorite hobbies sewing and painting.

When asked her comments about Hinds, Carol replied, "I like it. It exemplifies true southern hospitality as well as the best in education."

While in high school, Carol was in the choir, ensemble, basketball, Y-Teens, music, and speech clubs.

During the time spent at Hinds, Mrs. Benton has been very busy with her music courses, but she has had time to participate in the choir and Phi Theta Kappa for the past two years.

She is the wife of Mr. Clyde Benton, who is in charge of Shangri-La.

May the Lord bless you in all your undertakings throughout the rest of your wonderful life, Carol.

Those sack dresses, which are all the rage among the feminine students, tend to leave all the members of the non-feminine gender in a real huff. Here's what the editors of the Student Printz, that prize-winning publication down Hattiesburg way, think about this vital issue:

Grandmother wore a better style

This should go in the waste-can file

Why wear a dress that's baggy and tasteless?

Not to mention being baggy and waistless.

How can you tell how the gals are stacked?

You'll never know till the sack gown's sacked.

From the Genesee Lantern, periodical issued by students of Genesee, New York's State University Teachers College, comes news to soothe the hurt feelings of our chemise-conscious men — the gals up there are having to give over to the modesty of mankind. Residents of Bailey Hall, a women's dorm, were requested to find other quarters as the building was about to be handed to the men. "Why Bailey?" asked the girls. The answer: Bailey is the only hall so situated that the interior of the rooms cannot be seen from the other women's dormitories.

Political Science Classes Travel To Jackson For Visit

More than 100 Hinds students accompanied Mr. J. R. Harris, Hinds political science instructor, to Jackson Tuesday to visit the offices of various governmental agencies.

The group was shown portions of the state, national, and county governments in action.

Those making the trip were Robert Abbott, Earl Adams, Eudene Adcock, Eugene Adcock, Dale Addington, James Armishaw, Edwin Alford, Steve Barnett, Carolyn Barton, David Barton, Billy Blocker, Don Ray Boyd, Jimmie Boykin, Charles Bracewell, Carlton Bradshaw, Joel Butler, Wendell Campbell, John Carroll, Neal Chambers, James Cook, Don Corbon, Larry Craft, Bob Crawford, John Daniel, Douglas Dean, and Billy Denson.

Morris, Comfort Present Recital In Piano, Voice

The music department of Hinds presented Miss Margarita Morris and Miss Sidney Comfort in a recital last Thursday.

Miss Morris, pianist from Yazoo City, and Miss Comfort, soprano from Forest Hill, who was accompanied by Carol Jean Benton, alternated their selections during the recital.

YWCA Installation Held Last Week On Local Campus

The traditional candlelight service for the installation of the Young Women's Christian Association officers was held Wednesday night at Vespers.

Regina Godley, out-going president from Vicksburg, conducted the candlelight ceremony and installed the new officers.

Mary Tolar, newly elected president from Sandy Hook, gave the response for the new cabinet.

Out-going cabinet members on the program were Naomi Herrin, publicity chairman, who gave the call to worship, and Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, music chairman, who rendered a solo. Newly elected officers Polly Harrington, program chairman, and Judy Day, devotional chairman, gave a scripture reading and the dedication prayer respectively.

Other retiring officers are Virginia Ronken, secretary; Florence Hearn, treasurer; Roxie Easley, social chairman; Almo Lee Grantham, world relations chairman; and Jimmie Sheppard, campus and personal affairs chairman.

The other newly elected officers are Joanne Carpenter, secretary; Myrtie Moore, treasurer; Jan Geddie, social chairman; Rebecca Murphy, world relatendess; Nancy Pharr, campus and personal affairs; Donna Musil, membership; Barbara Speight, music; and Linnie Parman, publicity.

Carol Jean Benton was the organist for the installation service.

Business Leaders Stage Convention On MSCW Campus

The Mississippi Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America held their Spring Convention April 11 and 12 at Mississippi State College for Women.

The members of the Hinds Chapter who attended the convention were Addie Carolyn Pearson, Alma Lee Grantham, Lillie Meadows, Pansy Jue, Jane Noble, Lanelle McDonald, Linda Jones, Marilyn Phillips, and Mrs. Maybelle Furness, sponsor.

The Hinds Vocabulary Relay Team composed of Linda Jones, Marilyn Phillips, and Pansy Jue, was declared the winning team in the vocabulary contest. Linda Jones was the only member of the Hinds team who actually participated, because the other teams lost out before Linda missed a word.

Music Department Presents Student Recital On Campus

The music department presented a student recital last night in the college auditorium.

Students participating were Rebecca Dawson, Jo Ann Rhodes, Jo Anne Adcock, Barbara Clifford, Carolyn Curtis, Barbara Speight, Patsy Wade, Margarite Morris, Jan Geddie, and Dorothy Brock.

Band, Hi-Steppers To Entertain On Coast Tomorrow

The Hinds Junior College Hi-Steppers and the Eagle Dance Band will leave the campus Thursday morning for a trip to the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

The purpose of the trip is to provide entertainment for the Alabama Association of Textile Manufacturers, which is providing all expenses for this trip.

This trip will make the fourth time that these organizations have performed at the Buena Vista Hotel for the manufacturers' group.

Mrs. Anna Bee and Mr. Al Rowan, directors of the Hi-Steppers and band, respectively, have stated that the groups will return from the Coast sometime after noon on Friday.

College Vocational Chief Speaks To County Teachers

"A study made by The Engineer's Council for Professional Development shows that seven Engineering Technicians are needed for every engineer." — Words of wisdom spoken by Mr. Walter Gibbes, vocational coordinator for Hinds Junior College, in a speech before the Hinds County Teachers Association.

Mr. Gibbes' speech, given at the Association's recent meeting held at Oak Forest School, pointed several advantages of vocational training at an institution such as Hinds. Perhaps the most emphatic one mentioned during the course of the talk read thusly: "Too many of our students have the idea they are going to school to get out of work. Let's teach them the honor and dignity of work."

MEMBERS OF HINDS High's Y-Teens, an organization centered around personal and social living, are shown assembled at one of their recent meetings. Seated, left to right, are Nancy Chapman, Barbara Smith, Lou Ann Carter, Mary Bess Beard,

'Fiesta Espanola' Features Address By Baptist Pastor

About 60 BS'uers and guests attended the annual BSU banquet Friday night at Raymond Lake Lodge.

Dr. Bob Simmons of Jackson was the guest speaker of the occasion which was a "Fiesta Espanola."

Selma Earnest, sophomore president of the BSU, acted as master of ceremonies for the night's activities.

Freshmen president-elect, Joanne Carpenter, gave an address of welcome. After the welcoming address, Rev. Ralph Winders, State BSU Director, lead the group in prayer.

The after dinner program consisted of an American style show, a Spanish song, and a reading. Myrtle Moore and Mary Tolar presented the newest American styles of the group. Myrna Loy Stuart entertained the group with a song and Joanne Adcock did a reading.

SCALIN' THE CLEF Louisiana State's Band Hall Burns

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Tragedy!!!

Yes, it is a tragedy that the Louisiana State University band room burned down, destroying many thousands of dollars worth of uniforms and instruments. The LSU Band had scheduled a concert for Hinds Junior College on April 30, and this concert, no doubt, would have been a musical treat. But due to the fire, the concert has been cancelled.

Mrs. Jack Combs' students participated in a studio recital last Friday. Those taking part in this event were: Bob Bloodworth, Charles Craft, Jean Gill, Katie Lee Houston, Jimmie Holder, Mary Bess Beard.

Margarita Morris, student of Miss Majorie McCord, has been awarded a piano scholarship to MSCW. Margarita, who is well known for her piano accomplishments, won this highly prized scholarship last Saturday. Congratulations, Margarita, on winning a well deserved honor.

The Hinds choir has been busy filling engagements at various churches over the state. Last Sunday, these singers provided music for the Crawford Street Methodist Church. The choir will sing at McAdams Baptist Church in Kosciusko on the 20th, and at Calvary Baptist Church in Vicksburg on the 27th.

Tuesday night the music department presented in general recital Anne Adcock, pianist; Jo Ann Rhodes, pianist; Barbara Clifford, pianist; Barbara Speight, pianist; Patsy Wade, vocalist; Dorothy Brock, organist; Rebecca Dawson, organist; Edgar Bates, tenor; Carolyn Curtis, pianist.

During the piano festival held on Hinds' campus last Monday, high school senior Dorothy Brock received a rating of superior in the concerto division of the piano activities. A superior of excellent rating means that a student may compete in the state festival.

Carol Jean Benton and Myrtle Moore will present a vocal and piano recital on the 22nd of April.

The Hi-Steppers and dance band leave tomorrow for their trip to the coast to perform for the Alabama Textile Manufacturers Association.

Melodies to listen to while waiting for April Showers to end:

1. Teguilla
2. Who's Sorry Now
3. Lollipop
4. He's Got The Whole World In His Hands
5. Twilight Time

By WAYNE TROTTER

"They tell us we're different;
We haven't the right;
To decide for ourselves, dear;
What's black and what's white."

* * *

Once upon a very great time ago, in a huge forest by the sea, there lived a very lowly and humble beast named Albert. Now, in this same forest, at this same time, there was also a very high and lordly creature endowed with a beautiful furry coat of many colors and a lovely voice. This animal's name was Ebenezer. Ebenezer was truly the king of the jungle.

For many years Ebenezer had lived side by side with Albert in complete peace, all the while enduring the latter's rough voice, bad smell and uncouth manners. Ebenezer had ruled well, and had been a true friend to Albert whenever Albert had needed a friend. He had fed Albert, clothed Albert, educated Albert, and tried in his every way to make Albert a better animal, both for his own and Albert's sake.

One day Albert, noticing the obvious difference between the position in life occupied by Ebenezer and the post held by himself, went to Ebenezer and said: "Ebenezer, why can't I be just as good as you; why can't we be equals?"

"Because, Albert, you have a rough voice and a bad smell, and uncouth manners," answered Ebenezer.

And so, with an admirable never-say-die spirit, Albert went back home, put on some perfume, polished up his manners, and gargled his throat with aspirin every day for a month. Then he went back and said:

"Ebenezer, why can't I be just as good as you; why can't we be equals?"

Hinds Engineering Club Tours Power Plant In Jackson

Thirty-four members of the pre-engineering club, accompanied by Prof. Walter Gibbes, vocational-technical coordinator, were guests yesterday of the Rex I. Brown Mississippi Power and Light Company plant in Jackson.

After tours of the plant, the visitors were complimented with lunches.

Students who made the trip were these: Claude Roberts, Marvin Crocker, Jack Foyler, Robert Gordon, Robert Woodman, Ira Kirkman, Willard Bond, James Hamrick, James Milner, Warren Fortner, Jim Norman, George Reed, Willard Shannon, Don Brady, Willie Ruff, Oscar Beck, Raiford Hancock, Royce Harris, Donald Ilk, Thomas Jones, Larry Wilson, Mike Cole, Jerry Berry, Henry Thornton, Herman Cavin, Larry Pennington, Don Patterson, Frank Easterwood, Billy Parker, Lamar Cox, Thomas Hicks, Joe Kovarick, Nick Westermoreland, and Dan Wilkerson.

"Because, Albert, you still have a rough voice and a bad smell, and uncouth manners," answered Ebenezer.

"Ebenezer, why can't I be just as good as you; why can't we be equals?" asked Albert for the fifth time.

Ebenezer stopped, stroked his beard, and looked Albert in the eye.

"Albert, I have been hearing this tale for 10, these many years, and I have at last begun to see your side. You are hereby proclaimed an equal to me; Ebenezer and Albert are as one."

Upon hearing this, Albert began to rejoice greatly. He whooped, and hollered, and danced, and threw rocks—the last rock hitting Ebenezer right on the head.

"Well," said Albert, "so you are hurt. Before this happened we were equals; now you are not as good as you were a few seconds ago, and I am just as good. Therefore, we are not equals any longer, for you are inferior to me. I am now the king of the jungle."

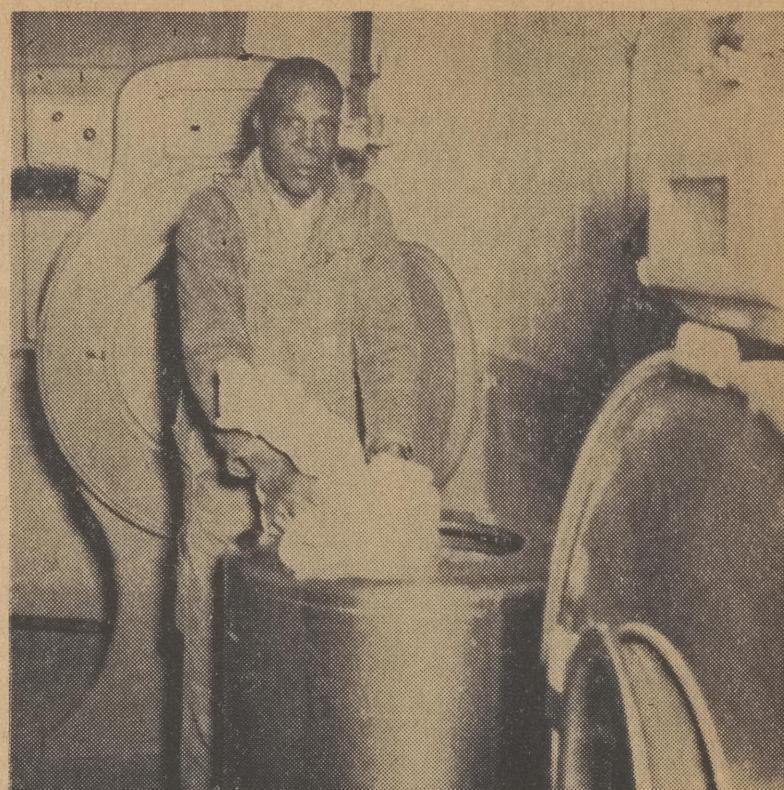

And so saying, Albert removed the crown of the jungle from Ebenezer's body and placed it upon his own head.

"Go," said Albert, "go to the furthest corner of the jungle, for you are not a fit creature with which to live. Your smell is not as mine; your voice is not as mine; your manners are not as mine; you are truly not fit to associate with."

And so Ebenezer, went and Albert reigned supreme—for such is, has, and always will be the rule of nature; equality is an impossible idea of a roving brain, for in all fields of contact there must be a dominant personality.

Washing Machine, Extractor, Dryer Keeps Team Uniforms Spic-and-Span

By CURTIS NIX

As you very well know keeping every physical education class and the track, football, and basketball teams supplied with clean shorts, tee-shirts, socks, warmups, etc. is very important. Last spring the college purchased a set of machines for this purpose.

The only one of its kind in state junior college circles, this equipment has saved much time and effort in keeping everyone supplied with clean uniforms everyday. The worth of these machines is great, they have undoubtedly repaid the approximate $2200 that was paid for them.

Ray Griffin, faithful and sole operator, is to be commended for his work over the past year. Besides operating the machines, Ray keeps the dressing rooms spic-and-span. Living about five miles out of Raymond, he comes back and forth every morning and evening. He usually shows up for work at about 8:00 or 8:30 a.m. and finishes his task by 4:30 in the afternoon. When asked how he likes his work, he replied, "Aw like it, yessah!" Ray is always willing to help out in any way he can. His interest in his work and in the welfare of others has made him well-liked by all who know him.

The set of machines consists of the washing machine, the extractor, and dryer. The uniforms can be washed thoroughly in 18 to 26 minutes. The exact time depends upon how dirty the garments are. This washer is so ingenious, that it even tells Ray when to put the soap in.

After the washer dial has made a complete revolution, Ray takes the rinsed dripping garments out of the washer and puts them in the extractor.

This handy barrel-shaped apparatus does exactly what its name defines. It extracts the water from the garments by spinning at an amazing rate of speed. Ray can leave the garments in the extractor for a period of three to 15 minutes, but usually three or five minutes is sufficient time. The longer the garments are allowed to spin, the less time they are allowed to dry.

After the extractor has come to a screeching halt (and it really does), Ray removes the garments, clinging to the sides of the extractor, and throws them into the huge dryer. In order to have the dryer already hot, Ray lets it heat while the extractor does its work. The dryer is composed of a huge wash-tub-shaped horizontal cylinder which is heated by a dorsal oven. The drying process requires approximately 10 minutes, and the dryer buzzes when the garments are dry.

After the garments are thoroughly dried, they are removed and placed in their respective bends.

Thus in a matter of 40 to 45 minutes, Ray has processed enough apparel to dress out two P. E. classes.

Baptists To Hold Season's Retreat At East Central

The annual spring retreat for Baptist Student Union officers will be held at East Central Junior College Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

The students making the trip from our campus will be: Joanne Carpenter, Buddy Calhoun, Bob Sheffield, Barbara Speight, Delores Ray, Myrtie Moore and Selma Ernest.

NIX'S SCRAPPIN'*Golfer Gookin Adds Another Win

By CURTIS NIX

Hinds' own Mrs. Anne Gookin added another victory to her long string by teaming with top flight lady pro Mickey Wright to defeat Leta Mae White and pro Betsy Rawls in an exhibition match at the Jackson Country Club last Friday afternoon.

CURTIS Mrs. Gookin shot an excellent game in the 12-hole affair witnessed by hundreds of local lady golfers.

Miss Wright and Miss Rawls, touring pros representing Wilson Sporting Goods, held a short informative clinic after the match.

Thursday Mrs. Gookin will participate in the annual Press-Ladies Tournament at the Jackson Country Club. Eleven news writers and radio and television men take on 11 of Jackson's best lady golfers. Mrs. Gookin teams with Leta White against Lyman Hellums and George Uselton. This quartet tees off at

Play Day On Tap At Delta State For College Girls

Physical education students of Hinds Junior College will attend the annual play day Friday and Saturday, which is being held at Delta State College this year.

Individual sports such as tennis, badminton, table tennis, golf, archery, and hand ball will be on the agenda for the morning part and team sports such as softball, baseball, speedball, and field hockey will be the afternoon activities.

A general get-together of different games will take place Friday night.

Hinds students who plan to attend the Delta State play day are Phyllis Dungan, Iris McKay, Regina Godley, Virginia Ronken, Anna Summers, and Jo Roby.

Sara Webb Wins Ski Show Contest At Raymond Lake

Sara Webb, Hinds Junior College Hi-Stepper, was selected Queen of the WJTV sponsored Ski Show on the local campus today.

Miss Webb of Clinton received the honor over seven finalist on a television program in Jackson Tuesday night.

Lou Ann Carter, also a Hi-Stepper and from Raymond, won second alternate.

COUNTY TRACK MEET TO BE HERE TUESDAY WITH STRONG SQUADS

Hinds High School track team will participate in the District 6 track meet at Clinton Friday.

The high school A-AA and B-BB track meet scheduled on the campus last Tuesday night has been postponed until Tuesday night, April 22.

CURTIS day afternoon.

Tennis Teams Suffer Big Blow

Hinds tennis teams suffered a tremendous blow, especially the girls, by the loss of Mary Katherine Gates, Phyllis Dungan, and Charles "Buddy" Howard who have been declared out-of-district. Miss Gates, runner-up to the state championship last year and a good bet to take top honors this year, is from Mendenhall, and Miss Dungan and Mr. Howard both hail from Port Gibson.

Could Morrow Be Slowing Down?

Abilene Christian's Bobby Morrow, winner of three gold medals in the '56 Olympics, lost his second 100 yard dash in as many weeks Friday.

For the second time in a row Morrow's teammate, Bill Woodhouse edged him out in the century sprint. Woodhouse's time was 9.5 seconds.

In the ABC Relays at Big Spring, Texas last weekend Duke's Dave Sime (Sime, as in Jim, not time), considered by many prognosticators as the fastest human alive, beat Woodhouse and Morrow with a time of 9.6 while running into a 20-mile per hour gale. Up until this time Morrow had not been beaten on his native soil since 1953.

Before the ABC relays both Sime and Morrow had beaten each other once. Morrow bested Sime in the Olympic trials when Sime pulled a groin muscle. Having defeated Morrow before the trials, Sime was picked by experts to beat Morrow in the trials. This injury undoubtedly cost him a chance to compete in the Olympics.

The red-haired Sime, amazingly fast for the 195 pounds he packs on his six-foot two-inch frame, has tied the 9.3 world record no less than four times in his sparkling career and upon one occasion broke the tape a 9.2, but was not given credit for his record breaking effort because of a slight wind behind his back.

Two other speedsters who are well on their way to foot-racing fame are Lemon King, an 18-year-old dashing dart, and San Jose State's Ray Norton, who tied the world record Saturday.

Morrow declares that he will definitely beat Sime in the Penn Relays to be held on April 25-26.

Scrappin's hates to disappoint Mr. Morrow, but he's going to be beaten again by Sime!

Hinds' relay teams went to Hattiesburg for the Mississippi Southern Relays last Friday evening. The 440 yard relay team placed third because of a bad hand off between Levi Barber and Ronnie Melancon. Barber, who ran the first leg, jumped ahead of the pack, and the faulty hand off undoubtedly cost the team a first place berth. Other members of the team are Eddie Hendry and Robert Pullen.

The mile relay team did take top honors. Hendry, Pullen, Melancon, and Gerald Lee each ran a leg.

College Cinderamen To Entertain Track Triangular Meeting Friday Afternoon

A triangular track meet will be held on the campus on Friday afternoon.

Thinclads from Sunflower at Morehead, Holmes at Goodman, and Hinds will compete in the three way event. The meet was previously scheduled for Tuesday afternoon.

Coach Frank Young's aggregation will clash with the Jones Bobcats here next Tuesday afternoon.

Field events at the Friday afternoon triangular meet will start at 3:00 p.m. and running events at 3:30.

Scheduled to represent Hinds in the meet are: Levi Barber and Robert Pullen, sprinter and relay; Gerald Lee and Charles Phillips, distant ment; Ronald Melancon, quarter mile and relay; Ed Hendry, pole vault, high hurdles and relay; Lamar Gates, Curtis Nix, Kenneth

Hinds Baseballers To Invade Newton For Clarke Clash

Hinds Junior College diamond forces will invade Newton for a clash with the Clark baseballers Thursday afternoon and Pearl River will meet the Eagles in a squabble here Saturday afternoon.

Tuesday's game with Jones was cancelled due to rain.

The Eagles will enter the scramble with Clark Thursday with a record of two wins and two losses. Hinds has ripped the Southwest Bears twice this season, 7-2 and 15-7.

The two setbacks were at the hands of the Perkinston Bulldogs with identical scores of 3-0. It took 11 innings to close the initial batte with Perkinston.

Lamont Echols and Jimmy Nobles will serve as battery mates in Thursday's feud. Mack Carlisle will hold first base, Hal Battle, second, W. C. Alderman, third, and Marvin Crocker, short.

The out field will be composed of Jimmy Bishop at left field, Johnny Gray, center and C. T. Thornton, right.

Tennis Team Set To Battle Troupe From Pearl River

Coach Bill Oakes' tennis team will entertain the Pearl River netters here Saturday afternoon.

Hinds netters have compiled a 3-2 record in the first five matches this season.

Girls on the tennis team are Regina Godley, Peggy Fugate, and Bobby Sheffield make up the male netters.

Perkinston defeated Hinds 6-2 last Saturday afternoon.

Girls Singles

Karen Yarborough (P) defeated Regina Godley (H) 6-2, 6-1.

Regina Godley (H) defeated Norman Broadus (P) 3-6, 6-4, 6-1.

Girls Doubles

Dot Sibley and Gayle Longbine (P) defeated Nancy Pharr and Peggy Fugate (H) 7-5, 7-5.

Boys Singles

Joe McAnulty (P) defeated Bob Wallace (H) 6-0, 6-1.

Nick Cefalo (P) defeated Willard Bond (H) 6-1, 6-2.

Alfonso More (P) defeated Bob Sheffield (H) 6-2, 6-0.

Bill Malery (P) defeated Doug Barnes (H) 6-0, 6-1.

Boys Doubles

Dick Cafalo and Bill Malery (P) defeated Bob Wallard Bond (H) 6-0, 6-1.

Bobby Sheffield and Doug Barnes (H) defeated Hershey Dubissau and Jimmy Steinwinder (P) 6-3, 7-3.

American Junior College Director, Yazoo Pastor To Address Graduates

Sophomore, Senior To Give Speeches At Final Exercises

Claude J. Roberts, Utica, has been named valedictorian, or class representative, of the 1957-58 graduating class of Hinds Junior College.

This honor carries with it the privilege of making the class speech on the morning of commencement, May 23.

Claude is the son of Mrs. Mary Roberts, Utica. He graduated at Utica High School in 1951. After fulfilling his military obligations, he entered Hinds Junior College in January 1957, continued in summer school and is completing his work at Hinds, majoring in engineering. He is married and plans to enter Mississippi State College for completing his degree. He is president of the Engineering club, and a member of Phi Theta Kappa.

Speaking for the high school senior class as representative and valedictorian will be Mary Lenda Herrington, Raymond.

In her high school career at Raymond, Lenda has won memberships in the Beta Club, the Y-Teens, F.H.A., and 4-H Club. She is also a member of the basketball team and a Hi-Stepper.

She plans to attend Hinds Junior College next year and major in secretarial science.

Rev. Aubrey B. Smith, pastor of Yazoo City's First Methodist Church, and Dr. Edmund J. Gleazer, Jr., Executive Director of the American Association of Junior Colleges, will be the commencement speakers as Hinds Junior College graduates take to the aisles next month.

Rev. Smith, who has been invited to preach the Commencement Sermon on Sunday, May 18, has previously served as conference missionary secretary and chairman of the board of evangelism of the Mississippi Annual Conference of the Methodist Church.

Prior to his position in Yazoo City, he served as pastor of Parkway Heights Methodist Church in Hattiesburg.

Dr. Gleazer, slated to speak during the Commencement Exercises on Friday, May 23, is a native of Philadelphia. After graduating from Graceland College, in Tamone, Iowa, in 1936 at the age of twenty, Mr. Gleazer furthered his education so as to receive his A.B. degree from UCLA in 1938, his Ed. M degree from Temple University in 1943 and his Ed. D from Harvard University in 1953.

Dr. Gleazer has served eleven years as president of Graceland College, and immediately before assuming his present post, was the director of the national program of public relations for The American Association of Junior Colleges.

Drama Club To Present 'Proud Age' Friday Night

By CAROLYN BARTON

The lights in the college auditorium will be dimmed, the silver grey velvet curtains of the stage will be opened, and the Hinds Junior College audience will share with many other audiences who have seen with delight The Proud Age, a production par excellence, at 8 p. m., Friday.

Written by Stanley Richards, this play was first produced at the Bellport Theater, New York, in July, 1949.

The Hinds cast, talented and equipped with initiative, characterized by hard work, and directed by Prof. Fred L. Brooks, capable

Daniels To Direct Wesley Foundation For 1958-59 Year

John Daniels, Clinton, was chosen, at the regular weekly meeting of the Hinds Junior College Wesley Foundation last Monday evening, to head the organization for the coming year.

Other officers elected by the group are the following: Donna Musil, Vicksburg, vice-president; Ann Taylor, Flushing, New York, secretary; Hubert Williams, Memphis, Tenn., social chairman; and Jerry Simpson, Natrona Heights, Penn., publicity chairman.

An installation service for the new officers is planned for next Monday evening, April 28, at 8:15, in the Raymond Methodist Church.

All Methodist students are invited to this service. Campus Methodists will assemble at the music auditorium for transportation to the Church.

Refreshments will be served following the service.

Dr. Nathan S. Hall To Deliver Hinds' Science Address

Dr. Nathan Scott Hall, laboratory director, University of Tennessee—Atomic Energy Commission, Agricultural Research Laboratory, Oak Ridge, Tenn., will give the dedicatory address for the new science building at Hinds Junior College, Thursday night, May 1, at 8 o'clock in the college auditorium.

Prior to his present position, Dr. Hall has held professorships at Michigan State College and at North Carolina State College; and he has served as soil scientist of the United States Atomic Energy Commission, Washington, D. C., and of the North Carolina University Agricultural Mission to Peru, Lima, Peru.

He holds a Ph.D. degree from North Carolina State College, a Bachelor's from Rhode Island State College, and the M. A. degree from the University of Missouri.

speech instructor, promise to all who come a very successful and enjoyable performance.

The story takes place in the living room of a hotel suite in New York City. Leonora Street (Melinda Ambrose), a very successful prima donna, arrives in New York for her forthcoming concert. Sylvia Harris (Jo Anne Adcock), a reporter and old-time friend, sounds off on a discordant note when she reminds Leonora that she is now past forty, consequently has lost a goodly portion of her one-time great sex appeal, and must now look solely to her voice to win her laurels.

This blow, together with ensuing disappointments—which point suspiciously in that same direction—prompt Leonora to test her appeal and she uses a promising young musician, Jimmy Roark (Charles Wall), as her testing ground. Having satisfied herself that she still has appeal, and having demonstrated her power of conquest to those who doubted, gives her the necessary lift and she continues gaily on her successful career.

Here is that rare thing, an intelligent comedy, written with understanding and humor.

Other characters in the play are Victoria Blake (Dot Grimes), Louise Rumsey (Lou Bradshaw), Leopold Morse (Dee Greathouse), Mrs. Strauss (Carolyn Barton), Mr. Strauss (Robert Seawright), Madame Vandinetti (Margaret White), Dorothy Morse (Margarita Morris), Mattie Roark (Iris McKay), delivery boy (James Brantley), and the waiter (Russ Harris).

The production staff consists of Larry Craft, student director; James Brantley, stage manager; with the publicity committee made up of John Daniel, Barbara Clifford, Betty Smith, Mike Ferris, and Bill Moore.

On the make-up committee are Eleanor Johnson, Patsy Wade, Virginia Ronken, and Linda Jones. Regina Godley is in charge of lighting, and Sidney Comfort is sound effects manager.

Personal properties are to be handled by James Milner and Mike Ferris. James Brantley and Mike Ferris are managers of stage settings.

Ushers are Betty Smith, Barbara Clifford, Naomi Herrin, and Thelma Huff.

There are no charges for admission.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Senior Class Nears Farewell Mark

The hands of eternity have at last reached the point from which we collegiates must bid a fond, permanent farewell to the high-schoolers in our midst.

Yes, the curtain is fast dropping on Hinds' last senior class. In less than two weeks they will be boarding the buses for Florida and a good time on Hinds' last Senior Trip.

The place will seem empty without them.

But looking even farther than this, it is easy to see that the place will seem even emptier long after the Florida-bound engines have cooled, long after the last twelfth grade head has peered down from over the balcony, long after the last Hinds High war whoop has rung the rafters of an athletic event. Hinds won't seem the same — won't be the same — for years after their departure.

As we glance over the past year, we can catch only a glimpse of the glory that Hinds High has brought to this campus since its establishment. Scant months ago, we remember, a congregation herded in front of the Administration Building, bedecked in the most lovely costumes, ready to ride in Hinds High's homecoming parade. The pageant that the high-school produced was beauty in motion — but so was the football team's thrilling 10-7 victory over favored Byram. This win marked history's first time to grant an Eagle football team a victory over the Bulldogs.

As the scene shifted from the gridiron to the hardwood court, the Hinds gals began to show their stuff. Sweeping to some straight wins before being decked by one point by a revenge-minded Byram sextet, the Eaglettes brought high honor to this Raymond campus as they picked runner-up laurels in the South-Mississippi tourney and placed fourth in the state. During all this, the boys, too, were playing some good basketball, for everyone easily remembers the CAC contests in our gym. It was during this event that the Eagles stopped first-seeded Vicksburg Culkin cold, 50-48.

The play, Judy Pulls the Curtain, the Hinds' seniors produced was a very entertaining piece of work that was an immediate hit on campus.

And so another high-school graduation is near — but this isn't just an ordinary graduation, for the 55 boys and girls that carry diplomas away from that all-important ceremony will have more than a diploma — they'll have a commission to uphold the high standards of Hinds High for the rest of their lives.

Jewel, Gem Describes True Friend

Friend: One who cherishes kind regard for another person; one who regards a thing with favor; an adherent; ally.

A friend is a person—a warm, living, human individual that will stand by you in all times. A friend is culture, rock-and-roll, and wisdom all wrapped up in one big package and tied with the ribbon of love. A friend knows history, the good cafes, and what happened to Little Orphan Annie last week. A friend has advice, time, and sometimes money. A friend is blessed with feelings, but not too many; food, but not too often; and a mouth, but not too big. A true friend realizes that although he's loved, wanted, and respected, he is never always in demand; a friend knows when to "butt in"—when to "butt out." A friend is the type of guy that will help you with your homework, but won't do it for you. A friend is a jewel; a gem found only by the fortunate on the stroll through life.

Petite Lass To Continue Education At State University In September

By Florence Hearn

"A head packed full of brains and a heart packed full of sunshine." This saying was put in the Redwood High School annual to describe the petite lady in the Hindsonian place of honor this week, Miss Pansy Jue.

Pansy was born in Carey, Miss., on June 5, 1939, to Mr. and Mrs. Y. L. Jue. However, she moved to Vicksburg while she was still in grammar school.

This black haired, brown eyed, lass is making definite plans to continue her education. She plans to enter Ole Miss next fall with a major in business education.

This year Pansy was elected "Most Intelligent Girl" at Hinds. The honor is very well deserved by her, too.

Pansy has very little spare time, because she is a day student and rides the bus from Vicksburg every day. However, Pansy likes to dance, read, and sew during her spare time.

Many of the very beautiful clothes you see Pansy wearing are of her own making.

Collecting stuffed animals and listening to popular music are some of Pansy's favorite hobbies.

Favorite foods for this diminutive lass are fried chicken and french fried potatoes.

While attending high school at Redwood, Pansy took part in many activities. Among these are Future Homemakers of America, 4-H Club, Glee Club, annual staff, and Tri-Hi-Y.

Pansy received many awards while in high school. Chief among the awards was the scholastic award for two years, the Daughters of American Revolution award, the Business and Professional Women's award, and the valedictory award.

During Pansy's stay at Hinds she has been a member of the Future Business Leaders of America, the Women's Athletic Association, and Phi Theta Kappa. Pansy is publicity chairman of F.B.L.A. and vice-president of P.T.K.

Pansy, may all the success in the world be yours. You are a very deserving person, and may God bless you in all your undertakings.

Poet's Corner*TO A SCHOLAR

Why worry so you mixed-up doll
Your efforts are not for naught,
Your pretty nose too long in books
Gives you visions never taught.

The worries of the world upon you
Cast them off and set a goal—
If your chain seems too heavy
Eagle-like can be your soul.

I know not why the sun sets;
Deep riddles my mind doth shun;
If thou the scholar would just accept
God's miracles for only one.

But if perhaps thou should find
An answer to this weary load,
Yet still will I in child-like state
Remain steadfast upon my road.

Open-mindedness is a blessing,
Non-conformity a silly bird,
Acceptance comes with the needing
And thou, O scholar, must weigh God's word.

College Culture Activities On Tap

This time of year is full — absolutely burgeoning — with culture.

The choir of Hinds Junior College is forever on the move; the other segments of the music department are always offering new and varied productions. Take for example the many recitals being offered on the Hinds' stage.

In addition to this, the Lendon Players will present on this coming Friday night, The Proud Age solely for your entertainment.

On the Thursday following that, the formal opening of Hinds quarter-million dollar science building will be held; this is slated as a strictly lavish affair.

On the non-cultural, but highly entertaining side, Hinds has booked some two baseball games, 2 tennis matches, and a like number of track meets, approximately half of which will be held on this campus. Other activities include two parties, two picnics, and one Senior Class trip.

Anyone planning on being bored in the remaining four-and-one-half weeks?

SCALING THE CLEF

Music Said To Be The Language Of Mankind's Races

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Music, Music, Music!

It has been said that music is the only universal language. If this fact be true, then here on the Hinds campus you, dear reader, should have met the people of many lands during recitals and other musical events.

* * *

The Hinds choir will be taking a "Holiday for Sings" in old New Orleans during the weekend of May 3.

* * *

Friday, the Band and Hi-Steppers will gallop over to Clinton, where the groups will participate in the Youth Carnival Parade.

* * *

Entrances and exits galore will be made in the college auditorium on April 25 when the Lendon Players again take the stage to present "The Proud Age." Make plans now to attend this production.

* * *

On Monday, April 28, Carol Jean Benton and Myrtie Moore will take their places at the piano and organ, respectively, to perform in recital for all Hindsonians.

* * *

The Choir Sings:

- at Calvary Baptist Church in Vicksburg Sunday night.
- at the LeTourneau plant in Vicksburg Thursday afternoon.

* * *

Hinds own Mrs. Geneva Reeves entertained the Jackson Maids and Matrons club with various selections yesterday.

* * *

The Hi-Steppers, dance band, twirlers, and the Belles were very well received by the Alabama Association of Textile Manufacturers in Biloxi last week-end.

* * *

Billie Jean Bridges and Myrtie Moore presented a voice and piano recital last night that was immensely enjoyed.

* * *

Thursday night, playing the piano in recital will be Billie Bridges (Man, she must really get around!) and Nancy Turnage, another versatile musician. Also on the program for Thursday night will be Jeanine McGuire, who will be blending her vocal selections with the numbers of the two pianists.

Baptist Students Attend Retreat At Roosevelt Park

The annual spring retreat of the Mississippi BSU was held at East Central Junior College last Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

The theme of the retreat was "Workman Unashamed." The program featured such personalities as Dr. David K. Alexander, editor of the Baptist Student; Mr. Maurice P. Willis, State Director of Baptist Student Union in Alabama; Rev. L. Gordon Sansing, Secretary of the Cooperative Mission Department, Mississippi Baptist Convention Board; Rev. James Fancher, pastor of the Bay Springs Baptist Church; Rev. Cook, pastor of the Clarke-Venerable Baptist Church; Mr. Vincent, president of East Central Junior College; and Mr. Ralph Winders, State Director of Baptist Student Union work in Mississippi.

The retreat was kicked off Friday night with Mr. Robert Taylor, minister of music of the First Baptist church of Starkville, Miss., leading the singing. Kearney Travis, Jr., president of the Mississippi Baptist Student Union, and Bob Sheffield, state devotional vice-president, presided over the Friday night session.

The Saturday agenda included conferences, business sessions and talks. The main order of business in the business sessions was the election of new state officers.

The newly elected officers included: Julius Collum, Ole Miss, president; Ron Stewart, William Carey, enlistment vice president; Truman McKenzie, Mississippi Southern, social vice president; Shirley Nickle, Blue Mountain, devotional vice president; Kay Smith, Delta State, secretary; Miss Betty Jean Weeks, MSCW, student director; Dr. McKiegney, Mississippi State, faculty advisor; Rev. D. C. Applegate, Mississippi State, pastor advisor.

The local officers who made the trip were: Selma Earnest, Myrtie Moore, Joanne Carpenter, Barbara Speight, Bobby Sheffield, and Buddy Calhoun.

The groups from Belhaven, Baptist Hospital and Draughons Business College accompanied the Hinds group to the retreat. Billy Swilley drove the bus.

WORD TO ALL STUDENTS FROM STATE DIRECTOR OF MISSISSIPPI GROUP

Timely advice to students who may seek work during the summer comes from Mr. John F. Pate, manager of the Social Security District Office, Jackson. He advises those students who plan to work to get their social security cards now, as nine out of every ten jobs are covered by social security, and it takes some time to secure a card.

Mr. Pate stresses that as soon as one begins work he must give his employer his name and number exactly as they appear on the social security card.

Myrna Stuart To Present Recital Tuesday Evening

The sophomore recital of Myrna Loy Stuart, student of Mr. Leslie Reeves, will be held in Hinds' auditorium on Tuesday, April 29, at 8:15.

In the course of the performance, Miss Stuart, who is known locally as a member of the Belles, Hinds singing group, and as a soloist of note, will present some twelve selections.

The schedule is as follows:

"The Jewel Song" from Faust
"Mi Chiamano Mimi" from the opera "La Boheme" by Puccini
"Jeune Fillette"
"Si Mes Vers Availert Des Ailes"
"L'Heure Exquise"

HINDS GIRLS ENSEMBLE SET TO SING BEFORE TWO GROUPS IN WEEK

The Hinds Girls Ensemble will sing at the Utica High School chapel service next week.

This week the group has appeared at a chapel service at the Raymond Cons. School. Tomorrow the ensemble will sing at the Le Tourneau Plant, Vicksburg.

Members of the group are Mary Tolar, Mary Carolyn Hart, Myrna Loy Stuart, Sharrott McClurg, Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Jimmie Shepard, Sidney Comfort, and Virginia Ronken.

Dorothy Brock serves as the accompanist for the ensemble.

Miss Boyd Visits On Local Campus For Entire Week

Miss Ruth Boyd of Whitehaven, Wisconsin, is visiting on the campus this week.

Miss Boyd was a member of the English faculty and was the college debate coach from 1936-56. During this period the Hinds debate team won more state championships than any other junior college team, and received creditable ratings against senior squads at the University of Alabama debate conferences.

Former president of the Mississippi Delta Kappa Gamma, Miss Boyd addressed that group Saturday in their spring convention in Jackson.

Miss Boyd is the house guest of Miss Fleta Whitaker, head of the Home Economics Department.

Hard work on the part of each individual team member and patience on the part of Coach Frank Young are beginning to pay off for the Eagle cinder aggregation.

Sprint man Levi Barber took the 20 and the century yard sprints last week. His time of 10.4 in the 100 was good enough to take first place. Last Friday after running the 220, Levi got sick because of an upset stomach and minutes later came back to place third in the broad jump. His 20 feet three and one half inch effort was just six and one half inches off the winning jump. Levi also ran the first leg on the 440 and 880 yard relay teams. He was high point man in the meet with 14 1/4 points.

Hinds' 440, 880, and mile relay teams are among the best in the state. The 440 and mile relay groups easily took the top spot, while the 880 team had a little tough luck and finished behind the field. Barber, Robert Pullen, Oliver "Moon" Russell, and Don Oakes compose the 880 relay team; Barber, Pullen, Ronnie Melancon, and Eddie Hendry compose the 440 group; and Melancon, Hendry, Pullen, and Gerald Lee make up the mile relay team.

* * *

Another workhorse, Hendry, turned in creditable performances last week. Eddie took first place in the high hurdles, ran a leg on both winning relay teams, placed third in the shot put, and took part in the pole vault event.

Ronnie and Gerald both did well in their respective departments. Melancon took first place in the 440 yard jaunt, ran a leg on both winning relay teams, and participated in the 880 yard run. Lee captured second place honors in the mile run and anchored the mile relay team.

Lamar "Meaty" Gates got in on the act by heaving his 16-pound marble 41 feet seven inches, bettering the second best throw by a foot.

M. J. Harrison had bad luck in running the low hurdles. M. J. was in second place as the hurdlers neared the finish, but as he went over the last hurdle, his left knee didn't quite clear, knocking over the hurdle, and thus knocking him completely off stride. By the time he regained his balance, he had slipped back to fourth.

Charles Causey tied for second place in the high jump and took fifth place in the broad jump.

Kenneth Guifbeaux, who had never picked up a discus before this track season, is improving every day and finished third last week.

CURTIS

"Moon" Russell was just "discovered" last week. While the football team was taking their daily wind sprints, Russell turned in a 10.7 hundred yard dash, and moved up to the varsity track team.

Scrapin's thinks Sunflower was just lucky in last week's meet. This weekend as the Eagles travel to Sunflower for another meet, ole man Scrapin's will be on hand to survey the outcome. Here's predicting that the Trojans come out on the short end this time.

Hinds High Track Places Seventh In Capitol Conference

By JAMES CLEVELAND

The Capitol Athletic Conference's annual track meet came to a sizzling halt Monday when David Glasgow crashed across the tape in the final lap of the classic mile relay to give Utica a thrilling photo finish 55 1/2-51 1/3 victory over closely pressing Port Gibson.

The two teams were all even in firsts with five apiece.

Culkin Academy placed third behind the fierce front-runners with 39 1/2 points. Raymond Consolidated made a fine fourth place showing at 30 1/2. MSD nipped Madison 28 1/2 to 28 1/3 for fifth, followed by Byram with 20, Hinds High (17 1/3), Jett (11), and Redwood (10).

In the boys' division, five athletes took individual honors with two firsts each. Two speed merchants from Port Gibson swept the dash categories. Brown took 100 and 220 yard firsts and Wheelis led the pack in the longer 440 and 880 yard runs. Any shortage by Utica was redeemed, however, by Glasgow who took sparkling firsts in both the high and low hurdle runs.

A pair of fine young athletes from Culkin garnered two wins each as the academy dominated the field events. Kinnebrew captured the broad jump and discus and Griffing paced the high jump and shot put. Utica led Port Gibson 47 1/2 to 45 1/3 in the boy's events.

In the girl's division, Byram squeaked past Madison 18-17 to win top honors. Raymond placed third with 12 points. The Byram lassies didn't pick up a single first but won on the basis of one second, four thirds, and one fourth place finish. Barbara Fugate of Madison won individual honors with wins in the 50 and 75 yard dashes. Raymond and Hinds placed 1-2 in the 200 yard relay, the local cinder crews best event of the afternoon.

Two gold trophies were presented to Utica for victory in the boy's division and for the overall meet title. Byram received an award, symbolic of their victory in the girl's events. Strangely, the Byram boys had a measly two points to place last in the boy's class.

Baseballers, Cindermen Win In Tuesday Battles*Diamond Darts
Chill Clarke 9
By Neat Margin

Coach Troy Rick's Hinds Junior College baseball nine, readied by an easy 11-1 home victory over Clarke Tuesday, will invade Poplarville this Thursday to fulfill a return date with the Pearl River Wildcats.

In yesterday's runfest, Hinds unveiled a well-balanced batting attack that was neatly coupled with the blazing fast pitching prowess of Eagle ace Lamont Echols. Echols, along with relief hurler W. C. Alderman, fanned twelve Newton swingers in the affair, while allowing but two hits. Billy Blackburn, Clarke took the loss, gave up six hits and whiffed some five Hinds batsmen.

Eagle catcher Pruitt Blalock led the locals at the plate with two doubles in four tries, but Lamont Echols horned in on the batting glory as well by planting a Blackburn curve ball into the bushes across the road that serves as a barrier in right field, pushing two men home in front of him. Other Eagle diamonders who collected singles were Marvin Crocker, shortstop, Jimmy Bishop, third baseman, and Carroll King, left fielder.

Billy Blackburn and Johnny Olander got the two Clarke hits.

Hinds' record stands now at five wins and two defeats. The Eagles have taken wins over Southwest twice, Clarke twice, and Pearl River once, and have lost to Perkinston in two encounters.

College Physical Education Ladies Attend Play Day

Hinds physical education students attended the play day at Delta State College last Friday and Saturday.

Regina Godley represented Hinds in the tennis tournaments and was on the winning team of the day, Virginia Ronken represented Hinds in badminton, and Polly Harrington participated in other individual sports of the morning.

In the afternoon the aggregation participated in team sports; softball, volleyball, and deck tennis.

Teams were made up of one person from each school represented. The schools that attended the play day were Southern, Mississippi College, Northwest Junior College, M.S.C.W., and Ole Miss.

After the activities were over Saturday the group enjoyed a banquet at which time the awards were presented to the winning team.

Miss Peggy Pennel, piano and organ instructor, accompanied the group.

Women's Athletic Group Sponsors Tournament In Archery On Local Campus

The Women's Athletic Association at Hinds is sponsoring an archery tournament.

Young's Track Squad Baffles Bobcat Attack

A classy pack of Hinds Junior College cindermen plastered Jones' Bobcats 87-43 in a dual dilly here Tuesday afternoon.

Coach Frank Young's thinclads were sparked by Gerald Lee and Ed Hendry, Hinds' only performers, to acquire more than one first place. Doug Knight paced the losers.

The Eagles will travel to Moorhead Saturday to encounter the Sunflower Trojans.

NEW SCIENCE BUILDING—Hinds Junior College will dedicate its modern quarter-million-dollar science building tomorrow. The one story structure is modern in every respect. The structure is equipped with the latest equipment and laboratory facilities and supplies. The newest addition to the Hinds campus, the science building is the beginning of a major two-stage building program at Hinds. A streamlined structure, the plant houses the entire science department. Four instructors have private offices in the building.

Modern Facilities, Outstanding Staff Afford Students With Top Program

By Marily Phillips

The first building in Hinds Junior College's major two stage building program, the science building began to function during the last week of January, when the installation of major equipment was completed.

The east section of the building is reserved for the physics department, which includes physics labs, classrooms, storage rooms, and professors' offices. A new DC-AC electrical panel controls voltage in this section of the building.

Heating Equipment

The central heating and air-conditioning equipment together with the control panel for the new electrical installations occupy the west side of the building.

The south end of the building, which is assigned to the biology department, contains lecture rooms, laboratory, office, cabinets, and work space adequate for the large classes of students in this department.

Chemistry classes meet in the north section where spacious lecture rooms, laboratories with hoods between, and a central storeroom for chemicals and apparatus are now in use. The glass cabinet adjoining is said to appear attractive enough for any modern living-room.

Many Improvements

Among the improvements over other plans for science buildings, this building contains offices for individual professors, rather than for departments. Well-lighted lecture rooms equipped with student desk chairs on raised platform levels and facilities for visual aids and demonstrations show the modern trend in this building.

Classes now meeting in the science building are biology with Mr. T. T. Beemon as instructor; physical science survey courses and chemistry with Mr. Robert Ringer as the instructor; chemistry with Miss Genevieve Williams as instructor; physics with Mr. Frank Stephenson as the instructor; and high school physics with Mr. B. D. Spraberry as instructor.

Science Structure To Be Dedicated In Ceremony

By WAYNE TROTTER

Hinds Junior College's quarter million dollar science building is to be officially dedicated tomorrow, May 1, in a dignitary-studded ceremony that will bring to a conclusion the planning and building of several years.

During the course of the day's events, students and guests will tour the 13,000 square foot building from 2 to 8 p. m., and will attend the services in the auditorium at 8 p. m. Prior to the eight o'clock extravaganza, official guests will participate in a banquet that will be held in the cafeteria at 6:30.

Dr. Nathan Scott Hall of the Atomic Energy Commission in Oak Ridge, Tenn., will speak during the ceremony slated for eight.

Modern Building

The visitors to the campus on this dedication day will tour one of the most modern new buildings in the entire Southland. Incorporated in this building are several spacious well-lighted lecture rooms fully equipped with the students' desks, set apart on raised levels, modern laboratories, and visual aid facilities. Separate offices for individual professors, and air - conditioning equipment can also be found within the building.

Day's Program

2:00 to 8:00 p.m. — Tour of science building and refreshments.

6:30—Banquet in cafeteria for visiting speakers.

Board of Trustees, Supervisors, Press and Official Guests.

8:00—Invocation — Rev. Clay F. Lee, pastor, Raymond Methodist Church.

Welcome Address — Stokes V. Robertson, Sr., representing College Board of Trustees.

Greetings from Mississippi Junior Colleges — B. L. Hill, Supervisor State Junior Colleges.

Greetings from Mississippi Senior Colleges — Dr. E. R. Jobe, Executive Secretary, Board of Trustees, Institutions of Higher Learning.

Music by college choir.

Introduction of guests and guest speaker — G. M. McLendon, Hinds Junior College President.

Address—Dr. Nathan Scott Hall, Atomic Energy Commission, Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

BIOLOGY HEAD AT Hinds Junior College, Mr. T. T. Beemon, is shown leaving the ultra-modern greenhouse located just to the rear of his laboratory in the new science building. This is but one of the many novel and useful features found within the quarter-million dollar building. The structure is to be officially dedicated tomorrow.

New Building Reveals Good Example

Hinds Junior College stands today—or rather tomorrow—as a sterling example that science in America is not dying, but just beginning.

For, on this very campus, down past the cafeteria, a little beyond the music building, and right across from the infirmary, is a building that ranks certainly amongst the top edifices of its kind in the entire Southland, if not in the nation. We're speaking, of course, of the spanking-new science building that Hinds officials have built for our use.

When one first enters this newly-built structure made of brick, he cannot help but notice that this is a building that cannot be surpassed in that oldest of the modern materials—cleanliness. Around the entire structure there is a glow of that which is next to Godliness; it's spic and span and just beautiful.

A quick glance into a classroom will convince the stranger that Hinds has built only the best this time. All classrooms in the building have been designed for practical learning. Every room from the labs to the theatre-type lecture rooms gives the impression this school means business—these students are out to learn.

Tomorrow Hinds will stage the grand opening of this professor's dream; tomorrow our officials' scheme-house of the past few years will become our campus dream-house for the next few decades. Down to help dedicate the science building will be Dr. Nathan Scott Hall, who will be the featured speaker. Other celebrities will be liberally sprinkled amongst the many guests who will swarm to our campus for the event.

To Dr. Hall and to our other distinguished guests we say "Welcome."

To Mr. McLendon, the board of trustees, the taxpayers of our three county area, and the faculty in general, we say "Thank you."

And to you, you lucky science students, we are going to voice a hearty "Be proud, be proud," for we know that, deep down, you are.

Annuals Good, Although Have Errors

Amid shouts of joy, rustling for money, and gold-colored fingers, the 1958 edition of The Eagle, Hinds annual, was handed out last Monday.

This is a good yearbook. It takes the highlights of Hinds' school year, blends them with the right amount of showmanship, and comes up with a pleasing-to-the-eye combination of memories and fact. The faces of the friends you cherish most have been skilfully preserved between the lovely black and gold covers of this volume.

Yes, this is a good yearbook. But, like any publication (ours included), it embodies a goodly number of mistakes. Mistakes in a newspaper are part of the game; so is it with an annual. They cannot be eliminated, but they can be cut to the minimum.

Our thanks go to editor Alma Lee Grantham, her staff, and Mr. and Mrs. Beemon for preparing this book.

We know that next year a better Eagle will roll off the press, as the school's yearbook keeps pace with the school.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Annual Editor, Future Business Head Serves As Publication's Honoree

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Who is the Hindsonian's Sophomore of the Week?

This week's honor student has been the victim of a sneaky (dum de dum dum) conspiracy perpetrated by the victim's sister and this reporter.

Women's Athletic Association last year.

You've guessed it! This week the Hindsonian is saluting Alma Lee Grantham!

Alma Lee is an industrious secretarial science major. The youngest, of the young ladies who work in the Business Office, Alma Lee is sort of the Business Offices' Girl Friday—She's an important girl the rest of the week, too, and makes the honor roll.

This five foot, seven inch lass is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Grantham of Terry.

Listening to pop music, filling her scrapbook, and popping her gum, and reading are among the favorite pastimes of Alma Lee. Judging from her favorite foods, French fries, steak, and ice cream, we imagine that exercising to keep slim might be one of Alma's hobbies.

Alma Lee Grantham feels a definite need for the spiritual side of life, therefore, she takes great interest in the Baptist Student Union. Because of her dedication to the highest ideals of life, Alma was elected the secretary-treasurer of this year's B.S.U.

When Alma Lee Grantham graduates from Hinds in May, she hopes to find a job as a secretary so that she will be able to work at a type of work she loves.

The Hindsonian tips its hat to one whose utmost goal in life is not to be famous or wealthy, but to make life happy for those around her. May fortune radiate the same smile at you, Alma Lee, that you radiate to others. One warning: Pick your boss carefully. The boss you pick may someday be your husband!

ALMA LEE GRANTHAM

To identify the recipient of this paper's honor, we'll give you the facts, ma'm, just the facts:

- 1.) She is a girl classified as an identifiable character.
- 2.) She is the editor of the annual; she was assistant editor last year.
- 3.) She is president of the FBLA, although she was that organization's corresponding secretary last year.
- 4.) The Lendon Players claimed the honoree as a member last year, and she is again this year active in the dramatic organization.
- 5.) She is a member of the YWCA Cabinet.
- 6.) This girl was a member of the

Poetry Like A Star In Many Respects

By CAROLYN BARTON

The Middleburg Campus of Middleburg, Vt., reported a poetess as saying that defense of "modernism" in poetry is no longer necessary. A quote by Lorca, Spanish poet and winner of last year's Nobel prize, concluded her arguments: "Poetry should be like a star which is a world but looks like a diamond."

If you women are worrying about job-competition in the future, don't. The Holy Name college Collegian says that while the population goes up 20 per cent, the number of working people will climb only five per cent.

From Almanian, Alma, Mich., college: In Dean Acheson's book "Power and Diplomacy" he advocates keeping our bombs poised for attack. Instead of "poof, there goes civilization," the new thought will be "poof, there goes civilization."

The most drastic of all measures to eliminate the controversial style-rage is this from the Weber College Signpost. The editors predict that at the Ogden, Utah, school a "mass termination of the education of many talented males" if their classmates persist in wearing outfits making them look like "stovepipes with hair."

Ask this question of any student three weeks from now, When do leaves begin to turn? His answer will be, The night before examination! From the Carr Central High School Tattler.

From the Millsaps Purple and White comes a poem of dedication to their alma mater.

The building on which I knock, Had knowledge on the door. I have been here before, I choose this art not for fame,

My urge for knowledge is my only claim.

When I acquire it, it is mine,

A LITTLE OVER one year ago—in January, 1957—Hinds Junior College officials were breaking the ground for the construction of a brand new science building, the same building that is to be dedicated tomorrow. Shown taking part in the ceremony are from left to right T. E. Wheeler, Reed Construction Company, contractor; President G. M. McLendon;

F. J. Stephenson, physics instructor; J. T. Liddle, architect; Miss Genevieve Williams, chemistry instructor; F. M. Greaves, president of the Board of Trustees; J. E. Aldridge, Hinds County Superintendent of Education; Robert E. Ringer, chemistry instructor; and T. T. Beemon, biology instructor.

Registrar Tells Honor Group For College Students

Three straight A's in college introduce the honor roll for the fifth term, released this week from the registrar's office.

Straight A's were made by Betty Furness, Claude Roberts, and Evelyn Sorrells.

Others in college who won "honors", with grades of A's and B's are: Carol Jean Benton, Sue Ann Boozer, Ivey Burton, Ira Burton, Buddy Calhoun, Joann Carpenter, Geraldine Clower, James Coley, Marvin Crocker, Selma Earnest, Warren Fortner, Dick Gabriel, Warren Garrett, Jan Geddie, Alma Lee Grantham, Vincent Guy, Velma Ruth Hand.

Faye Rollins, George Self, Jimmie Sheppard, Barbara Speight, Joe Stone, William Thomas, Henry Thornton, Ray Tomlinson, Sara Webb, Ann Williams, Morris Willis.

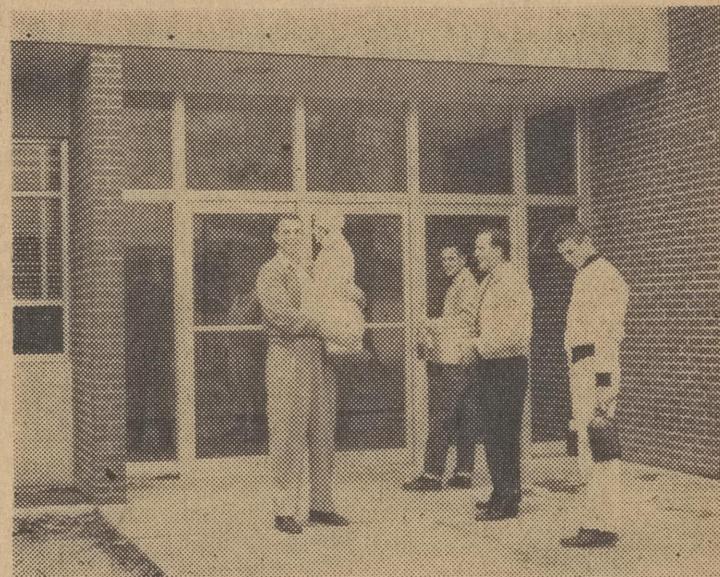

Honors in high school went to John Armstrong, Mary Bess Beard, Dorothy Brock, Nancy Chapman, Bill Ferguson, Mary Lenda Herrington, Maurice Holliday, Virginia Owen, Ethel Rumbavage, Robert Seawright, Donald Sheffield, and Winnie Lou Smith.

Hindsonian Staff Set To Travel To Senatobia Friday

Eight members of the staff of the Hindsonian, Hinds Junior College's weekly publication, will become delegates to the Mississippi Junior College Press Association convention to be held this Friday and Saturday in Senatobia.

Wayne Trotter, Bobby Sheffield, Marilyn Phillips, Carolyn Barton, Buddy Calhoun, Barbara Clifford, Barbara Speight, and James Cleveland will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Irl Dean Rhodes on the trip to the campus of Northwest Mississippi Junior College.

The group, expected to arrive on the Northwest campus sometime between 2 and 4 in the afternoon, will register immediately and will attend a tea to be held on the lawn of the home of Northwest president R. D. McLendon. Later in the evening they will attend the formal opening of the convention, a banquet, and an hour of entertainment.

MOVING TIME—These four Hinds students don't seem to be having much trouble with the "heavy equipment" that Hinds' new science building houses, but the structure is fully equipped, nevertheless. Other than this four-man load, there may be found within in the 13,000 square foot edifice laboratories, offices for each professor, a darkroom, a number of classrooms, and several lecture rooms.

SCIENCE STUDENTS AT HINDS Junior College study biology in one of the fully-equipped labs in the institution's new science building. This is but one of the many well-supplied rooms in the new quarter-million dollar, 13,000 square foot science building. Included in the facilities is space for a complete air-conditioning system, which is to be added at a later date.

Today's Music Does Anything In Modern Era

By BUDDY CALHOUN

There's music to do practically anything by these days so we figured we'd just add our suggestions to the list. How about "Music to Burn By" for little devils, or maybe "Music to Swim Underwater By" (This record has no sound recorded onto it because you can't hear underwater!) Now here's a good one that ought to sell several million copies — "Music to Nag By". Still "Music to Go Crazy By" would probably be No. 1 on the Hit Parade for it would contain all the current top hits — played at the same time. Then, of course, we could revive that popular old favorite "Music to Fail By." Our last suggestion for a "Music to Do Something By" will have to be "Music to Listen to Music By", for here comes the little men dressed in white!

directs the only airport of its kind in the state, carried the Hindsonian staff member for a spin over the town of Raymond and the college.

AKIN TO STAGE FRIGHT

Carpenter Describes Airplane Ride As 'Biggest Thrill Of A Lifetime'

By JOANNE CARPENTER

This Hindsonian staff member with an over-done air of confidence, shaky knees, an air of expectation, and a little apprehension, climbed into the Hinds Junior College's Piper Super Cruiser Tuesday afternoon for the first air flight of her lifetime. Waving with assumed gaiety to fellow staffers, Irl Dean Rhodes and Florence Hearn, who had also traveled to the 640 acre John Bell Williams Airport just outside of Raymond, yours truly felt something akin to stage fright as Pilot Kennis Bryant breezed swiftly down one of the three 4,000 foot runways.

As the little plane leaped from the ground at 55 m.p.h., with its 100 horsepower engine roaring, the reporter in the back seat waited expectantly for the bottom to fall out. Nothing happened but the plane climbed steadily higher. Then came the biggest thrill of a lifetime. For the first time this scribe looked down and saw the world lying at her feet. Stage fright, apprehension, and butterflies were forgotten in this amazing experience.

As fear subsided, interest grew. Under skillful hand the plane circled idly over the school campus, Raymond Lake, Raymond, and out-

PTK MEMBERS RETURN FROM ANNUAL MEET

Six members of Gamma Lambda Chapter, Phi Theta Kappa, returned recently from the national convention of the honorary society for junior colleges held at Brevard, N. C.

Attending from the local campus were delegates, Ray Tomlinson, Dick Gabriel, Ben Morgan, Gayle Lee, Pansy Jue, and Florence Hearn; and sponsor, Miss Mildred Herrin, and Mrs. Gertrude Rowzee, librarian.

The travelers spent the first night of the trip at Chattanooga, visited Lookout Mountain next morning stopped for a night at Fontana Village, visited Gatlinburg, and arrived in Brevard the following afternoon in time for the opening of the convention.

Dick Gabriel served as official delegate at the convention.

lying areas; and the pilot, Kennis Bryant, Hinds Junior College Aviator Instructor, began to talk. Even if he did this to calm his visitor's nerves, he gave her some very helpful information and pointers.

Apparently many people do not realize that flying lessons are within two or three miles of their domicile. These lessons, which Mr. Bryant teaches, cost only $7 an hour, and only 40 hours are required for private operator's license.

A person could well have confidence in the pilot of this plane as an instructor. He began flying when he was 28. Before coming to Hinds he was chief inspector at the air base in Jackson. Of the seven years that Instructor Bryant has been at Hinds five were spent in flight instructions.

Students of Pilot Bryant also enjoy the most modern of facilities. The specially made tow car and other flying facilities make lessons and instructions easy for the beginner.

Pilot Bryant pointed out that the plane and facilities are kept in good mechanical condition by his students.

One of the most interesting things that he pointed out was the fact that he had never had a lady student. He also pointed out at this time that flying lessons were open to the girls as well as the boys. In fact, Pilot Bryant said he would like to teach at least one girl to fly.

After this short chat, looking at the beautiful scenery, and the tennis game in progress on the campus, we started to descend. If this writer had butterflies going up, it would be hard to say what she had coming down. She was sure and certain that the bottom was going to drop out coming down.

It didn't, and we landed with a screech of tires on a smooth long runway, and rolled calmly up to a 135 by 80 feet modern airplane hanger.

Yours truly hopped, not bounced, out of the plane and thanked the pilot for a memorable afternoon.

Anyone for flying lessons? It would be wonderful to become Instructor Bryant's first girl student. Good use for my next $56.

Spring Outing For Dormitory Groups On Tap Thursday

The annual spring outing for dormitory students is scheduled for Thursday afternoon, 3:30-7:00 p.m.

A full afternoon of recreation at Raymond Lake climaxed by a chicken supper is planned.

General chairman of the outing is Mr. Jack Treloar. In charge of activities is Mr. W. C. Oakes.

Committees named for the event are the following: Transportation, Mr. Walter Gibbes, Mrs. Anne Goo-kin, Mr. Clyde Benton, and Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Spraberry. Food Preparation, Mr. Jack Treloar, Mr. Leslie Reeves, and Mr. Al Rowan. Serving Food: Mrs. Leslie Reeves, Mrs. Al Rowan, Sara M. Smith, Dott Grimes, Polly Harrington, and Sidney Comfort; Clean-up committee: Mr. W. C. Oakes, Curtis Nix, Marvin Crocker, Jogene Hand, and Charles Phillips; and Publicity, Dott Grimes.

Buses are scheduled to transport students to the Lake. They will leave from the front of the Administration Building at 3:45, 4, and 4:15. They will begin to return at 6:30 in time for students to dress for the auditorium program at 8 p.m.

The following menu has been planned for the picnic supper — chicken, rolls, potato chips, pickles, ice cream, and soft drinks.

Students will need to present meal tickets.

Seniors To Leave For Florida Tour Friday Afternoon

Hinds High's senior class will leave the campus by bus Friday afternoon on their senior trip to Florida.

Coach Louis Boteler, sponsor, will accompany the group during the journey.

The first stop for Hinds touring seniors will be Tallahassee, the state capitol, and later Saturday, the group will pay a visit to Waculah Springs. On Saturday night the class members will take advantage of a chance to see the Florida State Circus. Over 450 performers will take part in this event.

Second Semester Exam Slate Given On College Campus

The second semester exams at Hinds Junior College will be held May 16 through May 22 according to the schedule recently released by Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar.

Martha Gillespie To Give Recital On Campus Sun.

Miss Martha Gillespie, senior at L. S. U. and native of Raymond, will present her senior piano recital in the Hinds Junior College auditorium, Sunday afternoon, May 4, at 4 o'clock.

After graduating from Hinds Junior College where she majored in music and won high honors, Martha has studied for two years under Christian Jordan in the L. S. U. School of Music.

The recital, Sunday afternoon, will mark her last stage appearance before leaving for Finland, where she will spend six months as an IFYE student.

Martha's mother, Mrs. Bessie Gillespie, will entertain at an informal reception in the family home in Raymond following the recital.

College Choir To Depart For New Orleans Saturday

The college choir will leave the campus at 5 a.m. Saturday to travel by bus to New Orleans, where they will attend a performance of the opera, Il Trovatore, on Saturday evening.

Swimming in Lake Ponchartrain, and tours of famous spots in the Crescent City will occupy the travelers before curtain time.

On the return trip Sunday, the choir will sing at First Baptist Church at Kenner, La. There they will be guests for a picnic lunch in the park.

Westside Ladies Trip Main Lassies In Softball Game

Westside lassies swept passed their rivals, Main, 8-3 in the first softball game of the season, last Wednesday afternoon.

At the end of four innings, Main led 3-2, but in the fifth inning Westside came to life to put across six runs, with Jimmie Sheppard hitting a homer bringing in three of the six runs. Main was unable to get a run in the final innings.

HINDS ORGAN INSTRUCTOR TO APPEAR SUNDAY EVE AT GALLOWAY CHURCH

Miss Peggy Pennel, organ instructor, will appear Sunday afternoon, May 4, in a recital for the American Guild of Organists.

Miss Pennel will play "From God Naught Shall Divide Me," Krebs; "Elegie," Flor Peeters; and "Arabesque for the Flutes," Langlois.

SENIORS PARTICIPATE IN MATH EXAMINATION LAST MONTH ON HINDS CAMPUS

Hinds High seniors took part in a competitive math examination, sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America last month. Each school which participates in this examination has a first, second, and third place winner.

John "Jack" Armstrong, Edwards, won first place for Hinds. Miss Lurline Stewart presented Jack with a pin signifying this honor in chapel Wednesday.

TROTTER'S STABLES

Car Industry Goes Around In Circles

By WAYNE TROTTER

What's wrong with the American automobile industry? Why aren't cars selling as they should?

These and many other questions must be popping into the head of the average American nowadays, and many elements certainly go into the answers to all of those questions.

* * *

Ten years ago, in 1948, you could buy your brand new Chevrolet, Ford, or Plymouth for about eighteen hundred dollars, today it costs twenty eight or nine hundred. In 1948, four hundred less dollars went to labor than goes now, and seven hundred and fifty less went to materials. Profits on each individual car have decreased in this same period of time.

* * *

But today, auto companies are failing to sell cars as before; Chrys-

WAA Awards Pins To Lassies That Achieve Standard

By REGINA GODLEY

The Women's Athletic Association presented awards to girls who had earned fifty or more points during their freshman and sophomore years in the assembly program this morning.

Pins were given to the girls who had earned 100 points. This is the highest award given to a girl for her participation in sports activities. Receiving the pin were Iris McKay, earning awards in badminton; Florence Hearn receiving awards in badminton and volleyball; and Sharrott McClurg.

Girls who received their letter by earning 50 points were sophomores Jimmie Sheppard, Marilyn Phillips, speedball; Mary Kathryn Gates, tennis, badminton for both freshman and sophomore years; Dot Ann Pickett, field hockey, speedball, volleyball, for two years. Anna Summers, track and basketball; Selma Earnest, volleyball; and Virginia Vaughn, volleyball. Freshman girls who earned their letter this year were Polly Harrington, council star; Faye Rollins, basketball and badminton, Joanne Carpenter and Nancy Pharr, volleyball and cheerleader.

Individual awards were presented to Regina Godley for badminton, singles and doubles, and volleyball; and Virginia Ronken, receiving council star and volleyball.

Special mention was given to the freshman and sophomore girl who had received the most points. Regina Godley, sophomore, received the mention for earning the most points and the freshman who received the most points was Faye Rollins.

COLLEGE DIAMONDEER COMPLETES SEASON AS JONES CANCELS CONTEST

Coach Troy Ricks has announced that the two season-ending baseball games with Jones that were scheduled this week have been cancelled.

ler reports that the company operated in the red for the first quarter of 1958; Ford and General Motors both report subdued profits.

People are putting their money in the bank at near-record rates. They just don't want to buy cars. Some of them are afraid that they won't hold their jobs very long. Money in the bank looks much more attractive to them than money in a car.

Another facet of this nation's recessionary tendencies that has been felt in Detroit is a bill, now pending in Congress, that would reduce the Federal excise tax on automobiles. This is causing many persons to hold off buying a new car until this proposal has had its chance to pass.

* * *

As a usual thing, when the cars won't sell, they're restyled to a great degree in the following year. Expect this next year. Profuse amounts of chrome will be dashed upon the bare sheet-metal; the sculpture process that has proved so popular in a number of '58 cars will still be prevalent; and, naturally, the year will see fins—even more than before.

But the industry isn't thinking of treading down the road to small size and economical performance—at least not yet. They'll leave that to the foreigners, who, during the meantime, will probably outmake and outsell the American manufacturers for the first time since 1905.

State Junior College Tennis, Track Set Saturday

Oakes Directs Statewide Net Teams Saturday

The grand finale of the Mississippi Junior College tennis season will be held on the campus Saturday.

The Eagles will host the annual state meet with the action sure to be exciting.

Teams expected to enter, along with the Eagles, are Perkinston, Pearl River, Copiah-Lincoln, East Central, Jones, Southwest, and Meridian. Activities will start at 8:30 a.m., according to Mr. Bill Oakes, director.

The Eagle netters split two decisions over the past week. On Wednesday, the Eagles nipped East Central 3-2 at Decatur and were defeated by Pearl River at Poplarville Friday. Here are the results:

East Central

Girls singles—Regina Godley (H) defeated Sue Gunter (EC) 6-1; 6-4.

Girls Doubles—Gunter (EC) and Butler (EC) over Fugate (H) and Pharr (H) 7-5; 6-2.

Boys Singles — Wilkerson (EC) over Barnes (H) 6-3; 6-2.

Boys Doubles — Wallace (H) and Bond (H) over Mills (EC) and Daffron (EC) 6-4; 3-6; 6-3; Barnes (H) and Miles (H) over White (EC) and Shelton (EC) 8-6; 8-6.

Pearl River

Boys Singles — Holden (PR) defeated Barnes (H) 12-10; 6-2, Garnett (PR) defeated Wallace (H) 6-0; 6-1, Bond (H) over Heath (PR) 5-7; 6-3; 7-5.

Boys Doubles — Garnett (PR) and Heath (PR) over Wallace (H) and Bond (H) 7-5; 6-1.

Hinds High Cinder Crewmen To Vie For State Honors

By JAMES CLEVELAND

Three members of the Hinds High track team will compete Friday in the state meet at Clinton.

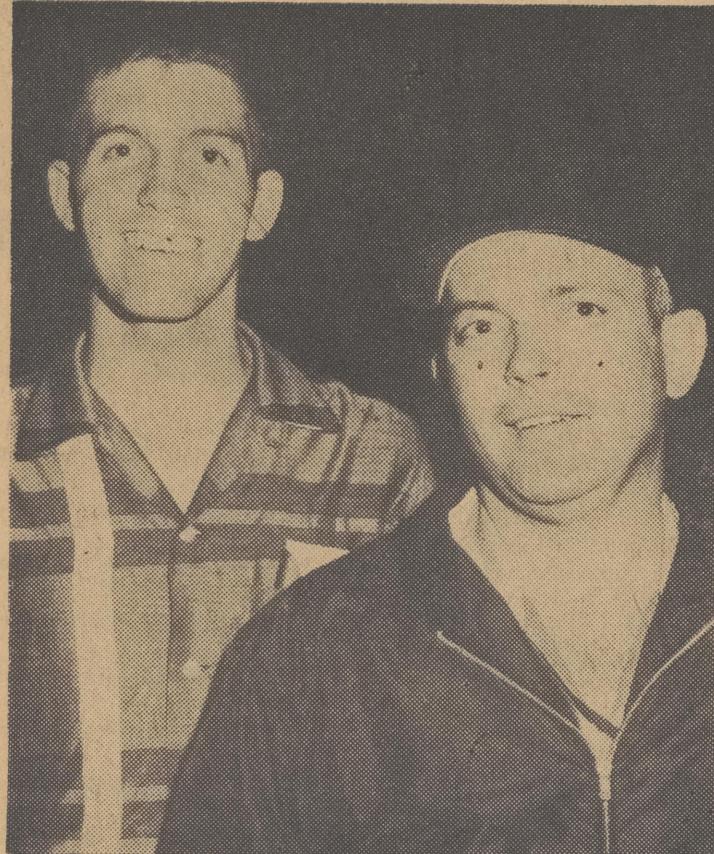

Donald Sheffield will be tossing the discus in the state finale while Dickie Osborne and Bill Ferguson handle running chores for the Eagles.

The newly elected captains of the track team for the 1958 season are Martha Oberhausen and Bill Ferguson. For the Hinds High tennis teams, Donald Sheffield and Jo Ann Raye were given the honors.

In the South Mississippi track meet at Hattiesburg Friday, four Eagles were entered and made a fine 14 point showing. Brookhaven High captured team laurels in the A-AA bracket while Port Gibson outpointed Utica to win B-BB supremacy.

In the B-BB division, Port Gibson gained revenge over the Utica cinder crew for a hairline CAC loss last week, by scoring a 48-44 victory over the Golden Wave. The four Eagles in competition all captured points. Bill Ferguson streaked to victory in the 880 yard run. Donald Sheffield placed second in the discus throw, Dickie Osborne ran third in the low hurdles, and Robert Moody placed fourth in the mile run.

The three Eagle stars will be ready to pour on the coal for an all-out effort in a field of the best Friday.

CONQUERER AND COACH—Hinds High's Bill Ferguson and Coach Louis (Skin) Boteler were all smiles after Ferguson's 880 yard run victory at the South Mississippi track meet in 2:14.5. Bill now moves into the state Class B-BB finals Friday at Clinton.

12 Cinder Squads Await Opening Gun; Eagles Head Group Of Darkhorses

Twelve teams of junior collegiate track stars are awaiting the opening gun that will send them charging down the cinder paths of Hinds Junior College in quest of the state Junior College trophy this Saturday.

Northwest, Sunflower, Jones, East Mississippi, East Central, Holmes, Itawamba, Southwest, Perkinston, Copiah-Lincoln, Meridian, and Hinds will be represented when the affair gets underway at 7:00 Saturday. The field events will begin at this time.

A half-hour after the fieldmen hit the turf, the runners will take over. Trials will have been held during the afternoon.

Frank Young, Hinds' head track coach, and Joe Renfroe, athletic director, have arranged that all of the field events be located in front of the stands. And, barring rain, the track is expected to be in top condition.

Reports from over the state say the Sunflower Trojans, defending

NIX'S SCRAPIN'

Lamont Echols Top College Prospect

By CURTIS NIX

Hinds' Lamont Echols, a top senior college diamond prospect, is currently pacing the Eagle baseball squad. Echols, a returnee from last year's team who wound up with a batting average of .400, is definitely "hot stuff".

A gifted right-hander with a blazing fast ball, Lamont displays all the coolness of a pro while turning in his chores from the mound. When he is not hurling, he displays his shining wares in the outfield.

The Eagles now maintain a 6-2 record, with both losses being at the hands of the Perkinston nine by identical scores of 3-0. Echols looked tremendous in both games. In the second he tossed a nifty two-hitter but absorbed the loss by means of three unearned runs. In the other, Lamont held the Perkinston bunch scoreless for nine innings, and at this point relief pitcher Benton Alliston took over. Alliston took the loss.

In a recent home game with Pearl River, Hinds went into the last frame behind 6-5. Echols promptly knotted the count at 6-apiece with a home run. Moments later Carol King, pinch-running for Malcolm Carlisle, slid home with the winning run.

Performances like this have made Lamont "top man on the totem pole". Scrappin's would like to congratulate him and wish for him the best of luck in the future.

The sound of "ooooohhs", "aaaaahhs and "yeas!", the sound of the starting gun, and the sound of cleats against cinders all will ring out loud and clear Saturday.

Twelve junior colleges from over champs, and the Co-Lin Wolves loom as the forerunners for this year's crown. Southwest and Hinds head the list of darkhorses. Hinds has lost a two-point squeaker to Sunflower, and Co-Lin has taken Southwest once.

B. L. Hill, State Junior College supervisor, will be on hand to present ribbons to individual winners and trophies to team winners and winning relay teams.

All events, including relays, will be scored 5-4-3-2-1.

the state assemble for the State track meet at Hinds; the action will be fast and competition terrific.

As the Eagles take part, they will be without the services of three star performers: Ernest Turcotte, Ronnie Carroll, and Melvin Champagne. Turcotte was the Eagles' sprint man who tied the state record last season! Carroll was a triple winner at the state meet last year, winning the shot put, discus, and javelin; Champagne was the state high jump champ and also placed in the broad jump.

Track coach Frank Young states that "we have more all-around team balance than last year's team, but some of the individual spots aren't quite as strong."

Ernest Turcotte, who now is in bed with the measles, is running for the University of Alabama. His best time thus far for the hundred yard dash is 9.6 seconds.

Godley, Gates And McKay Garner Top Badminton Honors

The Women's Athletic Association badminton tournament ended last week with Regina Godley, Mary Katherine Gates, and Iris McKay taking the top honors.

Godley won the singles title, while Gates and McKay teamed up for the doubles honors.

Faye Rollins was in second place in singles and Florence Hearn and Regina Godley took the second place honors in the doubles division.

This is the second year for Mary Katherine Gates and Regina Godley to win a place in the tournament. Last year Regina Godley won in singles and teamed up with Mary Katherine Gates to place second in doubles.

Local Publication Takes First Class Rating Nationally

The Hindsonian has taken first class standing in the Associated College Press rating of Junior College newspapers over the country.

The news release of the judges from Minneapolis Minn. reached the campus Friday, together with critical analysis and guidebook.

ACP critic judges included Gareth D. Hiebert, columnist of the St. Paul Dispatch; Duane Andrews, public relations staff, Minneapolis Honeywell; Mrs. Peter Pafiolis, former editor of the College Reporter, Mankato (Minn.) State College; and Dick Kobak, assistant to the editor, Minneapolis Sunday Tribune.

Judging was based on the study of copies of each issue of the college paper published in the first semester.

"Excellent" ratings were given to the Hindsonian for printing, typography, headlines, schedules, editorial page make-up, front page, sports writing, sports coverage, style, and news stories.

"Very good" was given for pictures, headlines, inside news pages, sports display, masthead, copy reading, leads, news sources, and balance.

Editorial page features, editorials, speech and interview stories, and vitality were rated "good".

ACP noted that scores in this critical service are much higher than in previous periods for the nation's junior college newspapers.

Jeannine McGuire Presents Sophomore Piano Recital

Jeannine McGuire, sophomore from McComb, and piano student of Mrs. Marlene Combs, gave her piano recital Monday afternoon of this week in the music auditorium.

Two Campus Girls Attend Convention Of State's YWCA

Judy Day and Polly Harrington attended the state YWCA-YMCA officers conference held at the Mississippi State YWCA building this past weekend.

The purpose of the meeting was to evaluate past conferences and to plan next year's plans.

Some of the items discussed were, meeting-place, time, speakers, and leaders; methods of publicity, raising funds, etc.

The group dismissed with plans for another meeting of state officers scheduled for October 3, 4, 1958.

Jane Noble Named FBLA President On College Campus

Jane Noble of Vicksburg has been elected to lead the FBLA on the campus for the 1958-59 session. Evelyn Sorrells, Pattison, is the new vice president.

Other officers elected by the group of business leaders are Lanelle McDonald, Terry, secretary; Linda Jones, Vicksburg, treasurer; and Robert Ervin, Jackson reporter.

Mrs. Maybelle Furness and Mrs. Neva Spraberry of the business education department are faculty sponsors of FBLA.

COLLEGE Y-TEENS ENJOY SOCIAL AT LOCAL LODGE

Celebrating their last meeting for the year the Y-Teens will have a pallet party at the Lodge on Raymond Lake, the night of Friday, May 16.

Nancy Chapman, general chairman of the event, will be assisted by Lou Ann Carter, reports Mrs. Jack Combs of the Music Department, faculty sponsor of the Y-Teens.

Hinds Commencement To Be Held Friday, May 23

Hinds Junior College will hold its fortieth annual commencement exercises on Sunday, May 18, at

Preliminary Plans Revealed For New Girls' Gymnasium

Plans for the new physical education plant for girls are rapidly nearing completion, according to President G. M. McLendon.

The actual floor space of the building itself will be 15,000 square feet, an area somewhat larger than that of the new science building. Adjacent to the structure, courts for a variety of games in the girls' program are planned. A space is reserved nearby for a college swimming pool visualized for later development of the building program.

In addition to the gymnasium proper, the new building will contain classrooms, laboratories for corrective exercises and physiotherapy, dressing rooms, a dance studio, and instructors' offices.

A colorful pictorial drawing by the architect, Jay T. Liddle, Jr., of the new building may be seen on the official bulletin board in the college administration building.

Atomic Scientist Speaks As College Dedicates Building

Dr. Nathan Scott Hall, Oak Ridge scientist, topped off a day-long celebration by speaking before several hundred guests and students at 8:00 p.m. as Hinds Junior College dedicated its quarter-million dollar science hall last Thursday.

From 2 to 8 p.m., tours of the new structure were held. At 6:30, a banquet to which official guests were invited was held in the school cafeteria.

The building, which has been described as one of the South's finest, accommodates within its walls several lecture rooms, a number of laboratories and separate offices for the individual professors.

Circle K Erects Signs To Identify College's Campus

Two signs identifying the campus of Hinds Junior College were recently erected by the local Circle K club.

The signs, standing at the east entrance to the campus and near the circle of faculty homes, represent the project for this year's Circle K organization.

The club is slated to meet next Thursday in the private dining hall.

11:00 a.m. and Friday, May 23, at 10:30 a.m.

Participation in these exercises is necessary for graduates to receive diplomas and to be eligible for exemptions from examinations.

Exemption privileges will be granted those students actually graduating provided they have not averaged below a "B" in this semester.

For graduation girls will wear, in addition to the cap and gown, white dresses and dark shoes (navy or black). Boys will wear dark trousers, white dress shirts, dark ties, and dark shoes with the cap and gown.

The first practice for the commencement processional is scheduled for Monday, May 12, at activity period.

Faculty Members Report On Trip, Set Spring Fete

A social meeting, a picnic supper at the Lodge at Raymond Lake, will engage the attention of the faculty club men and women and members of their families tomorrow afternoon.

A study of departments with written report resumes, an oral report by Miss Bell Lindsey of the English department on the national conference of teachers of college composition which she and Mrs. Harris attended in Philadelphia recently, a review of some recent moves in the Mississippi Legislature, and a report of the building plans of the new physical education building for girls, on the college campus were some of the topics discussed at today's regular meeting of the college faculty. President G. M. McLendon presided.

Ole Miss Profs To Visit Local Campus Thursday Eve

Dr. Howard Furr, professor of civil engineering at the University of Mississippi, and Dr. MacDonald of the mechanical engineering department will visit Hinds tomorrow afternoon.

The purpose of this visit is to acquaint students and others who are interested with the courses and curricula open to prospective engineers at the University.

The visitors will be in the college conference room at 3 p.m. tomorrow, Thursday, according to Miss Lurline Stewart, head of the mathematics department.

Annual Staff Dedicates '58 Edition To Mrs. Emma Fancher Beemon On Campus

At five forty-five Monday night, students received the yearbooks they had been waiting for so patiently.

Defeat Gives Stimulus To Progress

"Must we go and empty-handed?"

For the first time in several years, the Hindsonian has failed to take best-in-state honors. We have returned from the Mississippi Junior College Press Association conference heavy with the knowledge that there is a better junior college newspaper than ours in the state — the Tom Tom, East Central's fine publication.

We are left excuseless; the fact that two out of the three judges gave us first place does not alter the situation; the fact that this year's Hindsonian ran up a higher point total than either of the two previous winning versions still helps little, for we have found that consolation is a pillow that, very quickly and without warning, evaporates, exposing the hard surface of reality to our tender heads.

But out of the dejection and defeat has come a force that may in time conquer both. Defeat has served only as a stimulus for growth, only as an encouragement for progress.

We make this pledge to our readers:

The primary aim of each and every Hindsonian staff member in regard to this publication will be, now as in the future, to cover Hinds' campus in the best manner possible. The editorial policy will be directed in the direction of bettering Hinds Junior College, and will, at all times, be bounded by the barriers of truth and accuracy.

It is our fervent hope that this dedication has always been followed, but now our desire has become to make sure, to do an even better job.

Such is the force of defeat, criticism, and ambition.

Schools Schedule Scant Languages

Can modern Americans be swinging slowly away from the basic ideals in education that have made for international good will in the past?

It seems hardly believable, but during the past fifty years — the same half-century in which America supposedly came out of her shell and met the world — the high schools of our nation have taught less and less foreign language courses. The very foundation on which understanding is based has been undermined.

In 1900, more than half the scholars in our high schools were studying Latin, the language that much of the world has used for a block on which to build their different tongues; today only 6.9% are taking in this classic speech. The 1958 figures for French and Spanish show only 5.6 and 7.3 percentages respectively. The other important languages carried by U. S. high schools—Greek, Chinese, Swedish, German, Russian, Portuguese, Norwegian, Polish, Hebrew, and Italian — garner even smaller numerals, much smaller numerals to be exact.

Only 44.6 per cent of all American high schools even offer foreign languages.

Maybe our modern high-school curricula need overhauling in every respect. Courses that are either useless or of doubtful value to the student should be eliminated entirely or limited in their abundance. A maximum of two credits in such courses should be all that may be counted toward a diploma.

Then, and only then, will our American educational system be back on the right track.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Singing Girl Lauded As Personality Of Week In Paper's Honor Position

By JOANNE CARPENTER

"Sing girl sing, sing all your blues away."

Some people read when they get blue. Others may buy a new dress, hat, or something of the sort to soothe their feelings. This week's honored sophomore has her own unique way of forgetting the blues, getting happy, and bursting into song.

Anyone who has heard Sophomore of the Week, Jimmie Hawkins, sing can realize the full truth in these words. This 5' 10" girl from Bruce has practically sung her way through her nineteen years of life.

In her early home life she sang with her two older brothers, who with her mother and daddy make up her family.

As Jimmie became older her interest grew, but she continued to sing. In high school at Bruce, Jimmie was in the glee club and ensemble for four years.

Just a few years later she began to sing with her five little nephews, who she says are her favorite people (along with her

Feminine Colleges Here To Remain

By CAROLYN BARTON

Women's colleges on the way out? Associated Collegiate Press review of college editorials tells us that statisticians predict that they'll at least be well on the way out by 1983. They predict that the U.S. is in store for a face-lifting and women's colleges may get wiped away with the wrinkles.

CAROLYN The Rev. Gerald Desmond, sociology teacher at St. Martin's college in Olympia, thinks they're looking through the wrong end of the telescope. "Women's colleges will increase," he says.

"People are becoming more and more conscious of social behavior all the time," he said. "They're looking to college women to put their best foot forward and take roommate).

Then—you guessed it—she started to sing at Hinds. Jimmie, who thinks Hinds is "the greatest" was in the choir and ensemble as a freshman last year. Jimmie enjoyed this, but of course, this wasn't enough singing to keep her happy. This year she teamed up with Gay Moon and Myrna Loy Stewart in the well-known trio "The Belles."

The blue-grey-green (take your pick) eyed girl tells anyone and everyone that her favorite pastime is singing with the Belles. Her favorite food is anything fattening and about boys she said: "Well, uh, I like, tall boys, short boys, fat boys, skinny boys, medium size boys, rich boys, poor boys, and this could go on forever."

Don't get the idea that all Jimmie does is sing! This versatile girl graduated as valedictorian of her class. She was a class officer three years, manager of the high school annual, and in the band for four years.

Some of her extra-curriculum here at Hinds include band, annual staff, YWCA, officer in Wesley, council member of WAA (in which she lettered), Hi-Steppers, FBLA, and Grillology (freshman year — no time sophomore year for this course and so she dropped it).

Everyone has a pet peeve. Jimmie says the chemise dress is hers.

Jimmie, who likes anything from rock and roll to classical music, intends to continue her work in music education at Mississippi Southern. We are sure that Southern will know soon how much they have gained and we have lost.

Always keep that happy song on your lips and your eyes upon God, Jimmie, and the most will be yours in the future as it has in the past. Thank you for sharing your song with us for the past two years. May God bless and keep you is our prayer.

the lead in setting a pattern. They expect a college woman to know what to do when."

College women won't have to worry about getting the MRS in the future either. There will still be one million more men than women between 20 and 24 in the 1980's.

As a female the most interesting remark, to this columnist, that Father Desmond made was, "You will never know how insecure men are in this modern world. They don't want to compete with the women any more than the women want to compete with them."

At any rate, women won't have to compete with men for jobs in the future. While the population goes up 20 per cent, the number of working people will climb only five per cent. There won't be any need to fight it out in the classroom with the already insecure male.

Scribe Selects "Y'all Come" As Colleges' Theme

By BUDDY CALHOUN

We would just like to take time to say that we have enjoyed visiting many junior college campuses this year. Especially enjoyable were the visits to East Central for the BSU Retreat, and to Northwest Junior College for the Press Conference. Every junior college we chanced to visit seemed to have "Y'all Come" as its theme song!

Tuesday, May 6, the Ensemble ventured over to Vicksburg to perform at Tuminello's Kitchen for the Warren County Teachers Meeting. Mrs. Leslie Reeves directed the singers, and Mrs. Jo Ann Rhodes accompanied them at the organ.

This afternoon, a recital which started at 4 p.m. featured the following people: Jimmy Holder, Charles Craft, Edgar Bates, Mary Tolar, Myrtie Moore, Jimmie Sheppard, and Jimmy Ruth Hawkins.

Tom-Tom Garners Best Paper Award In Press Meeting

The Tom-Tom, East Central Junior College's bi-weekly publication, took top honors during the two-day Mississippi Junior College Press Association conference held last week-end at Senatobia.

The Tom-Tom garnered 2665 points and was followed closely by the Hindsonian with 2640.

Bennett Easterling, freshman from Jones, was elected president of the association. Wade Austin Holmes, took the vice-presidential post, while Fred Allen Barfoot, East Central, received the association's nod for the position of secretary-treasurer.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Fair Weather Brings Flood Relief

By JOANNE CARPENTER

Navy officials have announced that the U. S. will soon be getting official weather reports from a satellite which the Navy intends to launch into space. The satellite will be equipped to send back weather reports.

* * *

No one needed a satellite in order to realize that Jackson and surrounding area had some rough weather this week-end. Bridges were washed out streets were flooded, and many people had to leave their homes. Weathermen say that the next two or three days should be fair. This may relieve the flood problem to a degree.

PORT GIBSON GIRL TAKES PART IN ART AT ALLISON WELLS

Linnie Parman, art student and freshman from Port Gibson, participated last week in the Art Workshop now in session at Allison's Art Colony.

Linnie, a one-semester art student, received commendations for her work from officials of the Memphis Academy of Art, and from the University of Mississippi.

Bobby Tickell, sophomore, continued his study at the workshop having won approbation by his art work in earlier periods at Allison Wells.

One of the guest artists the campus delegation enjoyed was from the Ford Motor Company. With 30 years experience he has been painting recently for the company pictures of the Natchez area, and earlier, famous European scenes.

Hinds Students Tell Own Future; Plan To Attend Eight Institutions

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

With graduation less than four weeks off, the students on the Hinds campus are busily making plans for the summer months and for the coming year. Some will continue their education and some will work.

Mississippi Southern College will receive Joyce Bethune, James Conerly, Billy Blocker, Terry Blackmon, Charles Wall, Margaret White, Petie Weems, and Sonny Wiman.

Students planning to attend Mississippi State College are Hal Battle, Pruitt Blalock, Ross Alman, Charles Causey, Herbert Wilkerson, James Coley, Bobby Burgess, W. C. Alderman, Ira and Ivey Burton, and John Ashley.

Eudene and Eugene Adcock and Shirley Bridges plan to attend Millsaps; Carol Jean Benton and Edgar Bates plan to attend Mississippi College.

Don Brady will enter Lamar Technological Institute of Technology, and Robert Woodman will enter the Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy.

Some students who are planning to work are Ruthe Campbell, Don Ray Boyd, Morris Ward Willis, James Armishaw, Nancy Carter, Leroy Anderson, Robert Abbey.

Edward Ward plans to attend Colorado School of Mines after working in Mobile for a chemical company. Charles Cain may be quoted as saying that he is going to work at the Jackson Coca-Cola Company and get married.

Forestry Service Offers Contest To Tree Farmers

C. B. Neal, Mississippi Forestry Commission Area Forester in Hinds County said today that the Sears Foundation 5-Acre Forestry Contest is underway in the County and encourages adult forest landowners to see him or other agricultural workers for information on entering the contest.

Neal said, "the landowners cannot lose because the rules call for the selection and improvement of five acres of his own timber land so that it will return a higher income."

The improvement of this 5-acre plot furnishes a test area for the landowner to try various treatments of his own selection on his forest stand. This furnishes valuable first-hand information and will serve as a demonstration plot for him and his neighbors to observe and see if the same practice should be applied to the remainder of his timber holdings.

The future of Mississippi's economy depends, in large measure, upon the wood produced in our forests. Also the financial return on the individual ownership depends upon wood production. The more efficient and well-managed any stand is, the more income may be expected.

County winners will receive a 2-day expense-paid trip to Jackson where they will tour a wood-using plant, attend the Forest and Forest Products Parade, view crowning of State Queen of the Forest, be presented Certificates of Achievement, attend a Recognition Dinner in their honor and be guests at the annual meeting of Mississippi Forestry Association.

NIX'S SCRAPPIN'S

Hinds Teams Compile Top Records

As the curtain comes down on the 1957-58 school year, and as the spring sports come to a close, Scrappin's turns back the pages to review fortunes and misfortunes of various athletic aggregation.

Coaches Joe Renfroe, Frank Young, and Durwood Graham fielded one of the smallest football squads in the state junior college circuit and developed an offensive and defensive powerhouse. Blessed with perfect team balance, the team finished with a perfect 10-0 record, rolled up a whooping total of 318 points, and held their combined opponents to only 46, 32 of which came in the first game.

Levi Barber, Raymond Abruzzese, and C. J. Alexander wound up as high scorers for the team and also for the entire state. Barbara concocted 75 points, Abruzzese 72, and Alexander 66.

Top linemen were All-Americans Homer Boyd, Bennie Hawkins, Jimmy Stubbs, Wimpy Martin, and Glynn Russell.

In basketball, Coach Troy Ricks' troupers were eliminated in the state tournament, but finished with a respectable 13-9 record. Diminutive Johnny Gray was named to the coveted hall of the "all-staters."

Ricks' baseballers hung up a neat 7-2 mark and emerged as runner-up to the state champs. Lamont Echols stood out as the bright spot in the line-up by his hurling ability and his ability with the willow.

In track, Coach Young's cinder scouts captured top honors in the State JC Track Meet last weekend. In winning the championship, the Eagles scored at least a point in every field and track event.

The tennis team also fared well in the state tourney. Hinds' Regina Godley went to the finals in the girls' division.

The WAA had an exceptionally good year in every activity. Godley, Iris McKay, Phyllis Dungan, Polly Harrington, Dot Grimes, Florence Hearn, and Roxie Easley were standouts.

Yes, in conclusion we can say that athletics as a whole has enjoyed a very good year. Scrappin's would like to take this opportunity to congratulate everyone who took part.

Regina Godley Reaches Finals Of State Junior College Tennis Meet

By JAMES CLEVELAND

The Hinds Eagle tennis teams wrapped up their season's racket batting Saturday as hosts to the annual state tennis tournament.

The net festival ended in a four way deadlock for top honors.

Joe McAnulty of Perkinston won the boy's singles and Tommy Holden and Charles Heath of Pearl River placed first in the doubles events.

Regina Godley of Hinds carried the Eagle's prestige to the finals by downing Dot Sibley of Perkinston 6-4 and 6-0 in the girls' singles. Glenda Morgan of Meridian nipped Miss Godley in the championship bouts by identical 6-1 scores. Betty Ann Jordan and Charlene Keyes of Jones won the doubles title for the feminine set.

Other Eagles seeing action in the meet were Doug Barnes, who lost a stiff battle in the opener and Willard Bond and Bob Wallace who composed the boys doubles combo. Peggy Fugate and Nancy Pharr also saw action over the spring for the Eagles as well as Gerald Miles, Buddy Howard, Bill Thomas, Bobby Sheffield, and Kerrey Irwin.

The Eagles split eight decisions in match play, with twin killings of East Central and Southwest and a pair of losses to Perkinston and Pearl River.

The State Tennis Tournament Scoreboard:

BOYS SINGLES

First Round — Chester Dickey (SW) over Doug Barnes (H) 6-4; 6-3.

Eddie Robleto (J) over Fred Shelton (EC) 1-6; 6-3; 6-2.

Bill Marnett (P) over Charles Henson (Mer.) 6-3; 3-6; 6-4.

Semi-Finals — Joe McAnulty (P) over Dickey (SW) 6-0; 6-1.

Barnett (PR) over Robleto (J) 6-0; 6-1.

Championship — McAnulty (P) over Barnett (PR) 6-3; 7-5.

Hinds Takes Upset Track Victory In State Classic

Hinds Junior College's powerful Eagle tracksters roared out of oblivion here last Saturday night to upset favored Sunflower and take a surprisingly easy victory in the state junior college track meet.

The Eagles rolled up 48½ points to outdistance their closest rivals, Holmes and Sunflower, who each finished more than 12 points back. Sunflower won the previous year.

Lamar Gates, Ronnie Melacon, and Ed Hendry took top positions for the Birds in the individual events, while the mile relay team also brought home the bacon for Coach Frank Young.

Other teams finished in the order: Co-Lin, Jones, Meridian, Southwest, Northwest, and Perkinston.

COACH FRANK YOUNG

HINDS JUNIOR COLLEGE'S new physical education plant, slated for construction sometime in the near future, will offer every advantage to the college women's physical ed classes. Not only will the building contain a gymnasium, but space for a variety of games is to be provided, and, at a later date, a swimming pool will be added adjacent to the structure. Other facilities will include classrooms, laboratories for corrective exercises and physio-therapy, dressing rooms, a choreography studio, and instructors' offices.

Successful Year Closes For College

It's all over.

The year that we once scanned with such relish, that we experienced with such great happiness, that we now recall so fondly has now flown forever on the wings of time. It can never return, but it is not entirely lost, for it has been spent profitably—it has been impressed deeply in the hearts of all that have lived it.

It has been a year of progress for Hinds Junior College. Our football and track teams won the state championships in their respective fields; our basketball, baseball, and tennis teams, while not taking the title of Mississippi's best, still turned in very creditable performances. Our choir, our speech students, our future chemists, and our dramatists have all gone forth and won acclaim for the school. It is our duty to issue a grateful thank you not only to the participants in all these activities, but to everyone that helped make this a successful year at Hinds.

And everyone means each one who has come from the outside to aid our institution in any way. To all the people that supported our athletic teams, to every person who participated in an assembly program, and to the many hundreds who attended the dedication of our new science building, we express a sincere feeling of appreciation.

Our thanks go out also to the members of the Hindsonian staff, whose loyalty and cooperation made it possible to print the weekly periodical. Without the tireless help of our sponsors, we would never have made the year. Deprived of the sympathetic facilities and fun-filled grumblings of the men who print the paper—Mr. Tom, Mr. Billy, and Mr. James Keith—we could never have made one issue. To all of these we echo the words of thanks said so many times in years gone by.

Mr. McLendon, our president, Miss Herrin, our registrar, and all our other news sources deserve our most heartfelt thanks.

And, of course, our thanks go to you, the people who read our columns of print, the people who created the news.

Thank you, and farewell.

Graduates Shoulder Responsibilities

When the last sophomore, the last senior, takes his diploma from Hinds Junior College next Friday, a new group of citizens will become circulant in the world of reality. They will take with them the training that the best of facilities has to offer.

All these graduates share a great burden—the burden of upholding our nation's security, the burden of living together in a compact world beset by woes and tensions. They will be expected to add to neither, but, instead, to dilute the twin forces of evil by bringing happiness and harmony at all possible turns.

The world that they will be striving in will not be the world as we know it—it will be a world in which each person has to be dealt with in a way that will do the least to antagonize him. A world in which peace must prevail.

We know that a Hinds trained student has received only the best, and therefore, will give only the best—to his school, to his life, and to his native land.

Guitar Pickin' Honor Scholar Gets Hindsonian's Weekly Top Position

By BARBARA CLIFFORD

If you ever happen to be passing the address of 1652 Kentwood Drive in Jackson, you may hear a faint sound like someone strumming on a guitar. Chances are, that "someone" is Claude Johnny Roberts, one of Hinds' most versatile sophomores, for "guitar picking" is his hobby.

This 5' 9" mechanical engineering major is a native of Utica, where he was born, on February 7, 1934.

He has dark brown hair and very expressive brown eyes, and he is certainly an honor student as is emphasized by his being chosen class speaker for the graduating exercises of this year's sophomores.

"Hinds should be a senior college!" remarks Mr. Roberts, who has attended Hinds for the past two years, and is now president of the Engineering Club and a member of the Phi Theta Kappa.

As stated above, Claude's hobby is picking the guitar, which enables him to play as well as listen to his favorite music—hillbilly.

Claude likes to spend his spare time either sleeping, fishing, or eating his favorite foods—pizza (without mushrooms) and French fried potatoes. Since girls weren't mentioned in his favorite pastimes, we asked Mr. Roberts what he thought about girls. His reply—"You will have to ask my son this question!"

Though his plans for the future are indefinite, Claude plans to attend Mississippi State University after leaving Hinds.

Best wishes, Claude Roberts, from the Hindsonian staff, for a happy future and continued success.

Poet's Corner

IF YOU CAN DREAM

I dreamed I rode a shooting star to a world so far away,
And all the blackness of the night was suddenly turned to day.
The beautiful brightness of this land was a sight to behold,
And as I stepped from my star, I found a pot of gold.
As I gazed o'er my world where no man had ever trod,
I thought to myself, "It surely was made by the wonderful hand of God."
A little word called future drifted close by where I stood.
"Ever thought of me?" it asked.
"If not, you know you should."
As it faded from my eyes like gently sifting dust,
Thousands of Little Opportunities asked, "What will you do with us?"

To find opportunities, we need not ride a shooting star to another world;
For before us every passing day,
opportunities do unfurl.
As you take your place in this world, for a goal you must aim.
And if you dream and push enough, you'll surely win the game.
As you face each opportunity as each day passes by,
Make the very best of them; you can't unless you try.
So, remember as you pass through Life's Open Door,
You're everything you dream you are and maybe even more.

HINDS JUNIOR SAYS:

Of all the corny tired remarks,
We've made within the year,
This is the one we wish we could Get out without a tear;
For now we know when next we peep,
From back our paper wall,
The faces that we've come to love,
Will not be there at all;
The Sophomores that we know so well
And we can call our friends,
Will not be seen, cannot be found,
Will ne'er be there again;
But, some day though, they may return,
To visit for a while;
They need not fear, we will be here,
To greet them with a smile.

WAA Tennis Meet Slated To Go Into Last Round Soon

The Women's Athletic Association tennis tournament goes into the final rounds this week.

In the advanced tournament Regina Godley and Mary Kathryn Gates battle it out for the championship. Both girls were runners-up in the state tournament; Gates was the runner-up last year and Godley this year.

LENDI HERRINGTON, Hinds High Senior, will give the speech as class representative Friday morning May 23 at the final graduating exercises.

Friday Breakfast Compliments Local YWCA Officials

Breakfast Friday in the private dining room complimenting the retiring officers and cabinet members of the YWCA marked the final meeting of the officer group for the current session.

Invited guests were sophomores: Regina Godley, Virginia Ronken, Florence Hearn, Roxie Easley, Alma Lee Grantham, Jimmy Sheppard, Smarrott McClurg, Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Naomi Herrin, and the faculty sponsor, Miss Gertrude Davis.

In-coming cabinet members who have assumed duties for the new year and who were hostesses Friday are Mary Tolar, Polly Harrington, Joanne Carpenter, Myrtie Moore, Judy Day, Jan Geddie, Rebecca Murphy, Nancy Pharr, Donna Musil, Barbara Speight, and Linnie Parman.

The breakfast devotional was led by Myrtie Moore. A table game was directed by Nancy Pharr. Appreciation was expressed to outgoing members by Mary Tolar, and Miss Gertrude Davis.

Gifts of the official emblem, the YWCA blue triangle pin, were presented to the sophomore guests. Regina Godley gave the response.

Millions Hunt For Four-Leaf Clovers In Many Kinds Of Greenery Around World

By BUDDY CALHOUN

Every year about this time, there is a mad rush to the lawns of the world. Why? Because there may be a chance of finding a 4-leaf clover in the millions of the three leaf variety of greenery found around the world.

Just a few years ago, some singer was made rich by singing "I'm looking over a Four Leaf Clover." This fact may or may not prove the age old superstition that a four leaf clover brings its finder good luck.

One story of how the legend of the four leaf clover originated is this: Once, in Ireland, a poor soul type of Irishman was walking through a glen. This Irishman was feeling sorry for himself for he had just gambled away his last bit of money.

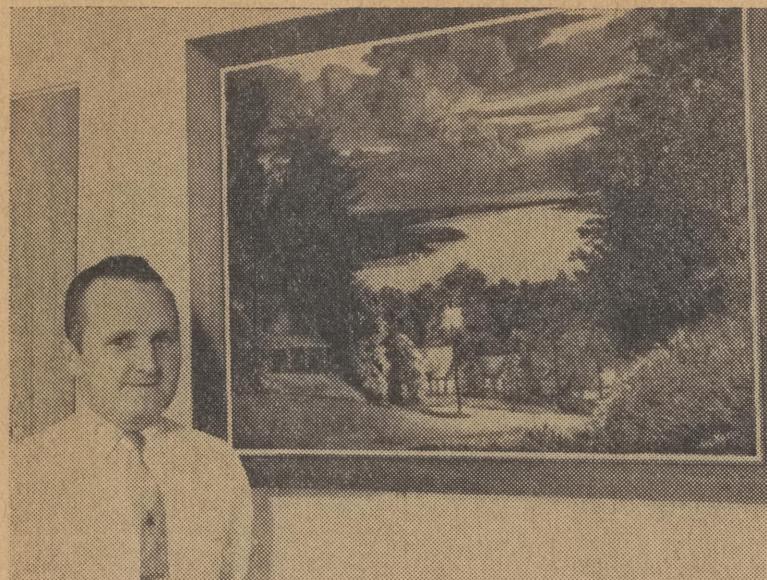

By luck, the Irishman stumbled upon a band of wee people or leprechauns, and before the wee people could disappear the man had captured one. The leprechaun pleaded to the man to turn him loose, but the Irishman would not.

Then, the king of the leprechauns approached the man and said "I'll give ye the best of luck in exchange for me friend." The Irishman thought it over and turned the leprechaun loose, whereupon, the king gave the man a four leaf shamrock as a symbol of the luck he would have all through life.

The above story sounds a little fishy to us, but it is fun to find a four leaf clover, even if it does not bring good luck. On the other hand, the story might be true, but we don't think four leaf clovers are lucky unless they happen to be growing on top of a pirate's treasure!

GRASSES AND LASSIES—Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, Jimmie Sheppard, and Myrna Loy Stuart may be deeply engrossed in searching for four leaf clovers in this scene, but their major interest seems to lie in other fields directly to their left where JoGene Hand and Cecil Boyd are doing some searching themselves.

ANY WORK OF ART turned out by a Hinds Junior College art student is bound to be good, but the ones produced by Vicksburg art scholar Bobby Tickell must be called excellent. Here Bob is shown with a street scene that he painted in his native city.

Writer Reviews Year's Events

By BUDDY CALHOUN

The musical activities of Hinds Junior College draw to a close next Monday when the Hi-Steppers and band parade for the Jackson Pops Concert.

* * *

Monday, May 12, the music department presented a recital of young musicians playing their own compositions. Those taking part in this recital were: Myrtie Moore, Irvita Kelley, Margarita Morris, John Weems, Sidney Comfort, Billie Jean Bridges, Patsy Wade, Nancy Turnage, and Carol Jean Benton.

* * *

Last night the last recital of the year was presented by Virginia Lee, organist; Carol Jean Benton, Mezzo-Soprano; Sue Ann Boozer, pianist; Jo Ann Rhodes, Mezzo-Soprano; Barbara Speight, organist; and Carol Jean Benton. Bettye Denton accompanied Mrs. Rhodes and Mrs. Benton.

* * *

We'd like to take time now to recount some bits of nostalgia from previous editions of this column.

Some of the more important events this year were: the band and Hi-Steppers trip to the Gator Bowl, Miss Pennel and Miss McCord's duo recital; Mr. Rowan's honor winning Raymond High School Band; the many voice, organ, and piano recitals; the Lendon Players' two productions; Mrs. Bee and Hi-Steppers featured in news articles; the Choir's many trips, especially the New Orleans venture; Mrs. Reeves solos for various church groups; Mrs. Combs' studio recitals.

Mr. Reeves' presentation of chapel programs; the vocalizing of the Belles; and many outstanding performances by students like Myrtie Moore, Myrna Loy Stuart, Jimmie Hawkins, Mary Carolyn Hart, Bob Bloodworth, Edgar Bates, Nancy Turnage; Clyde Pitts, and Jim Morris, Petie Weems and the dance bands.

It has been a pleasure for us to perform with the band and Hi-Steppers this year. We think a word of praise is due Delores Stevenson and Maureen Eichelberger, twirlers, with whom we performed. We think Delores and Maureen performed splendidly at every show (and twirling is work—hard work—take my word for it!).

We hope that you have enjoyed this weekly bit of divertissement as much as we have enjoyed being here and writing it for you. Personally, we think that the students at Hinds are just the greatest—they are one of the most appreciative audiences I have ever had the honor of performing for. And, performers judge the personality of a group of people on how they rank as an audience.

"May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You, Till We Meet Again."

ENGLISH IN ACTION—Mrs. J. R. Harris, head of the English Department, with one of the 16 sections of freshman English, around the conference table discusses term papers due this week. Freshman term papers satisfying the requirements of chemistry as well as English, are written under the direction of the English department and are sponsored by both departments.

Two other girls will be elected by next year's freshman class.

Hamrick, Gay Moon, Charles Murphy, Lamar Knight, and Gustav Kuhnert.

Millsaps: Dorothy Davis, Virginia Ronken, Paul Walker, and Jeanine McGuire.

Roxie Easley and Constance Newman will attend Delta State while Regina Godley and Margarita Morris will study at M.S.C.W. Loyola University of New Orleans will claim Ray Terry; and William Thomas plans to enter L.S.U.

Two other Hinds lassies are expected to attend Mary Hardin Baylor College in Texas.

Those expected to begin work are Malcolm Dove, Carolyn Evans, Shirley Ferguson, Marilyn Phillips, Dot Pickett, Barbara Pope Graham, Sarah Selman, Sylvia Smith, Anna Summers, Carlos Vega Soto, Florence Hearn, Jon Irwin, Zula Harris, James McNair, Katherine May, and Lillie Meadows.

Those still undecided on their future plans include Glen Dowe, Sammy Fairchild, William Fort, Catherine Owen, Gerald Pabst, William Ray, Charles Hilton, Don Johns, Alma Lee Grantham, Johnny Gray, Raiford Hancock, Carl Harris, Tommy Lynch, and Lee Martin.

Doris Toles plans to work as an air-line hostess and Peggy Fugate will marry a prominent sophomore gentleman mentioned last week. Phillip Simpson and John Robinson will join Uncle Sam's Navy and Willard Shannon will be in some branch of the armed services.

It has been a very pleasant and memorable school year at Hinds.

Hinds School Year Filled With Many Varied Activities

By MARILYN PHILLIPS

One of the first major events of the 1957-58 school year was Religious Emphasis Week, September 30-October 3. Rev. David H. McKeithen, pastor of the Poplar Springs Methodist Church of Meridian was our speaker for the services.

In the sophomore class elections in November, Ray Tomlinson was elected president; Lamar Knight, vice-president; Doris Toles, treasurer; and Jimmie Sheppard, secretary.

Freshman Day in October was very entertaining, especially to the sophomores. The freshmen probably don't have the same opinion as the sophomores, however.

October 26, 1957, was the date of the Hinds Junior College Homecoming. At the halftime of a very lively football game between Hinds and Holmes, Margarita Morris of Yazoo City was crowned homecoming queen. Members of her court were Nancy Carter, Raymond, and Doris Toles, Jackson, sophomore maids, and Flora May, Pearl, and Donna Musil, Vicksburg, freshman maids. Escorts were Hand Anglade, Rose Alman, Lamar Knight, Don Willis, and Charles Wall.

Wayne Trotter, Byram, was named editor-in-chief of the Hindsonian during the same week in October that freshman class officers were elected.

Bobby Sheffield, Raymond, was elected president of the freshman class; M. J. Harrison, Forest Hill, was elected vice-president; Mary Tolar, Sandy Hook, was elected secretary; and Pat Sanford, Jackson, was elected treasurer.

On Thursday evening, October 24, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. McLendon honored the sophomores with a reception which is held annually.

The Penny Fair was held on October 31. Alford Wofford Williams, Jr. of the vocational-technical school, and Shirley Ferguson, college sophomore from Bruce, reigned as king and queen of the Fair. Other members of the carnival court were Sarah Selma and Jack Manor, sophomore representatives; Sara Webb and Melvin Champagne, freshman candidates; and Betty Jo Clement and Donald Sheffield, high school seniors.

During the Who's Who election in December, Ray Tomlinson was elected Mr. Hinds Junior College and Florence Hearn was elected Miss Hinds Junior College. The other titles were well distributed among other college students.

The Christmas Ball climaxed the pre-holiday season.

The Gator Bowl trip, exams, and Play Day were some of the more important events of January.

With the beginning of May came the dedication of the new ultra-modern science building and the arrival of the Eagle. This Sunday will be Commencement Sunday for college sophomores and for the last senior class to graduate from Hinds High School.

Lendon Players To Present Awards At Final Drama Gathering Thursday

The meeting of the Lendon Players on Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. will culminate the year's activities.

At this, the last of the regularly scheduled meetings, awards in the form of pins will be given to deserving members. These pins will bear the replica of the drama masks, the trade mark of drama. The drama masks emblem is said to be the oldest known of any trade or profession, dating back to the early Greeks and Romans.

To be entitled to such an honor from this organization, a student must contribute a minimum of fifteen hours to each play produced during the school year. Some students contribute as many as 115 hours on each play.

Members who will receive pins are Dee Greathouse, Margaret White, Larry Craft, Carolyn Barton, Jo Anne Adcock, Charles E.

becca Dawson, David Forney, Dan Hodge, Mildred Jean Kelly, David Mason, Katie Lee Houston, Robert Seawright, and Nancy Vance; from Edwards: John Armstrong, Alice Herin, Virginia Ann Owen, Lyn Pennebaker, Alice Rather, Robert Reynolds, Brannon Robbins, and Betty Thornton.

Jackson: Fayrene Andrews, Walter Bivins, Mary Jeanette Davis, John Gardner, Thomas Jones, Kenneth Myers and Martha Oberhausen; Alice Nell Eskridge, Sturgis; William Mitchell, New Orleans, La.; Wade Morrison, Utica; Ethel Rumbavage, Terry; Barbara Ann Smith, Learned; and George Brylie Thompson, III, Winnsboro, La.

Poet's Column

We salute Hinds alumni this week by dedicating the Poets' Column to the poem written by a student of earlier years.

GOODBYE

We leave thee, Hinds College,
Willingly—but yet with tears—
Some spot—throughout our busy later years
Some spot—I think—the corner of our heart
Is left for you.

We leave tonight.
The buildings loom sorrowfully in the twilight
Tomorrow they will be empty—
Later—unfamiliar faces will appear
New feet will tread the vacant halls—

We remember that last night
tears—
Years will our time be taken up with daily chores
But we will not forget you through our busy years.
Part of our heart was left behind—
Is yours.

MRS. GOOKIN DIRECTS*Women's Athletic Group Completes Another Successful Year At Hinds

By REGINA GODLEY

As plans for graduation are nearing completion, the last edition of the Hindsonian rolls off the press, and once again the Women's Athletic Association of Hinds closes its activities for another year.

As each tennis racket, basketball, volleyball, and badminton racket is stored, scenes of the past year flash back.

This self-supporting organization which is only two years old is under the direction of Mrs. Anne Gookin, girls' physical education instructor, and the WAA council.

The council for the past year was Iris McKay, president; Regina Godley, vice-president; Roxie Easley, treasurer; Florence Hearn, Virginia Ronken, and Jimmie Ruth Hawkins, sophomore representatives; and Phyllis Dungan, Polly Harrington, Thelma Huff, and Ann Taylor, freshman representatives. The association sponsored many girls' activities this year.

To begin the sports year the tennis tournament got underway last fall, but due to the wet weather it is nearing completion this spring. Mary Kathryn Gates and Godley are in the finals of the advanced tournament.

Four teams were in the basketball league with Hearn, Ann Boyd, Easley, and Godley serving as captains.

Godley's team took top honors this year having a record of five wins and only one defeat. The members of the champion team were forwards Faye Rollins, Docie Joyner, Reba Gail Pierce, Nancy Lee, Delores Ray, Dorothy Butler, and Gay Moon. Anna Summers, Ann Williams, Mary Carol Hart, Shirley Gardner, and Godley made up the defensive players.

An all star team was named from the players that participated in the league play and this team participated in several exhibition games, including a tournament at the "Y" in Jackson. Members of the team were forwards Nancy Pharr, Barbara Pope, Dungan, McKay, Peggy Fugate, Rollins, and Ray. The guards included Dott Grimes, Sharrott McClurg, Boyd, Hearn, Godley, Summers, and Selma Earnest.

Midway during the year awards were presented in chapel to girls who earned at least 50 to 100 points. The pin, the highest award of the WAA, was presented to Godley, receiving awards in basketball and council membership. Letters, for earning 50 points, were received by Hearn, council star and speedball, Ronken, Fugate, track and speedball, and Joyce Bethune.

HINDS FACULTY MEMBER VIES IN GOLF MEET

Mrs. Anne Gookin, girls' physical education director, entered the annual Mississippi Women's Amateur Gold Tournament held at Sun-kist Country Club, Biloxi, last week.

Out of 110 entries Gookin qualified with an 83 to tie for fourth place.

Sportsmanship awards were received by Hearn, Easley, Jean Gill, Dungan and Godley.

The basketball play day began the second semester activities. Nine schools were represented here on the campus including Perkinson, East Central, All Saints, Northeast, Mississippi College, Belhaven, Jones, Mississippi Southern, and Hinds. This was one of the biggest events undertaken by the association this year. There were nine teams with each person from every school on a different team.

Volleyball caught the attention of the WAA members. Three teams were in the league with Taylor, Harrington, and Ronken as captains. Ronken's team claimed the championship title. Members of the team were Dot Ann Pickett, Hearn, Marilyn Phillips, Lillie Meadows, Pharr, Virginia Vaughan, Fugate, Sidney Comfort, Barbara Chamblee, Godley, and Ronken.

Badminton was the next thing in line for the association. Godley and Rollins took first and second place honors respectively in singles and McKay and Gates took top honors in the doubles division, while Hearn and Godley were the runner-up.

A softball game between the girls dormitories proved to be exciting. Westside defeated arch-rival, Main, 8-3. Godley was given credit with the win, although Dungan assumed mound duties. Jimmie Sheppard hit a 3-run homer for the winners. Rollins was the losing pitcher.

The final activity on tap for the WAA was the archery tournament. Girls shot 10 rounds, which consisted of four ends in each round.

On April 30, the WAA presented awards to girls earning fifty or more points during their freshman and sophomore years. Receiving awards were McKay, Hearn, and McClurg who received the association pin for earning at least 100 points.

This is the highest award given a girl active in sports. Those receiving the letter for earning fifty points were sophomores Sheppard, Phillips, speedball and volleyball; Gates, tennis and badminton for two years; Summers, track and basketball; and Earnest, volleyball.

Freshman girls receiving their letter were Harrington, council star; Rollins, basketball and badminton; Joanne Carpenter, and Pharr, volleyball.

Individual awards were presented to Godley and Ronken, and special mention was given to Godley, sophomore, and Rollins, freshman, for receiving the most points.

The council for the new session next year is composed of Harrington, Joanne Carpenter, Nancy Pharr, and Faye Rollins.

Eagles Enjoy Excellent Season With Top Teams

The shouting is all over, but the sweet memories of athletic fame during the 1957-58 school year at Hinds Junior College will last forever.

Hinds Junior College, destined to show the nation that it is the junior college football capital of the world, has recorded one of the most successful athletic seasons in its 40-year history.

Superb teams in football, track, baseball, basketball, and tennis have made unusual marks in the college annals.

The 1958 football season looms in a little over three months, and Joe Renfroe is still king of the Mississippi Junior College gridiron arena.

Hinds' 1957-58 school year of athletic events in brief fact:

Football: Won state crown with 10-0 record, was scored on by only two teams, placed six players on all-state team, had seven players to participate in East-West All American Junior College game, and Renfroe and assistant coach Frank Young were selected to direct the East All Star team.

Track: Won state title, garnered top honors in three individual events, and won mile relay race.

Baseball: Completed season with 6-2 record, beaten by only one team, and finished in second place of south division.

Basketball: Concluded regular season with 13-9 mark, made strong showing in two tournaments and placed one player on all state team.

Tennis: Finished with 4-4 record and had girls singles candidates to reach finals in state tournament.

Renfroe and Young tutored the most feared football aggregation to ever ramble the grid fields of the conference. The Eagles won the state championship with flying colors by amassing 318 points to the opposition's 46.

Fullback C. J. Alexander, halfbacks Raymond Abruzzese and Levi Barber, guard Bennie Hawkins, center Glynn Russell, and end Homer Boyd received all state honors. Eagle stars in the East-West classic were Alexander, Russell, Hawkins, Boyd, guard Jimmy Stubbs, and tackle Wimpy Martin.

Young, cinder mentor, won his initial state track title in easy but thrilling fashion First place winners included Lamar Gates, shot put; Ronnie Melancon, 440-yard dash; Ed Hendry, 120-yard high hurdles; and mile relay team composed of Gerald Lee, Oliver Russell, Hendry, and Melancon.

Diamond forces at Hinds were directed by Troy Ricks. The only mar was by two identical 3-0 defeats by Perkinson. Lamont Echols, senior college mound prospect, paced the Eagle baseball attack.

Johnny Gray was selected on the all-state basketball squad to climax the cage season. Regina Godley led Bill Oakes' tennis team. Godley was defeated in the finals of the state tournament.

NIX'S SCRAPIN'*Scribe Praises Boteler's Season

By CURTIS NIX

As the 1957-58 school year comes to a "long-awaited-for-many-halt", as each goes his respective way, and as Scrappin's closes the curtains on an unforgettable, diamond-studded, gold-plated sports year we wish to take this, our last opportunity, to say "Thanks" to all you readers, the paper staff,

CURTIS Editor Wayne Trotter, and Mr. Irl Dean Rhodes for the cooperation and patience shown in putting up with us for the entire year.

We feel that this has been one of the most successful of all years at Hinds, and we are very proud to have been one of the bystanders. To all those who have been a part of HJC to make it a better place in which to be, we say "Thanks."

* * *

As Scrappin's finishes the year with this entry, we would like to pay tribute to a man who has meant much to students, faculty members, patrons, alumni, and supporters.

Called "Skin" by his friends, Coach Louis Boteler, truly deserves the top spot on everyone's list. Coach Boteler, who is finishing his seventh year here at Hinds, has written the concluding chapter in his seven-year high school coaching career.

This year has been a tremendous one for Boteler in football, basketball, and track. Though if you ask him, he'll tell you he had nothing to do with it. He'd tell you he just had the material to work with. We all know that to have a successful team a coach needs good material, but we all know too, that without a good coach, good material won't go far.

Blessed with more than his share of personality, friendliness, Coach Louie is always there to fill the gloom with laughter. His quick wit and his knowledge of the sports world make him the center of sports conversations, arguments, bull sessions, and the like.

Yes, this, the last of Boteler's Hinds High years, has definitely been the greatest. Undoubtedly its memories will remain for many years to come. In football, his successful gridironers stopped their arch-rivals, the Byram Bulldogs, 9-7 for the first time in the school's history; in basketball, both the boys and girls came out on the winning end, but the latter went all the way to the state tournament; and in track, Boteler had three entrants in the state meet.

To Scrappin's, Coach Boteler will always be remembered as the chubby little man, with a clipboard under his arm, wearing a baseball cap, and with the friendly "What 'cha say, buddy?"
